Changes in 'Booming Sixties' Are Faced By Extension Service

We hear about the "booming sixties" and we wonder what is in store. Boone County Extension realizes that this fast changing age represents the changing relationships, priorities, arrangements and ideas that appear new each day.

The Boone County Extension Council wants to keep in step with the rapid changes. Since the County Extension program is under the direction of the council, members are studying the changing scene in agriculture and home economics. They want a program that will meet the needs of the people during these rapid changes.

The council met at the Extension office, December 17 and studied the areas of program emphasis for this county. These were:

1. Efficiency in marketing and production
2. Management on the farm and in the home
3. Family living (new problems that are created because of the fast changing patterns of family living)
4. Youth programs to meet real life situations
5. Community improvement
6. Public affairs

Council members present were: the officers: President, Beckham Shields; vice president, John Crigler, and secretary, Mrs. Vernon Pope. The members: Mr. Vernon Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Maddox, Mrs. Leo Cotton, Mrs. Chas. M. Tanner, Mrs. Lewis Whittenburg, Mrs. Herman Oberjohn, Mrs. Don Eger, Mrs. W. E. Ferguson, Mrs. William Foe, Mrs. James Kottmyer, and Mrs. Robert L. Cox. Agents present were: Marvin Davidson, assistant County Extension Agent, and Gertrude Repetto, Home Demonstration Extension Agent.

WARSAW EXPLOSION

One of the worst explosions in this part of Kentucky, happened Christmas day, at Warsaw, Kentucky. A $2 million damage was done when a soft drink and beer distributing plant blew up, critically injuring the owner, Jack Smith of Warsaw.

Dozens of persons were cut by the flying glass, but none serious. The most of the damage was to homes, business houses and residents, all over the entire town.

The Red Cross Disaster agency has moved in and will aid the most seriously affected.

Kenton County Farm Owners Urged To Cooperate in Control

A meeting of Kenton County dairy and beef cattle owners to discuss the Area Brucellosis Control program has been scheduled for Thursday, January 14. The meeting has been set for 8 p.m. at the Courthouse in Independence.

Dr. James Denham, district representative of the state veterinarian's office, will outline progress in the brucellosis control in Northern Kentucky at the meeting. Plans for completion of petting in Kenton Co. will be discussed.

Stanley Bird, chairman of the Kenton County Brucellosis control program, has announced that Kenton is the last remaining county in this section of the state not included under the area plan. Mr. Bird has urged all cattle owners who have not signed the petition forms to contact their community committee at once. The petition forms are also available at the Farm Bureau office and the Co. Agent's office in Independence.

The Kenton County Brucellosis Control Committee stated that the county was divided into seven areas with the community committees as follows:

Area A—Crescent Springs, North Erlanger, Paul Thirs, George Eubanks, Cliff Eubanks, John Hartman.

Area B—Dudley Pike (U. S. 25, Covington to Boone County Line), Fred Kahman, Joe Kahman, Vincent Kahman.

Area C—Elmire to Richardson Rd. Independence, Banklick: John List, Herbert Works, Wm. Barnes, George Walsing Jr., Ernest Dearborn, Stanley Parker.

Area D—Decoursey, Spring Lake, Oak Ridge: Robke Brothers, Charles Grif, Leslie Riley, John Blau.

Area E—Walton-Nicholson Road to Boone County line, Green Road, U. S. 25, Eads Road, Bracht to Piner, and west and east side of Ky. 17 from Piner to Atwood: W. W. Worthington, O. J. Worthington, O. E. Menefee, Wm. E. Durr, C. C. Northcutt.

Area F—Staffordburg, Nicholson-Kenton-Astwood, Oak Island: Robert Jackson, Frank E. Jackson, Herbert F. Hoffman, George Dawkins, Pete Mann.

Area G—Hempfling Road to Kenton, Morning View to county line, Piskburg, Grant County line, Paxton Road to Piner, east John Dwyer, Wm. Cross, Hugh Klenstrup, Wm. F. Beck, Wilmer Steinhauser.

MRS. FRANCES KAUB

Solemn Requiem High Mass for Mrs. Frances Kaub were intoned at 10:00 a. m., Saturday at St. Cecilia Church, Independence. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Mrs. Kaub, who was 72 years old, died last Wednesday at her home of Green Road, Walton. She was a member of the St. Cecilia Ladies Society.

She is survived by three sons, Joseph and Vincent Kaub, both of Independence, and Clem Kaub, Walton, Route 1; two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Scafield, Sunny Acres, and Mrs. Henrietta Blau, Elmire; a sister, Miss Alma Bromage, Hamilton, Ohio; 19 grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Boone Court House Addition Completed; Now Being Occupied

Work on the new two-story addition to the Boone County Courthouse, Burlington, now is completed and all the offices in the new structure are occupied.

The addition was erected at a cost of $100,000, without any increase in the county tax rate.

The main floor of the new building is occupied by C. D. Benson, County Clerk. Second floor offices are occupied by County Judge C. L. Cropper, County Attorney William P. McEvoy and Circuit Court Clerk R. S. Hensley.

Expanded quarters in the old building are being made available for Sheriff Joe Hogan and Tax Commissioner Wilton E. Stephens.

Interior of the old structure is being completely redecorated. A new fire escape also has been constructed.

PINER PTA MEETING

The Piner P. T. A. met Thursday, December 17. There was no room count of parents since there was an overflow crowd. Each room was given $2.00 to buy books or games for their room.

The invocation was given by Rev. William McGibney.

The children presented a very enjoyable musical program, under the direction of Miss Curry, "Kenton's" county music supervisor, and Mrs. E. L. Steinhauser, assisted by the other teachers. The program portrayed both the sacred and the fun side of Christmas. The benediction was given by B. N. Spegal.

The next meeting of the P. T. A. will be held on February 18.

Lindsey Circle Meeting

The Maxine Lindsey Circle of Walton Baptist Church will meet Thursday, January 14 at the home of Mrs. Alpha Locke on Edwards Ave.

Walton Vol. Firemen Elect New Officers For Coming Year

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department, at their regular January meeting, held an election of officers for the coming year: Chief Chick Worthington, Deputy Chief Guy Carlisle.

First Assistant James Bonar, Second Assistant Gene McElroy, secretary E. Berkemeier, treasurer, Gene McElroy, Chief Radio Operator, Jess Thornton, Fire Police, Harold Jones, Engine Captain, David Hankinson, Engine Lt. K. Berkemeier, Hose Captain, Jack Rouse, Hose Lt. Ed Egan; Ladder Captain, Ed Berkemeier, Ladder Lt., Russell Acta.

The firemen also reported that in the Christmas treat and ride for the kiddies of the community, there were more than two-hundred and fifty kids were taken for rides on the fire truck and given treats—another thrill for the young set.

MRS. JENNIE DIXON

Services for Mrs. Jennie Dixon of Richardson Road, Independence, was held Tuesday at Hopeful Lutheran Church, Florence, followed by burial in Hopeful Cemetery.

Mrs. Dixon, a native of Boone Co. died Sunday at her home. Chambers & Grubb funeral home had arrangements.

World War I Vets to Meet

Boone County Barracks, No. 1854, Veterans of World War I, will meet January 9 at 2 p.m., in the Walton Fire House. All veterans of this war in this locality are asked to attend.

"Bad News" and "Good News" Given Our Readers

The subscribers of the Walton Advertiser are being given bad news and good news all in the same item this week.

The "bad" news is that due to the increase in newspaper labor and all other items pertaining to publishing a newspaper, the price of subscription per year must be raised. This increase will be effective the 1st day of February, 1960 and will be $2.50 per year. The Advertiser is one of the last papers in the state to increase its subscription rate.

The "good" news is that all during the month of January, they will accept subscription for $2.00 per year. Also whether you are a subscriber now or not, you may pay as many years in advance at the $2.00 rate, as you desire.

Finishes Electronics Course

Pvt. Louis A. Butler, 24, completed the 11-week basic electronics course December 17 at the Army Signal School, Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Butler was trained to assist in the maintenance and repair of integrated fire control and guided missile equipment.

He entered the Army last July. Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen W. Butler, 7070 Taylor Mill Road, Independence, is a 1953 graduate of Simon Kenton High School, and attended the University of Kentucky.

He was employed by Armo Steel Corporation in Ashland before entering the Army.

Trained in Gas Protection

Army Sgt. Jack W. Kerns, 27, son of Mrs. H. M. Kerns, 67 Alta Vista, Walton, completed the chemical, biological and radiological (CBR) course December 11 conducted by the 101st Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Sgt. Kerns was trained to identify war gases and to employ protective techniques against all varieties of C. B. A. contamination.

Kerns entered the Army in 1949 and is regularly assigned as a platoon sergeant in Headquarters Company of the division's 326th Engineer Battalion.

He is a graduate of Simon Kenton High School in Independence.

Walton Homemakers

The Walton Homemakers will meet Friday, January 8 at the home of Mrs. Charles Simpson, 26 South Main St. Bring covered dish for noon meal. The lesson "Lamp Remodeling" will be given by Mrs. Jim Woods and Mrs. Homer Winburn.

New City Council In First Meet Hire Help

BENJAMIN CHANDLER

Services for Benjamin F. Chandler, 85, of Route 2, Walton, was held on Tuesday at the residence with burial in Richmond cemetery.

Mr. Chandler died Friday at the Dry Ridge Rest Home. For the past 15 years he lived on the farm of a daughter, Mrs. W. R. Kemmer.

He leaves another daughter, Miss Effie Chandler, Walton; two sons, Larry B. Aurore, Ind., and Ruby H. Chandler, Nappanee, Ind., and 11 grandchildren.

The Hamilton funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Pensioners Are Questioned

Veterans and veterans' dependents now receiving service-connected pensions will receive an income questionnaire with their checks this month, the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Board explains.

The board explains: Veterans or dependents should list their incomes on the questionnaire card and return it before February 1st. Failure to do this will result in the pension being stopped.

The new pension law effective July 1, 1960, has no effect at this time. Persons now receiving pensions will receive full information about the new law in time to make any necessary decisions before July 1.

Representatives of the board will provide help and advice with income questionnaires.

RUSSELL MOULDEN

Russell Moulden, a former resident of Erlanger, died December 24 in the Veterans Hospital, Dayton, Ohio. Mr. Moulden, who was 68 years old, lived in Columbus, Ohio.

Mr. Moulden leaves two nieces: Mrs. Sara Soyte and Mrs. Helen Scott both of Florence.

Services held at the Chambers & Grubb funeral home, Florence on December 27 with burial in Florence cemetery.

Walton Band Boosters

The Walton-Vernon Band Boosters Club wishes to thank everyone who helped with the Christmas Concert. We especially want to thank Mr. Meadows for his fine job of printing on such short notice.

Due to an oversight the name of JoAnn Houston who plays in the clarinet section was omitted. We are so sorry about this.

GI Insurance Holders Urged To Check Their Beneficiary Carefully

Some 77,000 Kentucky GI insurance holders are urged by Army B. Owen, Manager of the Veterans Administration Regional Office, Louisville, Kentucky, to check their records to be sure that their designated beneficiaries are up to date.

The law gives GI policyholders the right to change their beneficiaries at any time without the consent of the prior beneficiaries. But unless the change is officially made, no choice is given to the VA but to pay the claim to the beneficiary of record, Owen said.

Carelessness in designating beneficiaries may result in undesired consequences, he pointed out. An example is the veteran who designated his wife as beneficiary. She divorced him, and he subsequently married and raised a family. Should he neglect change his designated beneficiary before he dies, his insurance may be paid to his former wife, and his widow and children will receive nothing.

IRA T. RYLE

Ira T. Ryle, Bellview Baptist Church deacon, died Tuesday, Dec. 23, at his home in Grant. A farmer in Indiana and in Boone County, he was 74 years old.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Essie M. Ryle; a daughter, Mrs. Glenn Leffler, Aurora, Ind., and a sister, Mrs. Stella Gaines, Petersburg.

Services held at Stith funeral home with burial in Bellview cemetery.

Truett DeMolsey Is New City Attorney

The Walton City Council met for the first time Monday night, under the newly elected regime of Randall Martin, Mayor Rector, Robert Stephenson, Board President, Nick Welsh, and Mrs. Mary M. Yealey.

This meeting was primarily for appointment of personnel which includes City clerk, treasurer, city attorney and City police officers.

The Board decided to rehire the following men: John J. Romes, city clerk and treasurer; patrolman Francis Kilgore and Kash Martin; John Stephenson as Supv. of waterworks, Randall Hall as assistant meter reader, and Marvin Bakers Maintenance Man.

The only new appointment made by the Council was Truett DeMolsey as City Attorney instead of Robert Blackburn of Willmiston.

HARVEY A. POPE, SR.

Services for Harvey A. Pope Sr., 53, engineer for the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, was held last Thursday at the Chambers & Grubb funeral home, Erlanger. In Forest Lawn Memorial park, Erlanger.

Mr. Pope, an employee of the railroad for 33 years, died Monday at Booth Hospital following a brief illness. He lived at 20 Girard street, Florence.

He was a member of the Immanuel Baptist Church, Covington; Scottish Rite, Covington, and Florence Lodge No. 949, F.A.M.

Mr. Pope leaves his widow, Mrs. Marian Hall Pope; two sons, Harvey A. Pope Jr., Florence, and James R. Pope, at home; a daughter, Miss Judith Ellen Pope, at home; his mother, Mrs. Bertha Pope, Covington; a sister, Mrs. Phil Hollis, Mobile, Ala., and three grandchildren.

Democratic Women to Meet

Members of the Boone County Democratic Women's Club will hold their next regular meeting on Thursday evening, January 7, at 8 o'clock, at Pap's Oyster House, Dixie Highway, Florence.

Plans are to be completed for the next dance, to be held on Saturday evening, February 13, at Cabana in Erlanger. The Gene Cahill Trio will furnish the music.

A social hour will follow the meeting as usual. Friends are always welcome.

Enjoy Happy Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Hymer, and Shirley and Billy Collins, Wright Road, Walton, entertained on Saturday, December 26, with a noon meal for Bro. and Sister B. Hymer of Lexington, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Hymer and sons, Charles and Clayton, Walton, Route 1.

Later in the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Hymer, Shirley and Billy Collins, and Mr. and Mrs. Ratliff Turner and Norma were entertained with a six o'clock dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred B. Hymer, of Independence.

Boone County Shows Increase in Business Population in 1959

Statistics released by J. Louis Coker, district manager of the Cincinnati office of Dun & Bradstreet, Inc., reflect the growth of the business population in Boone County during the past year. Figures obtained from a physical count of the Reference Book for January, 1960 totaled 223 manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers in this area as compared to 217 in January, 1959—an increase of 2.7 per cent for the period.

The Dun & Bradstreet Reference Book lists all manufacturers, wholesalers and retailers who seek or grant commercial credit. It does not include some of the service and professional businesses such as beauty and barber shops, security dealers and real estate brokers. Therefore, the figures for businesses in Boone County would actually be higher than the 223 as quoted above.

TO CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Riggs of Bowman Creek Road, Morning View, (pictured half a century ago (above) and today (at right)) will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary with an open house at their home from 2:00 until 5:00 p. m., on Sunday, January 17.

The couple's marriage was performed by the late Rev. John Summey.

The couple have one son, Edgar Riggs, Independence; one grandson, Glenn Riggs, Independence, and one great-granddaughter, Sherry Lynn.

Mr. and Mrs. Riggs wish to extend a welcome invitation to all their relatives, neighbors, and friends.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed as Executor of the estate of William C. Jones and all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present them, verified according to law, to the undersigned Executor not later than May 1, 1960.

HARRY F. JOHNSON, Executor.

Kentucky has 800,000 acres of preserved timberland lying inside three states and two national forests.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of expressing our thanks to all our relatives, friends, and neighbors for their cards and acts of kindness during the illness and death of our husband and father, William W. Wood- ward. We especially wish to thank Rev. Julian Charles and Rev. Wilford C. Butt for their visits to our home and the comforting words at the services; also the donors of the lovely flowers, Dr. Gladys Rouse and Dr. J. M. Huey, the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home for the efficient man- ner in which they conducted the fun- eral.

2f-1* THE WOODWARD FAMILY

Change the pieces of silver used daily so that each piece gets the same amount of wear. In this way, each piece is used and washed every few days and light tarnish is easily removed.

When washing a synthetic fabric in an automatic washer, be sure you have a cool rinse to keep out the wrinkles. Warm water softens the fibers and wrinkles will form during spinning.

ELECTRIC

accuracy

Three important ingredients—help to insure baking success, every time!

First, comes your skill in mixing your favorite recipe. Then, you'll need the "User's Manual" . . . which is included with every ELECTRIC Range. And finally, the accuracy of an automatic ELECTRIC Range.

Cakes, pies, everything . . . always turn out just right . . . because they're baked by controlled heat. The human element responsible for all baking failures . . . fiddling with controls, peeking to test doneness . . . just isn't there to plague you.

And here's a pleasant surprise! Cooking electrically actually costs less, is safer, more convenient, too . . . compared to other modern methods in use . . . out beyond the city gas mains.

See your appliance dealer for the newest in ELECTRIC Ranges, today.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Tallent, Editor—FL 7-6881

Christmas has come and gone and now we are in the New Year, 1960. I hope that 1960 is a happier year for everyone. So many of my friends and relatives died in 1959, that I for one, was rather glad to see the year come to an end.

Carol Tallent recovered from her appendectomy quickly, and was able to start back to school on January 4. Betty Jones is still recuperating at her home, from the operation she had just before Christmas.

The measles seem to have subsided in the neighborhood, but the chicken pox are now making the rounds.

Rev. Frank Wilkerson and his mother spent part of the holidays in Chattanooga, Tenn., visiting friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip King of Senor Road became the proud parents of a baby boy on December 30. They will call the new son, Chris.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Guffy became the parents of a baby boy on December 31st. This is their second son, they also have four daughters.

Mr. Carol Tamlin, who is now a practicing attorney in Houston, Texas, spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tamlin.

Little Joan Wren had her tonsils removed December 29th and recovered nicely. Mark Lillard was supposed to have his tonsils removed during the holidays, but he came down with the chicken pox and the operation had to be postponed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sloan of Sportanburg, S. C., visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butte over the holidays.

The Annie Allen Circle will meet Thursday, January 14th at the home of Mrs. Jack King at 8 p.m.

Bykota Class Entertained

The Bykota Class of the Walton Christian Church was entertained by its teacher, Ben Doan, with a ham dinner and Christmas party for its December meeting. The church basement was beautifully decorated in keeping with the Christmas season.

After a bountiful dinner, Layne Cheesman, president, presided over a short business meeting. Bonnie Jacobs had charge of the devotion after which there was an exchange of gifts.

Those enjoying the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marsh and Patsy, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rouse and Annetta, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd High, Becky and Rhonda, Dr. and Mrs. Gaines Huey and Renee, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Stephens, Ricky and Gaele, Mr. and Mrs. Layne Cheesman, Layne and Dayna, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Rouse, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Simpson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holder, Mr. and Mrs. Finley Jacobs Jr., Debbie and Carol, Mrs. Lucille Alphin and Cindy, Mrs. Jo Stephenson and Stevie, Morgan Campbell, Ray Hommesleigh, Miss Flora Howard, Mrs. Ed Scott and Lee Ann and Mr. Ben Doan.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. B. Stephenson entertained with a delicious turkey dinner for family and relatives on Christmas day; Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Stephenson of Lincoln, Nebraska; Roland Stephenson, Trenton, New Jersey; Donald Stephenson and son, of Covington; Mr. and Mrs. Conner Littrell, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Littrell and daughter, Mrs. Jessie McMillan of Covington; Mr. James Littrell, Mr. and Mrs. Kenny Bates and Mr. Harry Sparrow.

FARM AUCTION

101 ACRES - 1.27 TOBACCO BASE

Saturday, January 9

1:30 P. M. (Fast Time)

LOCATION—Chipman Ridge, a blacktop highway which intersects Telf Highway at Twin Bridges. See sign. Farm is on Chipman Ridge Pike, 1 1/2 miles from intersection at Twin Bridges. See auction sign at intersection and on farm. Sale held at the farm.

FARM DESCRIPTION—Farm contains 101 acres (more or less), grows good crops, tobacco and stock will pay for the farm in two years. Farm is well in grass, lot of meadow. Well watered. Buildings consist of a 4-room house with electric, good combination barn with metal roof, and several other buildings. This farm will be in the medium price range, the kind that really pays a premium on your investment.

Do you want more tobacco base? Here is 1.27 acres. The land will grow a lot of cattle. Farm located on a good blacktop rural highway with school bus, mail carrier and milk truck at door.

The owners own, operate and live on a farm near Zion Station, and due to the distance between the two farms, have decided to sell the above farm as advertised. Farm may be seen any time by contacting the owner or agent.

TERMS—Purchaser on contract, day of sale to pay down 25% of purchase price; remainder with deed and possession on or before February 1, 1960.

Strong Churches

Lesson for January 10, 1960

A TRAVELING medicine man is not a registered pharmacist. They both make a living out of selling medicine; but there the resemblance ends. The medicine man is interested in the money and nothing else. The pharmacist is a member of the community and has a personal stake in the community's health. The medicine man has never had one to examine him; the pharmacist has to pass a stiff examination to be licensed. The medicine man seldom knows much about his stuff; the pharmacist spent years studying it. Likewise, the fly-by-night preacher is not, as a rule, a churchman. They both are religious professionals, that is to say they "fly by the Gospel" as Paul put it. But the fly-by-nighter can be identified by the fact that he is interested chiefly in the money; the churchman is interested in the people of the church. The churchman is a member of the Christian community, he lives there, he feels responsible. The fly-by-nighter is irresponsible; the churchman has been stiffly examined, and has spent years learning his job.

Strong Churches Make Strong Christians

Saint Paul was one of the most successful evangelists who ever lived. But he never thought his duty was done when he had simply preached somewhere. Saint Paul was a traveling preacher, but no fly-by-nighter. He had a sense of responsibility for the Christians whom he had converted. He knew that just getting people converted and then doing no more about them is like a doctor who would specialize in delivering babies but would not care what they ate, drank or wore after that. A neglected baby is a sickly baby, and a neglected Christian is a sickly Christian. The best place for babies is in a good home; and the best place for growing Christians is with other growing Christians, namely in a church. Strong churches make strong Christians.

What Makes A Church Strong?

Paul knew all this. Indeed we may say that this method of work demonstrated that this is true. He knew if he left weak churches behind him the Christians would also be weak.

The recipe for a strong church has not changed since Paul's time. Three foundation-stones for a strong church are mentioned in Acts 14:23. First, Paul preached in these churches before; they had heard the gospel. But they needed further help.

Can Christians be strengthened by talk? Certainly if the talk is right. If the preaching in a church is faithful to the Word of God, and if the preacher is trained to preach, instead of being a fuzzy-minded Christian who likes to talk, the listeners in that church Sunday after Sunday are being fed, to the health of mind and spirit.

Organization and Worship

Another foundation for a strong church is organized leadership. A church is not a mere collection of Christians, a religious mass-meeting. It is, or should be, a power in its community. Its responsibilities to its members and through its members are many. To do what needs to be done, leaders are needed who have some authority, some capacity for planning, some gifts of persuasion, some far vision.

Paul preached and organized, but he also prayed. These churches were to be communities of prayer. A church where all the praying is done by a few people, a church where people go only to be talked to, or to meet their friends, is not the strong kind of church that will nourish strong Christians. The most important Person we can meet in church is not some local "Mr. Big." It is God; and if we do not meet him we have missed the meaning of worship. For the real source of a church's strength is not the preacher and not the official board, whatever they may be called or however good they are. Everybody knows that it is God; but why do some churches grow weak by forgetting that God is the Center?

WHY DO WE SING IN CHURCH?

Most of us take hymns for granted—until the eager mind of a child asks, "Why do we sing in Church?" And then we have to grope for the right answer. . . .

It isn't that God prefers singing to other kinds of worship. We know He is concerned with sincerity, not melody.

And we don't sing simply because we are happy. In trouble and sorrow we have turned to a favorite hymn for strength.

Nor do we sing in Church merely because we like to sing. That would seem a self-centered sort of worship.

We sing because sacred music has beauty, feeling, reverence. It is a fitting expression of our faith in God. And we sing because the message of a hymn reaches the soul of the singer and the heart of his neighbor—as well as the throne of God.

Annual Meeting Of Boone County Farm Bureau, Mon.

The Boone County Homemakers' Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. F. O. Smith, Burlington, will be one of the featured items of entertainment at the annual meeting of the Boone County Farm Bureau, scheduled for 8 p. m., Monday at the Boone County Court House, Burlington.

C. H. Fields

Principal speaker will be C. H. Fields, Director of Information, Kentucky Farm Bureau, and editor of the Kentucky Farm Bureau News.

Fields, a Navy Veteran in World War II, and a graduate of West Virginia University with a major in agriculture and a minor in journalism, is widely known throughout the "middle west" for his outspoken championship of the free enterprise system.

Five fine talent acts also have been engaged for the evening's program, Marvin Davidson, Assistant County Agriculture Agent said.

These include Sheryl and Diane Schneider, Hebron, with a song and dance routine; Jeanne Schindler, of Florence, in an accordion solo; Sue Graves, Bullittsville, in a baton dance; Billy Smith, Union, in a trumpet solo and Carroll Vaughn, Florence, in a saxophone specialty number. The acts are under the direction of Mrs. Ivan Dringenberg, 4-H Club leader, of Florence.

Twelve new directors are to be chosen at the annual meeting, Secretary John E. Crigler said.

There is to be a business session, with a review of last year's accomplishments, with free refreshments at the conclusion of the meeting.

Boone County now boasts one of the largest Farm Bureaus in the state, with almost 1300 paid up members.

Youth Institute at Trinity Methodist Church, Covington

The annual Methodist Youth Institute of the Covington District will be held at the Trinity Methodist Church, Covington, January 28-31.

Rev. Donald E. Pines, pastor of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church, is to serve as dean. Dr. Ralph Mohr, president of Tennessee Wesleyan College, Athens, Tenn., will be the inspirational speaker.

Rev. Eugene Barbour, pastor of Main Street Methodist Church, Covington, will teach a course on the "Life of St. Paul." "How to Tell Right from Wrong," will be taught jointly by Rev. Thomas Pelt and Rev. Ralph Talon, pastors at Lenoxburg and Foster, respectively.

"Methodist Beliefs," will be taught by Rev. Bruce Jones, pastor at Southgate. Rev. David Finch, associate pastor at First Church, Covington, will teach a course on "Choosing Your Career."

Two courses will be offered for intermediates, "Being Christian at Home," taught by Rev. Robert Pugh, pastor at Florence, and "Exploring the Bible with Interest," taught by Rev. Robert Hord, pastor at Sunny Acres.

Other leaders in the Institute will be Misses Wilma Boughton, Billie Scott, Marilyn Kuhn, Mrs. Vincent Harline and Mrs. Warren Wilson. The Walton Methodist Church, along with the other 52 Methodist Churches of the Covington District, will send young people to this institute.

Choral Society to Meet

There will be an organizational meeting of the newly formed Walton Choral Society. Anyone interested in singing is invited to attend.

The first meeting will be held in the basement of the Walton Methodist Church Friday, January 15 at 8 p. m.

Auxiliary Social Planned

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor a social at the fire house on Saturday, January 23, at 8:00 p. m. Bath towels will be given as prizes. A door prize will also be given. Everyone is welcome.

Time To Sign Up Again In The ACP Says Ch'man Huey

It's time to sign up again in the Agricultural Conservation Program, says J. Lassing Huey, Chairman of the Boone County ASC Committee. Farmers in Boone county have an opportunity again to cooperate with the farmers of other counties and states in strengthening the Nation by improving the country's ability to produce food and fiber.

The 1960 program is open to all farmers and any farmer of Boone county who would like to use the ACP to help him conserve the soil on his farm and improve the productivity of his land should contact his local ASC committee or call at the county ASC office in Burlington.

Farmers who cooperate in the 1960 ACP will be helping to build up the Nation's soil reserves, says Huey. Not only will they be protecting the Nation's soil and water resources against erosion but will be storing up production potential in the land.

With the Nation's farm plant now geared to produce ample supplies of most major foods there is no need for any increase in the acreages of the important grains and cultivated field crops. But there is an opportunity in 1960, the chairman points out, to use the ACP to strengthen soil reserves by increasing the acreages of cover crops, pastures and hayland, and to increase the stores of nitrogen, phosphate, calcium and potash and other elements, where needed to plant growth. The county office is open every day except Saturday and Sunday to help farmers with their Agricultural Conservation Program plans for the coming year.

Kenton County Dairy-Beef Cattle Owners to Meet

A meeting of all Kenton county dairy and beef cattle owners has been set for Thursday evening, January 14, to discuss the Area Brucellosis program. The meeting will be held at the Courthouse in Independence, beginning at 8:00 p. m. Dr. James H. Denham, representative from the state veterinarian's office, will outline progress in the program to date. Plans for completion of petting in Kenton county will be outlined.

According to Stanley Bird, chairman of the county program, eight entire states were listed as certified during 1959. Kenton county is one of the last remaining counties in Kentucky not included under the area program for brucellosis control.

Mr. Bird has urged that all cattle owners interested in the future of dairying and beef cattle production in Kenton county make every effort to attend this meeting.

Mr. Newton died Tuesday, January 5, at his home on Center Street, Florence. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ellen Barrett Newton.

National Red Cross Aids Residents In Warsaw Explosion

The National Red Cross announced last week that 30 families affected by the Christmas Day explosion in Warsaw, have applied for Red Cross disaster assistance. Red Cross expenditures for household needs of the blast victims total $4,726.86 at this early date with the large expenditures yet to come for repair and rebuilding of owner-occupied homes, according to Mrs. Corinne Thrall, who is in charge of the National Red Cross disaster office located in the City Hall at Warsaw.

A citizen's advisory committee, composed of residents of Warsaw, who represent a cross-section of the community, has been appointed and is currently hearing the rehabilitation requests. All Red Cross disaster assistance approved by the committee is being provided as an outright gift, it was pointed out.

SCHOOL BUS SAFETY

School Bus Safety is the title of the film to be shown at the Kenton Elementary PTA Thursday, January 21 at 8 p. m. at the school. Mrs. Herbert Works, safety chairman, will be in charge of the program and will announce the winners of the safety poster contest sponsored by the PTA.

Representing Kenton Elementary P. T. A. at the Mid-Winter Conference of the 6th District Congress of Parents and Teachers held at Newport High School were Mrs. Earl Willis, Mrs. John Mayhugh and Mrs. Charles Adams.

Notice Tobacco Producers

The regulations issued by the Secretary of Agriculture requires that Marketing Cards be returned to the ASC office whenever marketing from the farm are completed and in no event later than 30 days after the markets close or the 1960 allotment may be reduced if you fail to account for the disposition of tobacco.

Please return your marketing card immediately, mail it or bring it to the Boone County ASC office, Burlington, Ky.

The Swindler funeral home was in charge of arrangements.

Annual Report of Walton Volunteer Fire Department

Annual report of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department, released this week, is as follows: The firemen answered 47 calls, with fires in two house trailers, five houses, one car, 20 grass fires, three truck fires, two standby runs, one auto wreck, four barn fires, and three miscellaneous runs.

During the past year the department put into service their new 1500 gallon truck at a cost of over $8000.

Two Weekend Calls

The Fire Department had two calls over the past weekend. Saturday night at 6:00, they were called to the home of Ed Egan, one mile north of the city limits, where the house was filled with smoke from the motor on a water pump. The damage was slight. Monday morning about 9:00, the firemen were called to the home of Les Robinson, on North Main Street, to extinguish a blaze caused by a defective flue. The firemen were on the job about 30 minutes. Damage was not great.

Firemen's Auxiliary Meets

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department held its monthly meeting January 6 at the home of Mrs. Vada Lawrence. The president, Mrs. Betty Carlisle, conducted the business session, after which a delicious dessert course was served by Mrs. Lawrence.

Members who attended this meeting were: Mrs. Betty Carlisle, Mrs. Mary Berkemeier, Mrs. Nellie Egan, Mrs. Jane Acra, Mrs. Vada Lawrence, Mrs. Sue Miller, Miss Martha Miller, Mrs. Jean Thornton, Mrs. Ruth Vest, Mrs. Delores Wilson, Mrs. Nora Simpson, and Mrs. Betty Berkemeier.

Red Cross Needs Sewing Volunteers From N. Kentucky

"To help fill the many requests we are getting for sewn and knitted articles, we hope that many more local residents will join the 144 volunteers who served in Production Services last year," says Mr. Walton H. Bachrach, coordinator of Production Services for the Cincinnati Area Red Cross, stated. "These unpaid workers are on the job year 'round making syringe wrappings, bed jackets, surgical dressings, and many other articles. They meet at the Red Cross Memorial Building in Cincinnati." Mrs. Bachrach continued. Local residents interested in doing sewing or knitting, or making surgical dressings are asked to call the Cincinnati Area Red Cross at PA 1-2665.

Mrs. Bachrach stated that since requests for thousands of articles are constantly pouring into the Red Cross during the year, there is always need for more volunteers who can sew, knit, cut material, or wrap the finished articles.

The sewing volunteers are currently making uniforms for Junior Red Cross Student Aides who work in local hospitals. They are also making sheets and pillowcases for disaster victims, and layettes for disaster victims, servicemen, veterans and their families.

The volunteers also make pajamas, bed pads, and bed spreads for the Children's Convalescent Hospital, and aprons, angel wings—a garment worn while chest X-rays are being taken and sheets for use by Public Health nurses and the Visiting Nurse Association. The hospitals get bed jackets, lounging coats, slippers, and surgical linens. Shirts for men and boys, and women's clothing are supplied to the Needle Work Guild.

Last year 282,107 surgical dressings, 12,356 sewn articles, and 300 knitted garments were made by the volunteers. Voluntary work is supplied to the Needle Work Guild.

Local residents interested in doing sewing or knitting, or making surgical dressings are asked to call the Cincinnati Area Red Cross at PA 1-2665.

Social at Independence

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department will hold a social on Saturday, January 16, at 8:30 p. m., in the fire house.

Sandwiches and home-made pies will be available. Come and enjoy an evening with your neighbors and friends.

William L. Maloney, who is stationed in Augsburg, Germany with the 24th Infantry Division.

She is one of more than 5,000 trained ARC volunteers serving in Europe, North Africa, and the Near East. The ARC in the European area provides a full program of instruction in safety and home nursing for the American servicemen and their dependents. Courses include first aid, swimming, life saving, mother and baby care, and care of the sick and injured.

The "patient" in the picture is Mrs. Anna S. Powell, Houston, Texas, who also was a student in the course.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION!

We wish to express our thanks to all who aided us in any way at the time of the death of our father, Benjamin F. Chandler.

We especially thank our relatives, friends and neighbors for their kind expressions of sympathy with cards, flowers and food; the minister, Rev. Joseph R. Tackett; the pianist, Chas. Wiley; the pallbearers, those who prepared the grave and the Hamilton funeral home for their kind and efficient service.

THE CHILDREN.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Editor, FL 7-5018

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish, Mrs. Dorothy Ricketts and sons, David and Stephen, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Shaler Marshall on Monday evening.

We had a guest speaker representing the Temperance League at the church on Sunday. He was Rev. Kenton Holmeister, a native of Florida and presently a student at the Baptist Seminary in Louisville. His message was both interesting and instructive.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Parsons and children drove to Warsaw on Sunday to view the desolation caused by the Christmas explosion.

Mrs. Chas. Losey and son, J. B. Losey called on Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Northcutt spent the week-end with her brother, George Binkley and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Urban Powers who have just returned from a trip to visit relatives in Phoenix, Arizona, called on the Joe Sweeney family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore Eckler are happily entertaining a little son born the past week.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The Beechgrove Homemakers held their December meeting at the home of Mrs. Gus Shadler with Mrs. Stanley Parker as co-hostess.

Mrs. Vern Stephens, Citizenship Chairman, reported the results of the projects undertaken by the Club since November. These included a total of 144 hours of work at the St. Aloysius School for Retarded Children, a cash donation to the Independence Fire Department and Auxiliary, and the delivery by Mrs. Roy Kumer and Mrs. Raymond McHale of a goat donated to the Campbell Lodge, Cold Springs.

Gifts from all the members were sent to Mrs. Lou Bramlage, a member who is confined to her home.

The annual turkey dinner was served to members and their families and Christmas gifts exchanged. The meeting was concluded with the playing of games, the singing of Christmas carols and the exchange of gifts by secret pass.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. William Wolterman, program chairman of the Piner Homemakers Club, planned a lovely Christmas party for the club. The members met at noon in the private dining room of the McKinley Restaurant. A delicious turkey dinner was served, followed by roll call answered with a Christmas quotation or poem.

The theme of the program was Christmas in scripture, song, and story. Reader, Mrs. Roy Tomlin; songs Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Elmer Spaulding and Mrs. Fred McMillan. Joy should be the dominant note at the Christmas season. God intended it to be so. From the first prophecies of the Old Testament foretelling of our Savior's birth, to the New Testament's grand fulfillment in the angels' announcement to the shepherds, joy was the major theme.

After the program, games were enjoyed and secret pals exchanged gifts. Place cards in the form of Christmas folder with a handkerchief were the gift of Mrs. Waterman to the following members: Mrs. Marion Martin, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. C. E. Flynn, Mrs. John Dewey, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Anello Pellizzari, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. S. E. Rich, Mrs. J. C. Gavanough, Mrs. C. E. Duncan, Mrs. Leslie McMillan, Mrs. Elmer Spaulding, Mrs. Roy Tomlin, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Dewey Fisk, a charter member, was a welcome guest. Greatly missed by the other members was Mrs. Chester Mullins who was unable to attend the party.

One third of the home freezers in use today are over 17 cubic feet, compared to the average 8 cubic feet freezer of 1946.

Oak Island Homemakers

"A happy and contented homemaker is one of the main ingredients for a devoted wife and mother. This is what creates a happy atmosphere for the entire family. With the help of the Extension Service we learn to never be hasty in judgment and always generous in the new year to come."

The January meeting of the Oak Island Homemakers was held recently at the Oak Island Baptist Church. Roll call was answered with facts on our new state—Alaska.

Mrs. Frank Jackson, citizenship chairman, gave a surprise quiz with questions on "How to Become an American Citizen."

History can be traced by our windows was the theme used by Mrs. Don Riddell and Mrs. Edward Kerr as they gave the lesson of the month on curtains and draperies—view, ventilation and light as the basic outline for window treatment.

A free-will donation, in place of exchange of gifts, was collected at the annual Christmas party. A check was sent to the Salvation Army in Louisville to be used for the needy families in Eastern Kentucky.

A special meeting was held in December for candle-making, "How to Mold and Frost Candles."

The hymn for the month was, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," with the continuation of our study of religious music of early America.

With recognition and study of our new state, Alaska, "America the Beautiful" was sung by all members.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Donald Dressman and Mrs. Frank Jackson. Members attending were: Mesdames Russell Rector, Frank Jackson, Robert Wanscott, Cecil Northcutt, Don Riddell, Edward Kerr, Donald Dressman, and Alvis Roy.

Note of Appreciation

We appreciate the kindness and thoughtfulness of our many friends during the illness and home-going of Mrs. Carrie F. O'Doherty. We are grateful to all who visited her and sent her cards of the hospital. We are thankful for our many neighbors and friends who sent flowers and food, to Wilmington Baptist Church choir and to our pastor for his words of comfort.

Her husband and sister, H. W. O'DOHERTY, ANTINETTE HOLLAND.

Card of Thanks

I wish to thank all my friends for sick cards sent me during my recent illness and all who called on me from Methodist, Christian and Baptist churches.

Hunting and Fishing Is Big Business In Commonwealth

If Kentucky's burly tobacco were eliminated for one year, the Commonwealth probably would suffer the greatest depression in its history. If hunting and fishing were eliminated, says the Department of Fish and Wildlife resources, Frankfort, the state would suffer a depression at least one-third as great as one caused by the absence of the tobacco crop.

The department reports that money spent annually in the state by hunters and fishermen is more than one-third of the total income of farmers for one year's tobacco crop.

Are We Free?

Lesson for January 17, 1960

HEADLINE writing is tricky business. You have only so much room, and so cannot always say clearly what you mean. That "Are We Free?" up there in the headline could mean some things it doesn't. The question does not mean, Are Americans free? or, Are readers of this column free? The question is about Christians. Are we free?

That still is not clear enough. Free from what? Christians are certainly free from terror in the presence of God. We are free from the burden of guilt. We are free (or have a right to be) from anxiety and worry, and especially from the fear of death. But that is not the question we mean. To get down to brass tacks, our question is this: Is a Christian free from the law of God, especially from God's law as made known to us in the Ten Commandments?

The Question Is An Old One

The first Christians held their first great convention or conference to decide on this question. The way the problem came up with them was this: The first Christian churches, you remember, were made up almost exclusively of Jews. They were brought up on their Scriptures, our Old Testament, and they took it seriously as the Word of God. They found in it not a mere Ten Commandments, but at least Six Hundred Thirteen Commandments. It may have been a chore to try to abide by all these laws spread out over pages and pages of Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. But there the laws were, and conscientious ex-Jews who became Christians brought these laws right along with them.

Now when these Christians went out on their evangelistic tours, the churches they started were made up, for the most-part, of non-Jews, and most of those people knew nothing whatever about the Old Testament. The Jerusalem Christians kept sending messengers to these new Gentile Christian groups, telling them they really were not Christians at all, they hadn't been saved because they hadn't kept the law of God in every detail. The Gentile Christians said, Oh, but we are free from the law. The Jewish Christians said, No man is ever free from the law. So there at last had to be a great church meeting to decide who was right. There was a high debate, and finally an agreement. Scholars do not fully understand the terms of the agreement, which was sent out as a decree to all churches. But one thing is clear: the decision went against the Jerusalem church. The question really was: What do you have to do to be a Christian? What do you have to do to be saved? The Jerusalem church had been saying, You have to do a great deal to be saved. You have to be an avowed keeper of the law before God will even consider saving you. But the apostles had a higher view. Essentially it was this: Every one who is saved, is saved by grace—that is, by a free act of God's loving will.

Free From Slavery? Freed To Serve

The question was settled there in that great Council. But it kept coming up, and Paul had to write to the Romans and to the Galatians explaining it all over again. It comes up in our time in many ways. What do I have to do before God will come to my rescue (for that is what "save" means)? There are two common wrong answers. One is that every single law in the Old Testament is binding on each Christian. It is keeping these laws that saves us, really. In short, God saves us provided we are good enough. The other wrong answer is that God saves us regardless, and then since he has saved us we can go do as we please. We can't possibly go wrong if we have been saved. The right answer is always this: God saves us because he is good, not because we are; and having been saved, keeping his laws is then a joyous token of our gratitude. Freed from slavery, we are set free to serve. God's grace can never be earned, it can only be taken—by faith.

Dr. Foreman

Invitation of the bells

America is a land of bells!

Wedding bells, door bells, dinner bells, school bells, sleigh bells... all speak of a country where Freedom from tyranny exists.

Radio chimes keynote freedom of speech as commentators broadcast the news. Typewriter bells ring out freedom of the press. And church bells, whether they be the musical chimes from a cathedral's spire, or the ding dong from the steeple of a village chapel, typify freedom of religion.

Churches throughout the land are open to all. Inside their doors, we cast aside the fetters of worry that shackle our hearts in this atomic age. We find strength and courage to face the unknown future. Our faith, hope and trust in God, who says, "Fear not; for I am with thee," is renewed and peace fills our anxious souls.

Let us accept the invitation of the bells to "Come and worship," and go to church regularly.

Copyright 1946, Enter Adm. Service, Strasburg, Va.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a sourcehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Brucellosis Meeting At Independence, Last Thursday

"Kenton county cattle can no longer be shipped to farms in Campbell or Boone counties since both are now certified as brucellosis free," Dr. James H. Denham reported at a meeting of cattle owners in Independence, last Thursday evening.

Dr. Denham serves as the district representative of the State Veterinarian's office. He added that county dairymen too stand a real chance of losing their opportunity of selling on a Grade A milk market unless the county soon joins all of their neighboring counties under the Area Brucellosis Control Plan. Dr. Denham warned cattle owners that 31 entire states are now certified, including Tennessee to the south, and West Virginia to the east. This means, according to Dr. Denham, that cattle from non-certified counties cannot be shipped to the south or to the east. He added that states to the north are about three-fourths completed with the testing program. The veterinarian indicated that the only exceptions to the shipment of cattle to a certified county would be for cattle for slaughter or for the few herds now certified on a herd basis.

Dr. Denham reported that Cincinnati milk marketing officials have earned his office repeatedly that Kenton county milk is "clean up" brucellosis in the entire county rather than on a piece-meal individual herd basis. He suggested that their patience would soon wear out.

Stanley Bird, Kenton county chairman of the brucellosis control committee, has called a meeting of the seven community chairmen for Friday afternoon, January 22, to make plans for completion of petitioning. Mr. Bird has reported that he has acquired number of cattle on petition has nearly been reached but that a large number of owners must yet be contacted before petitioning is finished. He added that the Area Brucellosis Control Plan requires that 75 percent of the cattle owners in the county be included on the petition. These owners must own at least 80 percent of the cattle. Mr. Bird suggested that all owners of cattle, regardless of size of their dairy or beef herd, sign the petition forms as soon as possible. Community dairy leaders have petitioned for and their forms are also available at the Farm Bureau and County Agent's office in Independence. Mr. Bird has emphasized the urgency of the sign-up program.

Social January 24

According to Mrs. Doris Taylor, American Legion Auxiliary president, a social will be held at the Walton Legion Home on Sunday, January 24 at 2 p.m.

Everyone is cordially invited. Mrs. Taylor also reports that the Auxiliary is promoting a clothing drive for the unfortunate people of Southeastern Kentucky. Anyone having any usable clothing is asked to please send it to 18 South Main Street where it will be packed and prepared for shipment. These people are in desperate need of clothing, especially for school age children, so that they can't use, won't please give them to help so that these children can attend school? Any contribution, large or small, will be appreciated.

Special Tobacco Session Planned at Farm-Home Week

Kentucky's top crop—tobacco—will get the "full treatment" at the 48th annual Farm and Home Week program this year.

It will be the topic Friday, Jan. 29 in the Pavilion Area on the U. K. campus. The meeting opens at 9:30 a. m. (CDT) and closes that afternoon.

Farm and Home Week proper opens Tuesday, January 26, with a one-day session on developing rural leadership. The Wednesday and Thursday programs are devoted to a variety of topics such as animal husbandry, homemaking, crops, etc.

At the tobacco session, Dr. D. Vallejo, plant pathologist of the U. K. Experiment Station, will be the first speaker. He will talk on destructive tobacco diseases in 1959. W. O. Atkinson, nutrition agronomist, follows with a talk on leaf losses in tobacco fields, and R. A. Hunt, Extension Service tobacco specialist, will discuss houseburning of housed crops. Feature of this morning session will be a talk by J. M. Moseley, American Tobacco Co. official, Richmond, Va., on "Relation of Production Practices to Quality Leaf."

The afternoon program will be a discussion panel on all phases of tobacco production. Members are to be Vallejo; Richard Thurston, entomologist; Robert Rued, agricultural economist; William Atkinson, agronomist; Edward Smith, agricultural engineer, and Ira Moseley, Extension Service tobacco specialist.

Attends Sales Conference

George "Ab" Ryan of Ryan Hardware, Walton, attended the Dairy Equipment Company national sales conference held at the Hotel Lorraine, Madison, Wis., January 12, 13, 14.

More than 300 Dairy-Kool dealers and factory representatives from throughout the United States and Canada attended the three day session.

New products, along with advertising and merchandising plans for 1960 were presented. A new 16 minute colored motion picture featuring Dairy-Kool bulk coolers and Dairy-Kool truck tanks was shown for the first time.

A highlight of the meeting was a tour by chartered buses to the company's large, modern plants at Hartford and Madison, Wis., where the group saw Dairy-Kool bulk coolers and Dairy-Kool truck tanks in the process of manufacture.

Dairy Equipment Company is the world's largest maker of milk cooling equipment for the dairy farm.

MARRIED SIXTY YEARS

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Stephenson will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen, 56 High St., Walton, with open house from 2:00 until 5:00 p. m., for their friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson were married January 22, 1900 at the home of the late Rev. L. L. Lebus, Owen, Bernard and Jack Stephenson, nine grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren. The Stepheons are living in the same house where they started housekeeping.

TO WED JANUARY 30

Mr. and Mrs. Everett E. Berry, Sr., Covington, announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Gertrude Elizabeth, to Jack H. Sturgeon, son of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Young, Ludlow, on Saturday, January 30, in St. Mary's Cathedral, Covington.

A reception will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Young, 709 Adair Street, Ludlow, from 7:30 to 11:00 p. m. All friends of the couple are cordially invited to attend the reception.

Ryland Homemakers Club

The Ryland Homemakers Club held their second lesson on "Investments," Mrs. Ruth Schmidt, leader, at a recent meeting of the Ryland Homemakers. Club pointed out that before investing, the wisest course to take is talk things over with a qualified investment dealer; ask him for suggestions about the kinds of investments best suited to your particular needs.

Mrs. Leslie Smith was hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harold Hattall. The club voted to make a donation to the Heart Fund this year.

Citizenship chairman, Mrs. Anthony Wolf, gave a quiz on the American flag. She stated that the two countries have flags older than the United States flag. They are Denmark and Netherlands. She also asked members to bring an article on Lincoln or Washington for the February meeting, which will convene at the home of Mrs. Harold Ward.

Other members in attendance were Mesdames Ar-R-Hicks; Everett Wilson, James Mueller, William Bagby, Harold Ward, William Damon, J. H. Lawson, O. J. Williams, F. B. Herms, and a guest, Mrs. George Campbell.

Receives Severe Burns

Albert Powell, of Percival Road, is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital in Covington, where he was taken on Saturday suffering from second degree burns, over his back, received at the Liberty-Cherry & First Co., Lexington. Mr. Powell was injured when a large vat boiled over and scalded him.

Independence Homemakers

The January meeting of the Independence Homemakers was held at the home of Mrs. Vincent Vogelshohl of Independence.

A Window Treatment lesson was given by Mrs. Charley Davis. Also a garden lesson was given by Mrs. Dora Home.

Members attending were: Mrs. Flo Summe, Mrs. Jessie England, Mrs. Charley Davis, Mrs. Lloyd Martin, Mrs. Herbert Witt, Mrs. Dora Home, Mrs. Elmer Lawson, Mrs. Stanley Miller, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Miss Virginia Bradford and Mrs. Vincent Vogelshohl.

Two guests attending were Mrs. D. Hocker and Miss Ruby Armstrong.

The hostess served a very nice lunch enjoyed by all.

Tobacco Allotment Increase Favored By Burley Ass'n

Burley tobacco farmers through their organization, the Burley Tobacco Growers Cooperative Association, recently declared themselves in favor of an increase in burley tobacco allotments, said increase not to exceed 5 per cent.

The action was taken by the Board of Directors on motion of Directors Owen Rouse, Versailles, and A. Threlkeld, Covinch.

Burley Association President, John M. Berry, said "The growers might take a 5 per cent acreage allotment to answer the argument of the manufacturer that there is not enough selectivity for his use."

W. L. Staton, Association Executive Secretary, said, "It is better to have too much than too little and we might have a bad growing year and a shortage of tobacco at any time."

Several directors expressed the view that if a shortage of burley develops, the use of burley in cigarettes will be affected and once an outlet is given up it will be difficult to recover.

The directors said that it was for the good of the program and for the good of the grower, taking the long view, that an increase be made.

Several of the directors said that many farmers were opposed to an increase but that the farm public did not realize the danger of a shortage of supply.

Exceptional Yield Of Strawberries at Eden Shale Farm

Strawberry crops at the UK Agricultural Experiment Station's Eden Shale Farm in Owen county last season produced an "exceptional yield" for the plants' third bearing year.

That's the report of Carl Chaplin, station horticulturist, who recently completed checking his data on the crop. He pointed out that most strawberry plants produce for one year, and then often two, but seldom for the third year in any quantity.

This last season, Pacahontas variety averaged 4.76 of the 24-quart crates per acre; Tennessee Beauty, 4.40 crates, and Blakemoor, 3.74.

Chaplin said there was "no magic" to the high yields, merely good practices that every good strawberry grower knows. He said it proves that strawberries can be grown successfully and profitably on Eden Shale soil. The three-year average for the plots now are: Pacahontas, 4.29 crates an acre; Blakemoor, 3.44 crates, and Tennessee Beauty, 3.99.

He also found that a late-winter application of an 0-20-20 fertilizer showed no increase in plot yields at the location. And after three years of such applications, he added, there was a definite depression of yields on the treated plots.

Above are Steven R. Kidwell, age 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kidwell, Morning View, and Ronald H. Covey, age 5, and Carolyn S. Covey, age 9, also of Morning View.

Above are Connie Sue, 2 years, and Wayne Franklin, 5 months, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Vernor F. Lipscomb, Jr., of Morning View.

To Attend Farm-Home W'k

Delegate of the Boone County Homemakers and Mrs. Gertrude Pappas, Home Demonstration, are completing their plans to attend the 48th Annual Farm - Home Week January 26-29 at Lexington.

Leadership, the key to Kentucky's future, will be the topic for Tuesday sessions. The program is designed to provide leaders of all rural organizations in the state.

Delegates are looking forward to the presentation of Orlin Corey's production of "The Book of Job" by the Everman Players. This production representing the United States, was performed in 1958 beneath the Atomium at the Bussell's World Fair.

Mothers' March For Polio

The Wa-No Club, in cooperation with the March of Dimes, is sponsoring the Mothers' March for Polio Drive, to take place on Thursday, January 28.

A committee has been appointed to map out the town of Walton, and club members will meet at the fire house to be assigned their street.

You are urged to turn on your porch lights to signify your wish to contribute to this worthy cause.

In Exercise Winter Shield

Army Private Bobby D. Emerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rando Emerson, 8693 Dixie Highway, Florence, is scheduled to participate with personnel from the 24th Infantry Division in Exercise Winter Shield at the Grafenwohr-Hohenfels training area in southern Germany, Feb. 1-7.

Emerson, a driver in Company C of the division's 31st Transportation Battalion, entered the Army in May 1959 and arrived overseas the following October. He received basic training at Fort Knox, and formerly attended Boone County High School.

The Social Security Tax Contribution Increased

Beginning January 1, the social security tax contribution increased. You are an employee, you are paying 10c more on every $20.00 of your earnings and your employer is paying an equal amount. The new tax rate is 3% of your annual earnings up to a maximum of $4,800.00. If you are self-employed you will pay 4 1/2% on your net earnings. However, you will not pay this amount until you file your tax return for the 1960 taxable year. The tax for the 1959 taxable year is still 3 1/2%.

This increase is needed to protect your stake in the future and the rates were specifically designed to meet future obligations of paying benefits and administrative expenses of the program. The social security tax pays for old-age, survivors, and disability benefits under the social security law.

Benefits are never paid automatically. Claims must be filed before payments can begin. A worker would be wise to inquire early so that he will know when a claim should be filed.

MISS EMMA SCOTT

Requiem Mass for Miss Emma Scott, 81, of Florence, was sung on Tuesday at St. Paul Church, Florence. Prayers were said at St. Paul church, Florence, for the soul of the late Mrs. Emma Scott, 81, of Florence.

Miss Scott died Saturday at her home. She was 81 years old. She was housekeeper for Rev. Herbert J. Eghring, pastor of the St. Henry Church, Elmore.

She leaves a brother, Lawrence Scott, Burlington; and three sisters, Miss Agnes Scott, Burlington; Mrs. Lawrence Keeney, Florence, and Mrs. John Hamilton, Verona.

January D. A. R. Meeting Held In Brothers Home

Mrs. Clifford Coyle, regent of the Boone County Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, presided at the January meeting held in the home of Mrs. J. Proctor Brothers at Limburg.

Mrs. Joseph Wolfe, chairman of the program committee, introduced Mr. Stanley Miehaus, Assistant Director of Internal Revenue, who spoke on the timely subject of income taxes.

Mrs. Rufus Tanner reported on the John Fox Library Fund. Mrs. Clarence Wolfe, chairman of community service, gave her report.

Members attending were Mesdames Joseph Wolfe, Clarence Wolfe, Rufus Tanner, Roy Nestor, John Lockwood, Wallace Grubbs, Charles Goodridge, Davis Gaines, Walter Ferguson, Clifford Coyle, William Conrad, Reuben Connor, Proctor Brothers, Louis Braun, Fred Bennett, and Miss Margaret Goodridge.

Farmers' Side of U. S. Life Is to Be Given at Farm-Home

One session of the upcoming Farm and Home Week conference at the University in Lexington, will try to give the farming public a picture of the American farmer's place in the U. S. economy.

The session Thursday, January 28, at the Experiment Station building, is a public relations meeting. It is keyed to the fact that "mounting losses to taxpayers from operation of price supports and other government programs have caused many urban consumers to lose faith in the American farmer; the significance of this is increased by the continuing sharp decline in numbers of farm people; agriculture needs to sharpen its efforts to portray objectively for non-farm people . . . the strong points as well as the weaknesses of this important sector of the economy," says one of the meeting planners.

Burl S. St. Clair, president of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, will open the meeting at 9 a. m. (CDT) on "What Are the Charges Being Levied Against America's Agriculture?" D. M. Shuffert, UK agricultural economist, will follow with a talk on "Agriculture's Contributions to the Nation's Welfare and Progress."

A panel discussion will wind up the session; it will give four views of the problems. Participants are A. J. Brown, UK agricultural economics department head; E. Logan Brown, Shelbyville, farmer-manager; Don Henry, Louisville, Federal Reserve Bank official; J. O. Matlick, Middle-town, Kentucky Farmer paper editor, and Mrs. J. E. Mainous, Lexington.

The conference, a four-day affair, opens Tuesday, January 26 as a one-day meeting on rural leadership training. It concludes Friday, January 29 with the annual tobacco session.

Farmer-borrowing through local credit cooperatives increased 21% the first six months of 1959.

Beacons Best Boone County

The Walton-Verona Beacons didn't have any trouble as they met the Boone County Rebels on the home hardwood, January 8. The game started off zooming for the Cats as they dropped the first ball through the net. They continued on the same scale as most all the balls going through the hoop were on the Bear cat end of the floor. The score at the first quarter stop was 28-8, with the locals on top.

When Coach Reed took the Cats to the dressing room at halftime they led by 15 points. They came back in the third quarter ready for more action as they held a 63-37 lead in the third period.

In the final frame, with about three minutes remaining, Coach Reed took out most of the first stringers. The second team did quite well, and as the final buzzer sounded the score was 77-57 in Walton's favor.

Poor was higher for the Blue. White as he dropped 22 points thru the net. Afterkick was close behind: with 20. Randy Barlow and Vice were high for Boone County with seven points each.

Walton-Verona: Locke 5-1-11; Noe 1-2-4; Cheesman 1-2-4; Afterkick 8-4-20; Poore 8-6-22; Code 7-2-16.

Boone County: R. Barlow 3-1-7; Soye 0-1-1; Roberts 1-3-5; Klesner 3-0-6; Vice 2-3-7; G. Barlow 0-2-2; Conner 2-0-4; Martin 2-1-5; Schweir 1-1-3; Goppage 2-0-4; Hamilton 1-0-2; Valentine 3-0-4; James 2-1-5.

Beacons Nip Wildcats

January 12, the Beacons met the Gallatin County Wildcats on the local hardwood and the home team took command immediately. The score at the end of the first quarter was 24-14 in favor of the Beacons. They outscored the Wildcats 25-11 in the second period to maintain a 24-point lead at halftime. When the third quarter started, Poore, Afterkick, and Cheesman and Code were sitting it out.

The scoring margin began to narrow as the third quarter was almost at an end. The winners had a 7-point margin as the first team went in again. They played hard through the last quarter but were really just getting warmed up as the buzzer sounded and the Beacons won by eight points, 82-74.

Walton-Verona: Locke 1-0-2; Noe 2-0-4; Afterkick 8-1-17; Poore 12-2-26; Cheesman 3-2-8; Code 6-5-17; McLoney 1-0-2; Crutcher 2-0-4; and Gadd 1-0-2.

Gallatin County: Gullett 7-2-16; Baker 5-6-16; Roberson 7-0-14; McKee 5-9-19; and Holly 3-3-9.

Hickory Grove W. M. S.

The Hickory Grove W. M. S. met at the church Tuesday, January 5, at 7:30 p. m., for the regular monthly meeting. The program, "What Hast Thou Given," was very interesting.

After the meeting a baby shower was given for Martha Maddox and Wanda Ellis. Both were surprised. The showers were given by Mrs. Katherine Russell and daughter, Mrs. Turner, with help from Mrs. Ralph Jump, Ruth Jump, and Mrs. Henry Boas, social committee. Refreshments were enjoyed by everyone.

A total of 42 were present, including members, children and guests. It is hoped a large number will attend the next meeting, the first Tuesday in February, 8:00 p. m., in the church. Everyone welcome.

Horsemanship, pony, junior riding, junior and senior trail clubs have sent American youth back to the horse. These equine activities are booming now.

Mrs. Flonnie Edgington was calling on Mrs. Effie Clements, Mrs. Virgie Colston and Lillie Cooke one afternoon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lamm and Elmer Refitt were visiting Mr. Lamm's sister, Mrs. Phoebe Jump, and family recently. Mrs. Jump remains very ill.

Mrs. Lena Harris spent a few days recently with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Elliston, and daughter of Latonia.

Mrs. Mag Chapman attended services at Concord church, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Refitt and granddaughter of Erlanger, and Mrs. Flonnie Edgington were calling at the Jim Lamm home, Sunday afternoon.

Congratulations to the newweds, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Morris (nee Wanda Coyale). They are making their home in Tennessee.

Mrs. Sarah Perry and children have been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chipman, and family.

Mrs. H. D. Edgington was calling on Mrs. Minnie Davis, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Morris were calling at the Don Curry home, Saturday evening.

The Verona Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Lillian Stephenson, January 8, with 12 members, and seven visitors present. Members were Mrs. Edith Hamilton, Mrs. Ethel Fooks, Mrs. Lena Harris, Mrs. Adeline Reed, Mrs. May Wilson, Mrs. Flonnie Edgington, Mrs. Etta MacManama, Mrs. Minnie Davis, Mrs. Pearl Lamm, Mrs. Dora Burchett, Mrs. Florence Florence, Mrs. Lillian Stephenson. Visitors were Mrs. Carolyn Curry, Mrs. Madeline Wriston and two children, Mrs. Mary Porter, Mrs. Norville Gullion, and Bernard Wilson. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Adeline Reed, by saluting the flag and reading the homemakers' creed. Mrs. Lena Harris had the devotional, reading I Corinthians 13, chapter. Mrs. Etta MacManama led in prayer. There were three books reported read last month. "There was no program at no. one could get the lesson. Don't forget, each one is to answer roll call next month with something about George Washington, which will be held February 5 at the home of Mrs. Adeline Reed. Let every member be present, and visitors are welcome.

Social Security Act Disability Provisions

"From time to time, we like to talk in these columns about the disability provisions of the Social Security Act. For one thing, this is a relatively new part of our program, and also, it is perhaps the least understood part of the law.

"Statistic-wise, it is the smallest part of our program, there being only about 318,000 persons receiving disability payments as compared to almost 13 million receiving old age and survivors benefits. We are sure, however, that no benefit is more important than those going to the disabled. A disability is really a "double-barreled" blow to a worker, because not only does his income usually stop, but the medical costs that accompany a disability are usually high. For this reason, we at Social Security consider this one of the most important parts of our program, and we try to render every possible assistance in developing this type of claim.

"The disability claim requires different steps in development than the regular application for retirement or survivors benefits. For one thing, two disabilities are exactly alike. Each claim has to be judged on the basis of its individual merits. This means that this type of claim cannot ordinarily be processed as fast as regular claims. Also, the disability must be severe. It is not necessary to be totally helpless, but the disability must be one that makes a person unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity.

"In addition to being severely disabled, a person must have worked in employment covered by social security or must have been self-employed at least five years out of the last ten before a disability started.

"The Social Security Office has available a little pamphlet titled, "How Disabled Must You Be." A copy is yours for the asking. Simply mail us a card and ask for Booklet 29d. Our office in Covington is open each week day from 9 to 5. The address is 729 Scott Blvd, and our phone is HEmlock 1-5274."

Home Furnishings Leaders of Kenton County Meet Jan. 6

"Buy-Lines for Curtains and Draperies," was the subject of the lecture and workshop presented by Miss Zelma E. Byerly, County Home Demonstration Agent, to 55 home-furnishings leaders of the Kenton County Homemakers' Association, held on Wednesday, January 6, at Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia.

Miss Byerly stated that no other single expenditure can transform a room so completely as new, freshly-styled window decorations. Fibers and finishes are especially important in drapery fabrics. Materials are available today in great variety, the new fabrics offer many advantages, many are resistant to sunlight, shun dirt and dust, are shrink proof and remain fresh and crisp looking after washing.

Drapery fabrics of natural and synthetic materials were displayed. The leaders were advised that the choice of fabrics should be consistent with the style of window treatment and character of the room. Color, pattern and texture of walls, floors, furniture, and draperies should speak with one voice.

When selecting a new fabric, the homemaker should look for the informative label that lists the fiber content of fabric, also follow the care direction given on the tags for the longest and loveliest service.

Leaders attending were: Mrs. James Rott, Mrs. Frank Harzog, Mrs. Kenneth Blake, Mrs. Fred Wetzell, Mrs. G. V. Williamson, Mrs. F. M. Powers, Mrs. James Hartley, Mrs. Donald Riddell, Mrs. Edward Kerr, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. Ernest Wiggins, Mrs. Donald Keeney, Mrs. Joe E. Walton, Mrs. O. B. Hundley, Mrs. Shelby Martin, Mrs. Donald Nehring, Mrs. Lillian Ekberg, Mrs. Robert Conley, Mrs. Ben Cooper, Mrs. Terrell Travis, Mrs. Paul Bledenhorn, Mrs. Russell Miller, Mrs. Robert Naber, Mrs. Bob R. White, Mrs. James Crowell.

Mrs. C. J. Meyers, Mrs. W. N. McNutt, Mrs. Richard Schneeman, Mrs. Roderick Weiss, Mrs. Hugo T. Long, Mrs. Roy Tomlin, Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Frank Gillman, Mrs. Charles Stevenson, Mrs. Charles Brewer, Mrs. V. R. McClain, Mrs. Robert Heleman, Mrs. R. N. Frisby, Mrs. R. R. Quick, Mrs. P. J. Gladys Hopewell Circle

The Gladys Hopewell Circle of First Baptist Church, Walton, met Thursday evening for their January meeting in the home of Mrs. J. B. McCubbin.

Mrs. McCubbin, program chairman, along with several members presented a very interesting program, "Render Unto Caesar."

After a brief business session, delightful refreshments were served to Mrs. Jimmy Grubbs, Mrs. Tommy Cook, Mrs. Edward Perkins, Mrs. Dora Pennington, Mrs. Lloyd Shields, Mrs. Vera Wright, and the hostess.

Ether Class Meeting

The Ester Sunday School Class of the Walton Baptist Church had its monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. Helen Rich with eight members present. The meeting was called to order by the president Mrs. Iverna Schindt. Devotional was given and after the meeting, refreshments were served to Mrs. Rich.

Pleasant Grove W. S. C. S.

The W. S. C. S. of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church met in the church for the January meeting. Mrs. Ralph Levellen presided. "The Golden Cord of Service," was the subject of the program under the leadership of Mrs. Donald E. Pineur. Mrs. Crutcher Messer gave a short talk on "A Visit In Ladja," and Mrs. Ian Cartwright spoke on "A Visit in Southern Rhodesia," which depicted the missionary work in Africa. Mrs. Pineur concluded the program with questions pertaining to women in Africa and their place in the WSCS. Mrs. T. S. Moffett continued her study course on "Lake's Portrait of Christ."

Mrs. Pineur was hostess for dessert and beverage. Following luncheon a business meeting was held.

The February meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. J. A. Rich. The following members were present: Mesdames T. S. Moffett, D. E. Pineur, Ralph Levellen, J. A. Rich, J. K. True, Walter Beck, A. R. Hicks, I. J. Cartwright, Crutcher Messer, and J. H. Lawson.

Happy Twelve Club

The ladies of the Happy Twelve Club held their monthly meeting on January 5 with Mrs. Jessie McCordle serving as hostess at her home.

The following ladies attended: Mrs. Bonnie Messer, Jessie McCordle, Theresa Hall, Montie Proffitt, Sue Northcutt, Minnie Pennington, Cleo Messer, Everett McKenny, Ruby Perkins, Archmarie Maddox, Martha Lyn Perkins, Carolyn McCordle, Judy Messer, Bonnie Messer, Melisa Messer, Master Ronnie Northcutt, Bobby Messer, Danny Northcutt and Roy Hammond.

The Mighty Power of a Penny

Never underestimate the purchasing power of a penny... especially when it comes to electricity. It buys more today... than it did during the thirties!

While most costs skyrocketed... electricity's cost per average kilowatt hour declined.

Plug it in... flip a switch... turn a dial Records show that today's family uses four times more electricity than 25 years ago... twice as much as ten years ago... for better living. So naturally bills will be somewhat higher.

Yet, it only takes a penny to provide for each of these conveniences: eight hours refrigeration... 18 slices of toast... five hours of radio listening... and one and two-thirds hours of TV enjoyment.

Can you think of any other item in your budget so reasonable?

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Bible Material: Acts 15:36 through 18:30; Philippians 2:12-18
Devotional Reading: Isaiah 55:6-11.

God Changes Lives

Lesson for January 24, 1960

THE CHRISTIAN religion did not burst into the world as a brand-new set of ideas. Christians were not then—and right Christians are not now—just the same people with new ideas. A man does not become a Christian by believing something on Sunday that he hadn't believed on Saturday. It is true, a Christian does believe what he didn't believe before, or maybe had never even thought about. But the point is, Christianity doesn't stop with thinking. It goes on to doing, becoming. Something happens to the people who believe.

Dr. Foreman

The Second Mile

In the book of Acts we have glimpses of the changes that come into life that God has touched. The writer of Acts was not a philosopher or a theologian, he was a doctor, he was interested in symptoms. In his story of Paul's first visit to the little city of Philippi, he gives us the symptoms of being a Christian. First there was this woman, Lydia. Women had more freedom in the Greek world than in the Jewish world. This lady was a business woman, an independent merchant, presumably successful for she owned a house large enough to hold a number of house guests. You might have thought Lydia did not need to be converted. She attended prayer meeting, she was a worshiper of God. But she wasn't already a Christian, though she was on the way. This good woman we read, "opened her heart" to what Paul was saying. We know that Paul would be telling the story of Jesus. This God in whom Lydia already believed, this God she already worshiped, had actually come to earth, lived, suffered, died, risen again, in the person and the life of Jesus. Paul would certainly be saying that Christ died for us. We don't know for certain what Paul said, but we do know this good praying woman opened her heart. Just as simple as that. Now she was not a wicked person... The change God wrought in her was not bad-to-good, it was good-to-better.

Sanity

Then we have the strange little story of the poor slave girl who told fortunes. Today they would send her to a psychiatric hospital. In the language of that day, when Paul spoke to her the evil spirit came out of her. Now this girl was not bad, she was weak. She was no better than a trained seal, a thing to make dishonest money with. She was not running away from God or hating him, she was likely hated the sort of life she had to live. What we know about her is that the change which came over her took her out of the class of half-human things and made her a true person. She was no longer controlled by her masters, no longer by an unclean spirit. She was a human being in her own right. The change Christ made in her was not wicked-to-good, but weak-to-strong, mental sickness to mental health, sub-human to human.

Conversion of a Brute

Finally we have the story of the jailer in that same city. Here was a genuine bad-to-good change. You would probably hear said there was just no use hoping for anything good to come into his life. He was a man brutalized by his occupation, a man who made his living by being cruel to helpless people. Paul himself had (so far as we read) made no effort to convert him. But from the moment Paul said to him, "Believe"—something amazing happened in that man. It is a mistake to expect that when you have faith, something is going to happen to you. It may, or it may not. What is certain, if you are really converted, is that something is going to happen in you. We do not read that Lydia began to make money faster than ever. We do know the poor slave-girl was out of a job—and so was the jailer, perhaps. What was important, what they all experienced, was the power of God. In one person that power took a woman farther along the road she was traveling; in another that power took a girl out of degradation to dignity; in another, it changed cruelty to mercy. But always the same God!

NEXT TO GODLINESS

Soap became a part of his daily life long before he understood its use. He's still more concerned with its bubbles than its cleansing properties—but he knows soap is mighty important.

And no one ever thought of postponing his bath until he was old enough to make decisions for himself!

Wise parents never postpone a child's religious training. Long before he is able to reason, he needs the character-building and guidance of the Church. Christianity should become important to him in his daily experience before its truths can be fully grasped by his mind.

We are fortunate that our churches are equipped to instill a vital Christian faith in the youngest child. Fortunate is the boy or girl whose parents begin his religious training in their church's Nursery or Beginners' Department.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Bernard W. Spaulding of Verona, was calling on his grandfather, W. W. Spaulding, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. George Holly called on Mrs. Shelby J. Banta, Tuesday afternoon.

THE FARM BARGAIN COUNTER

Buy a farm in the country with buildings for the price of a house and lot.

225 Acres—Two small four-room houses, 3 barns, fixed for Grade A milk, 1.65 tobacco base, 75 acres hay, on a blacktop road, watered by a large creek that isn't been dry since Noah built the ark; a little rough but what can you expect for $58 on acre?

175 Acres—Beautiful seven-room house, 2 good barns, fixed for Grade A milk, county road, 1/2 mile from blacktop, 1.87 base, lots of hay, some timber, a nice place to live. Owner says sell for $12,000.

80 Acres—6-room house, combination stock and tobacco barn, 9 acre base, 3 miles of Williams-ton, rock road, 1 mile from the blacktop, asking $6,000.

72 Acres—Old house (not fit to live in), old barn, 6 base, $40 per acre, but you need a helicopter to get to it.

169 Acres—Small 4-room house, lots of ridge land; feed barn, large tobacco barn, 2.85 base, 2 miles from Williams-ton. This is a money-maker. Priced at $15,500.

110 Acres—7-room house, good barn, some ridge land and some high bottoms, county road runs around two-thirds of this farm, about 1.5 base, owner says sell at $8,000.

73 1/2 Acres—6-room house, large barn, 5 acres hay, about 1 acre base, 6 acres virgin timber, and priced at $9,500.

50 Acres—Good 4-room house, good combination barn, some Bottom land, .78 tobacco base. A good buy—at $7,250.

The 3 above farms are located between Knoxville and Gardnersville.

72 Acres—In Kenton county, 4-room house, large barn, grade A dairy, on blacktop road, running water in house, 2 miles from Piner, 1.42 base, $13,500.

HOUSE & LOT - BABY FARM

4-room house, on 1/4-acre lot, garden spot, near church, 1/2 acre, in heart of Knoxville, $3,750.

6-room house, also 4-room house connected with a store building that can be turned into living quarters, small barn, all on 4 acres of land with 5 tobacco base, all buildings in good condition, and on blacktop road, on Portland Road. A steal at $9,500.

Lots of rides and car-pools leave this section for Cincinnati daily. 50% down will get possession and deed on all the above property. For more information, contact

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Editor, FL 7-5018

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Kidwell called on Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Kidwell was the victim of an automobile accident several months ago, is now able to walk around in her home but outside of that the requires assistance.

The Homemakers Club met with Mrs. Ralph Howard on Tuesday. We had a good attendance with several visitors. The lesson was presented by Mrs. Eleanor Rice and Mrs. Marjorie Keeney. Plans were made to make lamps on Tuesday 18 at U.H.L.P. office. A white elephant sale was lots of fun and netted a tidy sum for our treasury. Everyone enjoyed the day since Mrs. Howard and her daughter, Mrs. William Binder are such pleasant hostesses. Next meeting will be at the Staffordsburg Church with Mrs. J. A. Keeney as hostess.

We regret to learn that John Klein is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital, having suffered a heart attack a few days ago. To complicate things further his granddaughter, Mrs. Jacqueline Gentry is also hospitalized. Hope both are soon recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder were guests on Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser.

Calling on J. A. Keeney during the week were T. B. Stephens, Mrs. Nellie Piquery, Rev. Parish and Misses Alma and Mary Stephens.

An occasion of interest was the celebration by Mr. and Mrs. John P. Riggs of their Golden Wedding at their home on Bowman Creek Road on Sunday, January 17.

Miss Frances Klein and Mr. John P. Riggs were married on January 12 1910 at the home of Rev. John Summey. The witnesses present were Mr. and Mrs. John Olinger and Mr. and Mrs. William Summey. They have one son, Edgar Riggs, one grandson, Glenn Riggs and one great granddaughter. An estimated seventy-five friends and neighbors attended the festivities. A niece, Miss Emily Klein drove 300 miles from a town in West Virginia to help celebrate.

The W.C.S.S. met on Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Kennedy. The meeting opened by singing "On Christ the Solid Rock I Stand" and prayer by Mrs. J. W. Parish. Mrs. J. W. Shaw, program chairman, presented the speaker of the evening, Mrs. S. R. Mann. Her talk filled in the background of Missions in Africa. Africa is most interesting to us because many know Miss Barbara Norris and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Watson who are working there. There were 13 members and 2 visitors attended.

The USDA says about 40 percent of all U. S. jobs are concerned with agriculture; as actual farmers, farm-service personnel, processors or distributors.

And trade-in time's put off for extra thousands of miles—'60 Chevrolet trucks stay new like never before!

New Dollar-Saving Prices
Step-Vana, 4-Wheel Drives, many light-duty models with automatic transmissions—all are lower priced. Prices have also been reduced on all optional V8's.

New Torsion-Spring Suspension
Eliminates I-beam shimmy and wheel fight! With torsion springs up front there's a brand-new, smoother, easier handling feel behind the wheel. New rear suspensions include wide-based coil springs in most light-duty models; tougher variable-rate leaf springs in medium- and heavy-duty models.

Electronically Balanced Wheels
Front wheels and tires are balanced at the factory. Helps make that new ride revolutionary!

New Cabs—Wider, Safer, More Comfortable
Many models are a whole 7 inches lower (without sacrificing road clearance), so it's easier to hop in and out of cabs. Still there's more space inside: more room for hats and hips, more foot room with suspended pedals. Cabs are safer, too; new build makes them 67% more rigid.

Plus Improvements All Through the Line
A new steering linkage system that cuts vibration, means better control. There's new V8 efficiency. Sixes long famous for saving. New key-turn starting. Higher, wider visibility. Talk to your Chevrolet dealer about the world's most advanced trucks.

Engagement Announced

Miss Carol Wilson

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, Verona, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol, to Roy Bell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bell, Piner.

Miss Wilson will be graduated from Walton-Verona High School in May. A June wedding is planned.

GIRL SCOUT OFFICERS

At a meeting January 6, the Girl Scouts of Walton elected officers. They are: President, Carol Groger; vice president, Candace Thornton; secretary, Carolyn Armstrong; treasurer, Barbara Groger; demerit chairman, Lana Block; assistant demerit chairman, Nellie Bradshaw; and reporter, Clara Roberts. Mrs. Alberto Groger is leader of the group.

Two new members were welcomed at the meeting, Joyce Carol Mitts and Debbie Lusby.

The girls will be taking orders for cookies January 30.

Serving In Germany

Army Sergeant Walter G. Long, 29, whose wife, Lucile, lives on Crittenden, Route 2, is participating in a six-week field training exercise with the 3d Armored Division in Grafenwohr, Germany. The exercise is scheduled to be concluded Feb. 10. The training, which will be climaxed by a mock war pitting armored, artillery, aircraft and infantry units against realistic aggressor forces, is designed to test the combat readiness of the 3d Armored Division, a major part of the NATO shield of defense in Europe.

A squad leader in Company C of the 1st Division, 3d Infantry, Long entered the Army in 1950 and was last stationed at Fort Knox. He arrived overseas in May 1959.

Miss Robertson Is Contest Winner at Simon Kenton High

The 1960 Betty Crocker Home-Maker of Tomorrow in Simon Kenton High School is Jennene Robertson, a senior.

She received the highest score in a 50-minute written examination on homemaking knowledge and attitudes taken by graduating girls. She will receive an award pin, manufactured by Jostens and representing the slogan, "Home Is Where the Heart Is." Her examination paper will be submitted for competition with other high school winners to name the state Betty Crocker Home-Maker of Tomorrow.

The test, which was prepared and judged by Science Research Associates of Chicago, was taken by a record number of 379.018 girls in 12,597 schools, an increase of 29,868 girls and 337 schools over last year.

Total enrollment in the six-year-old $110,000 scholarship program sponsored by General Mills, has neared the two million mark. Alaska and Hawaii are participating for the first time this year.

Each state "Home-Maker of Tomorrow" will receive a $1,500.00 scholarship and an educational trip, April 23-29, with her school advisor. The tour will include New York City and Colonial Williamsburg and will culminate with the American Table Banquet in Washington, D. C., on April 28, at the Statler Hilton Hotel, where the All-American Home-Maker of Tomorrow will be announced. The runner-up in each state will receive a $500 scholarship; the school of each state winner will be given a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica.

The scholarship of the All-American Home-Maker of Tomorrow will be increased to $5,000. The second, third and fourth ranking Home-Makers of Tomorrow in the nation will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships, respectively.

Crigler Heads State Assn.

John E. Crigler, Hebron, president of the Boone County Fair for the past 15 years, has been elected president of the Kentucky Assn. of Fairs and Horse Shows Inc.

A former director and vice president of the association last year, Mr. Crigler was elected to head the group at the annual two-day convention attended by some 100 county fair and horse show officials at Louisville.

WALTON, KENTUCKY — THURSDAY, JANUARY 28, 1960

Volume 45 - Number 4

Named Red Cross School and College Activities Chairman

Mrs. Wallace Scott Grubbs, 298 Main St., Florence, has been appointed chairman of Red Cross School and College Activities in Boone County. It was announced today by Frank M. Grieme, chairman of the Cincinnati Area Red Cross and treasurer of the Kroger Co.

In her volunteer job, Mrs. Grubbs will coordinate and guide Junior Red Cross activities in Boone county schools. These activities provide interesting materials that tie in with children's classroom work. Many of the projects also aid children overseas who are victims of disasters. The Red Cross' "accent on youth" provides the organization with a tremendous source of vitality and enthusiasm," Mr. Grieme said.

In volunteering her services to the organization, Mrs. Grubbs said, "To me the Red Cross is a wonderful organization, and it is an honor to be a member. I feel that I will enjoy working with this organization which is always in some way helping others."

Mrs. Grubbs served as a vice chairman in Boone county for the successful 1959-60 United Appeal, Community Chest-Red Cross. She is president of the Florence Lions Club Ladies Auxiliary, a member of the Stringtown Woman's Club, and the Walton Volunteer Fire Department Auxiliary. She and her husband have four children.

Each year more than 29,000 Northern Kentucky students, 2,626 of them in Boone county, enroll in the Junior Red Cross. They make more than 12,000 gifts for patients in 17 Northern Kentucky hospitals and institutions. To promote international friendship they ship overseas each year more than 1,200 gift boxes and many paintings, correspondence albums, chests, and recordings of school music. The Junior Red Cross volunteers also stage entertainments at many local institutions.

CURTIS CHANDLER

Services for Curtis Chandler, who died Sunday at the home of a sister, Mrs. Mayo Hayden, Owensboro, was held Tuesday at the Hamilton funeral home, Verona, followed by burial in New Liberty.

Mr. Chandler, who was 52, was a machinist for the American Can Co. He lived at 261 Emming street, Cincinnati.

He also leaves his widow, Edith; his mother, Mrs. Susie Glone, Verona; and two stepbrothers Thurston Chandler, Loveland, O., and Ivory Chandler of Owensboro.

KENTON P.T.A.

The January meeting of the Kenton Elementary P.T.A. was held at the school Thursday, January 21. Mrs. Herbert Woyke, safety chairman, was in charge of the program. A film on school bus safety was shown. Mrs. Woyke announced Tom Armstrong, second grade and Glenn Clark, sixth grade, were the winners of the safety poster contest sponsored by the P.T.A. Mrs. Mary Bates, first grade, won the room count.

Taylor Mill School P. T. A. Observes Fathers' Night

The January meeting of the Taylor Mill School P.T.A. was held Monday night in the school cafeteria. Father's Night was celebrated with the husbands of the regular officers in charge. Gilbert Halberstadt presided. Devotions were given by Mrs. Gilgert Sippe. A salute to the flag and followed. The secretary's report was given by Robert White and the treasurer's report given by Wesley Hall. Joe Applegate gave a talk regarding an athletic program to be installed at Simon Kenton High.

Miss Riley's third grade won the room count. Mrs. Halberstadt announced the P.T.A. membership is open until February 1, and the Mother Singers will sing at the P.T.A. convention.

Mrs. Frank Jacobs was in charge of a movie and talk on safety. Bruce Clark announced a civil defense training course will be available at the school for 30 persons interested. The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments served.

JAMES W. HUEY

James William Huey, a northern Kentucky farmer and antique dealer, died Sunday at his residence at Huey Corner, Boone County. He was 75 years old and had been a member of Big Bone Baptist Church more than 60 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mayme K. Huey, and a daughter, Mrs. Eddie M. Moore of St. Louis. Services were held Wednesday in Big Bone Baptist Church with burial in church cemetery. Chambers and Grubbs funeral home had charge.

SECOND SMORGASBORD HELD AT LOCAL CHURCH

Once again, the Beacon Class of the Walton Methodist Church is sponsoring a Smorgasbord Dinner. "All you can eat" will be the theme of this dinner to be held February 13.

The Beacon Class has sponsored many dinners at the church and this will be the second Smorgasbord. The last one was a tremendous success—the food is always delicious and you receive excellent service, in a most pleasant surroundings.

The Beacon Class donated the profits from its last dinner, over $200 to the Church Board for the expansion program. The church just recently had a new bulletin board designed and built by Heinz Wahrenburg, is now planning a new parsonage and other additions to the church. Everyone is invited to attend this dinner on February 13th.

Burley Tobacco Quota Announced By USDA for 1960

The U. S. Department of Agriculture has announced a national marketing quota of 494.9 million pounds for the 1960 crop of burley tobacco.

Converted to acres, this quota results in 310,275 acres available for burley in 1960. The acreage available for allotment in 1959 totaled 309,919 acres. The small increase in the 1960 acreage is included in the reserve for establishing allotments for farms that have not grown burley tobacco during the past five years, for correcting errors, and for adjusting inequities. For most farms, 1960 burley allotments will be the same as in 1959.

In connection with this announcement, USDA officials pointed out that burley supplies have declined to five successive years. However, the present supply of 1,736 million pounds is still substantially in excess of "normal" as defined in the controlling legislation.

As directed by present legislation, burley tobacco quotas for the 1960 crop will be supported at 90 percent of parity; since marketing quotas will be in effect. Quotas for the 1959, 1960 and 1961 crops of burley were approved by 98.7 percent of the 190,453 growers voting in a referendum held February 24, 1959.

Burley tobacco is grown principally in Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana, Missouri, and West Virginia.

Walton Christian Church to Observe Youth Sunday

Carl R. Flock, director of Youth Work for the Christian Churches of Kentucky, will be the speaker for Youth Sunday at the Walton Christian Church. The annual day set aside for special attention to the work of youth of the church comes next Sunday, January 31.

Carl R. Flock

The youth of the church take part in the worship service on Sunday morning and present their program at a supper Sunday evening at 6. Miss Betty Jones, recent 4-H speech winner for the county will be the evening speaker. All friends and members of the church are invited to the supper.

Youth serving on the worship committee for the Youth Day services are Miss Frieda Jones and John Arnold Hartman for the Christian Youth Fellowship and Miss Carol Groger and Bobby Jones for the Chi Rho Fellowship. Serving on the supper committee are Miss Martha Miller and Miss Betty Jones for the Christian Youth Fellowship and Miss Betty Waters and Miss Ruth Menke for the Chi Rho Fellowship.

The Christian Youth Fellowship is for high school youth and is headed by Miss Miller with Mrs. George Fiske as counselor. The Chi Rho Fellowship is for the sixth through the eighth grades and Miss Jo Simpson is president, with the minister, Rev. George Fiske, as counselor.

MRS. ALBERTA STEPHENS

Mrs. Alberta Kelly Stephens of Petersburg, died early last Friday at Christ Hospital, Cincinnati.

Mrs. Stephens, member of a prominent Boone county family, was 61 years old. She had suffered a long time. She was a member of the Petersburg Christian Church.

She is survived by her husband, A. C. Stephens, a farmer, and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Brown and Mrs. Ed Smith, both of Burlington.

Services were held at 2:30 p. m. Sunday in the Petersburg church, with burial following in Petersburg Cemetery. Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

Saturday is Last Day For $2 Subscription

MRS. IDA M. OSBORN

Services for Mrs. Ida May Osborn, 77, of Fowler Creek Road, Independence, were held at 2:00 p. m. January 20, at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, with burial in Florence Cemetery.

Mrs. Osborn died January 18 at Booth Hospital, Covington. She was a member of the Florence Christian Church, and Latonia Council D. of A.

She leaves two sons, Cecil Osborn of Cincinnati, and Edwin Osborn of Latonia Lakes; four daughters, Mrs. Grace Bridgeman and Mrs. Lorena Leslie of Covington, Mrs. Eleanor Wilson of Newport, and Mrs. Catherine Horan of Cincinnati; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Ruth Grampke of Cincinnati; 22 grandchildren, and 12 great-grandchildren.

Fire Numbers and How to Use Them In Walton Area

Fire Chief Chas. G. Worthington, of the Walton Fire Department, has stated that citizens should list the following phone number, it could save your life. The number is HU 5-4141. That is the Emergency phone number of the Fire Department. This number is also to report other emergencies.

To call the City Hall for any city or personal business dial HU 5-4383. Do not use dial number HU 5-4141 except to report a fire or emergency. The day the phones are switched the firemen will take turns staying at the fire house to receive fire and emergency calls. When you call give name of person, road or street, type of emergency and DO NOT hang up the phone until the person you are talking to tells you he has all the necessary information.

The department is in the process of installing five of these fire phones, until they are installed the alarm will be answered at the fire house. Don't forget the number HU 5-4141.

In events you do not have a phone and are in the area of the fire and you can get to North corner of fire house in Walton, turn it in there.

Walton New Organization

Walton will have a new organization, a Choral Club, if you as a person, will help by attending the organizational meeting Saturday, Jan. 30 at the Old School building on Main Street at 8 o'clock (enter at the front door).

Fortunately, a Choral Director has already donated his time and efforts for the advancement of this idea. The need is voices and people who love to use them!

Literary Club To Meet

Mrs. Nicholas Welch will be the hostess to the Walton Women's Literary Club on Wednesday, February 3rd at 2 p. m. at the Walton Methodist Church.

Past Presidents To Be Honored by Simon Kenton PTA

The Simon Kenton P.T.A. will hear Mrs. Harry Braun, state scholarship chairman for the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, speak on "Scholarships" when it meets Monday at 8:00 p. m.

A tea honoring past presidents of the unit will be served in observance of Founders' Day. Mrs. Margaret Shapshire, Founders' Day chairman, will preside at the tea.

Invitations have been issued to the following past presidents: Mrs. Nelle Morgan, Mrs. George Kline, Mrs. Lewis Gabriel, Mrs. Frances Tomlin, Mrs. William LeMasters, Mrs. Harry Rubbe, Mrs. A. W. Butler, Mrs. William Eger, Mrs. Thomas Finney, and Mrs. Harold Halfhill.

Representatives from the P.T.A. attending the mid-winter conference of the Sixth District, Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, held at Newport High School, were Mrs. Clifford B. Hymer, Mrs. Wesley Hall, and Mrs. Harry Halberstadt.

Pay For As Many Years As You Like

Saturday is the last day that you can get a year's subscription to the Walton Advertiser for $2.00, after that will be $2.50 per year.

But here is the "Good News" that we have been passing out for about a month: You may subscribe as a new reader for as many years as you desire, from now until Saturday, for $2.00 per year. ALSO if you are paid in advance, you may add as many years as you desire, at the $2.00 rate.

There are hundreds of our readers who have paid from one year to ten years in advance — saving plenty money. We were glad to see so many take advantage of it — we thank you all.

But remember, we must draw the line after Saturday. There will be no exceptions. If we receive letters post marked before the first of February, we will accept them, but otherwise we must adhere to the line.

We are the last paper in this section of the state to raise our subscription rate, but it had to come due to constantly rising prices for everything that we buy.

Again thanks for your wonderful co-operation and loyalty to our paper.

Wa-Na Club Meets Feb. 1

Charles Alphin will be the guest speaker at the February 1 meeting of the Wa-Na Woman's Club, which will be held at Jannado Restaurant. His topic will be "Health and Welfare."

Attendees for his meeting are Mrs. Richard Bachmeyer and Mrs. Clifford Ryan. Mrs. Jack Rouse will give the Spiritual Guidance.

MAGGIE THORNTON

Mrs. Maggie Thornton, Kenton County native, died Sunday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Catherine Brown, Green Road. She was 85 years old.

Besides Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Thornton is survived by another daughter, Mrs. Gertrude Jackson, Bowling Green. Services were held Wednesday in Swindler funeral home, Independence with burial in Independence cemetery.

Kenton County PTA Council Honors Its Past Presidents

"If we must die on third base, die trying," was the advice given by Miss Sarah Rives, supervisor of the interrelated grades in the Covington public schools, when she addressed the Kenton County Council of Parents and Teachers recently. Miss Rives, a great enthusiast of sports, compared one life to a baseball diamond using as her topic, "Don't Die On Third Base." We can stay on third base or have the courage and initiative to move ahead, explained Miss Rives.

With the resignation of Mrs. Ross Owens as music chairman, Mrs. Morris M. Hodge will fill the vacancy. The nominating committee for the forthcoming year is composed of Mesdames W. M. Head, H. J. Halfhill, Harold Buxton, N. C. Comer, and H. Charles Jones.

As a special tribute to the past chairman of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, Mrs. Whitson directed her devotional meditation to them. The topic, "Better World Making."

A coffee honoring past presidents preceded the meeting. Mrs. W. M. Head was in charge, assisted by Mrs. Gilbert Kingsbury and Mrs. Otto Wolff. Mrs. George White, president of the Sixth District, Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, and Mrs. Chester Tait, past president of the council, served. Each past president was presented a gift. Those attending were Mrs. Chester Tait, Mrs. Milton Loder, Mrs. A. L. Stone, and Mrs. H. J. Halfhill.

Mrs. Shelby Kinney, president, conducted the business meeting. P.T.A. units represented were Bechworth, Gaywood, Crescent Springs, Dixie Heights, Forest Hills, Kenton Elementary, Park Hills, Simon Kenton, Taylor Mill, and Versailles.

WHITES TOWER

Ernest Ryle, Editor—FL. 7-5432

Our news this week will be short and in the nature of a farewell to all my old friends in the Tower. As we look out our window this Monday, January 25, I can see the Legion Hall, the Latonia Refinery, Calvary Baptist Church, Kentucky Movie Theatre and The T. & W. Printing Co. We haven't really retired, just tired.

Another resident of the Tower has moved to Sandfortown. We refer to Vallie Bils and family, and next to Andy Lipscomb has lived here the longest and we know this family will be missed as they had many friends in and around the Tower.

We have been fortunate in getting another correspondent for this section but we will not reveal the name only to say we are turning over our stationery to them and feel that they will be more successful than we were getting the news, so please telephone any news items to her and I am sure they will be taken care of each week.

THE FARM BARGAIN COUNTER

Buy a farm in the country with buildings for the price of a house and lot.

225 Acres—Two small four-room houses, 3 barns, fixed for Grade A milk, 1.65 tobacco base, 25 acres hay, on a blacktop road, watered by a large creek that isn't been dry since Noah built the ark; a little rough but what can you expect for $58 an acre?

175 Acres—Beautiful seven-room house, 2 good barns, fixed for Grade A milk, county road, 1/2 mile from blacktop, 1.87 base, lots of hay, some timber; a nice place to live. Owner says sell for $12,000.

80 Acres—6-room house, combination stock and tobacco barn, 9 acre base, 3 miles of Williams town, rock road, 1 mile from the blacktop, asking $6,000.

72 Acres—Old house (not fit to live in), old barn, 6 base, $40 per acre, but you need a helicopter to get to it.

169 Acres—Small 4-room house, lots of ridge land, fixed barn, large tobacco barn, 2.85 base, 2 miles from Williams town. This is a money-maker. Priced at $15,500.

110 Acres—7-room house, good barn, some ridge land and some high bottoms, county road runs around two-thirds of this farm, about 1.5 base, owner says sell at $8,000.

73 1/2 Acres—6-room house, large barn, 5 acres hay, about 1 acre base, 6 acres virgin timber, and priced at $9,500.

50 Acres—Good 4-room house, good combination barn, some bottom land, .78 tobacco base. A good buy at $7,250.

The 3 above farms are located between Knoxville and Gardnersville.

72 Acres—In Kenton county; 4-room house, large barn, grade A dairy, on blacktop road, running water, in house, 2 miles from Pine; 1.42 base, $13,500.

HOUSE & LOT - BABY FARM

4-Room house, on 1/4-acre lot, garden spot, near church store, in heart of Knoxville, $3,750.

143 Acres—6-room house, basement, 1/2 bath, 3 ponds, creek, 30 acres hay, private road, three miles from Verona, approximately 1.2 acres tobacco base, $15,000. Joins another tract of 67 acres, small barn, stripping room, two ponds, with a total base of 2.12 acres. Total prices for all 210 acres—$25,000.

We were glad to greet our grandson, Capt. Richard Dorsey; his wife and little daughter, Sarah, last Saturday in our new home on Tibbatts St. in Latonia. They never forget to call on us when they visit this section.

Gracie Gilbert Damm and family will move into their new home shortly on Decoursey Road.

We wish to thank all of those who were so helpful in getting us moved and settled here in Latonia, and also the staff of the Advertiser for printing the conglomeration of mediocre mellifluousness sent in by us during our term as editor of the Whites Tower news.

EDITOR'S NOTE: With the "retiring" of Mr. Ryle as our correspondent we feel that we have lost a very original, interesting writer—and many people who did not know anyone in Whites Tower were constant readers. Wish your the best, Mr. Ryle!

Oak Ridge Homemakers

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met at the home of Mrs. John Love on January 19 and enjoyed a very interesting lesson on "Window Treatment" taught by Mrs. Kenneth Blake. She showed illustrations of various types of draperies and curtains to use on casement windows and conventional type windows. She also showed ways to treat windows with extension rods that are now available, that will make a window look longer and wider. A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess, after which Mrs. Chester Tallent conducted the business session. Mrs. Chester Barton and Mrs. Charles Cummins will represent the club at the State Farm and Home Convention in Lexington on January 26th. Next month the roll call will be answered by interesting facts about Washington or Lincoln, so members were advised to study up on those two presidents whose birthdays are in February. Others present were Mrs. Ollie Miller, Mrs. Edward Rust, Mrs. T. B. Renaker, Mrs. Leo Krout, Mrs. Kenneth Galloway, Mrs. E. C. Piper and three guests.

Rev. Manors, who was formerly the pastor of Independence Baptist Church and who has been pastoring a church at Germantown, Ky., for the past eight years, has retired and he and Mrs. Manors are now living in Nicholas.

The L. E. Thompsons were saddened by the death of their little pet dog on Monday morning. He was run over by a bakery truck.

Mrs. Elizabeth Egger was called to London, Ky., last week by the death of her sister-in-law.

A large group of people from Oak Ridge Baptist Church attended the skating party last week, sponsored by the Intermediate Department of the Sunday School.

The Browne Troop of Plantation Heights had a skating party last Saturday afternoon.

This writer took a trip to North Carolina last week. I wish that road map makers would mark where there are cloverleafs at intersections. It is very confusing to be watching for a road to turn left and find it turning to the right because of a cloverleaf. Some states have their turns very plainly marked, but others are more confusing than a Chinese puzzle.

Mrs. Gilbert McClure of Plantation Heights underwent a gall bladder operation Tuesday morning.

South Taylor Mill

John Klein of Taylor Mill Road, is doing nicely at St. Elizabeth Hospital following a recent heart attack. Mrs. Walter Gentry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Klein, is much improved at St. Elizabeth Hospital, after an emergency operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Richardson were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lybrian Richardson, Stafford Heights, Independence.

George Gram, formerly of this community, is on the critical list at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The golden wedding anniversary open house for Mr. and Mrs. John P. Riggs, Morning View, Route 1, was attended by many friends, neighbors and relatives of the couple, with everyone extending to them congratulations and best wishes.

Notice To Creditors

The Boone County Court has granted Administration upon the estate of Vira R. Cornelius, deceased, and has appointed Roy L. Elliott ancillary executor. All creditors having claims against said estate are hereby notified to present them to the said Roy L. Elliott, Route 1, Morning View, Kentucky, verified according to law, not later than six months from January 21, 1960.

Note of Thanks!

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department would like to say thanks to everyone who attended our social at the Fire House on Saturday night. The door prize was won by Charlie Watson.

For safety's sake, be sure that "self-polishing" waxes are thoroughly dry before you walk on them. Twenty minutes is usually allowed for drying — 30 minutes in humid weather.

FARM BUREAU

in Action
by CH Fields
Kentucky Farm Bureau Fed.

Farmers Are Turning Back Home For Solutions To Their Problems

After some ten years of watching their incomes go down while the rest of the economy keeps on going up, farmers have about reached the conclusion that they can't depend upon the politicians in Washington to solve most of their major problems. More and more of them are turning their attention away from Washington back to their own organization at home.

Farmers have about reached the conclusion that bargaining power in the market place can't be created and maintained in Washington, D. C., where most of the members of Congress represent consumers—not farmers. The only answer is for farmers to turn their energies and finances to building commodity bargaining power in their own organizations.

That is just one of many thoughts in the minds of Farm Bureau leaders throughout Kentucky as they get ready for a series of special-called meetings in 1960. The Board of Directors of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation has requested each county Farm Bureau president to call a special meeting of county FB boards of directors during the second and third weeks of February. At these meetings, the county leaders will hear an explanation by state leaders on plans for an expanded and improved Farm Bureau organization of the future.

The expanded Farm Bureau program, which was recently recommended by the State Board of Directors after more than a year of study by a committee of 10 county FB presidents, is designed to get the organization ready for the challenges of the "Challenging Sixties."

In a speech to the State Board recently, President Burl S. St. Clair said this to the members of Farm Bureau's plans for the future: "Some enemies of Farm Bureau have said the day of the general farm organization is coming to a close; and that tomorrow's farm organization will be more specialized by commodities and services. But to those who visualize the big picture, the answer is not a further splintering of organized effort, but further concentration of resources, services, and influence into the type of organization that can effectively compromise the differences of farmers so they can speak and act through unity of purpose and program."

PINER HOMEMAKERS

Miss Zelma E. Beverly, Kenton County Home Demonstration Agent, attended the January meeting of the Piner Homemakers Club with display cards and materials to bring added interest to the lesson on home furnishing.

"Your Windows Are Important," was the theme of the lesson given by Mrs. Frank Elliott and Mrs. Ray Tomlin.

Plans were made by some of the members to attend the annual Farm and Home Week, to be held January 26-29, at the University of Kentucky. Mrs. John Dwyer, citizenship chairman, had charge of the afternoon program. Mrs. Dwyer plans to bring a guest speaker to the February meeting to talk on Hawaii. Mrs. Angela Pelizzari read notes on exterior beautification.

Mrs. John Dwyer was hostess at her home in Morning View, assisted by her sister and niece, Mrs. Best. Other members attending were: Mrs. J. C. Cavanaugh, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Malcolm Oliver, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. Stephen Rich, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. Leslie McMillan, Mrs. Charles Flynn, Mrs. Elmer Spaulding, and Mrs. Clarence Duncan.

GOSHEN CHRISTIAN MISSION MEETING

The Goshen Christian Mission met in the church basement January 7, for the regular monthly meeting, with Suse Beagle and Jessie Denton as hostesses.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Ruth Worthington and opened with prayer. Minutes were read by Ruby Worthington, in the absence of Secretary Edna Collier, who was ill. Esther Glenn gave the treasurer's report. After the business session it was discussed and voted upon to visit two shut-ins in the afternoon of the next meeting. The group adjourned for the noon hour when a delicious dinner was served.

In the afternoon, the session was opened with prayer by Ruby Worthington, followed by the study of Paul's life and teachings, which was taught by Rachel Daniels. A lot is being gained from this study.

Those attending were Inez Vassine, Suse Beagle, Mamie C. Pak, Jessie Denton, Goldie Glenn, Rachel Daniels, Nettie Mann, Margaret McMillan, Virginia Wells, Jessie Kohler, Catherine Depner, Ruth Worthington, Lula LaFollette, Esther Glenn, Ruby Worthington, Joan Ashcraft, and the following children, Albert Denton, Wayne Mann, Dexter LaFollette, Donald Glenn, Tonya and Greg Ashcraft. Two visitors were also present, Mrs. Lois Mann and Mrs. Ruby Gliss.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, February 4, with Tobitt Bridges and Ruby Worthington as hostesses.

W. H. Roe at Burlington

W. H. Roe, Contact Representative of the Kentucky Disabled Ex-Service Men's Board, will be at the Court House in Burlington, February 3rd, from 9:00 until 11:30 a. m. He will assist veterans and their dependents with claims for benefits due them as a result of their military service.

Dairy foods take a fifth of the consumer's food dollar, according to U. S. government statistics. At the same time, dairy foods supply a considerably larger proportion of the total supply of food nutrients than any other food group.

PROGRESS

COUNT US IN! YOU BET we want for Southern Railway has no intention of being "among the missing" when it comes to working for the continued growth and progress of the territory we serve. As we have in the past, we will go right on doing everything we can to promote the prosperity and well-being of the modern South that means so much to all of us.

This is no idle promise. It is, in fact, a part of our corporate creed: "To develop the territory we serve and to foster faith in the South, its people and its opportunities."

It would take a long list, indeed, to include all those in the South today who are working for and looking toward a still greater future for America's "youngster" opportunity-land—the modern South. If such a roster is ever drawn up, be sure to "count us in."

$17,183 Given To Warsaw Residents By the Red Cross

The American National Red Cross gave $17,183 in disaster assistance to victims of the Christmas Day explosion in Warsaw. It was announced last week. All of the aid was provided as an outright gift to help meet the needs of Warsaw residents, and no repayment will ever be expected or accepted, according to Mrs. Corrine M. Thrall, who was in charge of the National Red Cross disaster assistance program.

Mrs. Thrall and other National Red Cross workers were on the job in Warsaw from Christmas until early last week. A Citizen's Advisory Committee—composed of representatives of the community—assisted the Red Cross by hearing and approving requests of Warsaw families for Red Cross assistance.

A total of 36 Warsaw families applied for Red Cross assistance, Mrs. Thrall said. However, she pointed out that four families withdrew their requests when they found their insurance was adequate to meet their needs. This left 32 families who were given Red Cross help.

Mrs. Thrall expressed her thanks to Mayor O. A. Bogardus, Mrs. Delmar Alexander, chairman of the Gallatin County Red Cross, members of the Advisory Committee, the newspapers, radio and television, and to all individuals and organizations who helped during the emergency rehabilitation period. "Without all of this help, the Red Cross could not have completed this disaster assistance program in such a short period of time," Mrs. Thrall said.

Cecilian 4-H Club Meets

The Cecilian 4-H Club held its monthly meeting January 18. The next meeting was set for February 15. The president, Mary Lee Wainwright, called the meeting to order. Miss Marcum visited the club and talked to members and leaders. The following night, January 19, the club enjoyed a skating party at Lloyd's Skating Rink, which was a great success.

VISALIA PTA MEETS

At the January meeting of the Visalia P.T.A., Mrs. Harry Figgins presented the sixth grade with a plaque as winners in the P.T.A. membership drive. Miss Janice Redman received a book for her part, individually.

Mrs. Ray Chiesman, secretary, presided and Rev. Donald Pineur gave the devotion. Miss Alice Budke gave the salute to the flag, and Miss Julia Halpin of the Newport Public Health Service, spoke on diseases and preventive medicines.

Mrs. Harold Buxton announced that the mothers' sing group would meet at her home to practice for February's Founders' Day program. Mrs. Wilmer Steinhilber's sixth grade won the room count.

Pt. Pleasant Homemakers

The Point Pleasant Homemakers, at their January meeting, held in the home of Mrs. Ben Otten, accepted with regret the resignation of their president, Mrs. John Kovach. The new president is Mrs. Ambrose Foltz. Highlighting the meeting was a citizenship quiz by Mrs. Fred Black and a history of music by Mrs. John Darby. Deferring from a regular lesson, members exchanged recipes and cooking ideas.

Members attending were Mesdames John Darby, Jack Brewer, Earl Morehead, James Delwick, Stanley Schulte, Ben Otten, Fred Black, Leslie Stephenson, George Copeland, Ambrose Foltz and a guest, Mrs. Burnett.

Bible Material: Acts 17; I Thessalonians 1-2
Devotional Reading: Luke 8:4-15

Response

Lesson for January 31, 1960

A VISITOR from America was talking with a missionary to an Eastern country. "I read your letters," he said, "but it seems to me they are all success stories. Now that I have visited you out here I know you have a great many failure-stories. I know these have caused you a great deal of disappointment and even tears. Why don't you put some of these failure-stories into your letters?" The missionary's reply was, "Well, the American churches don't want us to weep on their shoulders. What they want is success stories, so I give 'em what they want. But it's only half the truth."

Some Acts, It Seems, Were Wasted

The whole Book of Acts is a kind of missionary news-letter on a large scale. But Luke, good doctor that he was, knew that an honest case-book will include the failures, the patients that died in spite of everything. The book of Acts does not give a careful reader the impression that everything was rosy in the First Century. Some acts of the apostles were fruitful of good. Other acts, it seems, were wasted, so far as visible results went.

There is nothing automatic about preaching. The same sermon will have opposite effects on different persons. This has always been so. Take the story of Saint Paul at Thessalonica, Berea and Athens. He visited those places in 1-2-3 order. He was the same Saint Paul—but what a difference in the responses he got! Thessalonica got into an uproar; he had to make a quick get-away by night. Berea was much better, he got Bible study classes going. Some imported hoodlums from Thessalonica broke up the meetings but it wasn't Berea's fault. And then we find him in Athens, ancient city named for the goddess of wisdom. But when Paul offers them the heavenly Wisdom they do not recognize it.

Is It God's Fault?

Some people think that God does not really want every one to be saved. So he never tries to get through to the people he has no intention of saving. The "call" of God is such that it comes to some in a loud compelling sound; to others in a whisper they cannot hear at all. Very few people really believe this. Most Christians believe that God sent his son into the world to save the world, that God desires all men to be saved. They dare not lay the blame for failures on God. So it is said by many that wherever a failure of the Gospel message has to be chalked up, the fault is not God's but the messenger's. The witness was not given in an attractive way, the minister did not speak with conviction, sin in the lives of Christians erect a barrier that no "good words for Jesus" can get over. There is much truth in this, of course. Most of us who are older can remember preachers we heard in years gone by, preachers we thought—ridiculous (and maybe they were). If we are Christians now, we thank God that finally God's message came to us by a more credible messenger than some of those.

Some People Never Open Their Mail

But after all, the heart of the reason why some respond to God and some don't, is in the hearts of those who hear. Consider the difference, in these notes in Acts, between the believers and those that never believed. There were at least three points of difference. 1. Some were serious, others laughed it off. God's message, with some people, is like a registered letter marked "Deliver to addressee only." The mail man delivers it, the man knows the letter is for him—but then he tosses it into the wastebasket without opening it. He is afraid he will have to answer it. 2. Some of Paul's hearers (as in Athens) were quite willing to talk about religion, it's quite a conversation-piece. But when it came to doing something, making a decision, they lost interest. Talkers-only are not going to sit very close when God's conversation gets personal. 3. Some were humble; others too proud to listen. Isn't that the root of it?

These hands might have painted the world's greatest masterpiece. These hands might have played faultlessly the most difficult concerto. These hands might have mixed a compound that would destroy disease. These hands might have been raised in blessing over a trusting mankind.

Instead they are chained. Somewhere, somehow, they failed. Perhaps they reached over a counter and stealthily snatched a jewel. Perhaps they searched a safe and took what other hands had worked for. Perhaps they held the gun that wiped out a life. Somewhere they went wrong. Somewhere they failed.

Hands do not act by themselves. Personalities control them—personalities swayed by impulses and convictions, good and bad. The Church, your Church, is waiting to guide hands, minds, hearts and lives. Here good impulses, right convictions are born and nurtured. Here, in God's House, hands learn to move aright to find life's work, unchained and triumphant.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Please go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Editor, FL 7-5018

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wharton and children of Dayton, O., spent the weekend here with relatives.

We extend our sympathy to Lester Adams of Latonia who lost the fingers from his right hand while too close to an electric saw.

Frankie Wuncan Jr. is visiting with the Chester Rapp family while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Duncan are gone to Mayo Clinic where Mr. Duncan will undergo several tests.

We hear that Lou Ervin is recovering nicely from a recent stroke.

J. A. Keeney enjoyed calls from the following during the past week: Mrs. E. B. Rich, Miss Alma Stephens, Miss Jane Mackie, Miss Mary Stephens, Mrs. Corsee Brinkley, Mrs. Don Keeney, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp.

Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent Tuesday with her niece, Mrs. Willard Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp called on their son on Sunday evening. Chester was a bit under par from a bout with a virus infection.

Glad to know that John Klein came home from the hospital on Friday and is improving nicely.

Sorry to miss the Whites Tower news since Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Ryle have moved to Latonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Barnett and daughter called on Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Barnett on Sunday.

Miss Susan Rich spent Sunday with Miss Carol Shaw.

It is so nice to have good neighbors. Recently when I had extra men to cook for and was wondering what I could fix quickly, my neighbor called to say that she had made an up-side-down cake for me. And it was surely good. Trouble is you just feel in debt to some folks for their many kindnesses.

Some folks say "why do I hear items in the Staffordsburg news?" I wish folks would call when they learn of events. I do not know when to call you.

Mr. C. P. Duncan is again hospitalized. Hope he is soon much improved.

Wintering steer calves in Kansas produced an average of a quarter pound more daily gain on wheat than those fed sorghum grain.

Charles Allphin Is Speaker at Wa-Na Club on February 1

The Wa-Na Women's Club met Monday, February 1st, at Janodo's Restaurant. Co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Clifford Ryan and Mrs. Richard Bachmeyer.

Following the pledge to the flag and the club election, the president, Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., introduced Mr. Charles Allphin, former State Welfare Commissioner, who gave an interesting talk in each individual's place in society and what we must do to deserve the freedoms we now enjoy in America.

Mrs. Asa Rouse gave the Spiritual Guidance, followed by roll call. Mrs. James Falls reported in her attendance at Frankfort, January 26th for the mid-winter Board Meeting of the Kentucky Federated Women's Club. Governor Combs welcomed 800 women at a tea in the Governor's Mansion. Mrs. Mable Maddox, Mrs. Richard Bachmeyer, Mrs. Lewis Webster and Mrs. George Arnold were present with Mrs. Falls to represent the Wa-Na Club.

Refreshments were served the following members: Mrs. Richard Bachmeyer, Mrs. Leonard Cook, Jr., Mrs. James Falls, Mrs. Charles Holder, Mrs. John Maddox, Mrs. John Mayhugh, Jr., Mrs. Asa Rouse, Mrs. Clifford Ryan, Mrs. George Ryan, Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, Mrs. Dale Stephens, Mrs. Barney Taylor and Mrs. Mike Ryan.

We wish to thank the people of Walton who contributed to our Mothers' March of Dimes Drive.

Youth of Christian Church Here Are Honored Sunday

The youth of the Christian Church opened National Youth Week by leading the worship at morning services last Sunday. The Rev. Carl Flick State Director of Youth for the Christian Churches of Kentucky, delivered the message.

John Arnold Harman was at the organ and the special music was sung by a quartet composed of Martha Miller, Fred Jones, Joyce Miller and Betsy Jones.

Worship leaders were Betsy Jones, Asa Miller, La Simon, Ruth Simpson, Lynde Worthington, Carol Grager, Bobby Jones, Georgia Brooks, Jessica Hopterton, Roetta Hall, Jimmy Himsdale, and Randall Hall.

Acting as deacons and deaconesses were Terry Nae, Betty Nae, Ruth Menke, John Allen Lucas, Richard Clement, Denis Lusby, Judy Horn, Nancy Jones, Cheryl Miller, Peggy Isler and Junior Ryan. Ray Hammerley was usher.

Nearly 70 youth and their parents and friends attended the Youth Supper Sunday night. Martha Miller was the mistress of ceremonies and the Rev. Flick gave the story of the progress of acquiring camp sites for the youth of the Christian Churches of Kentucky.

Betsy Jones spoke on the mission theme for the youth for the winter and spring. She detailed the relationship of the youth of America to the youth of Africa. Fred Jones sang "I Believe," accompanied by Mrs. George Fluke.

"Congo Handicap," a film strip from the American Bible Society, gave the picture of modern Africa in the Congo which showed both the advances they have made and the needs still to be met.

The older youth class made up of recent graduates of high school is taught by Mrs. George Fluke. The high school class is taught by Dale Stephens who is also the chairman of the Education and Youth Committee. James Spencer teaches the junior high or seventh and eighth grade class. Mrs. Pete Miller is the teacher of the Junior class.

Counselors for the high school youth group, the Christian Youth Fellowship, is Mrs. Fluke. Counselor for the Junior high youth group, the Chi Rho, is the Rev. George Fluke.

recognition of his life-saving work in resuscitating a 22-month-old boy who appeared to have died by drowning was given Alvin L. Lawrence, an assistant manager of the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company, Friday, January 22.

The President's Medal, top award of the National Safety Council for the saving of human life, was presented Mr. Lawrence at the annual meeting of the Greater Cincinnati Safety Council at the Sheraton Gibson Hotel.

Norman Ohlman, field representative of the N. S. C., made the presentation. The President's Medal is awarded only for successful resuscitation in cases of drowning, electric shock, gas asphyxiation or other accidental causes of suspended respiration.

In the 32-year history of the medal, approximately 2,175 have been awarded, N.S.C. records show.

Mr. Lawrence saved the life of young Randy Faulconer after the boy became drowned while playing in a small swimming pool in the yard of his home, 8824 Grenda Drive, Glenview Subdivision. The accident occurred last June 22.

Safety and civic minded Mr. Lawrence, who joined CGSE in 1958, used the mouth-to-mouth resuscitation method to restore normal breathing to the child after Mr. Faulconer had pulled the near lifeless body of her son from the pool.

Life saved members, a private physician and the mother of the child all were high in their praise of the heroic efforts of Mr. Lawrence. "His presence of mind in responding quickly to the emergency and his knowledge of the mouth-to-mouth resuscitation method saved young Randy's life," they agree.

Mr. Lawrence had received special first aid training as a Captain in the Walton Volunteer Fire Department and as a member of CGSE's Electric Meter Department.

He and his family reside in Walton, where Mr. Lawrence has been active in Boy Scout organizational work.

Kenton - Community 4-H Club Met at the Harry Redman Home

The Kenton and Community 4-H Club held its regular meeting Monday, January 4, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Redman. Miss Ruth Marcum explained about points for the electric projects and invited all the teenagers to a party given to Campbell county by a 4-H group.

Projects were discussed and Miss Marcum took the list of the project books needed. A leaders clothing meeting was set up with Miss Marcum for Friday, January 15, at 11 a. m. After the meeting adjourned all enjoyed games and refreshments.

At an earlier meeting we held election of officers and for each senior officer we have a junior officer. In December the little ones took over. They are learning to conduct meetings. The results were very gratifying. We met Monday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Redman.

The club is having a skating party at Lloyd's in Latonia, February 29, from 7 to 10 p. m. Everyone is invited. Tickets can be obtained from any Kenton and Community 4-H member.

Audit Report on File

The inspection and audit report of the accounts and records of the Walton-Verona Independent School District for the school year ending June 30, 1959 is on file in the office of the superintendent. Anyone interested in the financial records as well as other records of the Walton-Verona Schools may come to review this audit as well as audits of previous years. Every person in the school district has a right to know how their school funds are used and thereby would be most welcome to come and read the reports made by the auditors of the State Department of Education.

Social at Legion Hall

The regular social of the American Legion Auxiliary will be Sunday Feb. 7th at 2 p. m. at the Legion Home. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Second Annual Style Show Given Again Due to Great Success

Due to the success of the first style show held last year, the Wa-Na Club is again sponsoring a style show Monday, March 7th at 8 p. m., to be held in the Walton-Verona School auditorium.

Models will wear the latest fashions presented by the Walton Department Store, Walton.

You may obtain tickets from any club member or at the door. The charge will be 50c, which includes refreshments. Proceeds of this show will go to further the civic activities of the club. A door prize has been donated by Ryan's and you may have the lucky ticket.

Lincoln Day Dinner

The Honorable John Sherman Cooper, candidate for re-election to the United States Senate, has invited his colleague and close friend, the Hon. Kenneth B. Keating of New York, to join him as principal speaker at the Annual Lincoln Day Dinner which will be held at the Brown Hotel, Louisville, on Saturday evening, Feb. 13, at 7 p. m.

The Honorable Thurston B. Morton, Chairman of the National Republican Committee, will also attend.

Needless to say, this is going to be a very important meeting for all Kentuckians to see their elected officials who strangely enough are considered seriously as presidential material.

Youth Choir Services

The Independence Christian Church Youth Choir will have four Sunday evening services during February on the theme of Christian Missions. All services will start at 7:30 p. m. Please try to attend if interested in this kind of Christianity.

BAKE SALE SATURDAY

The Seventh Grade of Walton School will hold a Bake Sale, Saturday February 6th starting at 10 a. m. at the Walton Hardware and Dry Goods Store.

Walton Dial Phone System Set To Change-Over Sunday, Feb. 8

Vallton-Verona Team Take Grant, Falmouth To Get To Finals

Searches Falmouth 54 - 46

The Walton-Verona Bearcats got off to a rounding start in the Pensacola Tourney last week, as they scorched Falmouth Red Devils 54 to 46 in their opening play last Thursday night. In the first quarter the Cats led by 16 to 10 and never did relinquish that lead. Hammond was high for the losers with 20 points. Poore was high for the locals with 17. The game was hard fought as the Red Devils have a good fast ball club. But the Bearcats just couldn't let them catch up.

Also Take Grant County

Friday night the Bearcats were ready for action, again were in the swing of things as they set out to down the Grant County Braves 52 to 47. The Cats were hot. The first half was very close and just as the buzzer sounded Grant County's guard O'Neil threw a basket to make it very close 21 to 20, Walton leading. Back from the half the Braves outscored the Cats 17 to 11 during the third quarter. This was of no worry as the Bearcats as they tossed in 20 points to 10 for the Braves in the final stanza. Poore was high for the winners with 23. Link was high for the losers with 15, with O'Neil close with 14.

But This Is Sad Ending!

Saturday night the Bearcats met the Pendleton County Wildcats who were favored to win the tournament. The Pendleton club outscored Walton 17 to 10 in the first quarter but the Bearcats stayed within reach until the final quarter, when they were outscored 32 to 16—in final score 72 to 47 in favor of Pendleton County.

The Bearcats made a very good showing in the Tourney and are to be commended.

CLAUDE STAMPER

Claude Stamper, a retired carpenter, died last Friday in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Louisville. Mr. Stamper, who was 68 years old, was a veteran of World War I. His home was in Covington.

Mr. Stamper was a native of Carroll county but had lived in Northern Kentucky for 34 years. He was a member of Banklick Christian Church in Kenton county.

His survivors include a son, Clifford A. Stamper of Baton Rouge, La.; two brothers, Courtney Stamper of Ghent, and Earl Stamper of Eagle Station, and a half-brother, John M. Williams of Ava, Mo.

Services were held Monday afternoon at the Sixth Funeral Home in Florence. Burial in Warsaw Cemetery.

How To Use Fire Numbers

Fire Chief Chas. G. Worthington, of the Walton Fire Department, has stated that citizens should list the following phone number, it could save your life. The number is HU 5-4141. That is the Emergency phone number of the Fire Department. This number is also to report other emergencies.

To call the City Hall for any city or personal business dial HU 5-4383. Do NOT use dial number HU 5-4141 except to report a fire or emergency.

The department is in the process of installing five of these phones, until they are installed the alarm will be answered at the fire house. Don't forget the number HU 5-4141.

ROAD BLOCK SUCCESS

The Walton Volunteer Fire Department, with able assistance from the Ladies Auxiliary, conducted a road block in Walton, Sunday, Jan. 24 for the New March of Dimes. Organized by Mr. George Ryan, the Fire Department ladies vigil on U. S. 25 was maintained all day. The ladies served coffee and doughnuts and lent verbal support.

Smorgasbord Dinner Given for Second Time by Beacon's

The Walton Methodist Church is sponsoring a Smorgasbord Dinner, under the supervision of the Beacon Club. This will be given the day before Valentine's Day so bring your sweetheart, wife and the whole family and enjoy a wonderful meal of deliciously prepared food and excellent service.

The Beacon Club dinners are endorsed by Duncan Hines but ask the several hundred people around these parts that have been to their last few dinners and you'll get wholehearted recommendations! You will get "all you can eat" and adults are $1.50 and children 75c.

The dinner is between 5 and 8 and carry outs will be available to those who wish to come and buy their dinner to take home.

VALENTINE DANCE

A Valentine Dance, sponsored by the American Legion Post 277, will be held at the Legion Home in High St. Saturday, February 13 from 9 to 2. Music will be furnished by the Gene Cahill Trio.

SCRAP DRIVE

The Youth Choir of the Independence Christian Church will sponsor a paper drive Feb. 6th. The organization will also sponsor a scrap drive Feb. 13th. If anyone has any old scrap or papers that they are not using and want to dispose of, please call Fleetwood 7-8911, Fl. 7-5321, or Fl. 7-8401.

Asks Co-operation of Users in Beginning

At 2:01 A.M. Sunday morning, February 7, 1960, the new HUDon exchange of Consolidated Telephone Company will be put into service at Walton, replacing the old rotary switchboard. The new equipment being put into service is of the most modern available. The more than 800 telephone users in Walton will be able to dial Florence, Union and Hebron numbers and are also connected to the Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) network, which enables them to dial nearby cities and towns as well as distant points such as Chicago, New York and Los Angeles. Dialing instructions are listed on pages 1 to 4 in the telephone directory. Other long distance calls will be handled by operators in Covington. Customers on party lines will enjoy the telephone instrument which means they will no longer have to listen to code rings.

The new exchange is in a new red brick building located on Church St. at the rear of the Fire House.

Nearly all of the outside plant has been rebuilt and all telephone instruments are new, many in a variety of colors. Many customers have ordered extension telephones.

The Telephone Company urgently requests that all customers use their directory as much as possible. If this is not done the information operators will not be able to give prompt service to anyone.

The actual conversion will require only a few minutes of time but arrangements before and work after the cutover is complex and time consuming. The work of removing the more than 600 old telephone instruments will begin on Sunday morning and will be completed as quickly as possible. These old instruments can cause trouble on lines and customers are urged not to use their old instrument after they hear "Dial Tone" on the line.

This is another step in the more than $2,000,000 expansion program that the Telephone Company has underway. Only the Burlington exchange remains to be changed to dial and it is scheduled to be cutover to dial this spring.

The blue book of telephone numbers is being distributed to all customers along with a station code card to all party line customers.

Some Phone Employees To Last Positions

G. B. Foscoe, Jr., vice president and general manager of Consolidated Telephone Company, announced that the conversion to the dial system in Walton would necessitate the elimination of some employees of the company. These would be operators only, he said.

The company has a termination allowance whereby employees displaced will receive pay based on their length of service.

Employment for the following operators will be terminated at the dial cut-over: Bessie Brown, Helen June Doane, Anna Lou Gross, Bertha Jack, Katherine Jemison, Fay Sparks and Mary Worthington.

The company presently has more employees than it had in 1954 before Florence and Union were changed to dial and the operators were laid off there. Even though local operators aren't needed more servicemen and dial equipment men are needed for the more complex and increased number of telephones.

HENRY G. BEDINGER

Word has been received of the death on January 29th of Rev. Henry G. Bedinger, D. D., a nephew of the late John C. Bedinger, Ben F. Bedinger and Rev. D. E. Bedinger of Walton.

A native of Boone County, Dr. Bedinger has a number of relatives and friends in this vicinity.

In addition to various Presbyterian pastorates, he served as president of Flora Macdonald College at Red Springs, North Carolina, for many years.

At the time of his death he was residing with his wife, Mrs. A. G. Bedinger, at 311 South Winston St., Florence, South Carolina. Four children also survive him.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Editor, FL 7-5018

About the finest thing that happened the past week was the arrival of Rev. and Mrs. F. Johnson and family, a former pastor here. We were all so glad to see them and from their happy faces they were glad to see many of their old friends.

Glenn Finnell, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. George Finnell Jr. is entering the hospital on Wednesday to undergo surgery. Quick recovery to you, Glenn.

Mr. C. P. Duncan who was hospitalized several weeks ago by a fall, but had been back at work for a short while, has now suffered a relapse. He is at present a patient at Christ Hospital in Cincinnati. Hope he is soon feeling fine.

The Delmer Stephens family had been missed at Sunday School for a couple of weeks. When they were called we learned that they had all been quite ill with the flu. The smaller children are still well.

Calling on Mr. Keeney, the past week were the Johnson family, L. M. Denner, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and boys, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Riggs, Morris Wharton, Mrs. Leslie Riley, Mrs. Jno. H. Kleete and Mr. John Shaw. He really appreciates his friends coming to see him, even if they can only stay a few minutes.

Rev. Parish enjoyed the conference at Wilmore very much.

Rev. and Mrs. Ray Martin and children of LeGrange spent Friday night and Saturday with her parents. J. J. Barnett called on Thos. Borkers on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Riley and son spent a long weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Winford Riley of Indianapolis, Ind.

THE FARM BARGAIN COUNTER

Buy a farm in the country with buildings for the price of a house and lot.

225 Acres—Two small four-room houses, 3 barns, fixed for Grade A milk, 1.65 tobacco base, 25 acres hay, on a blacktop road, watered by a large creek that ain't been dry since Noah built the ark; a little rough but what can you expect for $58 an acre?

82 Acres—If you want something nice here 'tis. 6 room house, basement, furnace, 3 barns, water pressure, located at intersection of 2 black-top roads on Portland Ridge. To settle an estate, base 1.55, price $25,000.

80 Acres—6-room house, combination stock and tobacco barn, 9 acre base, 3 miles of Williams-town, rock road, 1 mile from the blacktop, asking $6,000 but will take $5,750.

72 Acres—Old house (not fit to live in), old barn, .6 base, $40 per acre, but you need a helicopter to get to it.

169 Acres—Small 4-room house, lots of ridge land, feed barn, large tobacco barn, 2.52 base, 2 miles from Williamstown. This is a money-shaker. Priced at $15,500.

110 Acres—7-room house, good barn, some ridge land and some high bottoms, county road runs around two-thirds of this farm. 1.65 base, owner says sell at $8,000. (House needs repair).

73 1/2 Acres—6-room house, large barn, 5 acres hay, about 1 acre base, 6 acres virgin timber, and priced at $9,500.

The 2 above farms are located between Knoxville and Gardnersville.

72 Acres—In Kenton county; 4-room house, large barn, grade A dairy, on blacktop road, running water in house, 2 miles from Piner, 1.42 base, $13,500.

8-Room house, on 1/4-acre lot, garden spot, near church, store, in heart of Knoxville, $3,750.

143 Acres—6-room house, basement, 1/2 bath, 3 ponds, creek, 30 acres hay, private road, three miles from Verona, approximately 1.2 acres tobacco base, $15,000. Joining another tract of 67 acres, small barn, stripping room, two ponds, with a total base of 2.12 acres. Total prices for all 210 acres—$25,000.

If you'll notice this list is constantly changing, I've sold 4 of 'em and added some new ones in the last two weeks.

Over 350 people attended the quarterly Hymn Sing of the North Bend Association at Oak Ridge Baptist Church, Sunday afternoon. The program was led by Rev. Spencer, Music Director of Lotonia Baptist Church, and included choirs, quartets, duets and congregational singing.

Mr. Harold Perry has been quite sick with the flu, but was feeling better and was able to set out in the sunshine for a few minutes on Sunday.

Mrs. Billy Tomlin and son, Dennis have the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Wade and two of their children from Cincinnati, visited Mr. and Mrs. Russell Yates on Sunday.

Mrs. Cecil Bates has been quite ill the past week and her Aunt, Mrs. Edith Richardson has been staying with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Haddix and children visited his mother in Paris, Ky. on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Renaker visited their daughter Mrs. Charles Archer in Lexington over the weekend.

Mrs. L. E. Thompson and two of her children were sick with the flu last week.

Mrs. Betty Jones and two of her children were sick last week.

We understand that Mr. Tom Horton was quite sick and in the hospital last week.

Miss Mimmie Baker, one of the First grade teachers of Taylor Mill School had a bad case of the flu last week.

Hospitalization Not Required

Mrs. Walter Perry is suffering from an eye infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Newsom went to Frankfort, Ky. last Thursday.

Mrs. Minnie Berg has the flu. Jim, Ed Rose and Tommy Rehbohl vacationed in Florida recently.

The Olive Hill district is the chief fire-clay producing region of Eastern Kentucky.

Fluid milk and cream account for about half of the dairy foods consumed by the American public. About one-fourth was consumed as butter.

Cheese is next on the list, at one-tenth of total output. Ice cream and other frozen dairy foods come next, while consumption of evaporated and condensed milk takes nearly 5 percent, according to the National Dairy Council.

Sticking To It

Lesson for February 7, 1960

PEOPLE get the strangest ideas about what it was like, nineteen centuries ago. When a thing has been a success for that length of time, people forget that it ever trembled on the brink of failure. Names that have been honored for nineteen centuries, we think must have been held in high honor from the start. When the most we know about a place long ago is the names of some very good people who lived there, we suppose everybody was cut from the same cloth.

The plain fact is, Christianity had to fight for a toe-hold in the world in which it was born. It was not an irreligious world, the place was swarming with religions. It was not a world that felt "hungry for the gospel." It was not a world where the "higher values" were much sought after. In short, it was a pretty discouraging place to start.

Corinth, Cross-Roads Capital

This was specially true at Corinth. Paul started the Christian church going in that city. He has been known so long as an apostle that it is easy to over-rate his reputation at the time of his peak years. If you had got one citizen of Corinth, any citizen at all, by the corner of his toga and told him the Paul the Apostle, yes sir a real apostle, think of that, was coming to the city and intending to start a Christian church, the Corinthian citizen would have said something like—

"Apostle—what's that? Paul—who's he? Never heard of one or the other. Oh, a religionist is he? We've more than enough of that kind here. I hope he's not from the east? He is? From Jerusalem? Oh—a Jew . . . Well, outside of being a superstitious lot, those people are rioters by nature. Mark my words, there'll be rioting in the synagogue before that man's been here long. You can have him."

That wouldn't exaggerate a bit the scornful reception Paul might expect in Corinth—and he knew it. He wrote some years afterward that he came to Corinth in weakness (probably ill health), and in much fear and trembling—in modern slang, he was all shook up.

Paul the Dauntless

Nevertheless Paul was determined to start a Christian church going in that big booming industrial city of Corinth. Not only were there all the difficulties of making a dent on a large commercial city, but Paul himself had good reason for not feeling at his best. He had just come from Athens, where (to be blunt about it) he had been a flop. Indeed he had been chased out of more cities than he had been invited back to. He had not stayed anywhere long, he had to battle for the chance to be heard. Would he do any better at Corinth? No Corinthians would bet on it.

As a matter of fact, in spite of the riot that did occur, just as you might have expected, in spite of being ignored, slandered, opposed, threatened, ridiculed, he stuck to it—and won. When he left that city he left behind him a Christian church which for all its faults had enough Christians to keep the church on its way all their lifetime.

In Spite of Everything

What kept Paul sticking to it? It was partly his own stubborn temperament, partly having friends who believed in him. But the main reason was that he was convinced he was doing God's work. People who get discouraged about the church ought to read about Paul again. In spite of ill health, active and bitter opposition, riots and threats of riots, in spite of the great difficulty he found in getting members from the "better class," in spite of the coarse materialism of a city like Corinth, the poverty of the church and its many problems, Paul did what he believed the Lord wanted him to do—stay with it till the job was done.

God surely wants his church to succeed, today as at any time in the past. But it is likely to succeed, in city or in country, wherever it is, only if the people who are responsible for it share, as Paul did, had something of the persistence of God.

The University of Kentucky, was founded as the Agricultural and Mechanical College in 1865.

WHEN A MAN HAS A BROTHER

A man's got to look after his brother. That's what Timmy said the other day, as he stood beside our baby. And I told him he was right. "You are so much stronger than this tiny, little creature," I said. "From now on, you've got a real responsibility!"

A man does have to look after his brother . . . especially when that brother is weak. But there are moments, too, when even the strongest man may need a brother!

In the eyes of the Church, all men are brothers, just as all men are equally beloved. As long as there is a church near you, you are not alone. You have only to open the door and walk in and you will be at one with your fellow man . . . and at home with your brothers.

Peggy Binder returned to U. of Ky. Sunday to resume her studies and Janet to Eastern State College after a ten-day vacation with their respective families.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard spent last Thursday at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Barrow of Latonia. Mrs. Bess Hill, president of the Sta. Hardburg Homemakers Club, sponsored a bus trip last Tuesday and with forty fellow members spent a day at the Farm and Home Week Convention of which this writer was one and we all enjoyed a very pleasant trip. This I think being one of the better parts of being a Home-maker.

Mrs. Howard Willoughby entertained a group of friends on Friday evening in her home with a Stanley Party. All had a lovely time. Mr. and Mrs. James Burke and daughter, Ruthie, visited Miss Bernice Elkins of Covington on Sunday afternoon.

We still miss the Ryle family at Whites Tower and will for a long time but wish them luck in their new home in Latonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Mintkenbough spent Sunday with their parents at the Old Kentucky Motel in Walton where they also had as guests an aunt and uncle from Panama.

CARD OF THANKS!

I wish to thank Eddie Edkins, the Gold family and Mary Ann for aid and offers of help Saturday, Jan. 23 when I fell.

Later when I could go no further everyone was kind at Dunn's Service Station, especially Travis and locating Dr. Huey and Robert Slayback. The past few days the visits to my home, phone calls and inquiries were appreciated.

The beautiful get-well cards from friends and family groups, the Boya Class from the Christian Church, the Bethany Class, the Fidelis Class and the Rose Marlowe Circle from Baptist Church, the loan of crutches from the American Legion, all these things were tokens of friendship and good wishes for me.

May I continue to deserve your friendship and good will, again thank you.
WILBUR D. KELLY.

STEP IN IT—

STEP OUT IN IT

Get the quiet proof of Chevrolet's superior performance on the road—No other car in the low-priced three can match the borne-on-the-wind sensation you get from a ride in the 1960 Chevrolet. But that's not surprising when you consider to what lengths Chevy has gone to provide for your comfort at no extra cost to you. As you drive, count the ways Chevrolet has been thoughtful:

Supple Full Coil suspension—Coil springs at all four wheels melt bumps as no other suspension can. Taking the punch out of rough roads is their only function—they don't have to anchor the rear axle.

Butyl rubber body mounts—Thicker, newly designed body mounts further insulate you from the road.

Body by Fisher—Only Chevy in its field offers the polish and craftsmanship of Body by Fisher.

Foam cushioned seats—Chevy offers foam cushioned seats in both front and rear in all series but one.

Safety-Girder frame—X-built and not merely X-braced, the Safety-Girder frame affords greater rigidity to minimize twisting and squeaks.

Hydraulic valve lifters—Oil lubricated hydraulic valve lifters reduce engine noise to a whisper.

Cushioned steering shaft—A universal joint and cushioned coupling keep those annoying road tremors from the steering wheel.

Precision balanced wheels and tires—Here again Chevy has shown concern for your comfort by eliminating vibration in this vital area—tire life is longer, too.

Easy steering ratio—Chevy's high ratio Ball Race steering takes the work out of steering for you.

Superior weight distribution—Chevy rides better, handles better and stops better because the car's weight is more equally divided between the front and rear wheels.

Wide choice of power teams—Choose from 24 different power combinations to satisfy the itching driving foot—more than any other car.

Lincoln Honored at Meeting of Ryland Homemakers Club

"Lincoln" was given preference in articles read during Roll call for the most outstanding personality born in February, by the Ryland Homemakers club which met recently at the home of Mrs. Harold Ward.

In her talk on "Curiosities and Draperies," Mrs. Anthony Wolf pointed out that fabrics should be carefully checked for long wear and easy care. She also stated to read and save information on the label or tag when you buy curtains and follow instructions carefully, some finishes and fabrics need special care.

Mrs. J. H. Lawson, garden chairman told members that the pruning of shade trees and shrubbery must be done at once before the sap gets up, and check to see if dead and dry plants are removed to make way for the new shoots which will appear.

Devotions were given by Mrs. Harold Ward on "Friendship" she commented, "There is an art in making and keeping friends. We must be forgetful of self and mindful of others in our every day life."

Mrs. Leslie Smith conducted the meeting and welcomed a new member Mrs. C. J. Castberry. The pamphlet "Food Searchlight" was read by Miss Ruth Schmidt on the best buys in the food markets.

Mrs. Ward was assisted by co-hostess Mrs. James Mueller in a Valentine and hanky exchange for the following members: Mesdames A. R. Hicks, O. J. Williams, F. B. Herms, William Damon, Leslie Smith, Anthony Wolf, J. H. Lawson, C. J. Castberry and Miss Ruth Schmidt. Guests present were: Mrs. Dell Roland, Mrs. George Campbell and Mrs. Martha Noble. The club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Hallfill for the March Meeting.

Boy Scouts Observe 50th Anniversary By Attending Church

The Boy Scouts of Walton attended church together last Sunday at the Walton Christian Church to mark the beginning of a week of celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the movement in the United States.

Some thirty-five leaders, Scouts and Cub Scouts in a special section as a witness to the religious nature of the Scouting movement, as shown in the Scout Oath "To do my duty to God." The local organization is under the sponsorship of the Volunteer Fire Department of Walton but leadership as it is in most troops is also involved in the churches of the community.

Taking part in the service as leaders of the Scouts were Clayton Jones who gave the morning prayer and led the responsive reading, Paul Simpson who read the Scripture lesson, and Al Lawrence who gave the benediction.

All those who are connected with Scouting have been wearing their uniforms to remind us that this is SCOUT WEEK and that the movement which has meant so much to the spiritual life of our nation is now fifty years old.

HOGAN WINGATE

Hogan Wingate, retired Boone County farmer, died Feb. 3rd at his home in Petersburg after a long illness. He was 89 years old. Graveside services were held at 1:30 p.m., Wednesday, Feb. 3rd. Burial was in Floral Hills Cemetery.

Firemen's Auxiliary Meets

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Walton V.F.D. held its meeting on February 2 at the home of Mrs. Joyce Menke. The Chaplain, led the group in the Lord's Prayer, after which the business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Betty Carlisle.

After the meeting adjourned, Mrs. Menke served refreshments.

The following members were present: Mrs. Betty Carlisle, Mrs. Joyce Menke, Mrs. June Acker, Mrs. Nellie Egan, Mrs. Sharon Grubbs, Mrs. Vada Lawrence, Mrs. Victoria Brown, Mrs. Nora Simpson, Mrs. Joyce Menke, Mrs. Ruth Vest, Mrs. Jean Thornton, Mrs. Elizabeth Medley, Mrs. Delores Wilson and Mrs. Betty Bernkemeier. Two small guests were also present: Gerri Wilson and Stevie Acker.

Little Denmark Club Meets

"Little Denmark" was the name for the newly formed group of homemakers, sponsored by Mrs. Ralph Vanderkinn, of the Mt. Zion Homemakers Club.

Mrs. Papotta presided, and gave a very interesting and helpful discussion concerning the purpose and functions of homemakers club.

Officers were elected and Mrs. L. J. Levison of Devon, hostess of the lovely affair, was elected President. Vice President Mrs. Ollie Droagnes, Secretary Mrs. Glenn Powell, and Treasurer Mrs. Richard Harms.

Others attending were, Mesdames Herman Cooper, Paul Kriemmen, Edward Scott and Ralph Vanderkinn, sponsor.

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Herman Cooper.

BLUE ANGEL DANCE

The Blue Angel Club will hold a dance party Saturday, Feb. 20, starting at 7:30 p. m., at Rocking Horse Restaurant. All teenagers are invited. $1.50 per couple, no stage.

CHAIN OF PRAYER

The Walton Christian Church is one of a record total of 210 churches of the Christian Churches (Disciples of Christ) in the United States and Canada which participated Wednesday in a brotherhood-wide Chain of Prayer leading up to Easter.

The Chain of Prayer, part of the pre-Easter evangelistic program, began January 1 at 12:01 a.m. and will end on Easter Sunday, April 17, at 6 a.m.

At the local church members came to the church to pray and meditate for a period of the day, starting at midnight Tuesday and continuing to midnight Wednesday. The continuous prayer was directed toward the growth and enrichment of the church and its life.

TAYLOR MILL REVIVAL

Revival services will be held at The Taylor Mill Church of Christ, 6203 Taylor Mill Road, February 14 through February 26, at 7:30 nightly (except Saturdays). You are invited to know the church and the life as revealed in the scriptures.

Bro. Herbert F. Stuecher, minister of the First Christian Church, Lexington, will be the evangelist. He is well known in this area.

Bro. Lester LeMay, pastor, will be the song leader, and Miss Judy Conner of Cincinnati Bible Seminary, will assist at the piano.

Bro. Lester LeMay

MRS. EDNA SMITH

Clothing Unit In 4-H Club Work Is Most Valuable

The clothing unit in 4-H is one of the most valuable and beneficial projects both for the present and future that any girl can take. She not only learns how to make her own clothes, which can definitely be an economical contribution to the present family's income but this knowledge will, of course, be invaluable to her when she becomes a homemaker with a family of her own.

The following are the different units for each year now available in 4-H:

First Unit: Akin, pot holder.

Second Unit: Skirt, selected blouse.

Third Unit: Casual school dress.

Fourth Unit: Play clothes.

Fifth Unit: Dress-up costume.

Sixth Unit: Formal.

Seventh Unit: Semi-formal costume.

Eighth Unit: Tailored costume, suit.

"In taking seven years of clothing," Mrs. Graves said, "I have not only learned to choose patterns and adjust them to my size, select suitable materials in relation to color, designs and fabrics, to make beautiful hand stitching, operate the sewing machine, learn different types of seam finishing, but I also learned to model my clothing at the Spring Rally and County Fair. I saw my work in comparison with other girls and felt the joy, elation and happiness at winning a superior, excellent or good on my work. I have been very fortunate in placing either first, second or third in every unit of clothing I have taken. In 1959, I made a full length formal which was the county champion winner. This was one of the greatest thrills I have ever experienced."

Esther Class Meeting

The Esther Class of the Walton Baptist Church held its monthly meeting in the home of Estill Christy. After the business meeting, games and refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be at Wanda Powell's and they invite all to attend.

Circle To Meet

The Marvin Lindsey Circle of the Walton Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ashcraft, Thursday, Feb. 11th.

Woman's Literary Club Meets At the Methodist Church

The February meeting of the Walton Woman's Literary Club was held in the Walton Methodist Church on February 3, with Mrs. Nicholas Welsh as hostess. The president, Mrs. Robert Daniels, presided.

The meeting was opened with the reading of the club collect, followed by a pledge to the flag. Following the business session, Mrs. Robert Sturdivant gave the spiritual guidance. Mrs. Jane Sleet then introduced Mrs. James S. Webster, who gave an interesting paper on February birthdays.

The hostess served a delightful salad course to seventeen members, Mrs. C. S. Chambers, Mrs. J. R. Conrad, Mrs. Robert Daniels, Mrs. J. R. Flynn, Mrs. W. B. Franks, Mrs. M. M. Gabriel, Mrs. J. L. Hamilton, Mrs. George Knox, Mrs. D. L. Lusby, Mrs. Robert A. Miller, Mrs. G. Rosey, Mrs. Sam B. Sleet, Mrs. Forest Thompson, Mrs. James S. Webster, Mrs. J. R. Wheeland, Mrs. Willis Berkshire, and the hostess, Mrs. Nicholas Welsh.

SMORGASBOD DINNER

The Beacon Class of the Walton Methodist Church is busy planning and decorating (Valentine's Day motif naturally) for their second Smorgasbord Dinner Saturday night between 5 and 8 in the basement of the church.

A baby-sitting service will be available in the nursery at no extra charge.

ELECT OFFICERS

The Beacon Class recently installed new officers for the coming year and they are: Don McMahon, president; Thurston Moore, vice-president; Barbara Faye Brakelied, secretary; and Libby Rouse, treasurer. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

J. W. BERKSHIRE

Services for J. Willis Berkshire, 59, of Richmond road, Walton, were held Monday at Chambers & Grubbs funeral home, Walton with burial in the Hopeful Cemetery.

Mr. Berkshire, native of Boone County, died Saturday at his home. He was an electrician, and member of Hopeful Lutheran Church.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Marie Best Berkshire; a son, Jack Berkshire, Walton, and a brother, Joe Berkshire, Burlington.

CLARETTA REQUARDT

Services for Mrs. Claretta Baird Requardt, of Independence, were held Feb. 6th.

Mrs. Requardt, retired telephone switchboard operator at Booth Hospital, Covington, died at Booth Hospital Feb. 3rd. She was a member of Independence Christian Church and Kenton Council, Daughters of America.

She leaves her husband, Frederick J. Requardt, two daughters, Mrs. Roberta Bramlage, Walton, and Mrs. Jeanne McKinley, Independence; a son, Clarence F. Requardt, Covington; her mother, Mrs. Mary Candy Baird, Independence; a sister, Mrs. Zelma Bramlage, Covington; four brothers, Robert L. Baird, Batavia, O.; Hubert E. Baird, Independence; James A. Baird, Covington, and John C. Baird, Latonia Lakes, and 10 grandchildren.

Cooperative Homemakers

The club met at the home of Mrs. Martha Sleet for the January meeting with a very nice attendance. The meeting was called to order by the president, after which the High Lights was given on lamp shades, the trip to the Gas Company, and the Farm and Home meeting that was held in Lexington.

Those attending were, Mrs. Estil Sleet, Mrs. Walter, Mrs. Tom Smith, Mrs. Matt Sleet, Mrs. Charles Spriggs, Mrs. James Riddell and the hostess Mrs. Martha Sleet.

Surprise Birthday Party

Mrs. Rachael Rust entertained a group from the Goshen Christian Church last Thursday at her home, and they had a surprise birthday for Mrs. Prudie Oliver, for her 88th birthday.

There was a big birthday cake in her honor with 18, guests present. They had a wonderful day and there was cake and coffee, soft drinks for refreshments.

The Ohio and Mississippi Rivers meet at Wickliffe, Ky.

GOING-AWAY PARTY

A going away party was given by Miss Jackie Edwards, Moffett Road, Sunday afternoon for Earl Baker of Kenton, who is entering the Army.

Guests were: Andy Lauer, Darylene Haynes, Donald Haynes and Mary Workman of Morning View; Rudy Baker of Kenton; Nelson Edwards, Sandy Miller, Toni Hoppenjans, Sherry Elston, Jane Edwards and Rosemary Frisch of Independence; Shirley Lykins of Kenton; Paula Russell of Morning View; Emil Schmidt and Charlene Schmidt of Covington; Buddy Fields of Taylor Mill, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Edwards of Independence.

FOUNDERS' DAY IS OBSERVED BY THE SIMON KENTON PTA

A tea was served at the recent meeting of the Simon Kenton High School P.T.A. honoring past presidents of the unit, in observance of Founder's Day. Mrs. Margaret Shropshire was in charge, assisted by Mrs. John Butler, Mrs. Nelli Morgan, past president and Mrs. Clifford B. Hymer, president served.

Mrs. Shropshire presented the program for the evening which consisted of orations by two students from the Cook, an eleventh grade student, and Miss Phyllis Tiley, from the twelfth grade. They chose to interpret two orations from the book of Winning Orations of 1956. Miss Cook used as her selection "The Clock," and Mrs. Tiley selected "What Next?" Miss Elsie Hiteman, public speaking instructor, coached the girls. The history of Founders' Day was read by Mrs. B. Hymer.

Past presidents attending were Mrs. Nelli Morgan and Mrs. Thomas Finney. Mrs. Morgan has the distinction of being the first president of the unit having served from 1937 through 1939. A book, presented to the schools library in honor of the past presidents.

"There are four essential" needs in the making of mankind," said Mr. George Mullins, in giving the devotional meditation. They are: Wisdom, Stature, Favor with God, and Favor with man. Wisdom is the ability to form sound judgments, and to use that which we have learned; Stature is physical growth and development. Man is of his best when physically fit; Favor with God is spiritual development which includes all our relationships with God and this relationship should begin in the home; Favor with man is social development that will enable us to be acceptable to others. "To develop the well rounded person, all these things are necessary," said Mrs. Mullins.

Mr. John G. Hines, legislative chairman, advised the P.T.A. that they, as a group, should contact the legislative representative from this area to see what can be done toward better education.

Mrs. Harry Braun, the scheduled speaker, was unable to attend because of illness.

Mr. R. C. Hinesdale, Mrs. Reece Kennedy and Mrs. Clifford Williams were elected to the nominating committee for the forth-coming year.

Mrs. Josephine Lancaster's home-room won the attendance award of $5.00.

Bake Sale February 12-13

Mrs. Erma Stockman had as Sunday guests Mr. and Mrs. Labat Stephenson and daughter Sherry Marlene. It was Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson's Twenty-first Anniversary. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. George Fisher.

Among those who have been confined to their homes, the past week, with the flu, are: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephenson, Mark Meadows, Maynard Meadows, Mrs. Lucile Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson, Howard Stephenson, Mrs. Joe Stephenson, Mrs. Emma Vest, Andy Jarman, Mrs. Hugo Afterkirk, Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter, and Mrs. C. O. Carlisle. All are better at this writing.

There will be a Mission study of the W. S. C. S. of the Methodist Church, Thursday evening, February 11 at 7:30, by Mrs. J. R. Wheelodon. The book, "The Way of Africa," by Dr. Carpenter will be studied. All women of the church are invited.

Circle II of the Methodist Church held its regular meeting Friday evening, February 5 at 7:30, with Mrs. Andy Jarman, hostess. The president, Mrs. Nick Welsh, was in charge of the business session, and Mrs. J. R. Wheelodon explained the meaning of the WSCS emblem. Reports of all committees were given. Mrs. E. M. Hance gave a very inspiring devotional on, "This is the Day." The program, "City Missions" was under the leadership of Mrs. Wm. Roberts. The hostess, assisted by her daughter, Corky, served delicious refreshments to J. R. Wheelodon, Miss Louise Conrad, Mrs. Scott Lancaster, Mrs. Nick Welsh, Mrs. Arthur Doggett, Mrs. William Roberts, Mrs. E. M. Hance, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Thurston Moore, Mrs. Carl Conner, Mrs. Asa Rouse, Mrs. Howard Stephenson, Mrs. Charles Ammer, Mrs. Andy Penn, and Mrs. Jarman and Corky. The March meeting will have Mrs. Scott Lancaster as hostess, and Mrs. Andy Penn, program leader.

Mrs. Lucile Hudson returned to school Monday after being out for a week with the flu. Mr. and Mrs. Dan Roberts attended the basketball game at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, last Saturday evening. Mrs. C. E. Flynn of Fiskburg, was a recent caller on her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mayme Simpson. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen and four sons motored to Buckhorn, Ky., Sunday where they got a daughter from the Presbyterian Home there. Her name is Phyllis Jo. Mrs. Martha Wallace is expected home from the hospital this week. She is recovering from a broken hip. Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sturgeon returned home here Sunday from a vacation in Leesburg, Fla.

THE FARM BARGAIN COUNTER

Buy a farm in the country with buildings for the price of a house and lot.

225 Acres—Two small four-room houses, 3 barns, fixed for Grade A milk, 1.65 tobacco base, 25 acres hay, on a blacktop road, watered by a large creek that ain't been dry since Noah built the ark; a little rough but what can you expect for $58 an acre?

82 Acres—If you want something nice here 'tis. 6 room house, basement, furnace, 3 barns, water pressure, located at intersection of 2 black-top roads on Portland Ridge. To settle an estate, base 1.55, price $25,000.

80 Acres—6 room house, combination stock and tobacco barn, 9 acre base, 3 miles of Williams-town, rock road, 1 mile from the blacktop, asking $6,000 but will take $5,750.

72 Acres—Old house (not fit to live in), old barn, .6 base, $40 per acre, but you need a helicopter to get to it.

169 Acres—Small 4-room house, lots of ridge land, feed barn, large tobacco barn, 2.85 base, 2 miles from Williams-town. This is a money-maker. Priced at $15,500.

110 Acres—7 room house, good barn, some ridge land and some high bottoms, county road runs around two-thirds of this farm. 1.65 base, owner says sell at $8,000. (House needs repair).

73 1/2 Acres—6 room house, large barn, 5 acres hay, about 1 acre base, 6 acres virgin timber, and priced at $9,500.

The 2 above farms are located between Knoxville and Gardnersville. 72 Acres—In Kenton county; 4 room house, large barn, grade A dairy, on blacktop road, running water in house, 2 miles from Piner, 1.42 base, $13,500.

4-Room house, on 1/4-acre lot, garden spot, near church, stare, in heart of Knoxville $3,750.

143 Acres—6 room house, basement, 1/2 bath, 3 ponds, creek, 30 acres hay, private road, three miles from Verona, approximately 1.2 acres tobacco base, $15,000. Joins another tract of 67 acres, small barn, stripping room, two ponds, with a total base of 2.12 acres. Total prices for all 210 acres—$25,000.

If you'll notice this list is constantly changing. I've sold 4 of 'em and added some new ones in the last two weeks.

February Food Preview Features Plenty of Meat

Homemakers can expect to find plenty of meat available for February meals, according to Mrs. Letta Jasper, UK Extension specialist in marketing and consumer education, Lexington. Good prices are predicted for pork, lamb and beef.

Pork is still a top buy, with smoked items showing the least change in price, she says. Bacon, ham and smoked sausages are outstanding features, along with fresh and smoked shoulder cuts. Supplies of Western lamb are expected to rise this month. Beef supplies will average about 10 percent higher than in February, 1959.

"Kraut and Frankfurters" and

"Beans and Weiners" weeks are scheduled for February, so frankfurters and weiners will probably be promoted by special sales. Cold storage holdings of fish products remain high; cod, haddock, Spanish mackerel and whiting are the more plentiful varieties.

Boiled fryers are still in good supply. Although prices are expected to rise and remain slightly higher, they are still an economical protein buy. This is the season when eggs are plentiful. Large-size eggs are recommended by Mrs. Jasper as good buys this month.

Green vegetables that will be low-priced and plentiful this month are cabbage, carrots, celery and kale, she predicts. Dry onions, sweet potatoes, dry beans and peas, macaroni and other vegetables that are easy on the budget at present. Prices on white potatoes from storage are increasing but they are still good investments. New red potatoes from Florida are beginning to arrive at Kentucky markets.

Low-priced fruits in February are oranges, frozen concentrated juice, grapefruit, cranberries, and raisins, Mrs. Jasper says. Some cooking materials that are plentiful now are fats and oils for cooking and salad dressings, and lard for pastries and cookies.

In October, 1786, one of the worst Indian massacres in Kentucky history occurred at the present site of Levi Jackson State Park.

Pioneer Memorial State Park, Harrodsburg, is the scene of the first school house in the state.

More than 500 early settlers and soldiers are buried in Pioneer Cemetery at historic old Fort Harrod in Harrodsburg.

One of the best examples of Georgian Colonial architecture in Kentucky is My Old Kentucky Home at Bardonia.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 35:19-26

Our Fight

Lesson for February 14, 1960

THE CHRISTIAN church is a fighting church. Long, long ago, when everybody spoke Latin, somebody nicknamed the church on earth "Ecclesia Militans," the church at War. Only the church in heaven is called the Church Triumphant. If the church wins victories on earth, it cannot suppose the war is over. It only breaks out in a new place.

What does the church fight? Sin, of course, for one thing. But sin is not the only form of evil. There is Dr. Foreman also suffering, and the church wages war against that, as every church hospital testifies. There is ignorance too, and so the number of church schools and colleges grows year by year. (Ugliness is another form of evil, but the church has been very slow to recognize this, and indeed many churches have actually added to the sum of ugliness in the world. But that is another story.)

When Evil is Organized

A great part of the evil in the world is spontaneous. Nobody seems to push it, it just starts by itself. It is occasional not regular, unpredictable not certain, individual not organized.

But another great part of the world's evil is regular, certain and far from spontaneous. It is organized. It knows the church is its enemy and it takes steps, often all too effective, to muzzle the church or by any means to beat down its opposition.

In the story of Saint Paul at Ephesus, there is a typical case of organized evil. The silversmiths there did a big business making little shrines of the local goddesses and selling these. When Christianity came to Ephesus in the persons of Paul and others, these silversmiths were not heard from, for some time. But as more and more persons were converted, fewer and fewer believed in the local goddesses or bought her little shrines any more. So then the silversmiths got together, worked up a mass meeting, raised so much trouble in fact that for a bad few minutes it looked as if Paul might not get out of the mob's clutches alive.

As with that incident, so it is always: The motive for organized evil, determined, planned opposition to the church and what it is doing—the motive is nearly always money. Whenever it becomes clear that if the church's convictions about a better world actually come true, the income of a large number of people will be cut down or cut off, then you see evil getting organized fast.

Big Business

In a commercial civilization like ours, when evils of any sort are organized—that is, when they represent investments of money on a wide scale, when their stocks are sold in the market like other stocks, such evils become more deadly than ever, for then otherwise good and intelligent people will support such evils on the ground that to interfere with them interferes with the right of private property, the right of investors, the profit motive. Take the liquor business as an outstanding example. It is enormously profitable to its operators. Liquor is made available to American troops abroad, in some areas, at cost; this reduces the "stateside" price by as much as three-fourths. In other words, % of what a man pays at a local store for a "fifth" of whiskey is somebody's profit—a good many somebodies.

Human Values or Property Values?

When efforts have been made in Congress for example, to forbid liquor advertising in magazines or otherwise, these attempts have generally failed. The "lobby" never fails to point out that to curtail the right of any business to advertise is to interfere with the system of free enterprise, and to attack the profit motive. It never occurs to them that the very same argument would permit the advertising of drugs like heroin and cocaine. People make money from the sale of such things, why not encourage them? The Christian question ought to be, not "Does this make money?" but "What does this thing do to the people's lives and the happiness of the community?"

THE KEY

—and the OPEN DOOR

One of the disturbing discoveries of life is that the truth one man cherishes seems a mystery to another.

But is that surprising? We live in a world of doors and locks. To the man with the key a door opens. To another it remains closed.

Among the keys to spiritual truth is one called HUMILITY. It accounts for many of the millions who worship God every Sunday in the churches of our land.

An American President once said, "I have been driven many times to my knees by the knowledge that my own strength, and that of all around me, was insufficient for that day."

He ruled a nation divided. But neither Blue nor Gray ever questioned the humility of the man who signed his name, "A. Lincoln."

Not only the portal, but the Truth of God's House, is every Sunday an Open Door to humble men!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Card of Thanks

To my friends and the many folks who have expressed their concern about my illness, I am most grateful.

I want to sincerely thank everyone for their prayers, cards, lovely gifts and visits.

I regret that I am unable to entertain all the visitors and I am sure that you will understand.

May God bless you for your consideration and kind expressions of concern.

LOOK AT THE LOWER PRICES

List prices as much as $76.05 lower on popular models with popular equipment

The '60 Chevrolet models most people buy, equipped the way most people want them, are actually priced lower than last year's models. This two-tone Bel Air V8 sedan, for example—with Turboglide, push-button radio and de luxe heater—lists for a whole $76.05 less! Prices are lower for all comparable V8 models throughout the line. Also for all comparable 6-cylinder models with Powerglide. Yet Chevy's loaded with more of the things that put pleasure into owning a car. (Just look at the list!) It's the greatest year yet to get into a Chevy!

Softer, more silent ride with coil springs at all four wheels and new butyl rubber-cushioned body mounts.

Big brakes for quicker, surer stops. Rivetless bonded linings mean they last longer, too.

More room to relax in. Chevy sedans offer roomier seating than any car in their class. Lower, narrower transmission tunnel means more foot room.

Only full wraparound windshield among the leading low-priced cars.

Electric windshield wipers keep sweeping even when you speed up to pass.

Vent windows crank open and closed. So much simpler than fighting those tricky little catches.

Keyless locking of all doors. Quick and easy. The same key opens door, glovebox, trunk and starts the car.

Economy Turbo-Fire V8. Or how to get up to 10% more miles per gallon of regular and still have lots of "git."

Thriftest 6 in any full-size car. It's the '60 version of the engine that got 22.38 miles per gallon in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run.

Widest choice of power teams. 24 engine-transmission teams in all, with output up to 385 h.p.

A trunk that's made for long trips with up to 22.5% more actual luggage space. Still's lower for easier loading.

Fisher Body craftsmanship. Look at the finish, the fabrics, the detail work. You'll see the difference.

Miss Lillian Wright

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wright of Galveston, Texas, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lillian Elizabeth, to Mr. Robert Lee Hall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Hall of Florence.

Miss Wright received her B. S. degree from Baylor University of Waco, Texas, and is presently the art teacher at Simon Kenton High School, Independence.

Mr. Hall received his B. B. A. degree in commerce from the University of Kentucky, and entered Chase Law School, Cincinnati, in September, 1958. He is presently employed as an insurance adjuster for State Farm Mutual Insurance Co.

Pastor Announces Activities at Local Christian Church

Chili Supper Planned

A benefit chili supper will be held by the Christian Youth Fellowship of the Walton Christian Church, Friday night, February 26, at the church.

Proceeds will be used for missionary work of the young people. This year the special interest in missions is the country church and the African field.

Miss Martha Miller, CYF president, invites all to come and enjoy a meal and to leave the dish washing to them.

Chi Rho To Go To Florence

The Chi Rho Fellowship of the Walton Christian Church will go to the Florence Christian Church this Saturday for a seven-county meeting which has the special emphasis of the church's mission to the peoples of Africa.

The Chi Rho Fellowship is made up of sixth, seventh and eighth graders who meet at the church on Monday afternoons. All members of the church school and the church are eligible for membership by simply attending and subscribing to the aims of the organization. The Fellowship was reactivated this last fall under the leadership of the pastor, George Fiske, and its officers, Donna Simpson, Mike Simpson, Carol Groger, John Allen Lucas and Judy Horn.

To Attend Erlanger Luncheon

A group of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the Walton Christian Church are planning to attend a luncheon at the Erlanger Christian Church, Thursday, February 25. The speaker for the day is Mrs. George Barbour who has spent a good deal of time in Africa as the wife of a geologist working on that continent.

Mrs. Barbour has been in much demand as a speaker for church groups interested in this year's theme "Christian Paths in Africa." It has been the contention of many persons that the best missionaries that America can send to other continents are committed laymen and women like the Barbours, and Mrs. Barbour's talks have described such impact upon those of other faiths.

Mrs. Charles Holder and Mrs. Stanley Bush are the leaders of the local groups of Christian-Women's Fellowships. Women are urged to contact Mrs. George Fiske to make their reservation for the luncheon.

Festival of Faith

A four-hundred-voice choir and a pageant with a cast of two hundred are features of the Festival of Faith of the Northern Kentucky Association of Protestant Churches to be held at the Covington Masonic Temple, Sunday-afternoon, Feb. 28, at three o'clock.

A number of Walton people are to take part in the pageant and are in rehearsal with the Boone County choir at the Florence Christian Church. John Still has a feature role as the great Indian leader, Mahatma Gandhi. Jimmy Riddle is also featured as George Washington Carver, and Estill West will play the part of a magistrate. Others from the Walton Christian Church and the Zion Baptist Church will be part of the crowd.

Protestant Festival At Masonic Temple On Sunday, Feb. 28

The third annual Protestant Festival of the Northern Kentucky Association of Protestant Churches will be held at 3:00 p. m., Sunday, Feb. 28, in the Masonic Temple, 1553 Madison Ave., Covington.

The main program feature will be a drama-pageant, "The Mighty Dream," which will be presented by about 200 people and directed by Miss Adelaide R. Kerr. A 400-voice festival chorus made up of several of the high school choruses of Boone, Campbell and Kenton counties, will sing, under the direction of Prof. Oscar Schmidt, director of music in the Covington public schools and of Holmes High School. These schools and James English of Independence, Dixie Heights, Newport, Ludlow, Lloyd, Campbell County, and Beechwood.

The committee in charge of the festival program is made up of John Pierce, chairman; Rev. Donald A. Nunnally, Dr. Earl M. Fossler, Jr., Rouse, Rev. Leon D. Sanborn, and W. Sharon. Florence.

This festival is expected to bring together a large number of people from the three counties of Northern Kentucky, according to Mr. Pierce.

THOMAS SPEAGLE

Services were held Saturday at 2:00 p. m., in the Crittenden Baptist Church for Thomas Speagle, 89, of Dry Ridge, who died February 10, at the Dry Ridge Convalescent Home. Burial was in Crittenden Cemetery.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Ranie Speagle, and a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Menke of Walton.

Kenton Elementary PTA

The Kenton Elementary PTA will observe Founder's Day with a silver tea at their regular meeting, Thursday, February 18, at 8:00 p. m., in the school.

Founders Day Chairmen, Mrs. Edgar Fisk, will be in charge of arrangements. Mrs. Charles Adams, president, will honor past presidents, Mrs. George Riley, Mrs. Wootton Ashcraft, Mrs. Carl Wickland, and George Dawkins. A short film, called "Freedom to Learn," will also be shown.

Social At Independence

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department will hold a social Saturday, February 20, at 8:30 p. m., in the fire house.

Home-made meals, sandwiches and coffee will be available, with Mrs. Roy Edwards in charge.

Bake Sale, February 27

The young people of Richwood Presbyterian Church will sponsor a bake sale at the Walton Department Store, Saturday, February 27, beginning at 10 a. m.

Advance orders will be appreciated—call HUDSON 5-4510 to place an order.

Wool Marketing Year Ends March 31, Says Chairman

Chairman William D. Gilreath of the Kentucky Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee today reminded wool growers that the marketing year for purposes of the 1959 wool program will end March 31. The wool program is conducted under the National Wool Act of 1954. Payments under the 1959 program will be made this summer when payment rates are determined on the basis of the national average price received by producers for shorn wool during the 1959 marketing year.

For a completed sale, Mr. Gilreath said, title must have passed to the buyer, the wool must have been delivered to the buyer (either physically or through documents), and the last of the shorn wool per pound, yield, etc., needed to determine the total purchase price must be available. If any condition concerning the sale is not settled by March 31, the sale will not be considered as complete.

Applications for payment under the 1959 program must be filed with the county ASC Office not later than April 30, 1960.

JAMES LoCALLY

Reuben High Moss for James LoCally, 10, who was injured fatally when struck by an auto February 8 on Madison Pike, Kenton county, were sung at 10:00 a. m., last Thursday at St. Cecilia Church, Independence, following prayers at 9:30 at the Swindler Funeral Home, Independence. Burial was in the church cemetery.

"James," a fifth-grade pupil at St. Cecilia School, Independence, was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence LoCally of Morning View.

CLIFFORD ENGLAND

Clifford England, Kenton county farmer, died February 10 at his home on Webster Road, Independence. He was 67 years old.

Mr. England is survived by his widow, Mrs. Vina Lawson England; a sister, Mrs. Marcella Strassel of Cincinnati, and three brothers, Jake and James England of Independence, and George England of Covington.

Services were held at 10:00 a. m., Saturday at the Swindler Funeral Home, Independence. Burial was in Independence Cemetery.

MRS. MOLLIE JOHNSON

Mrs. Mollie Johnson, of Verona, died last Wednesday, February 10, at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. She would have been 77 years old February 12.

Mrs. Johnson was a member of the Altar Society of St. Patrick Church, Verona.

She leaves her husband, Walter T. Johnson; a step-daughter, Mrs. Blanche Leek; a sister, Miss Johanna Carr; a brother, Thomas J. Carr; five grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren, all of Verona.

Requiem High Mass was intoned at 10:00 a. m., Saturday at St. Patrick Church. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Holmes Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

Engineering and Science Explained To High Students

The opportunity to become better acquainted with the many phases of engineering and science is being offered all interested high school students in this area by the Engineering Society of Cincinnati.

At a luncheon February 4, the program for the Engineering Society's Career Guidance Symposium was explained—two school officials and three students talked on different subjects.

Richard Bailey, a senior representative, and Miss Elma Taylor, counselor, represented Simon Kenton High School at the luncheon.

In addition to the speakers at the luncheon, outstanding industrial representatives will be available on three selected dates to review engineering and science subjects and guide the students in the selection of course to prepare them for their professions.

Information kits in relation to the Career Guidance Symposium were furnished the 150 faculty members and students representing 71 schools in the greater Cincinnati area. To provide adequate time for these interviews, the Engineering Society has scheduled three sessions which will be held at 1249 East McMillon Street, Cincinnati, Wednesday, February 24, at 8:00 p. m.; Thursday, February 25, at 8:00 p. m.; and Saturday, February 27, at 9:30 a. m. These programs are planned for boys and girls, grades nine through twelve who are interested in mathematics, science, physics, and engineering.

Simon Kenton is planning a good delegation at these meetings. Reservations must be made by February 19. Parents, as well as students, are invited to attend these sessions.

HOWARD C. SMITH

Services for Howard C. Smith, 57, Grant county farmer, were held at 10:00 a. m., Saturday at the Sherman Baptist Church. Burial was in Hillcrest Cemetery.

Mr. Smith died February 10 at the home of Arthur Rose, Sherman. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Faye Clemons of Florence, and Mrs. Myrtle Hernandez of San Antonio, Texas; two sons, Donald and Kenneth Smith of Sherman; three sisters, Mrs. Allie Souder of Cincinnati, Mrs. Little Goings of Wilmington, Del., and Mrs. Julia Ackman of Williamstown, and a brother, W. E. Smith, Williamstown, and five grandchildren.

Quotas Apply to 1960 Maryland Tobacco Crop

Kentucky tobacco growers were reminded today that marketing quotas will apply to the 1960 crop of Maryland tobacco, no matter where the crop is grown. Growers voting in a referendum February 2, approved quotas for the next three crops of Maryland tobacco by 77.9 percent of those voting.

W. O. Gilreath, chairman, Kentucky State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, points out that growers in other states, as well as in Maryland, should understand that they will not be able to grow and market Maryland tobacco in 1960 without regard to the allotment-quota program.

Under quotas, any tobacco grown in excess of a farm's acreage allotment is subject to a marketing quota penalty of 75 percent of the average market price for the previous marketing year. If the farm does not have an allotment for that particular kind of tobacco, and all of that kind of tobacco which is grown is considered "excess" and therefore subject to the marketing quota penalty.

Allotments for Maryland tobacco apply primarily in Maryland, with smaller allotted acreages in Delaware and Virginia. In recent years, small acreages of Maryland tobacco have also been grown in Kentucky and Tennessee, but these states do not have allotments for this kind of tobacco.

The important thing for growers to remember, Mr. Gilreath emphasizes, is that any Maryland tobacco produced in 1960 which is not grown in compliance with a farm acreage allotment will be considered as "excess" Maryland tobacco, and so subject to quota penalties.

MRS. NORA BUSH

Services for Mrs. Nora Wolfe Jones Bush, a retired teacher, at 110 East 19th St., Covington, were held at 10:00 a. m., Wednesday, February 17, at the Allison and Rose Funeral Home, Covington, by her pastor, Rev. Morris H. Coers, followed by graveside services by Rev. Sparks, and burial at 1:00 p. m. in Flemingsburg (Ky.) Cemetery.

Mrs. Bush, who taught school in Boone, Kenton, and Fleming counties for 40 years, died Saturday, January 30, at her home following an illness of three weeks.

Nora Wolfe and Harry Taylor Jones were married May 22, 1894, and after his death she married L. A. Bush, November 10, 1917. Mr. Bush died March 13, 1951.

She leaves a step-son, Everett Lee Bush, Dayton, Ohio; a sister, Miss Anna Lee Wolfe, a Cincinnati retired teacher, with whom she lived in Covington; a brother, John Earl Wolfe, Walton; two grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

"Our Future Community Leaders"

HARRY McCORMICK

Harry McCormick, a structural iron worker who lived near Union for the past 35 years, died last Friday in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Covington. He was 60 years old.

Mr. McCormick is survived by his widow, Mrs. Rosella Baker McCormick; three sons, Ray McCormick of Bellevue, Ray McCormick of Covington, and James McCormick of Elmmer; five daughters; Mrs. Dorothy Chapman of Kenosha, Wis., Mrs. Jean Young of Lawton, Okla., Mrs. Frances Mardis of Roscoe, Ohio, and Misses Mary and Betty McCormick of Burlington. Services were held Sunday at 2:00 p. m. in the 51th Funeral Home, Florence, with burial in Union Cemetery.

15-Acre Wheel Exemption Explained By ASC Chairman

Several factors affecting wheat producers who have wheat allotments of less than 15 acres for 1960 were called to the attention of farmers today by Russell Rector, Chairman of the Kenton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

The law that authorizes marketing quotas provides that in commercial wheat-producing states as much as 15 acres of wheat may be produced on any farm without being subject to marketing quota penalties. This provision applies to farms with no wheat allotments as well as to farms with wheat acreage allotments of less than 15 acres.

However, wheat on such farms is subject to marketing quota penalties when more than 15 acres of wheat is produced. When the 15-acre limitation is exceeded, the excess bushels of wheat is determined by multiplying the normal yield for the farm by the number of acres of wheat above the farm allotment.

Mr. Rector cited the following as an example: A farmer with a wheat allotment of 12 acres for 1960 produces 20 acres of wheat. The difference between the allotment and the wheat acreage produced—8 acres—would be considered excess acres. The 8 acres excess would be used in determining the amount of wheat subject to the marketing quota penalty. However, if the acreage over 15 is disposed of, the wheat would not be subject to marketing quotas.

Farmers who have applied for the feed wheat provision under which they may produce as much as 30 acres of wheat for use on the farm are not subject to marketing quota penalties unless they produce more than 30 acres.

The deadline for adjusting wheat acreage into compliance with the farm wheat allotment is June 1 in Kenton county.

Boone County 4-H Tractor Club Holds Meeting in Erlanger

Thirty-two 4-H Club members plus several parents attended the organizational meeting of the Boone County 4-H Tractor Club, held at the Erlanger Tractor Co. on Thursday evening, February 4. David Crigler was elected president, and Rita Crigler was named secretary.

Members of the club will learn how to care for tractors and other machinery under the leadership of Beckham Shields and Woodford Crigler, who recently attended the 4-H Leaders' Tractor Program training meetings at the University of Kentucky. Safety will be stressed.

This is the third year for the Tractor School here in Boone county, under the sponsorship of local tractor dealers in cooperation with the Standard Oil Company and the Agricultural Extension Service. Consequently, there are three classes being taught—first year, second, and advanced. Woodford Crigler is teaching the advanced, Beckham Shields the second year, and Marvin Davidson, Assistant Extension Agent, is instructor for first year boys and girls.

Any boy or girl between the ages of 10-20 who has a farm tractor on their farm is eligible to attend. A series of eight meetings are scheduled for the school period, plus some summer activity. Nine prizes are awarded by local tractor dealers to those 4-Hers who do the best job in attendance and with their tractor motors.

Meetings of the school are scheduled as follows: Calvin Cross and Sons, Thursday, February 18 and 25; Ferguson Implement Co., Thursday, March 3 and 10, and Roberts Implement Co., Thursday, March 17 and 24. All meetings will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Piner 4-H Club Enjoys Program At January Meet

The Piner 4-H Club held its third meeting January 29. David Martin presided. Pam McKinley called the roll, which was answered by telling a country we would like to visit. Johnny Prather gave the devotional, and Tony Brewer led in the Lord's Prayer. Terry Lawrence led in the pledge to the American Flag, while Norman Berry led in the pledge to the 4-H flag. The song leaders led the group in singing "America, the Beautiful," and Sandra LaFollette accompanied on the piano. The president then turned the meeting over to Brenda Sebastian, program chairwoman.

In a program discussion, it was decided to have something patriotic, something serious, something musical and something humorous.

The program was as follows: "The Spirit of 4-H Clubs," Becky Jones, Helen, Sandra LaFollette, Pam McKinley, and Brenda Sebastian; the sixth grade, choral reading of "The Gettysburg Address"; Bobby Fisk, a reading, "I've Been and Had the Measles"; Jerry Reed, two organ selections; 4-H Tricky Questions, Mike Benson, Judy Collier, Brenda Sebastian, Jeffrey Duncan, Gory Kim, Sandra LaFollette, Clarence Francher, Kenny Glenn; song, "Do Re Me," Gary Simpson, Helen Dancy and the rest of the sixth grade girls; "Troublesome Ford," James Smith; Brenda Sebastian, Helen Dancy, and Judy Collier; talk, Miss Marcum.

Valentine Dance Called Off
Since the Valentine dance, planned by Post 277, American Legion, had to be called off due to bad weather, tickets bought will be honored at a St. Patrick Day dance. The exact date and time will be announced later.

Home Furnishing Leaders Meet In Latoria Church

"Color and It's Use in the Home," was the subject of a lecture and workshop presented by Miss Zelma E. Byerly, County Home Demonstration Agent, for 57 home furnishing leaders of the Kenton County Home-makers Association held Wednesday, February 3, at Trinity Methodist Church, Latoria.

Miss Byerly stated that color can make your home gay or soothing, bright or homey, dramatic or just plain comfortable.

Don't copy someone else's color scheme—you're you. Color is a personal thing, and the most important rule is—keep it simple.

The total effect of the colors in a room is much more pleasant if one color is the dominant one—let all others accent or complement it.

Basic color schemes, color areas and the psychology of color were some of the many facets of color covered by Miss Byerly. Leaders participated by working out color schemes for various rooms.

The Home Demonstration group have scheduled tours to view the exhibition of room settings at the Tatt Museum, arranged under the auspices of the Ohio South Kentucky Chapter of the American Institute of Decorators. Coming at a most opportune time, these displays offer a chance to study period furnishings.

and selection of color schemes.

Devotional Reading: I Thessalonians 3:1-12

Top Service

Lesson for February 21, 1960

THE MOST over-used and ill-used word in the English language, perhaps, is "service." It's the great American catch-word. Your car dealer, florist, banker, garbage collector and preacher all talk about service. Certain business men's associations are called "service clubs." Innumerable places have the sign over the door: SALES AND SERVICE. When you look into it, often it turns out that what is meant by service is "making something good that should have been good in the first place." It is often something that is bragged about whereas it ought to go without saying. It is often not done well (as in poor restaurants or garages) and sometimes consists in furnishing something not asked for or needed.

Services of the Church

The church in America can't escape it. If the church didn't offer service it would be most peculiar, and in fact would hardly be a church at all. For it, almost alone, serves by its very nature. All the institutions of society that do truly render service, were inspired or created by the church in the first place. (Orphanages and savings banks come to mind, and there are many others, notably schools.)

But what are the services of the church? We often use the term "church service" to mean the meeting for public worship and preaching. We cannot quarrel with that use of the word, but that is not what is meant here. What we mean is, when the minister calls on a new family and tells them the services of his church are at their disposal, what does he mean? Certainly something more than to say the worship-meetings of the church are open to them.

Many minor methods of service are used by the church: operating kindergartens, book clubs, employment agencies, loan funds, not to mention more elaborate projects such as educating people on the moral side of public questions, operating hospitals, publishing houses, schools and so on. By calling these "minor" we do not mean they are unimportant or that the church should not undertake them. When Paul wrote: "Let us do good to all men, especially to those who are of the household of faith," he laid down the foundation principle of every service project that deserves the name.

Nevertheless, the question still is: What is the most vital service, the top service the church can render? Surely it must be to give people what they need the most. Suppose a man is dying of a serious disease. He may not want any particular medicine, or any medicine at all. But a doctor, examining him, may know just the specific medicine for his trouble. He ministers to the man's need, not to his immediate appetite.

What human beings need most is, in one word, God. The church is doing the supreme service for us when it shows us the way back to God. (Let us rather say, the way forward to God; he is ahead of us, not the other way around.) The doorway to God has two keys, like a safety deposit box: one key is marked Faith and the other, Repentance. God gives us the keys but never forces us to use them.

To Feed and Defend

The church is often thought of as a flock of sheep. Its leader as a shepherd. In addressing the elders of Ephesus, who remembered well his three years among them, Paul marks out the two things a shepherd does for his sheep: to feed and to defend them against wolves and other beasts. Some people suppose that a church's service is confined simply to proclaiming repentance and faith — in other words, the church's whole and only business is evangelism. This was not Paul's practice. He, and the elders after him, if they followed his example, also fed and defended Christ's people. "Feeding" means all the church does in nourishing and building up Christ-like character, especially teaching, preaching, counseling, training for Christian service, at the highest levels. "Defending" means keeping the church strong, despite the attacks of all who would destroy it, from without or within.

Use 7/8 cup lard to replace 1 cup butter or vegetable fat when making this substitution in a recipe.

TEACHER, I KNOW!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plans to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verse
Sunday	Proverbs	8	1-11
Monday	Job	9	15-17
Tuesday	Scholars	4	14-18
Wednesday	1 Corinthians	4	8-11
Thursday	Thomson	5	8-10
Friday	Galatians	10	15-17
Saturday	Matthew	28	45-46

You can almost hear their voices, and see their eyes sparkle. They have confidence because they have studied their lessons. Questions do not worry them—they know!

Will they be as confident when it comes to the more serious questions of adult life? Those who grow up in the Church and give God His rightful place are building on a firm foundation. In His House they "increase in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man." There is no substitute for the Christian precepts and ideals taught by your church.

But what about those who lack this training? Will life seem difficult to them because they lack the confidence which comes from a knowledge of God and His teachings?

Do your children have the advantage of this confidence?

COOPERATION

is a Kentucky tradition!

SCHOOLING YOUNGSTERS . . . OR SUPPLYING ELECTRIC POWER!

Providing the very best education for the younger generation has always been a popular cause here in Kentucky. Wherever there's a school you'll find people working together to be sure that the children of today get a better education. You'll find the same spirit of cooperation at work, improving other youth activities, too. It's one of the traditional ways Kentuckians act together for the benefit of all.

Rural electrification is neighborly cooperation, too. Kentucky's Rural Electric Co-ops . . . created by folks who got together to make a better life for themselves . . . are a good example of how neighborly cooperation serves our Commonwealth. As the countryside has brightened and prospered, so the townspeople have benefited too. The new rural prosperity made possible by electrification is spent in cities and towns.

Square Dance at Crittenden

An old fashioned square dance is to be given by the Crittenden Volunteer Fire Department, Friday, February 26, at the Community House, beginning at 8:00 p. m.

The admission will be $1.00 per couple and the public is cordially invited. Proceeds go for new equipment.

Colors are affected by the texture of the surface on which light falls.
A smooth satin-like surface reflects more light so its color will be more noticeable than the same color in a coarse, rough-textured surface.

Cumberland Falls, scenic waterfall at Cumberland Falls State Park, Corbin, features one of the world's two moonbows. This rare spectacle may often be seen at night by the light of the moon.

Furnishings in the average U. S. farm household in 1959 were worth almost twice as much in dollar value as those 12 years ago. USDA home economists report that in 1947, the average value of farmhouse furnishings was estimated at $1,387. In 1959, the estimate had moved up to $2,732.

School Bus Stop Law Applies To All Highways

The state law that requires motorists to stop when approaching a loading or unloading school bus from front or rear applies to four-lane highways as well as other roads, the Kentucky Department of Public Safety declares. Numerous drivers on four-lane highways tend to forget that the law applies on these roads, said the department.

In other words, adds the agency, if you are meeting or following a school bus on either a two-lane or a four-lane road and the bus stops to let off or admit children, you must stop your vehicle and remain stopped until the bus again starts in motion.

"It is always wise to be especially alert for the unpredictable actions of children alighting from school buses," cautions the department. "They frequently are killed or injured when they dart from behind a school bus and across the highway."

"Drivers should adhere to school zone speed limits, and watch out for children at all times. During the basketball season, youngsters may be at school in the evening as well as during regular school hours."

PINER HOMEMAKERS

Mrs. J. C. Beall of Cincinnati was guest speaker at the meeting of the Piner Homemakers Club. She gave a brief review of the book, "Hawaii" by James Michener. Mrs. Beall also gave a most interesting account of her recent trip to the islands, and showed pictures and costumes.

The speaker's subject was most interesting to members as Hawaii was selected as a subject of study by the club this year.

The lesson, "Buy Lines for Curtains and Draperies," stressing fabrics, color, style, workmanship, look for quality, care, and labeling, was greatly enjoyed.

Those attending were: Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. William Wolterman, Mrs. Chester Mullins, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. Angelo Pelizzari, Mrs. J. C. Cavanaugh, Mrs. C. E. Duncan, Mrs. C. E. Flynn, Mrs. William Wood, Mrs. Marion Martin, Mrs. Leslie McMillan, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. Elmer Spaulding, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Ray Tomlin, and Mrs. William Baldwin.

Completes Radio Course

Army Private Clyde M. Griffin, whose wife, Beverly, lives at 501 Riggs Road, Independence, completed the 12-week radio maintenance course February 4 at The Infantry School in Fort Benning, Ga. He was trained to repair and maintain radio equipment and associated electronic material utilized by infantry units.

The 24-year-old soldier entered the Army last August and completed his basic training at Fort Hood, Texas. He is a 1954 graduate of Simon Kenton High School. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griffin, live in Independence.

Legion Auxiliary Social

The American Legion Auxiliary, Unit 277, will sponsor a social at 2:00 p. m., Sunday, February 21. The public is invited to attend this event at the Legion Home on High Street.

Union Star Chapter Celebrates Birthday

Union Star Chapter, No. 461, O. E. S., Union, celebrated its 14th birthday Thursday, February 11. The presiding officers were Mrs. Lily R. Clark, Worthy Matron, and Warren G. Miller, Worthy Patron.

Mrs. Vera Riedlin, Past Matron, was presented with the commission of Grand Representative of the Grand Jurisdiction of Connecticut to the Grand Jurisdiction of Kentucky by Mrs. Juanita Burt; Deputy Grand Matron, at the request of the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Marguerite Wilder.

Guests welcomed were Richard Canett, Past Grand Patron and member of the Eastern Star Home Board; Mrs. Bonita Klonne, Grand Chaplain; Mrs. Thelma Connell and Mrs. Anna Maud White, Grand Chapter Committee members; Mrs. Pauline Pallets, Stanley Allen, Mrs. Loretta Clayton, Mrs. June Hoffmeier, Mrs. Ruby Long, and Mrs. Sheffa Myers, DeLond Chapter, No. 16, DeLond, Fla.

World Mission Rally

The Richmond Presbyterian Church will observe a World Mission Rally on February 21, at 7:00 p. m.

The pastor, Rev. J. Russell Cross, will present the biography of a missionary friend whom he has known personally.

Refreshments will be made from international recipes. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Square Dance at Kenton

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Kenton Community Volunteer Fire Department will hold a square dance at the fire house, Saturday, February 20, at 8:00 p. m. Music by the Kentucky Ramblers.

Mrs. Harold Rust, Auxiliary president, announced there would be lunch and refreshments. Proceeds will be used to maintain the Fire Department. The public is invited.

Hill Crest Farm Sold

Hill Crest Farm, containing 52 acres and two sets of buildings, located on State Route 17, at the top of Independence Hill, has been sold by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Warren to Rel S. and Ada Mae Wayman.

It will be developed into a subdivision of 50 to 60 home sites and acreage tracts.

The new subdivision will be eight miles from Latonia and will bear the name that the farm has always carried, Hill Crest Acres.

Rel C. Wayman and Sons, Northern Kentucky real estate brokers, will do the developing.

WORKING TOGETHER FOR THE SOUTH'S CONTINUED PROGRESS

COUNT US IN! YOU BET we want to be counted in... for Southern Railway has no intention of being "among the missing" when it comes to working for the continued growth and progress of the territory we serve. As we have in the past, we will go right on doing everything we can to promote the prosperity and well-being of the modern South that means so much to all of us.

This is no idle promise. It is, in fact, a part of our corporate creed: "To develop the territory we serve and to foster faith in the South, its people and its opportunities."

It would take a long list, indeed, to include all those in the South today who are working for and looking toward a still greater future for America's "youngster" opportunity-land—the modern South. If such a roster is ever drawn up, be sure to "count us in."

Mrs. W. Cooke, Editor—TA 4-2718

Mr. and Mrs. Olan Piner had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. William Kees and family of Erlanger, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Sparrow of Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Landrum.

Mrs. Lawrence Menefee has been suffering with the flu for three weeks. Mrs. Calli McCutcheon still remains quite ill.

Mrs. Paul Isreal has gone to Ft. Bliss, Texas, to be with her husband who is stationed there in the Army. Mr. Winfred Ballard is still confined to his home with a broken foot.

Mrs. Rosetta Mullikin is spending some time with her son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mullikin at Tampa, Fla.

Mrs. William Rigdon is in Lexington Hospital for treatment. Mrs. Mary Duncan is confined to her home suffering from blood clot in the leg.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Ray Hitch of Covington spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Bertha Hitch.

Phyllis Holbrook, little five-year-old girl of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holbrook, has the measles.

Natural Bridge, located at Natural Bridge State Park near Slade, is an arched rock formation formed millions of years ago by crumbling from temperature changes, wedge work of ice and vegetation and water erosion. The arch opening is 78 feet in length and 65 feet high.

The first house built by a white man in Kentucky is the Dr. Thomas Walker House, Barboursville.

WHITES TOWER

Mrs. Ralph Howard—FL 7-5858

We were very sorry about the tragic accident that took the life of the little local boy and like to extend our sympathy to the parents and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Burke entertained on Wednesday evening with a dinner for the Rev. Fathers Rockford and Nicholas. The Burkes were visiting in the city on Saturday and due to the snow storm did not make it home until Sunday.

J. B. Losey and Robert Ed Rich spent the week-end in Lexington where they attended the University of Kentucky ball game.

Mrs. Ralph Howard spent Thursday in London where she visited her daughter and family, who have been sick with the flu and also her sister, Mrs. Chas. Weber of Park Ave., who is a shut-in.

We hear that we are going to have a lady school bus driver in our community. Mrs. John Ferguson of the Tower.

Relatives and friends gave a Surprise Birthday Party for Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lancaster. Their birthdays being on two days apart. It was to have been Saturday evening but due to the snow storm, it was postponed until Sunday. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all.

Miss Helen Burke of Cincinnati, visited at the home of Bernard Kavanaugh and family over the week-end. Nancy Turner of Sidney Drive, spent the week-end at University of Kentucky visiting with Peggy Binder and saw the ball game.

Staffardsburg Homemakers

The Staffardsburg, Homemakers Club met in the church Tuesday with quite a good attendance. Mrs. J. A. Keeney was hostess, assisted in the preparations by Mrs. Don Keeney and Mrs. Robert Rice.

Much discussion was caused by the question, "What does your group need or desire for the next year's work?"

As guests, the club enjoyed the presence of Mrs. Cook, Miss Ruth Schmidt, Mrs. Anthony Wolf, and Miss Alma Stephens.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Roy Payne.

The group missed Mrs. Inez Beall who attended the Homemakers meeting at Piner to tell them of her trip to Hawaii. Mrs. Joe Richardson, who was quite ill with the flu, is much improved.

Among J. A. Keeney's callers were Mrs. John Klette, Earl Hanna, Harry Armstrong, Morris Wharton, and Miss Alma Stephens.

Staffardsburg W. S. C. S.

The Staffardsburg W. S. C. S. met at the home of Mrs. Melvin Bruggen on Thursday evening. The program opened with the singing of the theme song, "We've A Story to Tell to the Nations." The devotional was given by Mr. J. W. Parish. A discussion of the work of a deaconess was given by Mrs. Parish, Mrs. Dorothy Rickert, Mrs. Don Keeney and Miss Helen Richardson.

Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess and her daughters, Misses Barbara Sharon and Karen Bruggen. Others present were Mrs. Dawson Ballinger, Mrs. George Fennell, Mrs. George Fennell, Jr., Mrs. Dewey Parsons, Mrs. Ronald Losky, Mrs. J. J. Barnett, Mrs. David Kennedy, Miss Emma Yates, a guest, Mrs. Forrest Papp, and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

In spite of the snow storm which prevented some of the guests from coming, a number of Miss Judy Rapp schoolmates and friends enjoyed a Valentine party at her home on Saturday evening. The game room was tastefully decorated with crepe paper festoons. After several hours of fun, delicious refreshments were served.

Ralph Hiteman is a patient in St. Elizabeth Hospital since last Tuesday. We hope he is soon fully recovered.

Mr. Ed Jones is home and out of his cast after spending several weeks in Christ Hospital, Cincinnati.
Harry Rees after several weeks as patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital, returned home Saturday but must still be very careful.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish spent several days recently at their future home in Eminence, Ky., and with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Powell. They also visited their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Parish, in Louisville.

Some folks are very much missed when not in their usual places. Such was the case when J. B. Losey was too ill to appear at Sunday School.
Little Glenn Finnell had too much cold to undergo surgery, so that has been postponed. Hope he is soon "very fine."

Among those calling on J. A. Keeney recently were: Thomas Borkers, Rev. Parish, Dan Carpenter, Mrs. Dewey Parsons and daughter, Earl Clark, Miss Anita Sturgeon, Mrs. Betty Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Keeney and daughter, Leslie Riley, Hiner Losey, Mrs. E. B. Rich, Earl Hanna, Morris Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger.

Robert Edward Rich was honored with a family dinner in recognition of his 16th birthday, February 5th. The dinner was on Sunday. May we wish him "many happy returns" and may every bright promise be fulfilled in a useful and successful life.
Sorry to know that Mrs. John Shaw is not feeling "up to par." We hope she is better soon.

Harry Rees is improved, but has not yet returned home.

Mrs. Earl Clark, nee Joan Smith, is in St. Elizabeth Hospital undergoing a series of tests.

The W.S.C.S. met recently in the home of Mrs. Melvin Bruegg.

More apricots are eaten as dried fruit than as fresh; about three-fourths of the total apricot crop is dried. About 6 to 8 pounds of fresh apricots yield a pound of dried ones.
Ann McGirt operated the first spinning wheel in the West at Fort Harrod, now restored in Pioneer Memorial State Park, Harrodsburg.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Tallent, Editor—FL 7-4881

Mr. and Mrs. Sonnie Bates have been quite sick with the flu.

The snow storm on Saturday night cut down considerably on the number of people present at church services on Sunday morning. There were 55 present at Sunday School at Oak Ridge Baptist Church.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Claude Barlier on the birth of a baby boy on February 9.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Kelly vacationed in Florida last week while Mrs. George Kelly kept their children.

Mrs. Beckham Miller was real sick with the flu last week, and her daughter, Cheryl, was home from school sick all week also.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. David Bailey on the birth of a baby boy on February 10.

Congratulations to Mr. Clyde Clark on winning the car which was given away by the Fiesta Safety Club, at their Valentine Dance on Saturday night.

The Annie Allen Circle of the Oak Ridge Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Edward Rust last Thursday night. Mrs. Chester Tallent conducted the business session. The Circle will send two G.A. girls, Mary

Bird and Sharon Works, to the Queen Court House party at Georgetown College on March 25-27. Mrs. Helen Richardson had charge of the program which was on "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it Holy." Mrs. G. C. Richardson, Mrs. R. S. Richardson, Mrs. Chester Tallent and Mrs. J. W. Obel participated on the program. Others present were Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. Charles Asch, Mrs. Roy Rust, Mrs. William Kenner, Mrs. Arnold Perry, Mrs. H. C. Lipscomb and Mrs. Eugene Gatewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butte and children visited his mother near Somerset, Kentucky, recently.
Mrs. John Fogel has just recovered from a bout with the flu.

WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE!

Compare this list of Chevy advances with the features ordinary trucks are still talking about. You'll see why Chevy trucks get more work done in a day... why they go extra thousands of miles before trade-in time. These Sturdi-Bilt Sixties aren't just new, they're a full scale revolution!

TORSION-SPRING RIDE

Each front wheel, suspended independently of the other, is free to step individually over bumps. And shockproof torsion springs up front soak up the jars and jolts before they reach the body. With three rugged new tailored-to-the-truck rear suspensions to further reduce road shocks, Chevy gives you the smoothest truck ride you've ever felt.

NO SHIMMY, NO WHEEL FIGHT

Drive a '60 Chevy. Just once. Right away you'll notice the absence of I-beam shimmy and wheel fight common on ordinary trucks.

With independent front suspension there's a brand-new, smoother, easier handling feel behind the wheel.

CABS FOR BIG GUYS

Big guys get a bigger break in a Chevy cab. There's plenty of space inside to stretch out and relax; more room for hats and hips, more room for wide shoulders and long legs. There's horizon-wide visibility through a windshield with 26% more glass area; a new see-at-a-glance instrument panel. Cabs are safer, too, up to 67% more rigid.

6'S SWORN TO SAVE

Chevy's 6-cylinder engines are set to squeeze extra miles out of every drop of fuel. They're long famous for low fuel consumption, high performance.

SHORT STROKE V8'S

Power-packed for peak performance, Chevy's husky V8's make child's play out of the toughest hauls. They have a mind tuned to economy, too, that keeps costs down, profits up.

SLICK NEW SUBURBAN CARRYALLS

These handsome new handy haulers "double in brags"—can transport eight passengers or up to 960 lbs. of payload. Rear and center seats are easy to remove and replace when necessary. For work or for pleasure, these double-duty beauties are best for both!

NEW DOLLAR-SAVING PRICES

Chevrolet's low prices make big truck news for '60. They mean money in your pocket on model after model. Step-Vans, 4-Wheel Drives, many light-duty models with automatic transmissions—all are lower priced. Also, prices have been reduced on all optional V8's.

SEE YOUR DEALER

It could be the most important visit you make in '60. When you've seen these new Chevies, you'll agree they're the world's most advanced trucks. Then drive one and find out why.

ERNEST E. CALLOWAY

Ernest E. Calloway, 29, of 816 Greer St., Covington, died February 15 at Speers Hospital, Dayton, Ky. Born at Verona, he was a driver for City Cab Co., Covington, and formerly lived in Verona and Walton. He was a member of Audubon Baptist Church, Henderson, Ky.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Ruth Smith Calloway; two children, Danny and Debby Calloway, at home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Calloway, Covington; three sisters, Mrs. Wayne Gragg of Boone, N. C., Mrs. Harvey Osborne of Blount, Ohio, and Mrs. Dickson Clark of Henderson, Ky.; and a brother, Jack Calloway, of Jackson, Ohio.

Funeral services were held Friday, February 19, at 10:00 a. m., at the Allison and Rose Funeral Home, Covington, with Rev. Ennis Taylor officiating. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

MRS. CORDA SNELLING

Mrs. Corda M. Snelling died last Thursday at her home in Grant. She was 75 years old.

Mrs. Snelling leaves three sons, Howard and Albert Snelling, both of Petersburg, and Frank Snelling of Burlington, and four daughters, Mrs. Richard Hensley of Petersburg, Mrs. Harold Aylor and Mrs. Robert Glenn of Florence, and Miss Marie Snelling of Burlington.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., Sunday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Bellevue Cemetery.

WA-NA CLUB SPONSORS SPRING STYLE SHOW

The latest spring fashions will be modeled at the second annual style show sponsored by the Wa-Na Club. The Walton Department Store will again furnish the lovely clothes and accessories.

You may obtain tickets from any club member or at the door. This event will be held Monday, March 7, at 8:00 p. m. in the Walton-Verona High School auditorium. Each 50-cent ticket entitles the holder to a chance at the door prize, which the Walton Department Store has donated. Also, refreshments, to be served following the show.

Independence Homemakers

The Independence Homemakers held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Hubert Witt. Mrs. Lloyd Martin gave the devotion, and Mrs. Doris Hodge gave the garden lesson. Mrs. Flo Summey and Mrs. Doris Hodge attended Farm and Home Week. Mrs. Charles Davis gave an order lesson on curtains and draperies. Also, refreshments, to be served following the show.

Those attending the meeting were: Mrs. Vincent Vokelpohl, Mrs. Flora Summey, Mrs. Doris Hodge, Mrs. Lloyd Martin, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Charles Davis, Mrs. Jesse England, Mrs. Hubert Witt, and Miss Virginia Bradford. A very nice lunch was served by the hostess.

Firemen's Social Planned

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor a Pillow Case Social at 8 p. m., Saturday, February 29 at the Fire House. A lovely prize set will be given as a door prize. Sandwiches and refreshments will be available. The public is cordially invited.

To all Organizations!

For several months, organizations in our area, when they were promoting a coming event, have formed the habit of starting their publicity two or three weeks in advance, and thereby the Advertiser, must carry the same story, or something very similar, for two or three weeks in succession. Now this is bad, because from week to week, the same story appears and some of our readers have complained.

We are more than glad to help promote any event, but we must limit it to one week (any week that you desire) but just one, and if you want any more than one, you are permitted to use the classified ad section.

Remember just one week on each event, please!

Genealogy of Richardson Family Being Traced by Kenton County Descendant

R. S. Richardson is tracing the genealogy of the Richardson family and has traced approximately 1200 descendants with the Richardson or allied names to their progenitor, John Richardson.

John Richardson was born in Maryland in the year 1750. He served with honor in the Revolutionary War and came to Kentucky in 1793. With him were his wife, (Mable Noble) and five young children, the oldest child being 12 years of age. At that time the Indians were still active in Northern Kentucky, and the closest settlement of any size was Lexington or Louisville.

John Richardson purchased land for two dollars on acre on what is now Hands Pike, Kenton County. He built a log house where he lived and died in 1819.

Practically every family with the name Richardson in Kenton and adjoining counties, can be traced to this Pioneer. If anyone has any information, family tree, or family history pertaining to the Richardson family, Mr. Richardson would like to hear from them in order to complete the Family History and publish it in book form.

My address is: R. S. Richardson, Lipscomb Road, Box 586, Covington, Ky. Phone FLEETWOOD 7-7162 or HE 1-7940. I need all the information I can possibly obtain, due to families moving and records being lost, but the following names I have no information about: Matthew Richardson, Uriah Richardson, Hugh Richardson, Benjamin Richardson.

Zion Baptist Choir To Sing at Local Christian Church

The Zion Baptist Church choir will sing at the World Day of Prayer meeting at the Walton Christian Church on Friday evening, March 4, at 8 p. m.

The World Day of Prayer is an interdenominational observance of the United Church Women and its purpose is to unite all Christians in a band of prayer and to make an offering for Christian missions at home and abroad.

The theme for this year is "Laborers Together with God." Mrs. George Fiske and Mrs. J. R. Wheel are co-chairmen for the event. All women and men of the area are invited to come.

Heart Fund Solicitation

Members of the Walton Boy Scout Troop will get the 1960 Heart Fund Drive under way at 2:00 p. m., Sunday, February 28, when they will solicit funds house-to-house.

Mrs. Tommy Johnson, local chairman, said, "With every dollar you give, you are helping make it possible for some child or adult to live a normal life."

On Marksmanship Team

Army PFC Clayton K. Mullins, whose wife, Jeyvenna, lives in Walton, is a member of the team which placed second in the recent 4th Army Division Lecky marksmanship matches in Germany. Mullins entered the Army in October, 1958, completed basic training at Fort Hood, Texas, and arrived overseas last April.

The 23-year-old soldier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Mullins of Demosville, is a 1954 graduate of Simon Kenton High School, Independence.

Cigarette-Use Boom No Particular Help To U. S. Growers

Cigarette output last year went to a new high, but, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the "boom" has been of no particular benefit to U. S. growers in overall leaf-use.

That's because manufacturers now have learned to utilize tobacco in sheets, the stems, and in some cases have reduced the size of the cigarettes.

"In the fiscal year 1958-59, cigarette output topped that of 1954-55 by 17 percent, but use of leaf from sales weight basis was about the same both years. If domestic leaf requirements had increased as much as cigarette production over the five years, about 200 million pounds more would have been used in 1958-59. Approximately 46 percent of the reduction in the farm sales weight leaf requirement is due to the decreased size of the tobacco column from the use of filter plugs and some dimensional changes, and about 13 1/2 percent reflects the larger proportion of imported tobacco in cigarette blends," the USDA report said.

Food with a high carbohydrate count is necessary for a man to work efficiently in cold weather, according to University of Illinois studies.

WILLIAM SHEPPARD

William J. H. Sheppard, a retired railroad yardman, died Thursday, February 18 at the Dry Ridge Nursing home. He had been a resident of Walton for 17 years.

Mr. Sheppard leaves his widow, Mrs. Ethel Sheppard, and a son, Clyde W. Sheppard, Covington.

Services were held at 11:00 a. m., Monday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Burial was in the Walton Cemetery.

MRS. NELLIE DEBUSK

Mrs. Nellie Debusk, a native of Winchester, Ky., died February 16, at her home near Burlington. She was 82 years old.

Mrs. Debusk is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Lou Hubbard, a brother, Steve Sparks, Winchester; three sisters, Mrs. Julia Jordan and Mrs. Gertrude Harris, both of Winchester, and Mrs. Lucy Elkins, Eagle Grove, Iowa; three grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

Services were held at 10:30 a. m., Friday at the Stith Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Burlington Cemetery.

MRS. MYRTLE ROUSE

Mrs. Myrtle C. Rouse died Tuesday, February 16 at her home on Richmond Road, near Walton. She was 76 years old and a member of the Erlanger Baptist Church.

She leaves her husband, Mr. Frank Rouse, a son, Harold Rouse, Dayton, Ohio, and a daughter, Miss Alma E. Rouse.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., Friday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Send Eleven Youth To Fellowship Meet Saturday

The Walton Christian Church sent a delegation of eleven youth to the Eighth District meeting of the Chi Rho Fellowship at Florence last Saturday. The local fellowship is made up of the sixth, seventh and eighth graders of the Christian Church.

The purpose of the meeting was to bring together youth of the northern Kentucky counties in fellowship and to study the current missionary theme Africa.

Those attending from the local church were Jo Simpson, Mike Simpson, Junior Ryan, John Allen Lucas, Richard Clements, Bobby Jones, Cheryl Miller, Nancy Jones, Carol Groger, Dennis Luby and Ronnie Brown.

The delegation was the largest from any church in the seven-county area. The counselor for the Walton church, Rev. George Fiske, taught a class in the morning and afternoon session on the "Challenge of Africa."

Fidelis Class to Meet

The Fidelis Class of First Baptist Church, Walton, will meet Thursday, Feb. 25, at 7:30 p. m., in the home of Mrs. D. L. Maddox, North Main Street. All members urged to be present.

"Our Future Community Leaders"

A nominating committee was appointed to select officers for next month's election. They were Mrs. Roy Hammond, Mrs. McDaniel, Mrs. Wilmer Steinhauer, and Mrs. Wendell Jackson.

The Mothers Sing group will meet the first Tuesday in March at one o'clock in the home of Mrs. Ed Petzinger.

The room count was won by Mrs. Christman's fifth grade.

Lambright Circle Meets

The Lambright Circle of the First Baptist Church, Walton, met in the home of Estelle Christie, Thursday, February 11.

Those present were: The hostess, Violet Praetor, chairman, Mary Kiddell, Kaye Thompson, Joan Edkins, Betty Stubblefield, Janice Ryan, Rheda Robinson, Wilma Kilgore, Helen Breeden, Lottie Lynch, Helen Rich and Margaret Wilson.

Mrs. Kilgore presented a program about "Faithfulness On Sunday," with several members participating. It was a wonderful program. A baby carbed was presented to the chairman from members of the Circle. A good time was enjoyed by all.

The circle will meet on Thursday, March 10 at 7:30 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Kaye Thompson, 80 South Main Street, Walton.

Miss Mildred Durr

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Durr of Morning View, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Mildred Lee, to Mr. David Lee Wolfe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wolfe of South Fort Mitchell. The wedding is planned for June 18, at the Wilmington Baptist Church at Fiskburg.

Miss Durr was graduated from Simon Kenton High School, and is now a senior at Georgetown College.

Film at Beaver Church

The color film, "What Price Freedom," will be shown at the Beaver Lick Christian Church on Sunday, Feb. 28, at 7:30 p. m. This is the first in a series of pictures the church hopes to present each fourth Sunday evening of each month. If the response is great enough, such films as "The Robe," "Demetrius and the Gladiators," and "A Man Called Peter," will be shown.

On Thursday, April 14, the heart-warming story, "I Beheld His Glory," will be shown. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mary Sampson Circle

The February meeting of the Mary Sampson Circle of the Walton Baptist Church, with Mrs. Daniels as leader, met in the home of Mrs. Glen Powell. The devotional "Power From Heaven" was given by Mrs. Daniels.

The program "What Do We Do On Sunday" by Virginia Northcutt, program chairman.

Those present were: Mrs. Stanley Kacaba, Mrs. Watson Soden, Mrs. Floyd Humphrey, Mrs. Price Johnson, Mrs. Robert Benton, Mrs. Nathan Northcutt, Jr., Mrs. Gertrude Daniels, Mrs. Kenneth Gouge, and the hostess, Mrs. Glen Powell.

The March meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Nathan Northcutt Jr. on March 10th.

Civil Defense Course Completed By Class of Fourteen

A Civil Defense Adult Education Course, dealing with effects of modern weapons and personal actions which every citizen should consider to survive nuclear attack or severe natural disaster, has been offered at Kenton Elementary School, Independence. If the 24 adults enrolled, 14 qualified for a certificate by attending a minimum of five class sessions.

Those receiving certificates on February 15, were: Katharina Antrabus, F. D. Caton, Mrs. Charles Casey, Mrs. Charles Davis, Edwin Gehefer, Penny Gehefer, Mrs. Don Hacker, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Powers, James Porter, Mrs. Roy Summers, Mrs. Elizabeth Triplett, Mrs. Hoskel Swain, and Robert Walmscott.

The certificate, issued by the Kentucky Department of Education, were presented by the class instructor, Ida Mae Mullins.

PLEASANT GROVE WSCS

Mrs. J. A. Rich was hostess to the Women's Society of Christian Service of Pleasant Grove Methodist Church for the February meeting.

A program on "City Missions" was presented by Mrs. L. J. Cortright. Participating in a playette telling of the work being conducted at the Deacons Home in Philadelphia, were Mrs. T. S. Moffett, Mrs. J. A. Rich, Mrs. D. E. Pineur and Mrs. Walter Beck. Mrs. Cortright also spoke on activities at the Homer, Tyngman Settlement House.

Mrs. T. S. Moffett, spiritual life secretary, concluded her study course on the Book of Luke, relating to the final days of the Cross and the Resurrected Life.

"Day Apart" will be observed when the group meets March 9 at the church for the regular, monthly meeting.

A lovely valentine party was extended by the hostess to the following members: Mrs. J. K. Truitt, A. R. Hicks, Walter Porter, C. W. Pruett, C. R. Masters, F. B. Herms, D. E. Pineur, T. S. Moffett, J. L. Cortright, Walter Beck, Adolph Wieland, and guests, Mrs. Wendell Jackson and Mrs. Jonathan James.

Don't Apply For Bonus Before June 1st, Official Advises

No application for the veterans bonus should be filed before June 1, the state adjutant general's office in Frankfort announces. Adj. Gen. Arthur Lloyd is administrator for payment of the bonus.

His office reports that work has begun on devising application forms, instruction sheets and details of processing. A spokesman for the administrator said:

"Kentucky veterans are preoccupied with four basic questions—how, when, where and how? I can give you the answer to the when question. The law specifically states that 'no application shall be filed with or sent to the administrator before the first day of June, 1960.'"

"Information will be released as soon as it is assembled. Newspapers, broadcasting stations, bulletin boards in public places such as court houses, all service organizations such as the American Legion and the V. F. W. will be given the information."

"Don't write to Frankfort for information. We cannot answer your letters. We are in just as big a hurry as you are to get the bonus paid. All of us in this office are veterans too."

Chili Supper, Friday Night

The Christian Youth Fellowship of the Walton Christian Church is having a chili supper, Friday, February 26, beginning at 5:00 p. m.

Chili, vegetable soup, pimiento cheese and hom sandwiches, pie, and coffee, milk or coke will be served. Everyone is invited.

The Chili Supper is for the benefit of their missionary fund which goes to help the world-wide ministry to the youth.

Committee members for the supper are Joyce Miller, John Arnold Hartman, Georgia Brooks, Betty Jones, Tessie Moore, Jessica Hopperton, Lynda Worthington, Freda Jones, Martha Miller and Ray Hamersley. Mrs. George Fiske is the counselor for the group.

Name Was Omitted

Due to an oversight the name of Richard Stephens was omitted from the list of Honor Roll students of Walton School, last week. Richard is in the 3rd grade. We are so sorry, Richard!

Mothers Sing At Meeting of Visalia P. T. A., Feb. 15th

The regular meeting of the Visalia P. T. A. was held Monday, Feb. 15. Mrs. Ken McKee, president, presided. The Mothers Sing group entertained and a dialogue, "Founders Day, 1960," was given. Past presidents were honored and the school was given a book of poetry. Four past presidents were present: Mrs. Howard Fredericks, Mrs. Harold Buxton, Mrs. Wilmer Steinhauer, and Mrs. Harry Figgins.

A nominating committee was appointed to select officers for next month's election. They were Mrs. Roy Hammond, Mrs. McDaniel, Mrs. Wilmer Steinhauer, and Mrs. Wendell Jackson.

The Mothers Sing group will meet the first Tuesday in March at one o'clock in the home of Mrs. Ed Petzinger.

The room count was won by Mrs. Christman's fifth grade.

The Intermediate and Young People's Department of First Baptist Church enjoyed a delightful "Sweetheart Banquet" at the church last Thursday evening. The church dining room was decorated with a rose garden setting with life-size silhouettes of a teenage boy and girl. Tables were decorated with red candles and sweethearts and the program carried out a love-story theme. J. B. McCubbin, master of ceremonies, kept the young people well entertained and highlights of the evening were a Goldlocks drama presented by four boys—Paul—Wilson, villain; Eddie Neumeister, Goldlocks; Rannie Struve, hero; and Gary Fornash, grandmother, and due to Leap Year, there was a called meeting of the "Unclaimed Blessing Group," with five old maids taking advantage of Leap Year: Linda Duchemin, Pauline Chance, Phyllis Gibson, and Sherry Stephenson. These two dramas were exceptional and have been made into movies for future use.

Cupid was Kathy Hendricks; Intermediate King, Rannie Struve; Queen, Pauline Chance, and attendants, Karen Chance, Danny Tackett; the Young Peoples' King, Terry Struve; Queen, Susan Gerth, and attendants, Nancy Praithier and Timmy McCubbin.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Talbot, Editor—FL 7-6881

Mrs. Eugene Tomlin is leaving on Thursday for Washington, D. C. to visit her son, Robert Tomlin.

Mr. Henry Kelly will celebrate his 88th birthday on February 29. He has not been feeling well this week, but we hope he is better and able to enjoy his birthday. Being born on Leap Year, he can only celebrate every fourth year.

Mr. Henry Bindel was rushed to Booth Hospital last Saturday and remains in very critical condition. He would love to receive some cards.

The Taylor Mill Church of God is holding revival services each night until February 26th. The evangelist has delivered some very inspiring messages, and they would like to invite everyone to attend.

Oak Ridge Homemakers Club

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Edward Rust. Mrs. Kenneth Blake and Mrs. Charles Asch gave a lesson on the making of draperies. They showed samples of various kinds of drapery material and stressed the importance of matching the pattern in the material. Mrs. Blake passed around a book showing samples of many new weaves in fiberglass material, that are now available. Fiberglass is hard to sew on, but it is very simple to launder, needs no ironing, does not shrink, and is completely colorfast. Rayon draperies will contract and stretch according to the temperature in the room, for instance, on a hot day they will be two or three inches longer than they will be on a cold day. Mrs. Henry Goodman has arranged for a lamp making workshop at the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company on March 31. She has the price list for the lamps that are available and all the members were urged to participate in the workshop. After lunch Mrs. Chester Talbot presided at the business session. Mrs. T. B. Renaker acted as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Love, who was unable to attend because of the heavy snowfall that morning. Others present were Mrs. Chester Barton, Mrs. Leo Krout, Mrs. Kenneth Galloway, Mrs. Edith Piper, Mrs. Joseph Plack and Mrs. Arthur Kugler.

Notice to Contractors—

Bids will be received at the Walton-Vernon Superintendent's office on or before March 18, 1960, to build a fire exit in the Verona School cafeteria.

The exit will consist of cutting through the wall below a 3-foot window and building about 6 concrete steps 44 inches wide with poured concrete walls, a wooden door 34 inches wide by 6 foot, 8 inches high with panic hardware.

The pit is to have a shelter roof and a drain in the bottom for future use.

More information may be secured at the Superintendent's office. The Board reserves the right to reject any or all bids.

EUGENE ROBINSON,
Secretary of Education,
31-8 Walton-Vernon School Board.

Note of Thanks—

We would like to express our appreciation to Judge Brugh for relinquishing City Hall on Wednesday evening so that the First Aid Classes can be conducted there.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—FL 7-5018

Marked by quiet elegance and simplicity was the wedding of Miss Joyce Anita Cooper and Mr. James Stridham at the Staffordsburg Methodist Church, Saturday, February 20 at 3:00 p. m. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Parish, officiated. A reception followed in the dining room of the church. We wish for them every good gift which Heaven can bestow.

Miss Helen Richardson had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger, Howard Noel and Woody Armstrong.

Mrs. Roy Mills and son, Michael, and Mrs. Carsee Brinkley and son, Robert, visited their sons, David Mills and Lathan Brinkley, at Fort Knox, one Sunday recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Wharton and children were guests of relatives here over the weekend.

We found much of interest in the article in the Post and Times-Star on Saturday. The heading was "Dan Beard Trail Hike to Precede Dedication." Much of the trail is familiar to me but I had to talk to an older person to verify some points. We should give a little more attention to data of this kind or future generations will miss much.

Good Soldiers

Lesson for February 28, 1960

MAYBE too much is said about the peace and joy of the Christian life. Peace and joy there are, to be sure; but hearing about nothing else may give interested persons the notion that being a Christian is just like floating on your back in a sunlit swimming pool, half asleep. On the contrary, the Christian life is more like a swim across the English channel, fighting current, waves, cold and hunger. If you're not prepared to swim against the tide, you'll never — Dr. Foreman make it. Saint Paul more than once used language about the Christian life that make it sound like a fight. He compares it to a race (2 Tim. 4:7), to a boxing match (same verse), to a wrestling match (Eph. 6:12), to a war (Eph. 6:10), to a battle with wild beasts (1 Cor. 15:32). He urges his young friend Timothy, who was a bit of a mother's-boy, to take his share of suffering like a good soldier of Jesus.

Where the Fight Starts

If this world were the kind of place that would give no trouble at all to a real Christian, it would not be the world that needed to be "saved." It is precisely because the world does not welcome 100% Christians that it did not welcome Jesus; it is definitely the hostility of the world that brought Christ here to endure the Cross.

Jesus did not go around picking on the world, and the Christian has no business picking on it, either. The way to be a good soldier of Jesus is not, usually, to start firing at will. There is enough fighting to be done without picking fights.

Consider the story of Paul's arrest at Jerusalem. It wasn't exactly tactless custody to keep from being beaten to death by a lynch-mob. What caused the uproar? Slander caused it, for one thing; Paul was accused of sacrilege, defiling the Holy Place, which he had not done at all. Prejudice caused it, including race prejudice; Paul was accused, truthfully enough, of being friendly with Gentiles. There were other factors, but already we can see the kind of cause that can always be found back of opposition to Christians: Accusations of which Paul was innocent, and hatred of the very thing he did that was good. The Christian will at times be misunderstood, but even when he is fully understood he still may be a target for broken bottles.

Enduring

There is one very important difference between Christian "warfare" and literal war as carried on in the modern world. The GI or other soldier at the front carries a deadly weapon. He goes after the enemy by bringing him pain and catastrophe, he destroys him if he can. The Christian soldier carries on his war by turning the enemy (of God) into a friend. He fights not by inflicting suffering but by enduring it. Paul being beaten by that insane mob was not fighting back. He would not have done it if he could. He wrote to friends that he carried the "marks of the Lord Jesus" about with him, and he meant literal scars. Read what he says about his trials in 2 Cor. 11:23-28.

Witnessing

The other way the Christian soldier fights is by simply witnessing. It is an impressive sight: Paul with his clothes torn, himself bleeding and in fact half dead, looking more like an Egyptian bandit than a Roman citizen, quieting the crowd with a gesture, and then in their own language telling the story of how he became a Christian. That took courage. It was really his being a Christian that started the trouble. But this is what he will not tone down or deny. The Christian warfare is by witnessing. Let no one say this is all talk, that talk is cheap and easy, that nobody is going to lynch you for being a Christian in America today. Isn't it true, disgracefully true, that many Christians keep quiet about it? Stones are no threat to them; but laughter is. Don't Christians dread ridicule almost as if it were gunfire?

Beef makes up 50 percent of the total red meat consumed in the U. S. Broiler consumption has increased 105 percent in the U. S. in the last 25 years.

The High Places

Does the goal you're seeking seem as remote—as unattainable—as this snow-frosted mountain top? Does it seem, sometimes, as if you'll never get there? Are you on the verge of giving up?

Don't! Though your objective may seem light-years beyond your reach, if it's the right thing for you, God will help you to attain it, if you'll let Him. The teachings of His Church will help you find the patience and endurance you need to accept setbacks . . . and still keep trying.

Don't try to climb to the top all by yourself. It's a lonely ascent. Let the Church help you, as it helped those who were here before you . . . and as it will help those who come after you.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a cornerstone of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Cabbage is now a good vegetable buy. Cabbage is a good source of Vitamin C if served raw or if cooked only a short time; it should be cooked only long enough to become tender and somewhat chewy. Farmers in southern states buy a half billion dollars worth of fertilizer and lime each year.

Oak Hill Homemakers

A group of ladies met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. William S. Gibson, Jr., Stephenson Mill Road, Walton, to organize a new Homemakers Club.

Mrs. Papotta, Home Demonstration Agent, and Mrs. Grant Maddox, sponsor from the Florence Club, presided at the meeting. Oak Hill Homemakers was the name chosen, and Mrs. Gibson was elected president. Other officers elected were: Vice president, Mrs. John Hetterman; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Raymond Pennington, and publicity chairman, Miss Beatrice Flynn.

Those attending were: Mrs. Herbert Day, Miss Beatrice Flynn, Mrs. John Hetterman, Mrs. Sophia Hornsby, Mrs. Grant Maddox, Mrs. Glenn Martin, Mrs. Roy Nix, Mrs. Levi Pennington, Mrs. Raymond Pennington, Mrs. Papotta, Mrs. Bernard Stephenson, and Mrs. John Webster.

Meetings are to be held the third Wednesday of each month. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. John Hetterman, Wednesday, March 16, beginning at 10 a. m. The club will welcome any new members.

Bechgrove Homemakers

Pleasing combinations of colors, pattern and texture make a room both attractive and livable was brought out in a lesson given by Mrs. Virgil W. Kelly and Mrs. F. M. Powers at the meeting of the Bechgrove Homemakers Club at the home of Mrs. Vera Ott with Mrs. Verner Stephens, co-hostess.

Mrs. Roger Robinson and Mrs. Vera Ott reported that 27 shades and three TV lamps were completed by members that availed themselves of the lesson given by the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Co.

Mrs. Verner Stephens, citizenship chairman, reported a birthday party was given for one of the students at the Garrard Street Retarded School in Covington.

"CORVAIR HANDLES BETTER, STEERS MORE EASILY, RESPONDS MUCH MORE QUICKLY AND HOLDS THE ROAD MORE SECURELY THAN ANY STOCK FOUR-DOOR SEDAN EVER MADE IN THE U.S."

—Jim Whipple, Car Life

If you think we're enthusiastic about Corvair, leaf through the leading automotive, sports and science magazines and see what the experts are saying. Then, by all means, drive one yourself.

"Corvair's steering is so light that at parking speeds it feels power assisted; it is so precise as to be absolutely without play, and it is fast enough to allow complete control over every situation."

—Karl Ludvigsen, Sports Cars Illustrated

"Steers like a feather, and is extremely quick. . . This is a beautifully designed automobile, engineered by real pros. . ."

—Tom McCall, Mechanics Illustrated

"Most surprising thing to me outside of the excellent handling characteristics was the feeling of roominess inside. . . I didn't have the sensation of driving a small car and the headroom was greater in the Corvair than in some standard size cars. . ."

—L. H. Hosack, Automotive News

"So far as shopping goes, the Corvair is a housewife's dream. It's small and easily maneuvered without any power steering, and so easily parked . . . it's a lot easier to unload a cart full of groceries into a front trunk at the supermarket than it is into a rear one."

—Rosemary Francis, Popular Science

"I want to state as firmly as I can that the Corvair handles as beautifully and is as safe as—if not safer than—any family car on the road today."

—Jim Whipple, Car Life

"There is none of the typical whine normally associated with rear-engined vehicles. Inside the car, the effect is quite unlike anything we have ever experienced. It almost seems that there is no engine, and the general effect is so quiet as to be almost uncanny."

—John R. Bond, Road & Track

"No written word can suffice for the genuine pleasure that you will receive behind the wheel of America's newest and most advanced contribution to transportation. . . It is a great car."

—Don Swartz, Motor Life

Pt. Pleasant Homemakers

"Proper Care of Hard Surface Floors" was the interesting lesson given by Mrs. Leslie Stephenson and Mrs. John Darby at the February meeting of the Pt. Pleasant Homemakers at the home of Mrs. George Copeland on Airport Road.

Lesson topics for the coming year were chosen. Mrs. Robert Dolwick, reading chairman, asked each member to read a modern poem at the next meeting.

Members present were: Mesdames Leslie Stephenson, Stanley Schulte, George Copeland, Ben Otten, Robert Dolwick, James Dolwick, John Darby, Ralph Scheitz, John Reynolds, Jack Brewer, Leonard Smoot, Edna Foltz, and guests, Mesdames Stanley Yuestefeld, Dan Conrad, and Richard Brederberg.

6th Grade 4-H Meeting

The Kenton Elementary Sixth Grade 4-H meeting was held on February 8. The session was called to order by the president, Suzanne Waincoat. The three song leaders led in the pledge to the flag and in the song, "My Old Kentucky Home." The meeting was then turned over to the vice president, Rebecca Daugherty. The program was about waterways of Kentucky. Project books were given all members. At the end of the meeting Miss Marcum answered any questions asked about 4-H work.

Beacon Class Meeting

The Beacon Class of the Walton Methodist Church held its monthly meeting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Bachmeyer, February 26. After the business meeting, a delicious desert was served to the following: Rev. John Whelan, ex-Mrs. Arthur Doggett, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Carlisle, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Rouse, Mrs. Lillian Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Thurston Moore, Mrs. Jack Conner, Mrs. Estill Mills, Mrs. Lois Cain, and Mrs. Helen Belcher.

Three hundred million dollars are spent annually in the South for building materials.

Sign-Up Progressing In Kenton County Brucellosis Program

Stanley Bird, Kenton county chairman of the Area Brucellosis Control program, reports that the county has nearly completed the required number of petitions to be included under the program. At a recent check-up meeting of the several area chairmen, required number of cattle on petition had been reached and passed. The number of cattle owners remained approximately 200 short of the requirement. Mr. Bird has urged cattle owners not signed up under the county-wide test to contact their area chairman immediately. In stressing the urgency of the program he reminded the group that until the county is included under the program no cattle, except for slaughter, could be shipped into adjoining counties.

Area chairmen in the different sections were listed as follows: Robert Scott, Crescent Springs and vicinity; Norbert and Vincent Kahmann, Dudley Pike and vicinity; William Barnes and Stanley Parker, Independence to Erlanger territory; John W. Shaw and Mike Goetz, Madison Pike to Taylor Mill to Decoursey Pike; William E. Durr, Ralph Foltz and Oatney Worthington, Nicholson to Walton south to county line; Howard Hoffman, Jr. and Frank E. Jackson, Atwood to Kenton and vicinity; William Beck and Warren Van Horn, Piner-Fiskburg to Morning View and vicinity.

RUSSELL STEPHENS

Russell B. Stephens, 49, died on Tuesday, February 23 at his home near Florence. He was a home construction worker. Survivors include two sons, Norman and Glenn Stephens, Florence; two daughters, Mrs. Stephens, Burlington; two sisters, Mrs. Stella Ryle and Mrs. Aliso Ryle, Burlington, and four grandchildren.

Services were conducted in the Florence High Funeral Home at 2:30 p.m. Friday. Burial was in the East Bend Cemetery.

BOONE UTOPIA CLUB

The Boone County Utopia Club's regular meeting was not held last week due to weather conditions. The meeting will be held Friday, March 4 at 8 p.m. at the Boone County Extension Office.

Mr. J. R. Kimmer, manager of the Cincinnati Livestock Producers Association, will discuss with the group the organization and operation of the association. This meeting is one of a series in the study of agricultural cooperatives. All Utopia members are urged to take part in this study.

4-H Talent Show To Be Held Friday, March 25

Plans are now being made for the Annual Boone County 4-H Talent Show sponsored by the Boone County Utopia Club according to Davidson, assistant County Agricultural Agent. The event will be held at Hebron grade school on Friday evening, March 25.

Any 4-H boy or girl is eligible to participate. There will be specialty and club acts. The specialty act will consist of four persons or less and must not last longer than three minutes. The Club acts can be made up of a member of specialty acts.

Attends Tractor School

Seventeen 4-H'ers plus several of their parents attended last week's session of the 4-H Tractor School held at Cress and Sons at Burlington. Interest is keen among boys and girls attending. Last week they enjoyed a movie which told "The Story of Gasoline" how it is refined and the many uses of it. They also studied lubrication, saving fuel and transmission power.

The next session will be held at Calvin Cress and Sons, Burlington, at 7:30 p.m. on Friday, February 26. Any boy or girl 10-20 years of age is invited to attend.

Industrious Teenage 4-H'ers

The Industrious Teenage 4-H Club of Kenton County would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. and Mrs. John Friedman for letting them hold their Bake Sale at their store recently, and also all the customers and friends who helped to make the sale such a success.

Homes Visited by Ladies of Goshen Christian Mission

Ladies of the Goshen Christian Mission, Piner, met Thursday, Feb. 4 for their regular monthly meeting, with Mrs. Ruby Worthington and Mrs. Tabitt Bridges as hostesses.

The meeting was opened with prayers by Mrs. Esther Glenn, and the minutes were read by Mrs. Worthington in the absence of Mrs. Callen. Mrs. Glenn gave the treasurer's report. Cards were addressed to be mailed to the sick. It was reported that the two new banquet tables, bought by the group for the basement, were paid for, and a motion was made and carried to order table cloths for the tables. $25.00 was sent to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gullick, missionaries in India. Ruby read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Cullen for the flowers, cards and money, and all kindnesses shown her during her illness. After the business session, the ladies adjourned for a delicious dinner.

Immediately after dinner, the group visited Mrs. Mattie Brown and had prayer and song service, and presented her fruit and a potted plant. They then adjourned to Walton and visited "Aunt" Rachel Rust. There they had prayer and song service, and presented her fruit and a plant. All then retired to the dining room where there was a beautifully decorated cake and refreshments for all, this occasion marking the birthday of Aunt Patsy Oliver. All had a wonderful time.

Those attending were: Rachel Daniels, Lula LaFollette, Ruth Worthington, Edna Colston, Jessie Denton, Ruby Worthington, Margie McMillan, Goldie Glenn, Nettie Mann, Esther Glenn, Tabitt Bridges, and the following children, Albert Denton, Donald Glenn, and Dexter LaFollette.

Walton to Pay $708 In $3,128 Project

Elements of Walton's comprehensive planning program, to be completed under a $75,000 federal grant covering 40 Kentucky cities, were outlined today by Lt. Gov. Wilson Wyatt and Economic Development Commissioner E. B. Kennedy, Frankfort, Ky.

They said that the share of the grant allocated to Walton, when coupled with assigned state and local funds, will cover preparation of a base map showing streets, roads, railroads, water courses, public facilities, and exact city boundaries; a map showing existing land uses, and an analysis of such uses to define trends in community development.

The total cost of the project is set at $3,128 of which Walton will pay $708.

The grant, approved recently by the Urban Renewal Administration of the Housing and Home Finance Agency for operations in June, 1961, is the top amount distributed to any state, the Kentucky officials pointed out.

The grant was made to the Kentucky Department of Economic Development. The department's Division of Planning and Zoning has contracts with the 40 cities for technical assistance in their planning programs.

The state officials noted that the grant-aided studies would complement those already undertaken for Walton. They include a base map, zoning plan, land use map, and land use analysis.

Both Wyatt and Kennedy emphasized importance to Kentucky cities of preparing long-range plans for orderly growth and development as a key to attracting new industrial plants and fitting them into a pattern of community progress.

The $75,000 grant was approved under the U. S. urban planning assistance program to augment state and local funds for planning work in communities of less than 50,000 population. Grants may not exceed fifty percent of the cost of the work for which they are made.

The 39 other Kentucky cities where planning programs will be aided through the federal grant are: Bardonia, Bardonia, Berea, Brandenburg, Cadiz, Colwell City, Campbellsville, Catlettsburg, Central City, Florence, Franklin, Fulton, Georgetown, Glasgow, Greenville, Harrodsburg, Hickman, Hopkinsville.

Jackman, Johnson, Mayfield, Morehead, Morgantown, Mt. Sterling, Murray, Nicholasville, Paducah, Pineville, Paintsville, Prestonsburg, Radcliff, Richmond, Russellville, Shepherdsville, Versailles, West Point, and Whitesburg.

The Department of Economic Development's planning staff also gives technical planning assistance to seven cities for which no federal funds are allocated.

VERONA HOMEMAKERS

Verona Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Adeline Reed, with the meeting called to order by president by singing a hymn. Mrs. Lena Harris had the Devotional. There were ten members and two visitors present.

Those attending were Lillian Stephenson, Lena Harris, Ethel Fooks, Pearl Lamm, Adeline Reed, Fannie Edington, Edith Hamilton, Assolia Hayden, Dora Burchett, Sallie Hicks, Mrs. Rea, Gladys Hicks and Home Demonstration Agent, Mrs. Gertrude Popprita, discussed what we wanted for our projects, for this year.

Mrs. Adeline Reed gave the lesson on finishing for hardwood floors. Mrs. Lillian Stephenson gave a book review on George Washington.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Florence Florence on March 4.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER

The women of the world call to unite in a World Day of Prayer this Friday at the Walton Christian Church with Mrs. George Fiske and Mrs. J. R. Wheelodon as co-chairmen, at 8 p.m.

The choir of the Zion Baptist Church and the Walton Christian Church will give praise in song as part of the local service. All men, women and children are invited to come and pray that Christ's wish that we be one in Him might be fulfilled.

INDUSTRIOUS 4-H CLUB

The Industrious Teen-Age 4-H Club of Kenton County recently held their meeting at the Independence Court House. The meeting was called to order by the president, Yvonne Friedman.

Since there were no officers or committees to report, they had a report on "Cooperative."

Glenda Hall reported on the Production Credit Association (P.C.A.). She told when and why it was started and where it gets the money it loans. Yvonne and Dennis Friedman gave a report on I.G.A. Supermarkets.

They had a very interesting film on Cooperatives entitled "Former Cooperative Today."

Mr. Carl Sheriff, past president of the Kentucky Cooperative Council, and who is now secretary-treasurer of the Federal Land Bank in Williams-town, gave a very interesting talk on the background of cooperatives and their services.

The president appointed a publicity committee and also someone to take pictures at all of our Cooperative meetings.

Why pay $1000 more and get less than a Galaxie by Ford?

Last year, hundreds of thousands of people found that the Galaxie was "the buy" of a lifetime. In every detail it was the equal or master of cars costing hundreds of dollars more. The Galaxie by Ford became the best-selling car in the world. And now—for 1960—with all its advances in style, ride, room—the Galaxie is a better buy than ever!

Yes, this year more than ever, Galaxie is the Thunderbird of the low-price field.
Want Thunderbird elegance? Look at Galaxie's rich carpeting and pleated fabric!
You want Thunderbird performance? Thunderbird's own V-8 gives it to you, under Galaxie's sloping safety-vision hood.
Want a wonderful new world of ride? Feel how Galaxie's new wide tread and five-foot-long rear springs can uncurl the corners.

This 1960 Galaxie—for all its go and glamour—has all the room you'd ever want or need. More real and true room for six passengers than you can get in some high-priced cars.
Honestly, does it make sense to spend more when you can travel in luxury at a low Ford price? We're waiting to prove our point with a ride and a deal to please you. We'd be delighted to see you now.

VERONA

Flonnie Edgington, Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Boss and sons and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McMillan and little Jimmy Littrell of Covington, were in Verona, February 21, to observe the 78th birthday of their father, L. C. Littrell, as well as the 12th birthday of his grandson, Lewis Dell Boss. Both were born on February 25. At one o'clock all assembled in the dining room where a delightful meal, prepared by the daughters, awaited them. The menu consisted of roast turkey with all the trimmings, vegetables, salads, pies, and a beautifully decorated birthday cake. Mr. Littrell and Dell blew out the candles and cut the first slice. During the course of the meal, Allen Boss, Jimmy Ray Littrell and Jesse McMillan took snapshots with their flash camera. All of the children did not attend due to their father's condition. However, another daughter, Mrs. Dewey Sizemore, Mr. Sizemore and daughter, Pamela, came in the afternoon. All left late Sunday afternoon wishing Mr. Littrell and Master Lewis Dell many more happy birthdays.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 121.

Providence

Lesson for March 6, 1960

"GOD WILL take care of you" is the name of a popular song, and is a popular idea. But some of the bitterest experiences of life come when a person discovers that this sentence does not mean quite, or perhaps at all, what he thought it did. The name gives in the church to the truth that God watches over us and all things and all men, is "Providence." In fact all that God does, in relation to mankind, and to his universe, is summed up in two words, Creation and Providence.

But the current lesson from the Bible, part of the story of Paul, may help to untangle the truth about Providence, God's care for his creatures, from some wrong ideas about it.

Will God Keep Me From All Harm?

We sometimes say that God will keep us from all harm; but if we stop to think about it, we know how God has acted in times past and what the experiences of Christians have been, we shall realize that to say that God will keep me from all harm is saying more than the facts will support.

God will not keep you from dying. He has not kept many of his children from death. Even his only Son Jesus Christ actually died on Calvary. We sometimes think a man is peculiar if he keeps a coffin in his house for future use; but while it may be unusual to do that, it isn't crazy. Unless you die at sea, or get vaporized by an H-bomb, or something extraordinary like that, you may as well buy your casket now. What is left of you will need a coffin of some kind. This is true no matter how good you are.

God will probably not keep you from all suffering. Even if you never have an ache or a pain in your body, even if you die at 80 with all your teeth as good as new, even if your friends all outlive you so that you never have to mourn their deaths—if you have a heart at all, if you share the mind of Christ, you will be torn with compassion, as he was, by the thought of the millions without a shepherd. The more Christian you are, the more the sorrows of the world will weigh on you.

From Final Evil

What God will keep you from, is what we might call final evil. If we think over the lives of great Christians and saints, we can see what God's Providence meant in their lives. Take Paul as a fair example. There at Jerusalem God did not save him from being half-killed, though he did save him from being killed. He saved him from being scourged, but he did not save him from being a prisoner. There is always a worse something from which God spares us.

And what is the worst? It surely is this: that a man be separated hopelessly and finally from God his Creator and Father. Sorrow and suffering may keep us from seeing God; but no darkness need keep us from knowing that he is there. The Christian may have to walk in the valley of the shadow of death—and what greater darkness is there? There is one greater darkness than this, the black night in which man has lost God forever. But this does not come to the man of faith. Paul more than once thought he was going to die, and finally was killed; but he never lost God.

Is God My Bodyguard?

When the President of the United States goes on a trip, even for a few blocks, he does not worry about his personal safety. The Secret Service men do the worrying for him. As his bodyguard it is their responsibility to see that no harm comes to him. He carries no gun; but he is surrounded by guns on all sides.

Is God my bodyguard? Does he take all responsibility for my personal safety? Can I leave all the worrying to him? We can leave the worrying to him, yes; but we have a personal responsibility too. We can say that God kept Paul from the agony and danger of a Roman scourging; but how? If Paul had not spoken up when he did, and told the officer that he was a Roman citizen, he would have been scourged anyway. God's care of us works best when we act in partnership with him.

The Little Things

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verse
Sunday	Matthew	18	1-8
Monday	Psalm	141	1-8
Tuesday	1 Peter	5	5-7
Wednesday	1 Corinthians	13	1-13
Thursday	Psalm	119	24-26
Friday	Psalm	9	1-13
Saturday	Matthew	9	8-13

A child's faith is beautiful in its simplicity and in the little things it encompasses. Like, for instance, the nightly ritual that comes at the end of prayer. "God bless Mommy and Daddy and Cousin Peter and Kitty Kat and my blue teddy bear."

To a child, there is no reason why God should not bless also a crumpled and slightly soiled teddy bear, and a pet kitty. For God is goodness and love and kindness and tolerance... not perhaps in those words, but in the feeling this child has as she says her prayers.

Prayer, to the child who has been taught to pray, is a natural thing. It should be as much a part of everyday life as eating and sleeping and playing. To pray for what is good... to give thanks for what one has is an all-important step in that all-important right direction on the road of life.

Home Furnishing Leaders of Kenton County Meet Mar. 2

Fifty-nine home furnishing leaders of the Kenton County Homemakers Association met Wednesday, March 2, in the recreation room of Trinity Methodist Church, Latonia, for a workshop on drapery construction, the last in the series of lessons on window treatments conducted by Miss Zelma E. Byerly, County Home Demonstration Extension Agent.

Draperys are among the easiest of home furnishing items to make. Existing new fabrics, accessories and products available at drapery counters everywhere make it possible for the homemaker to be budget wise and make her own draperys.

Drapery construction problems that puzzle the home sewer were taken up by Miss Byerly. Leaders participated by making models of unlines and custom lined draperys. The newest products available for easy to make draperys for the home were illustrated.

Similar demonstrations will be presented in 29 communities in Kenton county for home demonstration clubs by the leaders in attendance at the workshop.

Leaders attending were: Mrs. Paul Biedenbarn, Mrs. Albert England, Mrs. Charley Davis, Mrs. Terrell Travis, Mrs. Donald Riddell, Mrs. Edward Kerr, Mrs. Everett Wilson, Mrs. A. M. Wolf, Mrs. Fred Welzel, Mrs. Joe Walton, Mrs. O. B. Hundley, Mrs. George Sund, Mrs. E. T. Wiggins, Jr., Mrs. Ray Price, Mrs. James Tichenor, Mrs. Robert Conley, Mrs. Frank Gillman, Mrs. Charles Stevenson, Mrs. Bernard Grimm, Mrs. James Hartley, Miss Florence Roffey, Mrs. F. P. Ringenbach, Mrs. Ralph Buscher, Mrs. Alphonse Hartman, Mrs. Nick Dirkes, Mrs. C. E. Price.

Mrs. Marvin H. Moss, Mrs. Chas. Meyer, Mrs. Charles Brewer, Mrs. Lawrence Miller, Mrs. R. E. Gillespie, Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mrs. Ralph Edwards, Mrs. Henry Free, Mrs. Robert Cody, Mrs. Roderick Weiss, Mrs. Robert Bell, Mrs. Clarence Duncan, Mrs. F. M. Top 4-H'ers Named To Attend National 4-H Club Conference

A total of over 1,000 purple and blue ribbons received in 4-H project work—outstanding records—of leadership and community service have won trips to the National 4-H Club Conference for four Kentucky 4-H members.

These top-ranking 4-H'ers, as announced by the State 4-H Department at UK, are Martha Bell Berriman of Barren county, Mary Harlan Davis of Shelby county, Duncan Sanford of Simpson county, and Donnie Lee Maddox of Boone county.

Maddox is Kentucky's youngest delegate to the National Conference this year. He is 17 and a senior at Boone County High School, Florence. Donnie, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Grant Maddox, Route 1, Florence, will attend this year's conference as Kentucky's poultry champion. This is his ninth year in club work. Other projects have been dairy, farm labor, rabbits, electricity and junior leadership. In leadership he has helped younger members with their electricity projects for the past three years. As a member of the 4-H dairy judging team that won second in the state in 1958, Donnie took part in the International Dairy Judging contest, placing ninth. He has also given demonstrations connected with his poultry and dairy projects.

Only two boys and two girls from each of the 50 states and Puerto Rico receive this expense-free trip to the national meeting each year, according to George D. Corder, chairman of UK's Extension program. The trip is usually thought of as the top honor available to 4-H members.

The National conference has been held in June in past years, but will be held April 23-29 this year. Delegates will stay in the new 4-H Center in Washington.

Leadership projects, personal development and 4-H project work are considered in choosing members to represent Kentucky, Corder said.

DOUGLAS W. CLARK

Douglas Wayne Clark, two-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Clark, Hickory Grove station, Independence, died Sunday at home.

The boy also leaves three brothers, Mark, Steve and Danny, at home; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Smith, and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Clark, all of Kenton County.

Services were held Wednesday at the Swindler funeral home, Independence, with burial in Floral Hills cemetery, Kenton County.

Week of Celebration

The Walton Girl Scouts opened a week of celebration for their 48th birthday by attending church in a body at the Walton Christian Church.

From the first small beginning of the Girl Scouts in Savannah, Georgia, the movement has grown until there are three million girls in scouting today.

The girls were accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Russell Groger and Mrs. Earl Waters.

Completes Basic Training

Pvt. Bobby F. Masters

Army Private Bobby F. Masters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Masters of Napoleon, Gallatin county, is now stationed at Fort Knox, Ky. He just completed basic training and is now learning to be a statistical supply clerk at Knox.

Past Presidents Honored at Taylor Mill P.T.A. Meeting

The Taylor Mill P. T. A. held its regular meeting at 8:00 p. m., Monday, February 15. The session was called to order by Mrs. Gil Halberstadt. The devotional was read by Mrs. Siple, Proverbs 29:18. She gave the thought to the group of "Vision, which is needed in our schools."

The school band, which was organized 3½ months ago, played "Abide With Me" and "Long, Long Ago." Mr. George led the students and the presentation of the music was pleasing to the parents.

Mrs. Elmer Lea gave the pleasing news that membership has reached a 10% increase over last year, with 49 members enrolled.

The program was headed by Mrs. R. B. Hayes, Jr., honoring past presidents. Mrs. Helen Petty presented white carnations to the past presidents. She also gave a brief rundown of happenings in the past nine years of the Taylor Mill P. T. A.

When founded, there were 31 members; with Mrs. Clifford Williams acting as president. Many things have been accomplished by the group since then—the school library, playground equipment, kitchen equipment, and an inter com for the school.

A lifetime membership was presented to Miss Ozella Perry for her wonderful help to teachers, parents, and pupils of the school.

After the presentation, there was a skill given by the executive board. This represented a satire on the type meetings which are held prior to the evening meetings. The ladies wore old hats and dresses and much laughter greeted their entrance on stage.

A tea was held after the meeting with the past presidents presiding.

Kenton Elementary PTA

Miss Ida Mae Mullins will be the speaker at the Kenton Elementary P. T. A. meeting Thursday, March 10, at 8:00 p. m., in the school. Miss Mullins, who has conducted the Civil Defense classes at the school, will be presented by Mrs. Warren Van Horn, Civil Defense Chairman.

Mrs. Edgar Fisk, Founders Day Chairman, will present a book to the school in honor of past presidents.

A nominating committee will also be elected to choose candidates of new officers.

BOONE BURLEY BRINGS FARMERS $1.5 MILLION

Boone County tobacco growers were richer by $1,512,124.18 following the recent Burley sales, according to Walter Brown, manager of Boone County Agricultural Stabilization Committee office.

The report showed 2,558,596 lbs. were produced on 143,833 acres and brought an average price per 100 lbs. of $59.09, another record.

The average yield per acre was 1784 pounds, the report revealed.

Homemakers to Meet

The Walton Homemakers Club will meet Friday, March 11 in the home of Mrs. Frank Penick, Sr., on Jones Road, with Mrs. Marie Berks as co-hostess. Each member is asked to bring a covered dish. The Jassie "Short Cuts In Ironing." Reports of officers are due to the county. Visitors are welcome.

Receives Promotion

A cadet from Verona, has received a military promotion at Castle Heights military academy, Lebanon, Tenn., where he is a student.

Cadet Bill Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Mathis, Verona, was promoted to the rank of cadet staff sergeant, which was announced this week by Lt. Col. George E. Wright, professor of military science and tactics at Castle Heights.

Vogelpohl Heads The Kenton County 4-H Club Council

Paul Vogelpohl, Wayman Branch Road, Covington, was elected chairman of the Kenton County 4-H Club Council at the annual meeting of the organization held March 5. Mr. Vogelpohl has been an active leader of the St. Cecilia 4-H Club, Independence, for a number of years and served as vice-chairman of the county council during the past year. He brings to the 4-H Clubs of Kenton county a wealth of experience in leadership, having recently finished service as agricultural chairman of the Kentucky-Tennessee division of Kiwanis Clubs. In addition to his activities as a member of the Covington Kiwanis Club, Mr. Vogelpohl has served his community in a variety of civic positions. He and his wife have been in the point and wallpaper business in the Covington area for many years.

Elected as vice-president of the council was Gilmore Eckler, 572 Decoursey, Independence, while Mrs. Melvin Strain, Route 1, Morning View, Ky., Post Office, was elected as named secretary-treasurer for 1960.

Name of directors of the 4-H Council for a two-year term were Mrs. Herbert Works and Mrs. Paul Theale.

Representatives at the Kenton County Extension Council were selected as follows: Paul Vogelpohl, Ralph Foltz, Stanley Bird, Mrs. George Welling, Jr., Mrs. Melvin Strain, and Mrs. Clifford Williams.

Elected to represent the Kenton County 4-H Club Council on the Northern Kentucky District 4-H Council were Mrs. Melvin Strain and Mrs. George Welling, Jr. Melvin Strain was named as an alternate.

The annual meeting of the 4-H Council, held each year during National 4-H Club Week, officially launches the new 4-H Club year for some 800 members in Kenton county.

EVANGELISTIC MISSION

An evangelistic mission will be held at the Walton Methodist Church, March 20-27, with services each evening at 7:30. The guest speaker will be Rev. Clarence Krebs, pastor of Asbury Heights Methodist Church, and the song leader and soloist will be a student from Wilmore College, whose home is in Singapore.

The pastor, Rev. J. R. Wheelodon, urges all members and friends of the church to attend these services.

Girls outnumber the boys 45,423 to 34,785 in Kentucky's 4-H Clubs.

"Our Future Community Leaders"

Top row, left to right, Lois Ann Lay, 6 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lay, 101 High St., Walton; Ricky Gene Robinson, 19 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Robinson, 58 South Main St., Walton; and Susie Hammond, 5 years, adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Whitaker, Route 2, Crittenden.

Bottom, left to right, Carl Ray Neumeister, 11 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Neumeister, Route 1, Walton; Carol Elaine Sallee, 3 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Sallee, Route 1, Walton; and Rusty Thompson, 15 months, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, 80 South Main St., Walton.

Boone Leads In Kentucky Farm Pond Fish Stocking

Boone county leads the state in farm pond fish stocking, Atlas Lynn, Fifth District Conservation Officer, recently advised members of the Florence Rotary Club.

Lynn said he had orders for fish for 82 farm ponds thus far this year. "Sixty-two were stocked last year and 100 two years ago," he said, adding that fish are supplied at no cost to the pond owner.

Lynn explained that contrary to popular belief, the state imposes no restrictions as to when and how the pond owner should fish. "When you meet the fish truck in Burlington and take home the fingerlings, they're yours—with no strings attached."

The conservation officer said that most farmers think they're not getting enough fish at one time for stocking their ponds. "They're wrong," he said. "Fish have to be fed. Natural food which forms in the water will grow bass to record weights, due to the balanced stocking program for each individual's farm pond."

On Dean's List

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cain of Station Road, received a letter from Dr. J. M. Bassell, president of Cumberland College, stating that their daughter, Karen Ann Cain, was on the Dean's List for the first semester.

New Addition to Post Office

Mr. John W. Meinhard, Regional real estate manager of the Cincinnati District, has given approval for a 14 foot by 14 foot addition to the Morning View, Ky., Post Office, to be erected as soon as possible in order that the Post Office may give better and more efficient service to patrons on also making better working conditions for the employees.

Utopia Conference Held In Lexington, On February 20th

The 1960 conference of Kentucky Utopia Clubs was held February 20 at the University of Kentucky, Lexington. Utopia means "Young Farm Families—the Key to the Future."

Presiding as president was Mrs. Herbert Works of Kenton county. Speakers for the afternoon session were William B. Cammock, of Owen county, who was an exchange IFYE student to Belgium in 1958; Parker R. Blane, president of Kentucky 4-H Clubs, who spoke on "Opportunities in 4-H Club Work in Kentucky."

The climax to the meeting was a banquet, held in the Gold Room of the Lafayette Hotel, Lexington. The toastmaster was Mrs. Herbert Works, retiring president, who introduced all honored guests and new officers for 1960-61. They were: President, Caldon Little, president of the Ky. F. F. A. Chapter, from Nicholasville; second vice president, Mrs. Jesse Young, Lincoln county; secretary and treasurer, Allen Baugh, Hardin county; reporter, Paul Garrett, Simpson county.

Guest speaker for the evening was Hayden Timmons, associate farm program director of WHAS, who spoke on "The Future—Twenty-five years from now." He said everything will be modern and push button control.

Presentation of Gold Medal awards were presented by George Tomes, vice president and general manager of Bourbon Stockedards, Louisville, to Mrs. Stella Werthington, Casey county, for outstanding work in Utopia, 4-H Clubs, as a leader, and church work. Warren county and Simpson county also received Gold Medal awards.

Seldon Little, president of the Ky. F. F. A. Chapter, from Nicholasville, talked about F. F. A. work in Kentucky. He is studying at U. K. and is in his second year of agriculture.

Thirteen counties were represented at the conference with 95 attending the banquet. Those attending from Kenton county were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, Mr. and Mrs. John Tows, Mr. and Mrs. George Welling, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Works, Mrs. Chas. Brown, and Miss Ruth Marcum, associate Home Demonstration Agent. Square dancing was enjoyed by everyone, with Phoebe Ross, Extension Specialist in recreation, in charge.

Card of Thanks—

I wish to express my thanks and sincere appreciation to my family, many good friends and neighbors, to the Sunday school classes of the Baptist, Christian and Methodist churches for all their many acts of kindness and sympathy bestowed on me during the long illness and in the passing of my beloved husband. Especially to Rev. J. R. Tockett, my deep gratitude and thanks for his consoling words that comforted so much and helped ease the pain of sorrow and dry the tears in the last hour of parting thanks to Mrs. Carl Conner and Mr. Mark Meadows for the two hymns that were played and sung so beautifully; to Rev. Kelly Kennedy for his prayer of farewell at graveside; thanks to those who sent flowers, a final tribute to my husband; thanks to those who served as pallbearers, and to the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral home, my sincere thanks and appreciation for their sympathy and consideration in the arrangement of the funeral services, and especially the care in preparing my husband to be laid to rest, with all traces of pain and agony he had endured in the last week of life, erased. Thank God, that is how I'll remember him, until we meet again never more to walk alone. I pray the Good Lord will bless you all the days of your lives.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Dorman are receiving congratulations on the birth of a new granddaughter, Mary Alice Dorman, born to Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dorman of Shelbyville, Ky., on March 3rd.

Hubert King has returned home from the hospital and is getting along fine.

Mr. Edward Lightner has come home from the hospital and is staying with his daughter, Mrs. Russell Armstrong.

Mr. Henry Bindel remains in serious condition at Booth Hospital.

The children of the neighborhood enjoyed their two days off from school and spent the days sled riding. Ice on the ponds was thick enough to hold them, but was quite rough and not good for skating, however they didn't have to worry about getting wet, and they could slide down the hills onto the ice and clear across the ponds. Made us wish we were a few years younger and could get out and join them.

The Annie Allen Circle of Oak Ridge Baptist Church will meet on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Jack King on Senour Road.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club will meet Tuesday, March 15 at the home of Mrs. Edith Piper on Taylor Mill Pike.

Due to the bad weather this week, the Week of Prayer for Home Missions at Oak Ridge Baptist Church has been postponed until next week.

National Foundation Health Scholarship Deadline April 1st

Walton and Boone County High school students who hope to win a National Foundation Health Scholarship must file applications by April 1, it was announced this week by Mrs. Calvin Cress, Florence, chairman of the Boone County Chapter.

More than 500 scholarships, made possible by the New March of Dimes, will be awarded in the fields of nursing, physical therapy, occupational therapy, medical social work and medicine. Each scholarship is worth $500 a year, or a total of $2,000 for four years of college training. Awards will be made on the basis of academic record, professional promise, personal qualifications and financial need. Winners may attend any accredited school in the United States.

High school students who will enter college this fall are eligible for scholarships in nursing, physical therapy and occupational therapy. College sophomores may apply for scholarships in medical social work. All college undergraduates who have been accepted for admission to an approved school of medicine in 1960 are eligible for scholarships in medicine.

Applications for Health Scholarships, the chairman said, have been received by all accredited high schools and colleges. They may also be obtained from the local chapter of The National Foundation. Winners of these awards will be selected early this summer by a state committee of leading professionals in the health fields.

"The purpose of this scholarship program," Mrs. Cress said, "is to help train some of the thousands of health professionals desperately needed in hospitals, clinics and research laboratories in every city and community throughout the nation."

HICKORY GROVE W. M. S. MEETING

The Hickory Grove W. M. S. met at the church, February 2, for their monthly meeting. Eighteen were in attendance. Mrs. Mildred Popp, Mrs. Rachel Farrell, Mrs. Catherine Russell, Mrs. Ada Alexander, Mrs. Wanda Ellis, Mrs. Violet Lipscomb, Mrs. J. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Betty Price, Mrs. Leona Tegerdren, Mrs. Ann Hunsinger, Mrs. Elizabeth Russell, Mrs. Ella Mae Blymyer, Mrs. Martha Miller, Mrs. Hilda Jump, Miss Ruth Jump, Mrs. Jessie Fisk, Jessie Bass and Mrs. Sneedgar. The group was sorry to learn Mrs. Eva Carr was in the hospital, and all wish her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Clark was reported in the hospital also.

The program, "By Word, In Speech, In Deed," Southern Baptists in Panama was given by several members. It is good to hear of the good work missionaries are doing in these foreign countries.

Mrs. Jessie Bass and Mrs. Catherine Russell had prepared Valentine favors containing candy valentines. For refreshments, coffee or cake and cookies were served.

A book study was held at the church February 29, when Mrs. Alexander taught the book, "Rural Churches."

Crittenden Softball League

Anyone interested in entering a team in a softball league at Crittenden is asked to contact W. R. Case, Richard Thompson or Joe S. Reed. The Crittenden Volunteer Fire Dept. is going to operate the recreation center in an effort to obtain new equipment.

Ryland Homemakers

"Home Furnishings" was the topic of the lesson given to the Ryland Homemakers Club at the recent meeting which convened in the home of Mrs. Harold Halfhill. The leaders, Miss Ruth Schmidt and Mrs. Anthony Wolf, pointed out the importance to accent with accessories when decorating a room.

Mrs. Everett Wilson read the Food Searchlight pamphlet on the best buys on today's market.

Mrs. George Campbell was welcomed as a new member after attending three consecutive meetings. Mrs. Leslie Smith acted as co-hostess for the day. Other members present were: Mesdames William Damon, A. R. Hicks, Harold Ward, James Mueller, O. J. Williams and C. J. Castberry. A farewell party, honoring Mrs. O. J. Williams, a member of over a score of years, who is moving to St. Louis, will be given by her sister, Mrs. William Damon. The April meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. A. R. Hicks and roll call will be answered with a household hint.

Wheat Growers Without Allotment, Notify ASC

Any farmer who has seeded wheat for measure as grain next summer but who does not have a wheat allotment or a feed wheat exemption should notify the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office of his estimated acreage, William O. Gilreath, chairman, Kentucky Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today. In this way, county records can be established and steps can be taken to make such a farmer eligible for a wheat marketing card if he decides to sell any of his grain.

Under the wheat marketing quota program, any grower who produces more than 15 acres of wheat is subject to a penalty on any "excess" wheat harvested. The penalty must be paid before the wheat is eligible for marketing.

Kentucky Mother Of the Year To Be Selected Soon

Some rare women with courage, cheerfulness, patience, affection, kindness, understanding and homemaking ability will be honored as "the Kentucky Mother of 1960," sometime in April.

If you know such a woman, whose success as a mother is evidenced by the achievements of her children and who is an active member of a religious body, you are invited to nominate her for the title. Nomination papers may be obtained from Mrs. Harry Peters, chairman, Kentucky Mothers Committee, Trenton, Ky. Mrs. Peters says the deadline for returning nomination papers to her is March 1.

Other qualities which must be possessed by the mother to be honored are:

Exemplification of the Golden Rule, a sense of civic responsibility and activity in service to benefit the public.

Mrs. Peters says she hopes each county will have an entry for the contest this year, which will be decided in Lexington.

The Kentucky mother will compete for the title of "American Mother of the Year." It is customary for this lady, after she is chosen, to be received at the White House by the First Lady and the President.

The purpose of this contest is to bring to the attention of the general public, particularly young people, the rewards of the career of ideal motherhood.

FARM BUREAU in Action by C.H. Fields Kentucky Farm Bureau Fed.

Organized Action Saved Farmers More Than $3-Million

The final version of the new Kentucky sales tax isn't known as I'm writing this column, but enough is known at this time to say that effective organized action in Frankfort by Farm Bureau's legislative workers have already saved Kentucky farmers more than $3-million dollars annually.

As originally proposed by Governor Combs, the sales tax bill contained no exemptions for feed, fertilizer, seed and livestock, but later revisions of the measure assured farmers that these exemptions would be a part of the final law passed. These revisions came as a direct result of Farm Bureau activities in Frankfort. E. W. Kesler, director of the State Farm Bureau legislative department, appeared at a public hearing on the measure held January 27 to speak in behalf of farmers. Many private conferences were held also with Governor Combs, Revenue Commissioner Scent, and others.

No final decision had been made at the time of this writing on whether farm machinery purchases would be exempt from the tax. Farm Bureau representatives in Frankfort have taken the position that if other business and industry receive an exemption for the machinery and equipment they buy, then farmers should have the same privilege.

Farm Bureau continues to be one of the strong supporters of the sales tax as a means of raising additional state revenue and for boarding the tax base, but it is against taxing items that would have the net effect of double taxation. The whole idea of a consumers sales tax is that the tax is collected on consumer items at the retail level. Collection of the tax at any stage above that level results in the tax being collected twice or more.

Throughout the discussion of the sales tax, Farm Bureau has taken the position that farmers want to pay their fair share of the next tax, but they don't want to pay more than their share. As consumers, they are willing to pay the same tax as any other consumers, but farmers don't consume feed, fertilizer, seed, etc. They buy these items in order to produce commodities on which a sales tax will ultimately be collected.

Linsay Circle to Meet

Satisfying Later Years Largely Depends On You

You can expect to live a longer life than your parents. Developments in science and medicine now give most persons the opportunity to reach "old age," but how happy your later years will be depends largely on you, says Mrs. Mary Browder, UK Extension specialist in family living, Lexington.

The constant process of aging goes on in spite of world events or your own personal feelings. Old age can provide you with many basic satisfactions if you are willing to look ahead and plan for the future. Mrs. Browder points out that happiness at any age depends to a great extent on how problems are faced and solutions worked out.

Those persons who try to hold on to youth too tightly neglect preparation for the later years. They fail to tend down roots that would develop into a satisfying old age, she points out. Rather than looking forward to old age as a time of relaxation, they face it with fear. The older years, should be a fulfillment of the preparations made during childhood, adolescence, young adulthood and the middle years.

An adult needs some interests outside of job and family, she recommends. Otherwise, he or she may be left lonely and bored after retiring from work or after the family has grown up and left home. Interest such as hobbies or club work can be insurance against an empty old age. Developing a hobby that you find interesting and challenging is not a childish pastime, but a form of enjoyment that can continue the rest of your life.

The whole concept of age is changing, according to Mrs. Browder. Old age need not be a period of resignation and waiting, but rather rich, creative and happy years that result from facing the fact that you will grow old and preparing for that time.

Buttonholes on a quality suit or coat should have close, even stitching on both sides, a firm edge and well-reinforced ends.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON By C.H. Kiburg

Top Jurist: Kentucky is without representation on the Supreme Court and that situation makes Judge Wilbur K. Miller the top-ranking Kentucky jurist in the nation's capital.

Judge Miller hails from Owensboro and is a member of the U. S. Court of Appeals with headquarters in Washington. That means that his court decides most of the important questions on constitutional legislation. It can be compared in importance to the circuit court of Franklin County, Kentucky.

He's Conservative: The judge is classified as a conservative by others. But he describes himself only as old-fashioned.

Judge Miller was named to the court in 1945, recommended to President Truman by the late Alben Barkley. His promotion followed service on both the state and local level.

For example, he was the first chairman of Kentucky's Public Service Commission. For nine years he also served as attorney for Davies County.

Born in 1892: Bill Miller was born in 1892, and was the top scholar in his high school class in Owensboro. He got his degree in law at the University of Michigan and at the age of 24 hung out his shingle as a full-fledged barrister.

Twenty-nine years later, and with a world of experience behind him, the U. S. Senate named him to the Federal Court of Appeals.

Nine Judges: There are nine judges on the Court and the Kentuckian, with almost 15 years' service to his credit, ranks second in seniority, tied by the Chief Judge, E. J. Prattman, who was confirmed the same day as Judge Miller.

From time to time, the Owensboro lawyer has been mentioned for the Supreme Court, but age appears to be against him. In addition, Bill Miller is a Democrat and the Republicans today have the power of appointment.

Note of Appreciation— The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department would like to express its appreciation to everyone who attended our social on February 27. Helen Schadler of Covington, won the door prize.

A Day In Court

Lesson for March 13, 1960

WHEN a prisoner appears in court heavily handcuffed and with a chain attached to him, it is a sign he is known as an escape artist. Maybe his nickname is Slippery Sam. Now Saint Paul was no Slippery Sam, but he was forced to wear chains all the same. Furthermore, he was accused chiefly of being a rabble-rouser. Even a real rabble-rouser doesn't like to be called that; and Paul was anything else but that. Yet there he was in court, first before Governor Dr. Foreman Felix, later on before Governor Festus and King Agrippa. The charges were flimsy, but the chains were solid.

What could Paul do about it? Two things he would not do. He would not complain that he was there at all. He could have kept his mouth stubbornly shut, he could have said that an Apostle cannot rightfully be tried by a civil court. On the contrary, he recognized the legal right of the court to pass judgment on his case. Again, he could have "fixed" the court. We know that Governor Felix hoped for a bribe. Paul had wealthy friends and they could have arranged it. But Paul did not do that.

The Church in Court

Paul's situation may cast some light on the relation between the Christian church and the civil courts, or the civil government in general, in our day. This is a very tricky subject and the churches which we will be studying this lesson are not all agreed on the solution. But we can venture a few general thoughts. The church certainly can rule out what Paul ruled out. The church has no right to say, "The civil courts and the civil government have no jurisdiction over the Church of God." If any body of people anywhere has a high duty to comply with law and to submit to proper authorities, it is the church. Of course the church's beliefs, and its mode of operation, the appointment of its ministers, are its own affairs.

If the church must refuse temptations to stand outside the law, it must also be scrupulous not to influence law and law-makers by illegal means. This goes all the way from preachers who try to get their traffic-violation tickets "fixed", up to a great church that tries to get illegal tax reductions or exemptions.

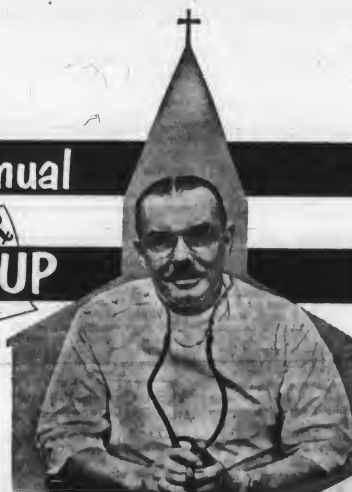

What then can the church do? It should not stay aloof from law and government, and if it cannot try to please the Felixes around the capital with bribes, direct or indirect, what can the Christian church do as it confronts the civil state?

Again it might take a leaf from Paul. He did try to influence the court; but it was open and aboveboard. He put his case truthfully, quietly, but persuasively. In all these trials the court was prejudiced against him at the start; but he always won a verdict of Not Guilty. What he had on his side were facts, and he presented those facts so that even skeptical judges were convinced.

Getting the Christian Case Heard

Here is something the church can do, or several things all combined. First, the Christian church needs to have, more than it sometimes does have, a clear understanding of what "Christian social ethics" means and is; that is to say, the church ought to have a clear and clearer understanding of what the Christian faith implies for social, business, educational and all other realms of life in modern society. Second, the church should be more aware than it is, of the moral side of proposed legislation; which is to say in simpler words—the church should always be alert to ask, "What is this law, this situation, going to do to people? The church that is not interested in persons and what affects them, is a long way removed from its Master. And third, the church, through as many of its members as are really interested, should keep governors, congressmen, senators, mayors and official boards, aware of the Christian viewpoint. Like Paul, the church needs to state the Christian position, to persuade by the highest method—the presentation of the truth.

CHECK UPTHE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest force on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a cornerstone of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

It's a good idea to have a check up every so often. And the idea ought to be extended to our spiritual as well as our physical health.

For instance, how much are we thinking about the truths our churches teach us? Do we understand God... His love for men... the sacrifice of Christ for our sins... the way of Christian living?

And how much are we doing for God and our own souls? Are we worshipping every Sunday... rearing our children in the Faith... serving the Church and fellowmen according to our talents and physical strength?

And how much are we giving for God to use? Do we promise Him a fair proportion of our income... do we set it aside regularly as a sum that belongs to God and to those who need our help... do we have the courage and faith to strengthen our Church by more generous support?

Revival Services Scheduled at First Baptist Church of Walton, March 20 - March 27

Beginning on Sunday morning, March 20, and continuing through March 27, Rev. John W. Kurtz, Lexington evangelist, will conduct a revival at First Baptist Church, Walton.

Brother Kurtz, before entering the field of evangelism, was pastor of Westwood Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio. He was used mightily of the Lord there, to make possible what seemed the impossible. For ten years he served Ohio's largest Southern Baptist Church as pastor. The church had a phenomenal growth under his leadership. It has grown in membership from 630 to over 2100 members. The budget increased from $29,000 to $105,000. This church led the state in baptisms for nine straight years, with over 200 per year, and ran over 1000 in Sunday school for the last three years of his pastorate. They built a lovely parsonage, a new auditorium which seats over 2400, and they started eight missions. He was twice elected moderator of Ohio State Convention.

Perhaps the greatest thing that could be said of Rev. Kurtz was said by Dr. Leo Edleman, past president of Georgetown College: "John Kurtz has a pastor's heart, it burns with great evangelistic fervor. He loves the lost and has an unusual zeal to win them to Christ."

The local Minister of Music, W.B. Ferguson, who surrendered to a full-time Christian ministry under Rev. Kurtz, will direct the music for this series of services.

There will be services each morning, Tuesday through Friday, at 10 o'clock and each evening at 8:00. On Sunday morning, March 27, the Sunday school will be brief and more time will be given for a great evangelistic service at the worship hour. The pastor-and-people-at-First Baptist invite you to attend every service.

Evangelistic Mission Planned at Walton Methodist Church

An evangelistic mission will be held at the Walton Methodist Church, March 20 through March 27, with services each evening at 7:30.

The evangelist will be Rev. Clarence Krebs, pastor of the Asbury Methodist Church, Highland Heights, Campbell county, and the song leader will be Joe Young, a student from Wilmore College. These two Christian workers are well qualified in their respective fields. The local pastor, Rev. J. R. Wheelidon, said, "Come and be profited by the blessings which the Lord is going to bestow upon us at the Methodist Church."

The prayer room will be open at 6:30 each evening. A fellowship breakfast is planned for 8:30, Sunday morning, March 20. The public is cordially invited to share in the blessings of this get-together.

Pillows should be light-weight, yet firm enough to give the head plenty of support. To test a pillow, press it down and see whether or not it springs back readily.

Rev. John W. Kurtz

Scholarship Tests Given At Simon Kenton High School

The following top-ranking students of Simon Kenton High School took the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, Tuesday, March 8:

The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying test is a three-hour measure of educational development and college aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills, and on understanding and ability to use what can be learned, rather than on sheer knowledge of facts.

For students taking the test March 8, results will be reported to all participating schools before the end of the spring semester in time for use by class advisors. The scores may also be used in many high schools to help students make decisions about college and the most appropriate courses to major in. Many students throughout the country who do not expect to win have registered for the test in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses.

The National Merit Scholarship Program is a nationwide search for students who demonstrate extraordinary ability to benefit from a college education. More than a million and a half high school students have participated in the Merit Program, and in the fall of 1959 more than 3100 Merit Scholars were enrolled in nearly 400 colleges and universities in the United States.

Some 100 corporations, foundations, professional societies and divisions, as well as the National Merit Scholarship Corporation itself, has awarded over $15,000,000 in scholarships in the first four years of the program.

Firemen Say "Use HU 5-4141 for Fire Reporting Only"

The Walton Firemen report that HU 5-4141 is for reporting fire only and NOT a general information phone.

The department requests that when the fire alarm is sounded you do not dial HU 5-4141 to see where the fire is.

Last Sunday at 4:10 P. M. the firemen answered an alarm at the home of Stanley Ransom on Richmond Rd. While the firemen were out on the run the firehouse was flooded with calls by persons wanting to know where the fire was. This practice must stop immediately because every time someone is calling on the HU 5-4141 number they are blocking the fire phone and if someone wanted to report a fire they could not. Please do not use HU 5-4141 unless there is an emergency.

LAWRENCE THOMPSON

Services for Lawrence J. Thompson, former Northern Kentucky building contractor, were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. at the Florence Methodist Church, of which he was a member. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Erlanger. Sixth Funeral Home, Florence, had charge of arrangements.

Mr. Thompson, who was 72, died Thursday, March 10, at the home of a sister, Mrs. Sam Maure, Terre Haute, Ind. He was a native of Terra Haute, but had lived in Northern Kentucky for 30 years.

He also leaves two sons, Howard Thompson of Florence, and Arthur Thompson of Miami, Fla.; another sister, Mrs. Russell Wheeler, Georgetown, Ill.; two brothers, James Thompson of Marshall, Ill., and John Thompson of Corpus Christi, Texas; two grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

St Joseph's Cathedral, Bardonia, contains nine paintings by old masters which were a gift from Louis Philippe, Duke of Orleans, and later king of France.

Soil Tests Integral Part Of Good Burley Programs

Soil testing is an integral part of a good burley production program, says Russell Hunt, UK Cooperative Extension Service tobacco specialist, of Lexington.

For a good tobacco program, one must know the lime, phosphorus and potash needs. A soil test plus cropping history will provide the needed information.

Few fields will need lime this spring, Hunt points out; those which will need it likely are those fields where tobacco has been grown the last few years and where large amounts of manure have been applied, or green manure cover crops turned under. A soil test is the only way to find out if this land needs liming; if the soil is too acid, a small amount of lime in the spring will help this year's tobacco crop; if lime is not needed (as shown by the soil test) application of lime may prove harmful to the coming crop.

Kentucky soils vary widely in phosphorus and potash content, Hunt noted. Far tobacco crops to reach highest quality and yield, the plants must have a proper amount of phosphorus and potash.

Soil tests will show whether these two elements—potash and phosphorus—are lacking. Hunt recommends that the tests be done before fertilizer is purchased or put on the soil.

OPEN LETTER TO EISENHOWER ASKS FOR COPY OF BUDGET
March 11, 1960
Dwight D. Eisenhower
The White House
Washington, D. C.
Dear Ike:

"For the past few weeks I have been trying without any luck to get a copy of the new federal budget which you have proposed to the Congress. Although I have written to Senator Martin, who is a member of the Senate Finance Committee, to Senator Byrd, who is chairman of that Committee, and to the U. S. Government Printing Office, I find that it is impossible for a citizen of this country to get a copy of the plans you have for spending a good part of his money. I have even sent a check in the amount of $3.50 to the Printing Office, offering to pay for a copy, but they have returned it, with the notation that the publication is 'out of print'.

This is not a prank on my part. I believe it is time that the taxpayers of this country become more interested in what their government is doing and propose to do with their money. As an official of the largest farm organization in Kentucky, it was my intention to haul the budget document around the state, exhibit it at meetings, place it on scales to demonstrate its weight, compare it with mail order catalogs, and use it in any dramatic way possible to get more people concerned about the problems of fiscal responsibility.

With all of the clamor going on in the Congress these days for increases in defense and non-defense spending, it seems to me that a citizen should have the right to become informed on the budget and to concern himself about it. It is time that the taxpayers of the country declare a halt to ever-increasing federal expenditures, deficit budgets, and non-payment of the federal debt. We can't do that unless we can create an informed and aroused public.

I ask that you use your influence to help me secure a copy of the new budget. I realize it is expensive to print a budget that proposed to spend nearly $80-billion of the people's income; but I am willing to pay for that cost. If we have reached the place in this country where it is impossible for a taxpayer to find out for himself how his money is being spent by his government, we are wretched down the road to state socialism than any of ours have imagined."

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By CU Kingsbury

Stuffed Filibuster:

The Senate took time out from the Civil Rights argument to hear from Senator John Sherman Cooper on a late, great Kentuckian, A. O. Stanley.

It seems a shame that to many young Kentuckians Mr. Stanley is a stranger. But the fact remains that he was a Congressman, Governor, and Senator of his state, one of the few men to hold the triple-crown of Kentucky politics.

General Assembly:

Actually, what Senator Cooper did was to present to the Senate the resolution of the Kentucky General Assembly honoring the memory of Governor Stanley who, until a few years ago, was chairman of the International Joint Commission. He held that post until the Eisenhower administration.

Mr. Stanley was a great orator and older Kentuckians will recall his debate with his Republican opponent and friend, Governor Edwin Morrow. They stumped the state together, having a wonderful time on and off the stump.

Six Times Elected:

Prior to becoming governor, Mr. Stanley was six times elected a member of Congress from the Kentucky Second District. Tobacco farmers will remember him for his legislation which curbed the Tobacco Trust. In 1915 he was nominated for governor and he served during the years of World War One. Then, at the close of that conflict, he won election to the senate. He spent his latter years as a resident of the national capital.

Strang Connections:

Although Governor Stanley claimed Henderson as his home, he had strong ties in other parts of the state and actually started his career as an attorney in Flemingsburg.

The governor had a ready wit and an eye for a pretty girl, in spite of his many years. He was a graduate of Centre College and a native of Shelbyville, where he was born in 1867. He died in 1958.

Pruden Clear Span Framed Buildings offer the widest versatility for agriculture shelters. They are ideal for machine sheds, poultry houses, loafing barns, garages, hog farrowing houses, and many other needs such as school bus garages, truck terminals, warehouses, fair buildings, etc. Pruden Clear Span feature affords unobstructed interiors from wall to wall and from floor to roof. Standard widths are 30, 40, 50 and 60 feet, and buildings can be any length. You receive best value with a Pruden Framed Building because you can incorporate all building materials, each to its best advantage. Building may be enclosed with wood, steel, aluminum, asbestos, block or other materials. Many roof materials are used. Pruden Buildings are most versatile!

AUCTION

In order to settle the estate of the late Lucian and Cecelia Webster, we will sell the farm of 115 1/2 acres (more or less) at auction on

SAT., MARCH 26

AT 2:00 P. M.

Sale to be held at the farm located on Flat Creek and divided by the Zion and Napoleon blacktop road, about 3 miles Northwest of Zion, and 3 miles Northeast of Napoleon—turn off Ky. 16 at Concord Church or at Odd Fellows' Cemetery and follow signs.

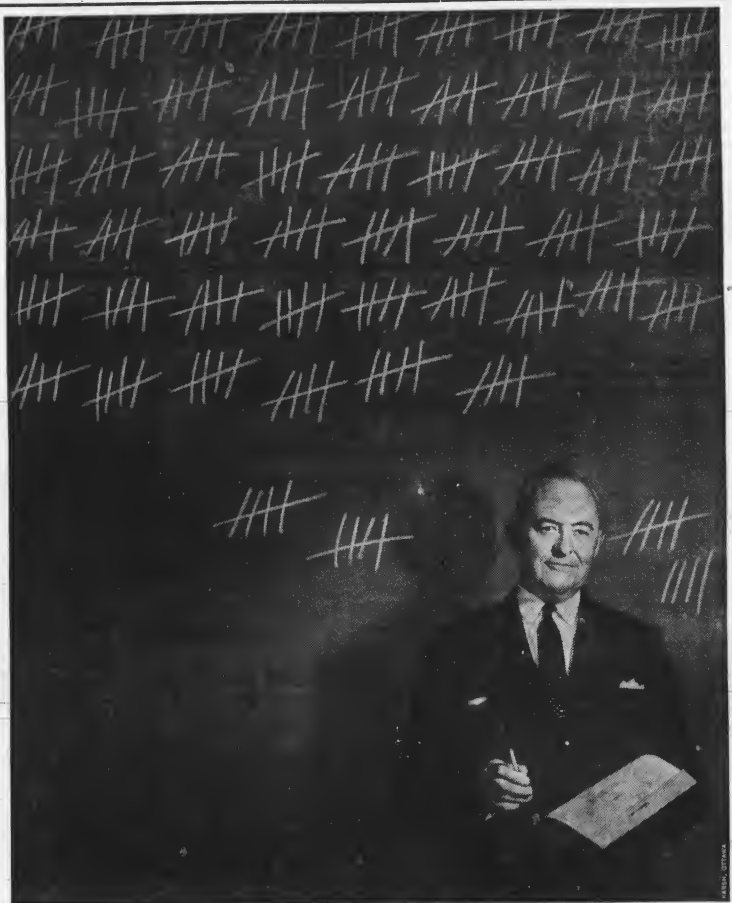

This farm has a 4-room frame house, old barn, hen house, and is watered by Flat Creek, good pond, never-failing springs and 2 wells. There is about 2 acres of orchard, also about 2 acres of timber, and approximately 3,000 black locusts, large enough for fence posts. Telephone and electric very close, one-fourth mile from grocery, on mail route, school bus, rolling stores and paper route. This farm lays fairly well with about two-thirds of it tractor land, when cleared. The tobacco base is .32-acre, and is in Grant county.

There are 22 heirs in this estate and this auction is being held so a settlement can be made. Anyone who wishes to look this farm over before day of sale can do so by contacting Woodrow Blackburn, Taylor 4-6600, or Price Webster, who lives near Concord church on Ky. 16.

TERMS: 20% down with contract, day of sale, balance with deed on or before May 15, 1960. Possession immediately.

CHALK TALK...with a Southern accent!

This "chalk talk" is good news for all who live or work in the South. Each of the chalk marks you see above represents a sizable industrial development last year along the lines of the Southern Railway System. The total comes to 269—more than one for every working day.

What does this mean to the South—and to you? For one thing, it means an estimated 21,000 new job opportunities for men and women here. It means expanded home-town payrolls to stimulate and help sustain a community's economic growth and general well-being. And the investment of $369 million in these industrial projects represents, too, a solid vote of confidence in the modern South and its bright future.

Yes, this is the message our "chalk talk" brings to you. It is a record of steady, diversified growth today and a prophecy of still more wonderful things to come. All of us helped bring it about. All of us benefit.

Shipwreck

Lesson for March 20, 1960

"ALL these things are against me," said a down-hearted old man once. Even the young and strong get the feeling that certain kinds of things are against them. We all do, more or less. When bad weather sets in; when people won't take our advice; when we see trouble coming and have no way to stop it; when we are alone in the midst of strangers; when we've been in jail for two years; when we are the "low man on the totem pole;"—we feel these things. Dr. Foreman are against us. We seldom think of them as open doors to opportunity.

Situation Out Of Hand

When we are riding the situation, so to speak, when we are in the driver's seat and have everything well in hand; when things are happening because we ordered and arranged things that way; then we sing that everything's coming our way. But when the situation is not in hand, when every thing about the situation is either unexpected or unwanted and nothing good can be said about it, then we groan that everything is against us. Nothing is more depressing than a situation out of hand.

However, there was a remarkable Christian whose story is told in the book of Acts, who never would admit that everything was against him. He always knew God was for him, and that was the main point. Situations might get out of his hands but not out of God's hand. Consider Paul, one of a batch of prisoners aboard a grain-ship on a grey November day, bound across the Mediterranean to the empire's capital.

When he stepped on board he was already at the bottom of the heap. He had been two years in jail, he was then actually shackled with a chain, he was probably not in good health, he had only one or two friends with him, the rest were all prisoners, soldiers and sailors, a pretty rough crowd for a preacher. Not only that, but he had given good advice (Don't sail, the stormy season is starting) but had been turned down. Paul was an old Mediterranean hand, he knew the weather signs. But nobody paid him any mind. Then came the storm and the shipwreck. Read all about it in Acts. It was a narrow squeak.

Little Man to Big Man

The point is, Paul never spent a minute wishing he were in a better situation. He never put in a complaint that all these things were against him. He used the opportunity all these disasters gave him. But he did not use it for himself, he used it for others. To be sure, he could not resist saying in effect "I told you so." But he did not stop with that. He became the most useful and most respected man on the ship. When they started he was just another prisoner, a little man in every sense; when the crash came he was the big man. For one thing, he brought courage to the others by his own faith. He talked language they could not understand. Get something to eat, he said. And don't let anybody steal the lifeboat.

Always A Witness

Paul did preach, though. He was not a man to let a chance go by. He preached by his very attitude, but he also gave witness in words. He said just why it was that he was so confident. His faith was not in himself nor in the ship's captain, it was in God. Now it is no news that men pray in hurricanes. But it is news when men in hurricanes do not pray mostly for themselves. There is a lovely touch in what Paul said to the other seafaring men on the stormy deck. The angel of his dream had said to him: "God has granted you all those who sail with you." Paul thinks of his fellow-passengers—even of the soldiers who had him in charge, the crew, everybody—thinks of them as his own because God had given them to him. A man who does not ask special favors for himself, a man who, if he is going to be saved, wants others to be rescued with him—a man like that will get a hearing when he speaks a good word for the God to whom he belongs and whom he serves.

Did you ever notice that small children talk about God with a faith so simple, so beautiful that you cannot question its sincerity? Ask them why they like the rain, for instance, and they may answer, "Because God made it, so the flowers will grow."

Unlike grown-ups, children accept God's order without a doubt. They believe in his love for them as naturally as they get up with the daylight and go to bed with the dark.

In God's eyes, we are all children... His children. And what we adults have lost in the way of vision, in the way of faith, must be renewed and replenished with each day and advancing year. We, too, can find God again—and, often, ourselves as well—by going to church, by praying, and by accepting the love He stands so ready to give us.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the present factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a nucleus of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should serve the church regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

UK Tests Show Promise In Tobacco Budworm Work

Several materials used last season by the UK Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, for control of budworms—a major pest of burley tobacco—showed from "fair to excellent" results.

Richard Thurston, researcher, said one experimental material—known as S24402—was the most promising. This got a high kill of budworms, a tobacco insect which, because it feeds in the hard-to-reach plant buds, is fairly inaccessible and is naturally hard to kill anyway.

A second material called Dylax showed good results, too, Thurston said.

He tried a new material last season, effect of which is to stop the various insects—including budworms—from feeding. Just how this feeding interruption is accomplished is not known, Thurston said, but, when plants are sprayed with the materials, insects cease feeding almost immediately although they are still active. This material, an experimental, is known now as "AC 24055. It was good on hornworms, fair on budworms, and of practically no use on flea beetles.

Thurston tried Diazinon and Phosphamidon, in emulsion concentrate sprays, on control of the green peach aphid, a damaging insect on tobacco. He found these materials gave better control than Malathion, the recommended material now. Parathion also is recommended for this insect but because the material is so toxic, many growers hesitate to use it.

April 15 is the deadline for filing Kentucky income tax returns.

New Lambs Need Attention Now

All young lambs should be docked and all ram lambs, except purebreds, should be castrated now, recommends Richard C. Miller, UK Extension sheep specialist, Lexington.

Docking and castrating should be done while the lambs are young; when they are a week old is the best time, Miller says.

Castration is more important for late lambs than that not finished for spring and early summer marketing than for early lambs that can be sold off the test. About one-third of Kentucky's lamb crop will not be ready for market at weaning time; most of these need to be fed out or carried into the fall for finishing. As buck lambs kept past weaning will be at a disadvantage, such lambs now under three weeks old should be castrated at once.

Most farmers know from experience how to castrate and dock lambs. If you have never performed these operations, Miller suggests that you get help from an experienced operator.

Interesting Facts....

Kentucky 4-H Club members grew 5,054 acres of field crops last year, along with 142,038 chickens and turkeys, 4,017 dairy cattle, 2,722 beef animals, 4,300 sheep, and 4,300 pigs.

Most important goals of 4-H Club work are character development, good citizenship, and leadership development.

Oranges and orange products are sharing the spotlight with pork as foods in heavy supply this month.

U. S. exports of soybeans, soybean oil and soybean meal set a new record high during the marketing year ending September 30, 1959, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Cash receipts from farm marketing in Kentucky rose five percent last year, from $547,844,000 to $575,403,000.

The croppie is abundant in all of Kentucky's large lakes and streams, says the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. Although no tackle smasher, he can offer excellent sport and a meal fit for a king.

Kentucky's Department of Law, headed by the Attorney General, is required to advise state and local officials on all legal problems pertaining to their official duties.

Kentucky's 80,208 4-H Club members last year completed 89,701 projects in almost every phase of farm and home living. Four-H members raise livestock and poultry, grow gardens and field crops, conserve the soil, sew, cook, preserve food, and improve their homes in rural and non-rural areas.

Eat a good breakfast to start a good day—and what could be better for breakfast than eggs? March is National Egg Month, and a time of heavy egg production. Large eggs are among the best food buys now.

Before painting over enamel that is still glossy, "cut" the gloss by sanding slightly. This will help the new paint stick to the surface.

Here is the ideal system for the dairyman who prefers to house and milk his cows in a stanchion barn. One man can milk 40 or more cows per hour and do an excellent job of milking. The cows are milked with gentle, low-vacuum, the same as with all Chore-Boy milkers. The system is cleaned "in-place". It ends the drudgery of handling and washing cans and pails.

Boone Brucellosis Testing

The Boone County Brucellosis Testing is about completed according to Dr. Roth, Assistant State Veterinarian. The Area Testing program was started in December, 1958, and Dr. Roth said last week at a meeting that the county must be completely tested within the next few months or the time limit will be up.

As soon as all cattle have been tested and found clean, the county can be declared Modified Certified Bangs Clear.

Twenty-four states have been certified and most of the counties in Indiana and Ohio, bordering the Ohio River, have been certified. There have been 14,996 head of cattle tested in Boone county with only .63% showing infection. Dr. Roth said this was an excellent record.

COOPERATION Is a Kentucky tradition!

RAISING BARN... OR LIGHT POLES!

Kentuckians have always been more than willing to pitch in and make a community project of their neighbor's needs. Lending a hand at a barn raising is a custom that goes back to the earliest pioneer days. And that's still the state-wide spirit of neighborliness you'll find everywhere you look in our state.

Rural electrification is neighborly cooperation, too. Kentucky's Rural Electric Co-ops... created by folks who got together to make a better life for themselves... are a good example of how neighborly cooperation serves our Commonwealth. As the countryside has brightened and prospered, so the townspeople have benefited too. The new rural prosperity made possible by electrification is spent in cities and towns.

Rural Electricity Benefits Everyone

COOPERATION brings electricity to 9,059 rural families in Pendleton, Carroll, Grant, Campbell, Owen, Boone, Gallatin, Scott and Kenton counties.

Pastures Good Way For Saving Soils

Thick cover over the earth is nature's way of saving soil which means that pasture grasses and legumes are following out this practice.

Lyle Leonard, UK Cooperative Extension Service conservationist, points out that saving soil by thick cover, and making pastures pay by grazing, are sometimes in conflict.

Answer: Hit the happy medium—by using methods that increase production of grasses and legumes but which also improve conservation.

Such requirements include a good stand to protect "every inch" of soil; lime and fertilizer; far-vigorous growth, to make more feed and thicker cover; grasses and clovers adapted to the soil, especially perennials; regulated grazing, to make sure there is always a good growth for better grazing but at the same time to conserve the soil.

Other tips: Control weeds, as they rob grass of water and nutrients, make no feed, and thin out grass and legumes.

Avoid trampling while wet, as hooves damage grass and pack the soil, which allows more water runoff. Fertilize or manure the thin spots.

Although the 4-H Club began as a rural organization, many city boys and girls are now 4-H members. Of Kentucky's total membership, 10,714 are from urban areas, and 22,375 from rural non-farm homes.

J. C. Acree

Services for John C. Acree, 60, prominent Boone county farmer and soil conservationist, were held Friday at 1:00 p. m., at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Burial was in Owen.

Mr. Acree died Wednesday, March 16, at Booth Hospital, Covington, after an illness of several weeks.

A native of Owen county, he was one of the first S. S. Soil Conservation Service technicians to be employed in Kentucky, having served since 1941 in Gallatin, Boone and Kenton counties. He retired five years ago because of illness.

He resided on South Main Street, Walton, and was a member of the Walton Christian Church.

Mr. Acree was a graduate of the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky. His Boone county farm attained state wide fame for its breeding of Jersey cattle.

He was a founder of the Northern Kentucky Chapter of the Soil Conservation Society of America, and was one of the organizers of the Boone County Farm Bureau of which he was a director of many years.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Lillian Bridges Acree, a first grade teacher in the Walton school; one daughter, Mrs. Betty John Allen, of Erlanger; two sons, William Acree of Erlanger, and Robert R. Acree of Erlanger; a sister, Mrs. Rachel E. Acree, a teacher at Western College, Kalamazoo, Mich., and eight grandchildren.

JUBILEE "BIG SHOW"

Preparations are being completed for the 50th anniversary of Scouting—The Big Show—on April 1 and 2 at Cincinnati Gardens. Three hundred exhibition booths will be on display by various Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Units in the Dan Beard Council.

Over 300 tickets have already been sold in Boone county by the local Scout Units and over 20,000 tickets have been sold in the entire area of the council. Over 15,000 boys, including approximately 100 Boone county Scouts and leaders, will participate in the Big Show. Over 50,000 people are expected to attend the day and a half Scout event.

Program Given by Fifth Grade at Piner 4-H Club Meeting

The Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club met recently in the school auditorium. Bruce Lunsford, president, presided. After calling the meeting to order he turned the session over to Linda Forehan, fifth grade president.

The devotional reading was given by Mitchell McIntosh, followed by prayer by Miss Menefee. The pledge to the American flag was led by Walter Johnson, and the 4-H pledge was led by Brenda Varner. Roll call was answered with each member giving an important date for the month of February. Doris Cummins gave the treasurer's report, while Carolyn Boin gave the reporter's report. The group was led in singing, "God Bless America" by the song leaders, after which the meeting was turned over to Rebecca Spegal, program chairman.

The following program was given by Mrs. Mary's first grade hymn, "The Love of God," Rex Allen; "The Life of Washington," Drexell Swango; song, "George Washington," fifth grade; song, "Send Me A Red Heart," Judy Anderson with Linda Forehan and Rosa McQueen playing the accompaniment on the guitar; "Lincoln Secrets," a skit, was given by eight boys and girls.

Rosa McQueen sang "Judge Ye Not," and played her accompaniment on the guitar; piano solo, Faye Crante; "The Story of Lincoln," by Mitchell McIntosh; the fifth grade song, "Honest Abe"; accordion solo, Rebecca Spegal, and the fifth grade song, "Recipe for Brotherhood," in dialogue and song; "World Anthem."

After the program, the president called for remarks from leaders and teachers. Miss Marcum was present and gave an interesting talk and made announcements concerning the 4-H work.—Reporter

Patience Advised For Ky. Veterans Awaiting Bonus

"Patience" is the word of advice for Kentucky's veterans from Adm. Gen. Arthur Y. Lloyd, administrator of the bonus, in Frankfort.

A spokesman for Lloyd said, "the countless details and problems relating to the payment of this huge sum of money are being steadily and speedily worked out."

Some estimates place the total cost at around $250,000,000, Lloyd's office reported.

"For example," the spokesman said, "We just wound up a conference with the Finance Department. Procedures of processing and payment were agreed on and streamlined." He emphasized that no application may be accepted before June 1 and that no application forms have yet been printed.

"This thing will work like an assembly line," he said. "An application will pass, step by step, all through the necessary checkings and approvals until a bonus check comes out at the far end."

With very few exceptions this process should be smooth and swift. Veterans are urged not to write to Frankfort, but to wait until full information and applications are available.

Home Decorating Lesson Is Given To Piner Homemakers

Color, pattern and texture are the important things to consider when decorating your home. This was the main theme of the lesson given by Mrs. Owen Flynn and Mrs. William Wood when the Piner Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. Flynn for the March meeting, which had been postponed a week due to icy roads.

Mrs. Wood was in charge of the business and Mrs. J. C. Cavanaugh gave the devotional. Mrs. Angelo Pelizzari gave the garden notes, telling members it was time to clean lawns, prepare flower beds and fertilize evergreens.

Ten club members planned to go to The Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company for a work day, to make or remodel lamps, March 22.

The afternoon program was in charge of Mrs. William Waterman, program chairman.

The club received a shipment of fifty aluminum Oven-Savers which they plan to sell to raise money for club expenses.

Two members were absent due to illness, Mrs. Roy Tomlin and Mrs. Marion Martin. Present were: Mesdames Robert Bell, J. C. Cavanaugh, Clarence Duncan, John Dwyer, Frank Elliott, Owen Flynn, Charles Flynn, Fred McMillan, Leslie McMillan, Chester Mullins, Malcolm Oliver, S. E. Rich, Angelo Pelizzari, Elmer Spaulding, William Waterman, William Wood, and a guest, Mrs. Marvin Hoffman.

The April meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Malcolm Oliver.

Ham and Beef Supper

Bradford Star Chapter No. 493, O. E. S. of Independence, Ky., will hold their Annual Ham and Beef Supper on Saturday, March 26, at the Simon Kenton High School. Serving is from 5 to 7 p. m. Adults are $1.25 and children 75 cents. There will be door prizes given. Come out, enjoy a good meal and help to make our supper a success.

OLLIE N. WEBSTER

Ollie N. Webster, 91, died at the home of a nephew, Ovi Webster, in Rising Sun, Ind., March 14. A native of Kentucky, Mr. Webster lived in the Concord community in Gallatin county, where he farmed, until his retirement about 15 years ago. He is survived by nieces and nephews.

Services were held Thursday, March 17, at 1:30 p. m., at the Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, with the Rev. Hamlin Burnett officiating. Burial was in Pleasant View Cemetery, Zion Station.

AMOS J. OLIVER

Services for Amos J. Oliver, 83, retired farmer who died Wednesday, March 16, at the Boone County Infirmary, were held Saturday at 1:00 p. m. at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Big Bone Baptist Cemetery.

He leaves seven daughters, Mrs. Alva Wood, Jr., of Walton, Miss Clair Oliver, Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. Ora Jensen of Cincinnati, Mrs. Harold Sleet of Lebanon, Ohio, Mrs. Wilbur Locker of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. John Doolin of Union; three sons, Claude Oliver of Lancaster, Ky., and Earl and Stanley Oliver of Covington, and 29 grandchildren.

LESLIE E. MOORE

Leslie E. Moore of the South Fork community, Verona, Route 1, died at his home March 21. A retired truck driver and farmer, he was 76 years old and a member of the Beaver Lick Christian Church.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Sallie Moore; a daughter, Mrs. Jennie Atha, Verona, Route 1; two sons, Howard Moore of Walton, Route 2, and Earl Moore of Verona, Route 1; ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Services will be held this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:00, at Beaver Lick Christian Church, with burial in the church cemetery. Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

MRS. ALICE HAGER

Mrs. Alice Hager, a resident of Boone county for 50 of her 71 years, died Monday at her home on Big Bone Road, near Union. She was born in Rising Sun, Ind., and was a member of the Rising Sun Baptist Church.

She is survived by her husband, Frank Hager; three daughters, Mrs. Helen Fibbs of Union, and Mrs. Hazel Crowe and Mrs. Dorothy Maines of Covington; a son, Ernest Leroy Hager of Covington; four sisters, Mrs. Ethel Egnew of Blue Ash, Ohio, Mrs. Lucille Van Doren of Aurora, Ind., Miss Pearl Jones of Indianapolis, Ind., and Miss Emma Jones of Rising Sun, and a brother, Marshall Jones, Rising Sun.

Services will be held this (Thursday) morning at 10:30 in the Fifth Funeral Home, Florence. Burial will be in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, Erlanger.

Firemen's Auxiliary Social

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Walton Volunteer Fire Department will sponsor a social at the Fire House at 8:00 p. m., Saturday, March 26. Pottery will be given as prizes, and there will also be a door prize. Refreshments and sandwiches will be available. The public is invited.

Card of Thanks—

We want to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends, neighbors and relatives for their sympathy, thoughts and deeds of kindness, flowers, food and cards received and for all that was done for us during the illness and death of our beloved mother, Mrs. Inez Bonar. We especially want to thank Bro. Vaughn for his many visits, prayers and kindness during her illness; the consoling and comforting words and prayers after her death; Mr. Meadows for singing the two hymns of her last request, and to the pallbearers our sincere appreciation, Chambers and Grubbs funeral home in preparing her so pretty and restful with all the pain and agony gone that she had suffered the past year, and to all who helped in any way, our deepest gratitude and appreciation. We thank each and every one.

Small Grains Need Top-Dressing Now

As soon as weather permits Kentucky farmers ought to top dress small grain crops, says S. H. Phillips, UK Cooperative Extension Service specialist, Lexington.

Amount of fertilizer needed on wheat, barley or winter oats depends on amount of nitrogen used last fall when the grains were planted, or what kind of crop the small grains are following.

From 100 to 200 pounds of ammonium nitrate (A. N.) is the usual amount for the spring top-dressing, Phillips says. If a fall application was made, the spring top-dressing should make up the difference in nitrogen between that fall application and the amount needed; for instance, if 50 pounds an acre of ammonium nitrate went on in the fall, then an additional 50 pounds of A. N. are needed now, etc.

Phillips warns that a high rate of nitrogen (ammonium nitrate) can cause lodging (stem-breakage in later stages of growth). If the small grains are following a sod, the amount of nitrogen should be reduced to the lower rate, 50 to 100 pounds of A. N. This ammonium nitrate also should be applied when the small grains are dry, to avoid fallow burn.

Grazing can continue safely without cutting yields on these small grains until the small seed head in the stem has developed to where grazing cattle would be eating that developing head. Split the grain stem and if the developing seed head is high enough in the stem so an animal would eat the head when grazing, it is time to stop the grazing program. The extra ammonium nitrate applied this spring, incidentally, will promote earlier grazing and more forage for that purpose.

Top quality sweet potatoes are clean, smooth, firm and well-shaped to avoid waste; fresh, bright and dry to prevent decay and spoilage. One decayed spot spoils the flavor of the whole potato.

Even though baby shoes seldom wear out, don't pass them on to other children in the family. Since each child wears shoes differently, another child's shoes may harm his feet.

Door For The World

Lesson for March 27, 1960

ADS ON billboards, in buses, in newspapers, tell us to Go to Church. A fleet of taxicabs will, if paid enough, carry posters telling the world that "The family that prays together, stays together." Some of this advice must be taken, to judge from the crowds one sees coming out of churches of all kinds. Our country may not be a maturely Christian country, but at least the church is respectable, and popular besides.

This is not true all over the Dr. Foreman world. There are more places where this is not true, than where it is true. In East Germany today a boy or girl comes near losing all chance of a job if he or she does not leave the church and join the youth organization sponsored by the Party. In Japan, India, and other countries, to be a Christian is to be thought of as unpatriotic.

We Have Always Had Rivals

America is one of the few places now where Christianity is both popular and respectable. These other places where it is not are more like the situation when the Christian faith was new. Many American Christians have the curious idea that if the going is rough we should not send missionaries; that if there are lots of religions in a country like India, for instance, we should not upset their theological apple-cart and substitute them with a new religion. The real New Testament Christians would have thought such notions rather ridiculous. It cannot be said too often: The Christian religion did not get its start in a religious vacuum. Everybody had religion—of some kind. Only, most of the kinds were bad, and the good kinds were not good enough. Christians did not propose to merge with other religions; they urged men to "turn from dead idols to the (not "a") Living God." The "Gospel train" has never tied in with any other.

A Door for the Word

Christianity, in other words, is exclusive. But it had amazing success in that world so crowded with religions. And this was because Christians like Paul never failed to make advantage of any door for the Word that stood open. Paul, while a prisoner at Rome, had what most modern preachers would consider a bad situation. He was drawing no salary, he "had no church" as the saying is, he could not look forward to promotion, he could not do any organizing, his only "parish" was a jail and jailers who did not care much in the way of a future. And what a congregation! Criminals and prison guards—not much hope there. Yet Paul could write to his friends at Colossae about a "door for the word." He did not expect a door for himself, but he did pray for one for the Word of God.

His prayer was answered, too. One of the doors for the Word was the conversion of a runaway slave called Onesimus. Through this man the religion of Jesus spread where Paul himself could not go. Then at the end of Paul's letter to the Philippians, written from a Roman prison, he speaks of the "saints in Caesar's household"—palace servants no doubt. Paul would never have been invited to the royal palace; but these humble Christian men and women, whom Paul had probably converted in prison, gave him had no chance to go anywhere else—these would take the Word where Paul could not hope to go.

And If No Door?

There must have been times when even for the Word there was no door that Paul could find. So it is in many parts of the world today. Nobody is expecting any great outbreak of Christianity in East Germany, or Japan or Yemen or some places on the Amazon. When all doors are closed, as they are now in China, what do we do next? Do we write off missions as a lost cause? Paul did not. He wrote to his friends at Colossae to pray that God would open to him a door for the Word. You do not pray for what you already have. So now, when doors are shutting in many lands, we are poor Christians if we just accept this as final. For Japan, for Russia, Abyssinia—yes for Suburbia, that often prays and, we must pray for the open door.

The Golden Time

When Mom and I got married, golden weddings seemed just as remote to us as they probably do to you. Matter of fact, folks celebrating them seemed like museum pieces!

Now here we are, posing for our fiftieth anniversary picture! Funny part of it is that we don't feel a bit like "old folks!"

Still, a couple can't be married for half a century without putting in a lot of living. Mom and I have. There were times when we were so happy we thought we'd burst — other times when it didn't seem as if we could find the strength to keep going another minute.

Through it all, we've had our church. It's hard to put into words how important that's been. Maybe you'll get an idea when I tell you this. When Mom asked me what I'd like to do to celebrate our anniversary, I said, "First of all, let's go to Church. I want to say a little prayer of thanks."

Mom smiled at me. "So do I," she told me.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a source of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Complete Wool Sales Records Stressed by ASC

With the 1959 wool marketing year coming to a close and the 1960 year beginning, growers were reminded today of the importance of complete records on their sales of wool and unshorn lambs. Producers will be eligible for payments for the 1959 marketing year for wool and unshorn lambs marketed not later than March 31 of this year. Later marketings will be eligible for payments for the 1960 year.

Russell Rector, Chairman of the Kenton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, reminds wool growers that the sales documents must show the true net sales proceeds, including deductions made for freight and other marketing charges. Where false information is filed, both the producer and the wool buyer are subject to penalties.

Applications for payment under the 1959 program must be filed at the County ASC Office not later than April 30. When a producer files an application, he must furnish bills of sale covering his sale of unshorn lambs of shorn wool, and he must also report purchases of unshorn lambs, yearlings, and replacement animals. The average price received by farmers for wool during the entire marketing year will be calculated and the payment rate announced. Payments to growers will be made sometime during the summer.

For the 1958 wool marketing year, 10,121 sheep growers in Kentucky received net shorn wool payments amounting to $972,483.85, and 8,479 Kentucky lamb growers received net payments of $334,859.92 on unshorn lambs sold. These amounts represent payments after deductions withheld for the growers' contributions to a fund for promoting the use of lamb and wool products. Deductions were 1 cent per pound for wool sold and 3 cents per hundredweight for lambs sold.

FARM BUREAU MEETING

The annual meeting of the Bi-County Farm Bureau Cooperative Association was held at their place of business in Devan, March 12.

Three directors were elected for three-year terms, as follows: George Eubanks and Fred Nelhoff, to represent Kenton county, and Joseph Thomas, Grant county.

Bi-County reported a successful year in 1959 with a net earning of $28,489.76. They will pay a patronage dividend of 4 1/2% for '59. The board voted to call for redemption of all stock issued in 1951. Total assets of the association, at the close of the year, were $285,756.63.

Bi-County Cooperative is entirely owned and controlled by local patrons.

Film at Beaver Christian

The second in a series of films will be shown at the Beaver Lick Christian Church on Sunday, March 27 at 8:00 p. m.

Due to weather conditions, the attendance was small last month, but with better weather now it is hoped many more friends and neighbors of the church will be present this Sunday evening.

Parents Receive Letter from Son's Commanding Officer

321st Transportation Squadron (ISAC) United States Air Force
McCoy Air Force Base, Florida
14 March 1960

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Cain
Independence, Kentucky

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Cain:

It was my recent pleasure to congratulate your son, A/1C Thomas J. Cain on his promotion to Airman First Class. As his unit commander, I know that his devotion to duty as an administrative clerk and his contribution to our organization both on and off duty earned him this promotion for him.

I also want to congratulate you on your son's promotion, knowing the previous influence of his home life had much to do with his success today.

We are a unit of the nation's long range striking force, the Strategic Air Command, upon whose efficient fighting potential so much of our hope for world peace depends. Since this SAC mission depends on individual effort, it is gratifying to be able to write a letter of this type. We are glad your son is a member of our unit.

Sincerely,
Richard G. Mettner

Cook the carefree ELECTRIC way

Cook electrically . . . and save yourself hours of kitchen time.

Maybe you want to relax a little with the children before dinner . . . catch up on some mending . . . read or shop.

You can do it . . . without a worry. Nothing's going to burn or boil-over on an automatic electric range. Controlled heat watches dinner for you.

Everything will be cooked to perfection! Even the vegetables will contribute more to your family's health . . . because they're cooked virtually waterless.

And cooking electrically costs less, too . . . compared to other modern methods in use . . . out beyond the city gas mains.

Sorry to learn that little Sheila Richardson has measles.

Howard Willoughby visited his mother in Covington on Sunday.

Mrs. Lila Swinford and Miss Carol Shaw visited the Stanley Swinford family on Friday.

Little Bruce Rapp is having a tonsillectomy on Tuesday of this week.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Damag is nearing completion and they will move into it.

Clayton Keeney spent Sunday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Powell and son Mark, spent a day with Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish last week.

Lathen Brinkley and David Mills spent the week-end with their families.

Chester Rapp stayed home from work on Monday because of a bad cold.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sturgeon and children spent Sunday with relatives.

Among those calling on J. A. Keeney during the week were Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser, L. J. Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney, Miss Emma Yates, Mrs. J. W. Shaw, Mrs. Chas. Losey and J. B. Losey.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey and son, Jeffrey, spent Sunday with her parents at Owenton.

We are glad to learn that Miss Barbara Bruggen, our efficient organist at the church, who will graduate with the class of 1960 at Simon Kenton, has been accepted by Good Samaritan Hospital at Lexington, for nurses training. We shall miss her as organist and also her friendly smile.

However nursing is a worthwhile and rewarding career and we feel that she will make good.

AUCTION

In order to settle the estate of the late Lucian and Cecelia Webster, we will sell the farm of 113 1/2 acres (more or less) at auction on

SAT., MARCH 26

AT 2:00 P. M.

Sale to be held at the farm located on Flat Creek and divided by the Zion and Napoleon blacktop road, about 3 miles Northwest of Zion, and 3 miles North-east of Napoleon—turn off Ky. 16 at Concord Church or at Odd Fellows' Cemetery and follow signs.

This farm has a 4-room frame house, old barn, hen house, and is watered by Flat Creek, good pond, never-failing springs and 2 wells. There is about 2 acres of orchard, also about 2 acres of timber, and approximately 3,000 black locusts, large enough for fence posts. Telephone and electric very close, one-fourth mile from grocery, on mail route, school bus, rolling stores and paper route. This farm lays fairly well with about two-thirds of it tractor land, when cleared. The tobacco base is .32-acre, and is in Grant county.

There are 22 heirs in this estate and this auction is being held so a settlement can be made. Anyone who wishes to look this farm over before day of sale can do so by contacting Woodrow Blackburn, Taylor 4-6600, or Price Webster, who lives near Concord church on Ky. 16.

TERMS: 20% down with contract, day of sale, balance with deed on or before May 15, 1960. Possession immediately.

Experimental Alfalfa Lines Do Well at State Locations
Five North Carolina experimental lines of alfalfa performed very well in the third year of a test by the UK Experiment Station.
William Stroube, agronomist, said the five experimental lines were compared to the Kentucky recommended varieties (Atlantic, Buffalo, Ranger, Vernal, DuPuits, Narragansett, Williamsburg) at two locations, Princeton Experiment Station and the Woodford county farm; there was no great difference in yields of the experimental lines regardless of where grown. Stroube said, they averaged from 4.7 to 5 tons of hay per acre.

One value of the experimentals, he said, is in their greater resistance to leaf diseases; if these lines are developed into varieties, larger quantities of better quality hay will result.

program which was an "Christian Citizenship" and stressed the Christians duty to vote intelligently and to study the issues in elections. On a show of hands of how many present were registered voters, only one member was not registered, and she promised to register to vote in the next election. Those present were Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. Chester Tallent, Mrs. Edward Rust, Mrs. Robert Butte, Mrs. Charles Asch, Mrs. J. W. Obel, Mrs. William Kener, Mrs. S. S. Richardson, Mrs. G. C. Richardson, Mrs. Herman Whalen, Mrs. H. C. Lipscomb, Mrs. Joseph Wren and Mrs. Phyllis King.

Oak Ridge Homemakers

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met March 15th at the home of Mrs. Edith Piper. The roll call was answered by facts about St. Patrick. Mrs. Edith Piper gave the marketing report about the best buys on the food market during March. Mrs. Kenneth Galloway gave the gardening report, which told of cleaning up the yard and preparing the flower beds, which ordinarily is done the latter part of March, but caused a laugh this month, as there was several inches of snow on the ground at the time.

Mrs. Kenneth Blake and Mrs. Chas. Asch gave the lesson on "The Use of Color in the Home". They showed color wheels which automatically select colors that go together. They told that warm colors go into rooms that receive little sunlight, and cool colors should go into rooms that receive a lot of sunlight. Next month the lesson will be on making draperies.

Following a lovely luncheon which was served by the hostess, the business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Chester Tallent. Due to the illness of Mrs. Collier's husband, the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. William Taylor on Valley View Drive. Next month the roll call will be answered by a household hint. At the close of the meeting a white elephant sale was held. Others present were Mrs. Chester Barton, Mrs. Jos. Flock, Mrs. Arnold Papier, Mrs. Edward Rust, Mrs. Leo Krout, Mrs. Henry Godman, Mrs. Reese Kennedy, Mrs. Frances Love, Mrs. Ollie Miller, Mrs. Charles Cummins, and a guest, Mrs. Thomas Byrnes. The club will hold a Lamp Workshop at the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Co. at 10 a. m. March 31st.

Production of red meat last year in U. S. commercial slaughter plants totaled 26 billion pounds—seven percent more than the 24.4 billion pounds in 1958, according to a U. S. D. A. report.

Local Soldier Takes Part In Puerto Rico Exercise For 18 Day

Army Sgt. Jack W. Kerns, son of Mrs. M. M. Kerns, 67 Alta Vista, Walton, is participating with other personnel from the 101st Airborne Division in Exercise Puerto Pine in Puerto Rico. The 18-day exercise that includes the largest peacetime airfield ever attempted, is scheduled to end March 31.

During the exercise, participating troops of the Strategic Army Corps (STRAC) are being air transported from their home stations throughout the U.S. to a staging area in Puerto Rico and returned Puerto Pine is designed to determine the effectiveness of the STRAC units in overcoming the complex supply and operational problems resulting from the rapid development of a sizeable force by air over great distances.

Sgt. Kerns, regularly assigned to Headquarters Company of the Division 326th Engineer Battalion at Fort Campbell, Ky., entered the Army in July 1949.

The 26-year-old soldier is a 1948 graduate of Simon Kenton High in Independence. His wife, Mavis, lives in Clarksville, Tenn.

Bird Chairman of The Kenton County Extension Council

Stanley Bird, 5435 Madison Pike, Independence, was re-elected chairman of the Kenton County Extension Council at the annual meeting of the organization on March 22. Mr. Bird, a leading dairyman of the Independence community, serves as a director in a number of agricultural organizations. He has also served several terms as director of the Kenton County 4-H Club Council and has been a local leader in 4-H work for many years.

Named as vice chairman of the council was Boyd Elliott, farmer and tobacco warehouseman, of the Atwood community.

Miss Ruth Schmidt, representing the Kenton County Homemakers, was named secretary-treasurer of the council. Miss Schmidt is a charter member of the Kenton County Home-maker Association, and presently belongs to the Ryland Club, serving as county treasurer of the organization from 1957 to 1959.

Also named to the six-member executive committee of the council were William Barnes, Mrs. Bluch Rich, and Paul Vogelbein.

The Kenton County Extension Council is an organization made up of representatives from the 4-H Club Council, Utopia Club, Kenton County Homemakers, and the various agricultural organizations in the county. The council came into being in an effort to coordinate the efforts and provide direction to the member organizations. The council presently is engaged in planning a long-time program of work involving the youth, homemakers and agricultural organizations in Kenton county.

Simon Kenton PTA to Meet

Teachers at Simon Kenton High School will get special recognition when the P. T. A. meets Monday at eight o'clock with Mrs. Clifford B. Hymer, president, presiding.

Due to the cancellation of last month's meeting the agenda for this month will be well filled, with the election of officers heading the list.

Mrs. Harold Hallthill, program chairman, will present the program. The Simon Kenton P. T. A. publicity book won first place, in the high school division, in the annual judging by the Sixth District Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers. The book will be displayed at the State Convention.

Selling Easter Flowers

The Bykota Class of the Walton Christian Church will again be selling flowers for Easter. Corsages and potted plants will be sold by order on Saturday, April 16 at the Alphin building, next door to Linton's Barber Shop. You may place your order now by calling any of the following numbers: Pauline Huey FL 7-5391; Geneva Cheesman HU. 5-4282; Francis Stevens HU. 5-4452; Malda Holder HU. 5-4582; Joe Stephenson HU. 5-4202. Extra potted plants will be available. All flowers are being purchased from Schrivers Florist.

There will be a preliminary game between Kenton and Taylor Mill elementary schools. Cecil Wayman will serve as Master of Ceremonies.

Methodist District Revival To Be Held In Covington Church

The Covington District of The Methodist Church will hold a district-wide revival March 30 through April 3 at First Methodist Church, Covington.

Dr. Harry Denmon of Nashville, Tenn., executive secretary of the Methodist General Board of Evangelism, will be the principal speaker, according to Rev. H. C. Ogles, Covington, district superintendent.

Dr. Harry Denmon

Music for the services will be conducted by Curt Davis of Indianapolis, Ind. Also scheduled to appear are the district's youth choir directed by Jerry Trisch of Covington and the Northern Kentucky Men's Chorus.

Time for the services to which the public is invited has been set for 7:30 p. m. Rev. Ogles and Rev. W. P. Davis, pastor of the church, will preside.

During the hours from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., April 2, the district will hold its annual conference. In connection with the conference, a memorial service will be held for Rev. and Mrs. G. B. Traynor.

VISALIA PTA MEETS

At the March meeting of the Visalia P. T. A. the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Ralph Finnell; vice president, Mrs. Charles Grizzell; secretary, Mrs. Stephen Wrenn, and treasurer, Fred Wetzel. Ed Mueller of the Ryland Heights Volunteer Fire Department, was guest speaker. This topic was, "A Clean House Seldom Burns." He stated that there is a "Triangle of Fire," 1, fuel; 2, air; 3, heat—without any one there would be no fire. He also named the areas with the most hazards and what to do about them.

Room count was won by the fifth grade of Mrs. Christman.

Kenton Elementary P. T. A.

A meeting of the Kenton Elementary PTA has been scheduled for tonight (Thursday) at 8:00 in the school. Mrs. Warren Van Horn, Civil Defense chairman, will present Miss Ida Mae Mullins who will speak on Civil Defense. A nominating committee will be elected to choose candidates for the unit's new officers.

ROD PERRY HUGHES

Services for Rod Perry Hughes, 67, prominent Boone county farmer, who died early Wednesday, March 23, in Clearwater, Fla., were held at 10:30 a. m., Saturday at the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral home, Walton. Burial was in Highland Cemetery, Fort Mitchell.

A native of Walton, Mr. Hughes operated a farm at Verona and also at Warsaw. He and Mrs. Hughes had spent the winters in Florida for a number of years.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Marie Menefee Hughes; two sons, John B. Hughes of South Ft. Mitchell, and Rod Hughes, Jr., of Indianapolis, Ind., and eight grandchildren.

W. EDWARD WYNN

W. Edward Wynn, a retired farmer, died Sunday, March 27, at his home at 29 North Main St., Walton, after a long illness. He was 84 years old.

Mr. Wynn was a native of Pendleton county, but had lived in Walton for the last 20 years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Anna Kilgore Wynn; a daughter, Mrs. James R. Gross, Walton; a son, Arnold Wynn, Russell Springs, Ky.; a sister, Mrs. Pearl Dunaway, West Bend; a brother, Clay Wynn, Cincinnati, and two grandchildren.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., Tuesday in the Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton. Burial was in the Dry Ridge Cemetery.

BESSIE MAE GROGER

Mrs. Bessie Mae Groger, 78, formerly of Devon, Ky., died Saturday in Hickman Rest Home, Kenton Co. She is survived by two sons, Stanley W., Covington, and Clarence C., in California; a sister, Mrs. Goldie P. Ludwig, Price Hill, and a brother, Cecil Raue, Price Hill.

Services were held March 30 in the Swindler funeral home, Independence with burial in Independence Cemetery.

Pre-School Registration In Kenton Co. School System

Girls and boys who will become six years old in 1960 will register in their respective school districts on April 7, 1960, between the hours of 9:00 a. m. and 3:00 p. m. A parent should accompany the child. A birth certificate and vaccination record should be presented at the time of registration. Schools conducting this registration in the Kenton county system are: Bromley, James A. Caywood, Crescent Springs, Forest Hills, Kenton Elementary, Park Hills, Piner, Slater Lake, Taylor Mill, and Visalia.

A luncheon will be held at the May meeting with Mrs. James Goode in charge. Mrs. Kinney expressed her desire to have all newly elected presidents from each unit attend this luncheon.

It was voted to advance the May meeting one week to expedite the distribution of tickets for Coney Island Day to be held June 2. Mrs. Robert Weinscott and Mrs. Kenneth Blake are to serve as chairman and co-chairman on this committee.

The following PTA units were represented: Beechwood, Bromley, Caywood, Dixie Heights, Kenton Elementary, Park Hills, Piner, Simon Kenton, Taylor Mill, and Visalia. Also in attendance were several members from the newly organized Boone County Council.

A board meeting preceded the business session.

The Kenton County Council PTA publicity book won first place, in the county division in the annual judging by the Sixth District Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers. The book will be on display at the State Convention to be held at Lexington, in May.

Sign-Up Goal Is Near In Brucellosis Program In Kenton

Kenton county dairy and beef cattle leaders are nearing their sign-up goal for inclusion under the Area Brucellosis Control program, according to Stanley Bird, county chairman. Following a meeting of community chairmen March 24, the county was short only 28 owners on petition and was more than 500 head of cattle over the requirement.

According to state requirements, 75% of the cattle owners holding 80% of the cattle in the county must petition the State Veterinarian before the county can be considered for the Area program. These percentages and numbers are based on the 1954 Federal Census. Since many dairymen in Kenton county have quit the farming business since 1954, leaders have found it difficult to reach the required number based on the 1954 figures. Several leaders estimated that more than 90% of the county's present cattle owners are now on petition favoring the Area Brucellosis Control program. Fewer than 5% of the owners have not agreed to petition when contacted by committee.

County leaders predicted that the sign-up would be completed by the 31st of March.

Kenton County Council P.T.A. Elects Officers

A discussion on "Parent Education and Family Life" was the highlight of the meeting when the Kenton County Council of Parents and Teachers met recently with Mrs. Shelby Kinney, president, presiding. Mrs. James Ramsey, chairman of the Parent Education and Family Life, discussed ways by which PTA's can organize discussion groups on this subject. She stressed the fact that this is not a course and can be attended by any parent who is interested in the welfare of their children—they can attend as many or as few of these sessions as they like. Mrs. Ramsey said: "Be satisfied with a slow beginning as it takes time to organize a discussion group."

A report of the nominating committee was read by Mrs. Harold Buxton and the following officers will be installed at the May meeting: Mrs. Shelby Kinney, president, and Mrs. Harold Buxton, second vice president, re-elected to office; Mrs. Otto Wolff, first vice president; Mrs. Chas. W. Adams, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Walcott, treasurer; Mrs. Jake Isaacs, corresponding secretary.

Presidents from each unit gave a report on their accomplishments for the year.

A luncheon will be held at the May meeting with Mrs. James Goode in charge. Mrs. Kinney expressed her desire to have all newly elected presidents from each unit attend this luncheon.

It was voted to advance the May meeting one week to expedite the distribution of tickets for Coney Island Day to be held June 2. Mrs. Robert Weinscott and Mrs. Kenneth Blake are to serve as chairman and co-chairman on this committee.

The following PTA units were represented: Beechwood, Bromley, Caywood, Dixie Heights, Kenton Elementary, Park Hills, Piner, Simon Kenton, Taylor Mill, and Visalia. Also in attendance were several members from the newly organized Boone County Council.

A board meeting preceded the business session.

The Kenton County Council PTA publicity book won first place, in the county division in the annual judging by the Sixth District Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers. The book will be on display at the State Convention to be held at Lexington, in May.

Health Dept. Clinic, Apr. 13

Due to vacations and the annual meeting of the Kentucky Public Health Association in Louisville, the next regular clinic of the Boone County Health Department will be held on Wednesday, April 13.

The office of the Health Dept. will be closed April 14 in order to allow personnel to attend the meeting of the Kentucky Public Health Association, these days, in Louisville.

FARM BUREAU in Action by CHFields Kentucky Farm Bureau Fed.

Expanded Tobacco Research Will Be Important Part Of Agricultural Science Center

Kentucky Farm Bureau leaders were in Washington last week working on a number of important legislative issues now before Congress.
They are particularly interested in the establishment of a national tobacco research center at the University of Kentucky, which has been proposed by Congressman William H.
Natcher, Bowling Green.

Natcher is a member of the agriculture sub-committee of the House Appropriations Committee, and has proposed that next year's USDA budget contain an item of $200,000 to help set up such a research project in Kentucky. Chances appear good for final approval of the project as a part of the federal budget.

If finally approved by Congress, this project would be a direct result of the passage of appropriations by the recent session of the Kentucky
General Assembly, which authorize the planning and a start in the construction of an Agricultural Science Center at the University of Kentucky.
The idea for such a center originated with a special committee of the Kentucky Farm Bureau, which was later expanded into the Blueprint Commission for Kentucky Agricultural Progress.

Approval of the Center was the number one legislative goal of Farm Bureau during the recent legislative session in Frankfort. The new budget contains an item of $50,000 to start the planning of the Center this coming year, and $1,000,000 for initial construction during 1961-62. Cost of the Center may run as high as $10-
000,000 before it is completed.

Certainly no one can quarrel with an appropriation of $200,000 for tobacco research, since the tobacco industry brings in a total of more than $2,500,000,000 in taxes every year, and certainly no one could find a better place to establish a national center for tobacco research than in Kentucky. Tobacco research has long been neglected by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and it is time that steps be taken to remedy the situation.

Card of Thanks—

I want to thank each and everyone for the many cards and prayers while I was in hospital and since I came

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish had, as guests on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Norris Parish and children and Mr. and Mrs. Donald and children, including their new granddaughter, Donna, who was born in February. Mr. and Mrs. Denver Blinder spent Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp.

We are glad to report that Mr. Keeney who suffered a light stroke on Wednesday of the past week, is almost back to normal for him.

We enjoyed calls from Earl Hanna, Leslie Riley, Rev. Parish, Mr. and Mrs. C. Brinkley, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp, Mrs. John Steinhilber, Mr. and Mrs. Olin Keeney, Mrs. Ida Keeney, Mrs. R. L. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney, William Williams, Stephen Rapp, Morris Wharton, Mrs. Caroline Armstrong, Harry Armstrong, Earl Clark, Anita and Ray Sturgeon, Mrs. John Klette, Misses Alma and Mary Stephens and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rector.

Mrs. Caroline Armstrong and Harry enjoyed a call by Mrs. David Irvine and Mr. and Mrs. Petrie.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish are spending most of this week at their future home near Eminence, Ky.

The Mission Study class met at the church on Friday evening. The opinion expressed by most of those present was "most interesting." Whether you have a book or not I think you would find the discussion stimulating and you are surely welcome. Since Africa is so much in the news—we like to learn as much as we can about it.

The Beechgrove Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hale with Mrs. Frank Afterkirk as co-hostess. Miss Zelma Byerly, Home Demonstration Agent, was a guest.

Mrs. Russell Quick gave a "Color Quiz" on how characteristics of color are used, stressing that use of color in the home depends on personal preference.

A work day on drapery construction was planned. Plans were also completed for a Civil Defense Course starting April 4.

The following message, written by Mrs. Gregory Bramlage, was read on the air when one hundred members and friends recently attended the Ruth Lyons television show:

Today on the 50-50 Club the Beechgrove Homemakers and guests are all aglow... For over three and a half years they have waited to be on your show. These ladies are my loyal friends, so good and so kind...

Dear Ruth, please show them all a Lyons roving good time. All through the year they are kept busy doing their good deeds... Always ready to help the helpless and those who are in need. Today is their off day, they are out to have fun... So let all give three cheers for the good they have done. Oh! How I have planned these many years to be with them today... But the Lord, in His mercy, sent illness my way. As you always say Ruth, The Lord Will Provide, He sent me these loving friends with their arms open wide.

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Master Teacher

Lesson for April 3, 1960

PEOPLE WHO knew Jesus of Nazareth thought of him as a teacher. Jesus thought of himself as a teacher. The title given him most often in the Gospels is Teacher. When he rose from the dead and Mary Magdalene recognized him, she called him Rabboni, My Teacher.

Jesus said to his disciples (a word which itself means pupils), "You call me teacher and Lord, and you are right; for so I am." (John 13:13.) Jesus expected his teachings to be taken seriously. "Why do you call me Lord, Lord?" he asked. (Luke 6:46) A man who hears Jesus' sayings and does not do them, is like a man building a house on sand. (Matt. 7:26) "The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life," he said. (John 6:63) It is absurd, it is even wicked, for a man to claim to be a Christian, and by-pass the teachings of Jesus' Jesus.

When we hear that some one is a teacher, the first thing we ask, if we are interested, is: What does he teach? Jesus' great theme, his subject, was a tremendous one: LIFE. One reason why he is called the Master Teacher is that his theme was the most important, the most all-inclusive, in the world. We can make this more definite. We can put this in three ways. 1. Jesus taught about Life in the Kingdom of God, or to put this another way, he taught what it means to be a citizen of the Kingdom of God, or to say it still another way—he taught what kind of behavior God requires of those who want to live in his kingdom. 2. Jesus taught about Life as God wills it. Everybody lives somehow, or at least exists, and if you look about you, or if you will be square with yourself, you can see a great many people living to please themselves and never giving a thought to what God thinks of them and their designs. That is as stupid as pigs taking over a farm and running it to suit the pigs. One would think it only common sense to try to find what God's will is, and live by that light. The natural question is: Who can tell us what God's will is? The Christian answer is: Jesus has shown us the will of God. And if the next question is: How do we know that Jesus was right? We have Jesus' answer: "If any man's will is to do His (God's) will, he shall know whether the teaching is from God." In other words, try it and see! 3. Jesus taught about Life at its best. For that is precisely what it is to live by God's pattern, it is to discover what life can really be at its highest level.

Jesus' Methods
Jesus had various ways of teaching, but they can all be boiled down to two. One was a straightforward statement in plain language. More often, however, he taught by parables, or as we would say today, by story-illustrations. For this reason the next three months in this series are going to be devoted to the Sermon on the Mount, which is mostly the first method, and to the parables, or some typical parables. The first method is direct. Jesus will come up with a statement that surprises the ear, shocks the mind, wakes up the careless listener and sends him on his way (sometimes) wishing he could forget what the Teacher said, it makes him so uncomfortable. Some of these direct statements are very plain, others are very puzzling. "Woe unto you when all men speak well of you!" is one of these. At first that sounds all wrong, and yet when you mull over it a while you can see how right it is.

Why Parables
Jesus' favorite method was the parable or story-form. He would tell some simple story, but his listeners—some of them—would understand that what the Teacher was aiming to get across was not the story itself but some truth or idea or warning wrapped up in the story. Mark tells us why Jesus used this method: It was not to make truth easier to understand, but harder! Does this make sense? It does indeed; but only the patient and persistent seekers for truth find it out.

The Spell of a Story

Think back, grown-up! There haven't been many joys in life that compare to the thrill of being read to. Remember—we came to know most of those stories by heart—and we loved them more each time we heard them.

Robin Hood and Little John—King Arthur and Sir Launcelot—they became old friends. And the heroes of our Bible stories—David and Daniel and the Boy Jesus in the Temple—they lived before our eyes as though the centuries had melted away.

Those stories helped to mold our lives. They taught us courage and faith. We sought to be like the heroes we loved.

Today, grown-up, your child needs the right stories. Are you taking advantage of the Church's program of religious education for youth? Are you giving your youngster the best start in life by making yours a worshipping, a church-supporting home?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every parent should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By CU Kingsbury

Civil Rights:
Out of the lengthy debate on civil rights in the Senate has come some heartening information. Senator Lister Hill of Alabama pointed out that there has not been a lynching in this nation since 1955.

He gave a long list of figures on the history of such incidents and it was revealed that Kentucky has not been without its lynch problem. In the period from 1882 to 1946, some 205 persons—white and colored—have died at the hands of mobs.

Post-War Years:
Kentucky's neighboring states have not been without them in that 64-year period. Ohio has had 26 such deaths, Indiana 47, West Virginia 49, and Tennessee 250.

Other figures show that the year immediately following a war appears to spawn lynch violence. In 1919, right after World War I, 83 died in mob violence. In 1946, just after World War II, six died. After those years, the numbers declined.

More Pleasant Tapes:
Enough of such tapes. The long debate on civil rights recalled an anecdote involving that great Kentuckian, Henry Clay, when he was Speaker of the House.

A Virginia congressman was speaking at length. He was a learned man but a poor, poor orator. At one time in his discourse he droned, "I speak not to this generation but to future generations."

Whereupon Henry Clay banged his gavel and inquired: "Is the distinguished gentleman from Virginia going to speak until his audience arrives?"

A Maintenance Application Needed Soon For Pastures

Kentucky farmers frequently fertilize newly established pastures—but forget to give them annual maintenance applications thereafter. This will be needed soon.

So, say E. C. Doll and A. L. Hatfield, UK Experiment Station fertility specialists, Lexington, such pastures eventually die out or become unproductive due to woods, etc. But an annual maintenance application will keep them going.

They have been running a maintenance fertilizing program on some Simpson county pastures since 1954, checking on the need for phosphorus and potash. For several years they put 300 pounds per acre of an 0-20-20 fertilizer on each field; this is the equivalent of 60 pounds actual phosphorus and potash each.

Then they split the plots, continuing the potash and phosphorus on half of them and leaving the phosphorus off some and the potash off the others on the other half of the plots.

The first year they did this, the plots where the phosphorus was left off lost 750 pounds of hay in yield; where the potash was left off, the yields dropped 1,100 pounds in hay.

They surmise from these tests that pastures in that area need the annual maintenance top-dressing every year to keep yields up and to maintain the grass-clover mixtures.

Horticultural Census To Be Made This Year

Kentuckians who produced and sold more than a certain amount of horticultural products last year are asked to furnish the information—this year to the U. S. Census Bureau.

The Bureau, says G. W. Schneider of the UK Experiment Station horticulture department, Lexington, is collecting information in a special census on horticultural specialties. Census data on this phase of agriculture has been limited in previous years. If a Kentuckian sold more than $2,000 worth of vegetables grown in greenhouses, or of flowers, foliage plants or nursery products, the information is wanted by the bureau.

Census data gathered is confidential and for statistical purposes only, it was pointed out.

New Inbred Corn Line Is Released by U. K.

The UK Agricultural Experiment Station announced this week release of a new line of white corn.

The breeding work on this line was started in 1944, says Frank Loeffel and James Shone, grain specialists, by the UK station, Lexington. Limited amounts of hand-pollinated seed were produced in 1959 and will be distributed through the Kentucky Seed Stocks, Inc., Lexington.

The new line has been named KY 201. It was isolated from White Pearl, an open-pollinated variety, by continuous selfing and selection. Selfing is where a plant is bred back to itself; selection is picking the best progeny to intensify desirable traits.

The new line has a short plant height of about 5 feet and an ear height of 2.5 feet. In comparison, KY 27 is 8.5 feet in height and has an ear placement of 3 feet.

Silking date of KY 201 is similar to the inbred K55 and is two days earlier than KY 27. Loeffel said KY 201 contributes low ear placement (on the stalk) and standing ability to its hybrids. It is currently used as one of the four parent lines of the "double-cross" hybrids, KY 204 and KY 5712W.

KY 204 and KY 5712W will yield approximately 1 to 1.5 bushels less than US523W; they are equal in moisture content at harvest and superior to US523W in percentage of erect plants and have a decidedly lower ear placement.

SIX-PASSENGER CAR OR STATION SEDAN ...CORVAIR IS BOTH!

A wonderfully useful folding seat makes every Corvair two cars in one. Just one quick flip and you increase the luggage and parcel space to 28.8 cubic feet. And just as simply, you're back to comfortable six-passenger capacity. It's standard equipment ... and extraordinarily practical.

Corvair does car-pool duty with the biggest and best of them. Going to work or school or out for the evening, you've got a genuine six-seater. As for car-pooling around piles of stuff instead of people, just look at Corvair's station-sedan load space with the rear seat folded. And when that's full you can start on the trunk. Corvair, you see, is no ordinary compact car. No others are so versatile, so ingeniously engineered—with independent suspension at all four wheels, an air-cooled rear engine that never needs water or antifreeze. You just can't compare anything else coming out these days with a Corvair. Drive one ... soon.

Protestant Assoc'n Will Hold "Good Friday" Service Here

Good Friday services, under the sponsorship of the Northern Kentucky Association of Protestant Churches will be held this year at the Walton Methodist Church from 12 noon until 3 p. m.

Seven local ministers will preach on the Seven Last Words of Jesus Christ upon the Cross. Each minister will be in charge of a twenty-five minute session of worship which will include a solo, a hymn, a prayer and the meditation.

The ministers are the host pastor, J. R. Whealdon; George Fiske of the Walton Christian Church, J. Russell Cross of the Richmond Presbyterian Church; Frank Campbell of Bullittsburg Baptist Church, Kelly Kennedy of the Grassy Creek Baptist Church; Chester Land of the Beaver Lick Christian Church and Calvin Perry of the Beaver Baptist Church.

All are invited to come and worship together with people of like mind. You are invited to come when you can and to leave it and when you must.

Organists and soloists of the local churches will bring the special music on the theme of the seven last words.

A "silent" offering will be taken at the door for the causes supported by the Northern Kentucky Association of Protestant Churches. The association's purpose is a better community for the three Northern Kentucky counties of Boone, Kenton, and Campbell.

Kenton Soil Testing Triples In Two Week Period Says A.S.C.

The number of soil samples delivered for testing to the Kenton County Soil Testing laboratory nearly tripled in the past two weeks. A great many farmers in the county have found that fertilizing according to actual needs can save considerably on the annual fertilizer bill. Needs for time and fertilizer can best be determined by having the soil tested.

A field should be sampled when the soil is dry enough to be plowed. A soil sample that is wet is much more difficult to prepare for analysis.

If a field is of a uniform soil type, ten to twelve samplings should be taken at random at spots over the field. Many farmers have found that an old brace and bit serves very well for this purpose. After grass or other trash is removed the samplings are made to about a six-inch depth. These ten to twelve samplings should then be mixed thoroughly together.

A pint of this composite sample will furnish enough soil for testing. Soil samples for testing may be left at the County Agent's office or at the County A.S.C. office in the Courthouse at Independence. Cost of analyzing samples is only $1 each.

DORA SALMONS

Mrs. Dora Salmons, former Walton resident, died Saturday on the way to Orlando, Fla., for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Clifford Pruitt, Mrs. Salmons, who was 82 years old, suffered a heart attack.

Kenton Co. Petitions For Area Brucellosis Control

Kenton county dairy and beef cattle owners petitioned the State Veterinarian, March 28, to have the county included under the Area Brucellosis Control program. It was estimated that between 90 and 95% of the present cattle owners in the county signed the petition forms. A total of 633 owners listing nearly 8,900 cattle are included in the lists which have been submitted.

Leaders of the program predicted, however, that it will probably be a number of months before actual testing can get under way in Kenton. Nineteen Kentucky counties are presently on the waiting list with petitioning completed.

LIVE BETTER ...

... in an ALL-ELECTRIC Home

This year, tens of thousands of Americans across the nation are discovering the ease and joys of all-electric living. The wire—instead of a fire—is heating, cooking, and drying for them. Electricity is helping them clean, cool, time, toast, heat, see and wash. The exciting new boom in all-electric living is on. Electricity, the 'silent servant' of modern living, is at work in the home and on the farm.

Love Thyself Last

Lesson for April 10, 1960

JESUS shocked his listeners then, and shocks his readers today, by many statements which are plain enough, so far as the language goes; but unbelievable. That is, we can understand every word in the statement, or we think we can. What we find hard to take is the sentence as a whole. Take those three sentences with which the Sermon on the Mount begins:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit . . . Blessed are the meek . . . Blessed are they that mourn . . ." "Blessed" means happy, or rather the Greek word translated "blessed" means happy. All the other words are commonly used, we have no trouble understanding what Jesus said. But could he have meant it? The thing sounds upside-down, backward, quite the opposite of real life.

What Jesus is Driving At
Well, it is the opposite of the way most people do live. There is an old saying, "Look out for Number One." Who is Number One? Why, I am Number One. We have other proverbs much like that. "Self-preservation is the first law of life." "Every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost." Jesus means to say that these proverbs are clear out of line with God's will and his kingdom. Either they are right or "Blessed are the meek" is right; you can't have it both ways.

That word "meek" needs some explanation, to be sure. The word in the Greek language, in which the New Testament was first written, does not mean just the same as our word "meek" has come to suggest today. The word Jesus used did not mean humble-coming-tumble, lacking self-respect and self-reliance, it did not mean a disheartened sort of character. What he meant by the word can be expressed by the words "not insisting on one's rights," "not demanding first place," "the opposite of proud, conceited, demanding, aggressive." The old-fashioned word "gentle" as used in the words "gentleman" or "gentlefolk" comes closer to it than "meek." You might translate Jesus' sentence this way: Happy is the man who is not always insisting on his rights! Happy is the man who loves himself last!

Another word is "humble," and many scholars think that all these first three "beatitudes" are driving at the same point: Happy are the humble, those who really love themselves last. This is one of the many teachings of Jesus that are practical two ways, for this life and for the next, for everyday situations and for eternity too. Jesus himself has suggested how this works. He was once a guest at dinner, and he called the attention of those sitting next to him to the "polite" but persistent scrambling for the best places. In an oriental dining room as in our own, some places at the table are more "honorable" than others. Jesus gave the down-to-earth advice, in effect: If you must scramble, scramble for the lowest places, not the top ones. It is much better to be invited to take a better place than to be asked to get out of one! The man who is always insisting on his rights, standing on his dignity, is generally unhappy and envious, for he cannot take any pleasure in the success of others. It is the unselfish who really get the fun out of life.

Payoff in Eternity
Jesus' parable of the rich man and Lazarus has a good deal to do with all this. The rich man in that story, while he was living, seems to have seen nobody much but himself, thought of nobody's welfare but his own. If he ever saw the beggar, he made no more to help him. His brothers needed wise counsel, but he never thought about them either. He aimed to get his share of the big money of the world . . . and he got it. He discovered his mistake too late. So we have another light on what Jesus meant. The man who is the opposite of meek—the selfish, greedy man—is a man who hardly ever sees any one but himself. He cannot put himself in the other man's place. He learns at last what Dickens' character Mr. Marley learned, too late: "Humanity was my business." Only the meek know that without being told.

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulcher, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulcher. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they went much perplexed, thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments. And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, saying, The Son of man must be delivered unto the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL — ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON By CH Kingsbury

Civil Rights:

Some interesting stories have come out of the debate in Congress on civil rights. One breakdown shows that the Commission on Civil Rights has received only two complaints from Kentucky on voting problems. No one, however, would swear to the charges.

Alabama leads the list with 140 complaints and Louisiana is second with 105 charges. However, South Carolina is way down with only persons—race not identified—registering complaints, and Georgia but two.

In First Place:

There is a belief, due to congressional debate, that all the complaints are on voting privileges. Actually, the charges cover housing, transportation, employment, and other subjects.

This will surprise you! Guess which states top the list in the number of cases! It's New York with 91, followed by California with 67, Ohio ranks third with 41, tied by Texas. Kentucky has reported 11 alleged violations.

Cotton's Comment:

One lawmaker, Senator Norris Cotton of New Hampshire, commented this on the Senate filibuster. Said he: "The human body is a marvelous mechanism and the endurance of the human jaw is beyond belief."

Defense Business:

Defense, as every taxpayer knows, is big business, and lawmakers try to get as many contracts for their state as possible. All of which brings us to this report: That Uncle Sam spends $261 million dollars in Kentucky each year.

That sounds like—and is—a very healthy figure. Actually, Kentucky ranks pretty far down on the list of the 50 states, in 41st place.

When Will Politicians Learn That Farmers Are Citizens?

A lot of columnists, radio and television reporters, and other self-styled political experts have been roaming around Wisconsin the last few weeks, and a lot of them have been talking with farmers up there about the "farm issue," and the promises the candidates are making to do something about it. Some of these people have been amazed to find out that farmers are just as apt to be worried about the threat of union monopoly, communist domination of the world, the dangers of the welfare state, state's rights, civil rights, and other issues—that seem remote to farm problems.

Will politicians and news reporters never learn that farmers are citizens? Sure... farmers are interested in farm legislation and farm problems; but they are also interested in the issues that will determine the future of their country and their right to earn a decent living within the framework of the private competitive system.

Perhaps one of these days politicians will learn that farmers are just as interested in what government is going to take away from them as they are in what government is going to give them. Some wise man has said that we are fortunate that we don't get all the government we pay for.

As an election year, 1960 will be a trying one for farmers. Most of them will get completely fed up with

Interested Poultrymen Showing Profits On Eggs

It's the "interested" poultryman who is making a profit on his egg-laying flock if egg prices are down somewhat, says J. E. Humphrey, UK Cooperative Extension Service poultryman, Lexington.

A check of poultrymen here and in other states who were showing a profit discloses:

1) Their hens were laying at the rate of at least 60 percent (60 eggs daily for every hundred hens); 2) feed costs were being kept to around $60 a ton; 3) their eggs were bringing a premium of one cent or more per dozen above the average price because of quality, cleanliness, etc., and 4) the flock was being kept healthy.

Humphrey says "It isn't always the chickens which fail to make money; it's the owner or manager, who, because of lack of interest or poor management, lets his flock slide when the going is rough."

COUNT US IN!

YOU BET we want to be counted in... for Southern Railway has no intention of being "among the missing" when it comes to working for the continued growth and progress of the territory we serve. As we have in the past, we will go right on doing everything we can to promote the prosperity and well-being of the modern South that means so much to all of us.

This is no idle promise. It is, in fact, a part of our corporate creed: "To develop the territory we serve and to foster faith in the South, its people and its opportunities."

It would take a long list, indeed, to include all those in the South today who are working for and looking toward a still greater future for America's "youngster" opportunity-land—the modern South. If such a roster is ever drawn up, be sure to "count us in."

Favorite Easter Foods Among April Plentifuls

Easter favorites — pork, broiler-fryers, eggs and cranberries — lead the list of plentiful foods for April, according to Mrs. Letta Jasper, UK

Extension specialist in marketing and consumer education, Lexington.

Pork items, such as ham, pork roast, picnics, shoulder butts, sausage, bacon, etc., continue in good supply this month. Plenty of high-quality beef is still on the market, too; but supplies will stay about the same as they have been for the past few months, with no great supply at any one time.

Enough frozen fish products are on hand to meet demands until Lenten season ends, Mrs. Jasper says. Fresh fish varieties will be more abundant during April.

Girl Scouts Express Thanks

The Girl Scouts of Walton wish to thank everyone who helped them have such a successful cookie sale. According to Clara Roberts, reporter, about 300 boxes of cookies were sold.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—FL 7-5018

Mrs. Dorothy Ricketts and son, Stephen, Miss Helen Richardson, Mrs. E. B. Rich, Mrs. Dawson Ballinger, Mrs. Christine Nunneny, Miss Emma Yates and Rev. J. W. Parish, from this church, attended the closing session of the District Conference at the First Methodist Church, Covington, on Sunday evening.

Loften Brinkley and David Mills enjoyed the week-end at home. They will be moving to a new location soon.

We regret to learn of the sudden death of Mrs. May Johnson of Frankfort, Ky. Her brother so well known here, Earl Hanna, attended her funeral on Monday. She was the first deceased from a family of nine, the eldest of whom is past eighty. A brother, Walter Hanna of Corinth, is very ill in the hospital at Owenton.

Paul Swinford was a Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Shaw. He accompanied them to church and sang in the choir. Come again, Paul.

Miss Helen Richardson was guest on Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger.

Sorry to learn this morning that Mrs. Hollie Carr is ill. We hope nothing serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Dawson visited on Friday with her father, Thomas Borkers, who has been a little "under the weather." They found him feeling a little better. They also called on Mr. J. A. Keeney.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richardson were quite agreeably surprised on Thursday evening to receive a call from their son, Clyde Richardson, who with his wife, had just arrived in the U. S. from Jordan. They were supposed to arrive a few weeks hence but came earlier because of a need for medical treatment. He will be soon as good as new.

Mr. Ed Jones who has been ill for several months, is improving. He can now walk over the house by using a cane. He hopes for good weather soon.

Mr. Lou Ervin is steadily improving.

Preparation is progressing for an early service on Easter morning. Let's all be present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney were much surprised on Sunday evening to have as callers Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Baker of Grants Lick and Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Baker and little son, Miles Keene, of Louisville. When they were here Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and sons came in.

Miss Louise Wharton who has had measles, visited here on Saturday.

Kentucky's goldenrod is so typical of floral Americana that there is a potent drive underway to have it adopted as the national floral emblem, says Travel Magazine.

Mrs. Ralph Howard—FL 7-5858

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. Gilmore Ecker's mother last week and extend our sympathy to the family.

Jerry Binder, George Binder and Barbara Bruggen, J. B. Losey of the Simon Kenton High School Senior Hi-Y Club were some of the students chosen to be delegates to the Youth Assembly which operated the State Government on its own in Frankfort this past week. They were entertained at the Governor's mansion on Thursday evening and also attended a banquet and dance at the Capital on Friday evening.

Peggy Binder and Ora Ruth Purdy were in from college this week-end and returned Sunday evening. Peggy and Ora will visit in Paducah to the latter's home for a week with her family.

Gilbert Damon and family are moving to his new home on Staffordsburg and Visalia Pike.

Tom Nunneny and Bill Binder visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard on Saturday and presented them with a magnolia tree full of buds.

Herb Barrow and son, Jeffrey of Latonia, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howard on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Harley Carr is on the sick list and we hope it is nothing serious.

Russell Armstrong and son visited at the Howard's home on Thursday evening.

Mrs. Tom Nunneny spent Monday at the home of her mother who has been ill for quite some time.

Burley Plant Beds Need Daily Inspection Visit

Burley producers should inspect their plant beds daily, says Russell Hunt, UK Cooperative Extension Service tobacco specialist.

These inspections should be made from seeding time to setting-out time. Object of the visits is to check on progress of the beds, their need for water, insect status (cutworms and fleabeetles), diseases (particularly anthracnose) and for general condition.

Hunt advises farmers to consult county agents for specific recommendations on disease and insect control.

CHEVY! YOU CAN'T BUY ANY CAR FOR LESS
...UNLESS IT'S A LOT LESS CAR!

Anyone who's looked around knows the majority of Chevrolet models—6's and V-8's together—list for less than comparable models of other low-priced cars. But the price tag alone is only one of a whole raft of reasons a Chevy does better by your dollars.

Nothing near Chevy's size and price can match the Full Coil cushioning of its ride, or the fine, finished workmanship of its Body by Fisher. That even applies to some cars that cost a lot more. You're up in the higher price brackets before you find a car that moves as quietly as a Chevrolet or offers the inner space that Chevrolet does.

Or look at the extras Chevy gives you — at no extra cost — that others in its class can't offer at any price. Shock-cushioned steering. Safety Glass in every window. Keyless locking of all doors. Crank-operated vent windows. Chevrolet offers the widest choice of power teams, too. Drive a Chevy just once. You'll have a tough time settling for anything less.

Revival to Start at Wilmington Baptist Church On Sunday

Easter Sunday, April 17, marks the beginning of revival services and the climax of a six-week Christ-Centered Crusade every-member loyalty campaign at the Wilmington Baptist Church, L.L. Highway, Lexington, Ky. "Christ's Resurrection" is the subject for the eleven o'clock service.

Rev. Robert Couch

Pastor William F. McGibney announces that Rev. Robert Couch, pastor of the Florence Baptist Church, Florence, will be the guest evangelist and will be heard each night at eight o'clock, beginning Monday, April 18.

J. B. Segal will be the evangelistic singer, and special music will be rendered by the church and youth choirs, ensembles, quartets, duets, and solos during the revival services.

On April 24, efforts will be made to have an all time high attendance in both Sunday school and Training Union. Nursery will be open for the services and the general public is extended an invitation to attend each service.

Selling Flowers For Easter

The Bykota Class of the Walton Christian Church is again selling flowers for Easter. Corsages and potted plants will be sold on order Sunday, April 16, at the Alphin building, next door to Linton's Barber Shop.

You may place orders by calling any of the following numbers: Pauline Huey, Fleetwood 7-5391; Cora Chessman, Hudson 5-4282; Frances Stephens, Hudson 5-4452; or Shirley Johnson, Hudson 5-4663.

Extra potted plants will be available. All flowers are being purchased from Schriver's Florist.

Raceys Honored by Christian Church at A Dinner Meeting

The Marcus Raceys were honored at the congregational dinner meeting of the Walton Christian Church last Wednesday night for faithful service. The Raceys came to Walton ten years ago from Newport, Kentucky, after his retirement as a supervisor for the Green Lines, and have been very active in both civic and church work. They have bought a home in Florida and plan to retire there next month.

Mr. Racey has served on several special boards of the City of Walton including one that recently worked on the equalization of tax assessments. Mr. Racey has served two three-year terms as elder of the local congregation as well as having been elected to serve as treasurer for seven terms. He is currently the president of the finance department of the church. Mr. Racey is also active in Masonic work.

Mrs. Racey has been a member of the Homemakers Club, the Library Club, and the Hobgood Circle of the Christian Woman's Fellowship.

The Fellowship Hall had been decorated with an undersea theme with fish swimming through seaweed. The Raceys were completely surprised by the dinner and the gifts which were tokens of the affection of their respective classes and of the church.

Clayton Jones, president of the Official Board of the church, expressed the appreciation of the congregation for the faithful service of Mr. and Mrs. Racey. Mr. Racey responded saying that they were not going to forget the many friends that they had made in Walton and in the church and that they were not saying goodbye but that they expected to visit Walton in the years to come.

OPENS NEW GARAGE

Cecil Pence, former employee of Dixie Chevrolet garage, has opened a new garage and body shop on U.S. 25, about one mile North of Walton. Mr. Pence will guarantee all work and will gladly give estimates on repair or body work, etc. The phone number is HU. 5-4188.

Installation Of Officers

The installation of officers of the Walton Firemen Ladies Auxiliary was held April 5 at Robertson's Restaurant.

The officers installed were Mary Berkemeier, president; June Acree, first vice president; Jean Thornton, second vice president; Betty Berkemeier, secretary; Betty Carlisle, treasurer; Sue Miller, historian; and Ruth Vest, chaplain.

Those attending the meeting were Vicki Brown, Mary Berkemeier, Sue Miller, Myrtha Miller, Betty Carlisle, Nellie Egan, Ruth Vest, Jean Thornton, Sharon Grubbs, June Acree, Delores Wilson and Nora Simpson.

Simon Kenton PTA Elects Officers At Recent Meeting

Names of candidates to be elected to office were read by Mrs. Reese Kennedy at the recent meeting of the Simon Kenton PTA and the following were elected to serve for 1960-61: Mrs. Smith Gibson, president; Mrs. Charles Walcott, vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Blake, secretary; and Mrs. Jake Isaacs, re-elected to serve as treasurer.

The devotional meditation was given by Mrs. Clifford B-Hymer who read a poem from the Kentucky Parent-Teacher magazine, "A Mother's Prayer." Mrs. B-Hymer announced that Mrs. David Maddox had resigned as chairman of Spiritual Education.

Mrs. Smith Gibson, newly elected president, will represent the school at the state convention to be held at Lexington in May.

The program was directed to the lack in observance of Teacher Appreciation Week.

The attendance award of $5.00 was won by the homeroom of Mrs. Josephine Lancaster.

The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Clifford B-Hymer, president, and Mrs. Harold Halfhill presented the program.

Given Lifetime Membership

Finley Jacobs of Route 2, Walton, was recently issued a lifetime membership in the American Polled Hereford Association, according to D. W. Chittenden, Executive Secretary. There are more than 12,000 active member-breeders of the American Polled Hereford Association, national registered and promotion organization of the Polled Hereford beef cattle breed. Association headquarters are located in Kansas City, Mo.

KENTON COUNTY 4-H RALLY DAY, MAY 14

The Kenton County 4-H Club Rally Day will be Saturday, May 14. This event will be held at the St. Cecilia School, Independence. All 4-H club members and their families are urged to attend. The program will begin at 9:00 a. m. and will conclude at 3:00 p. m. Lunch will be available on the grounds.

There will be judging of speeches, demonstrations and certain project work prepared by 4-H members. The winners of the different events will enter the District Rally Day event, which will be held Saturday, May 28 in Grant county.

Annual Kenton County 4-H Club Talent Show Held

A crowd estimated at well over 500 persons attended the annual 4-H Talent Show at the Piner School on Saturday night. A very good show was presented by the 4-H Club members. There were ten club acts and 12 specialty acts from the various clubs in the county.

The Piner sixth grade club was presented the Kiwanis loving cup for having the winning club act, entitled "The Troublesome Ford." Laine Ellen Marshall won the specialty division with her song and dance act. She was presented a prize of $5.00. The winners will participate in the district Talent Show to be held at Williams-town, April 30.

There were a number of very nice door prizes, given by friends of the 4-H Club.

A good time was had by all those attending.

Asa Rouse Elected President of Boone Co. Bar Association

Asa M. Rouse, Walton, was elected president of the Boone County Bar Association at the April 11 meeting of the organization of attorneys. He succeeds the Honorable John L. Vest, prominent Walton attorney who was appointed President Emeritus of the Association.

Mr. Rouse graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1953 and has his offices in the Buile State Bank building in Walton. He, Mrs. Rouse and their two children, Mills and Amy, reside at Plum Street in that city.

Other officers elected were attorneys Charles E. Niblack of Florence, vice president; and Robert F. Greene of Burlington, secretary-treasurer. Mr. William P. McEvoy, noted attorney and President of the Florence Deposit Bank, served as chairman pro tem in the absence of Mr. John L. Vest, who was unable to attend due to illness.

The Boone County Bar Association is an organization whose membership is composed of attorneys throughout the Northern Kentucky, Greater Cincinnati area, as well as Boone County.

Kenton Long-Time Planning Program Nears Completion

The Kenton County Extension Council has nearly completed its long-time program planning. Programs designed to serve important needs of agriculture, homemaking and youth in Kenton county in future years are being planned. Subcommittees on youth work, production, marketing, leadership, community needs, public affairs, farm-home management, natural resources and family living have been at work. First reports have been submitted by most of these subcommittees.

Recommendations by the County Extension Council on future programs to serve important needs in Kenton county can serve as a guide for the member organizations. The council is comprised of elected representatives from all rural organizations in the county.

Kenton County 4-H Council

The regular monthly meeting of the Kenton County 4-H Club Council was held at Independence, Thursday night, April 7. Final plans were made for the county talent show. The council has purchased numerous 4-H items that will be on sale at coming events.

The next meeting will be held at the Courthouse in Independence on Wednesday, May 4, at 8:00 p. m. All 4-H Clubs should be represented by their leaders at council meetings.

At Methodist and Baptist Churches

Two community church services will be held in Walton this week. The first will be the Union Good Friday service at the Walton Methodist Church with seven Boone County ministers taking part. The second is the Easter Sunrise service to be at the Walton Baptist Church at 6:30 Sunday morning.

The Good Friday service is sponsored by the Northern Kentucky Association of Protestant Churches and will last from noon until 3 p. m. Among those appearing in special service with the Rev. Kelley Henderson being replaced by the Rev. Frank Boon of the Constance Christian Church. Mr. Kennedy will be unable to take part because of a back injury.

The Easter Sunrise service is a project of the Protestant ministers of Walton and the host pastor, Rev. J. R. Tackett, will give the meditation. The Walton Christian Church choir has been chosen to give the morning anthem.

In addition to the two community services the Walton Christian Church extends an invitation to all to a Thursday night Candlelight communion service beginning at 8. The only spoken word during the entire service will be the Scripture concerning the Last Supper. Each person taking communion will serve himself at the large communion table set in the front of the sanctuary.

Beaver Easter Services

The Beaver Lick Christian Church invites its friends and neighbors to join in a special Easter service on Thursday, April 14, at 8:00 p. m. There will be a candlelight communion service.

On Sunday, April 17, at 6:30 a. m., the community will join in a sunrise service at the church. At 11:00 a. m., regular church services will be held. It is hoped a large number of friends and neighbors will join the regular members in each of these services.

'Doctor's Orders' To Be Presented Friday Evening

"Doctor's Orders," a 3-act comedy, will be presented by the senior class of Walton-Verona High School, in the school gym, Friday evening, April 15 at eight o'clock.

The cast of characters includes: Betty Simpson, Rita Barker, Norma Locke, Susan Gerth, Linda Rosenthal, Jenny Gullion, Nola Yates, Hubert Arnold, Deane Poore, Chris Crutcher, John Locke, Edward Dance, and Bob Ryan. Other members of the class are assisting in the production.

Music between acts will be furnished by Gary Hicks and his "Teen-Beats."

The play is produced by special permission from Walter Barker Plays, Inc., and is under the direction of Mrs. Hubert P. Baker, with Miss Pat Eddins in charge of ticket sales. The general admission is 75 cents and reserved seats are $1.00. The public is cordially invited.

Mrs. Elizabeth Egger has returned home from the hospital and is getting along nicely. Her daughter, Alma Jean Peyton, of Nashville, Tenn., is visiting her.

Charley Padgett was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital by the Taylor Mill Life Squad last Friday, and is suffering from pneumonia.

The Jones from Laticonia Lakes is in St. Elizabeth Hospital awaiting surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Tallent went to Jackson, Ky., last Saturday to attend the funeral of his uncle.

Our sympathy is extended to the W. O. Parker family, who have had four deaths in their family in the past month. Mrs. Parker has lost her grandfather, an uncle, and an aunt, and Mr. Parker has lost his father.

Mr. Everett Dameron was injured Friday when his tractor overturned with him. He went to the hospital for x-rays, but they revealed no broken bones. He will be laid up for a few days with bruises and soreness.

Mr. Walter Perry has been in the hospital for over a week and hopes to be able to come home soon.

We are sorry that we did not get our column written last week, but we are taking the census and just didn't have time last week to gather the news.

Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell has moved to Laticonia.

Ted Richardson was home from U. of Ky. for a few days last week-end.

Mrs. H. R. Hutchins recently enjoyed a visit from her nephew, Dr. Mowat Waldren at Milwaukee, Wisc.

Mrs. Chester Tallent, Terry and Kevin, visited her sister, Margaret Hines, in Milford, Ohio last Sunday.

Mrs. Claude Stafford is a patient at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

The neighborhood Good Friday services will be held at the Taylor Mill Church of Christ this Friday afternoon.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—FL 7-3018

Glad to see Mrs. Harry Rees out at church this week. Mr. Rees, she tells us, is feeling good but can't come out until more settled warm weather. We hope that will be soon.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp were the guests on Sunday of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Rapp.

The many friends of Misses Nelva and Scottie Giles extend sympathy to them in the death of their mother. Several from here went to Lexington on Sunday afternoon and a few to the funeral on Monday.

Chester Bollinger of Phoenix, Ariz., surprised his parents by calling them recently. It is so good to hear the voices of loved ones who are far away.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Richardson were guests on Thursday of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richardson.

Mr. and Mrs. Carree Brinkley entertained their son, Lathan, over Sunday. He is stationed at present at Ft. Knox but will soon be on his way to his new assignment in Washington, D. C.

We are made to marvel at the thoughtfulness of some people. One such example was when a certain young man when dressed for the prom visited a shut-in neighbor.

The choir of Staffordsburg Church has put in quite a lot of practice on a program for the early morning service on Easter Sunday. Everyone is invited to come. The time is six-thirty a.m. We will also have Sunday School and the eleven o'clock service as usual.

Rev. and Mrs. Elmer Kidwell and daughters called on Rev. and Mrs. Parish on Sunday afternoon.

Staffordsburg Homemakers are meeting with Mrs. L. J. Rapp on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hoffman had as guests on a Sunday evening, Mrs. Leontine Stephens and Miss June Stephens.

COOPERATION is a Kentucky tradition!

WELCOMING NEW NEIGHBORS...
OR LIGHTING NEW HOMES!

Kentuckians have traditionally given a warm welcome to new neighbors with gifts, friendly visits and offers to lend a hand. Helping a new friend to unpack or find out about the school bus schedule is the kind of everyday cooperation found in both towns and rural communities.

Rural electrification is neighborly cooperation, too. Kentucky's Rural Electric Co-ops... created by folks who got together to make a better life for themselves... are a good example of how neighborly cooperation can serve an entire state. As the countryside has brightened and prospered, so the townspeople have benefited, too. The additional income of Kentucky's farmers made possible by electricity is spent in town.

Heaven Now

Lesson for April 17, 1960

THE CHRISTIAN life is not just a plus added to the same old life. It is not an ordinary life plus a set of good resolutions, or good intentions. It is not an ordinary life plus certain beliefs most people don't have. Tacking something new on a life which has never been changed, is not becoming a Christian. Christian life is new LIFE, new Dr. Foreman's BEING. The whole thing is new, from the heart out.

Living in Heaven Now

On the calendar we are in the midst of the Easter season. In our Bible study we are in the midst of the Sermon on the Mount. Have the two any connection? Apparently not, some would say. Easter celebrates something that happened to Jesus. The Sermon on the Mount is something for us to work out, a pattern for living. Christ ascended to heaven but we are here on earth. He lives above the sky, not in any world we could reach with a space-ship but in the spirit-world of heaven. We live under clouds, real clouds with rain in them.

In fact, living here on earth (we think) makes the Sermon on the Mount even harder to live by. If we were in heaven, now... But at that point the Apostle Paul breaks in. You are in heaven, he says. Oh, but I can't be, you say. I'm not dead even. Yes you are, he replies: "You have died, and your life is hid with Christ in God."

Life Without Sin

Paul's language is strange, but we can see what he means to say. First he was probably describing his own experience. He was a mystic by nature, and he had meditated so long on the death of Christ that he felt himself actually sharing that death. Later mystics in the history of the church have so concentrated on the sufferings of Christ on the cross that visible marks like nail-prints have appeared in their hands and feet.

However, most Christians, then and now, are not mystics. For them, Paul is speaking the language of "fact." He is using a strong figure of speech to describe the Christian's life. It is, as it were, living the life of heaven now. If you are really one with Christ, you can think of yourself as having died and risen again and living "at the right hand of God." You are already a citizen of that better land. Live as if you were already there! One of the features of the life of heaven is that no sin is there. So Paul says to us, Sin doesn't belong in heaven, and as a citizen of heaven it doesn't belong in your life.

Another feature of the life of heaven, the "risen" life, is freedom from the barriers set up by society (rightly or more often wrongly) in this world. What is a Social Register doing in heaven? What meaning will there be in "salary brackets" beyond the grave? Do colored skins go with colored souls? Paul refers to the most formidable barriers of his day, those between Greek and Jew, slave and free man, barbarian and civilized, and says plainly "here there cannot be" these distinctions. The Christian life, if it matches the life of heaven, must be as free from such distinctions as heaven is.

Paul mixes his figures of speech, as he very often does. Along with this picture of the Christian life as a risen, heavenly life, he pictures it as a change of clothes. We can almost hear him saying, "All right, if this heaven-picture seems far-fetched to you, let's try one you do understand. Everybody knows what it is to take off old dirty clothes and put on fresh ones. Very well; you have put off your old nature, and you have put on a new nature. (Dying as I rising with Christ, he would have said, is laying aside a worn garment and taking on one that will never be worn out.) But—some one objects—does this mean we are already perfect in holiness? Not at all. Paul now puts as a command what he had just expressed as a fact: Put on compassion, kindness... and so on. And "above all these put on love."

ON A DESOLATE HILL

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	19	28-42
Monday	John	20	1-28
Tuesday	Psalm	23	1-6
Wednesday	Matthew	14	28-33
Thursday	Psalm	146	1-17
Friday	John	13	21-28
Saturday	John	14	1-26

It is not strange that someone chose this lonely spot to erect a reverent memorial. It was on a desolate hill that three crosses stood many centuries ago... the Cross of the Saviour... and of the penitent... and of the scoffer.

Always these crosses have seemed to belong to the desolate hills of life. When a man feels the crushing burden of worldly care upon him, when he trudges the steep trail lost and alone—then, either he will claim the Love and Strength of Christ as did the penitent, or like the scoffer he will let his unbelief destroy his soul.

But no man should wait for a time of desolation to make life's most joyous decision. It can be made today... and sealed with years of happy service in the church of one's choice.

Kentucky Cattle Numbers Increase At the U. S. Rate

Cattle numbers on Kentucky farms are increasing at about the same rate as U. S. cattle numbers, the UK Co-operative Extension Service economics department, Lexington, said in its bi-weekly outlook letter this week.

Beef cattle on Kentucky farms showed sizeable increases in certain categories in 1959; dairy cattle numbers declined somewhat more than the U. S. average; hog numbers increased substantially, and sheep numbers showed a decline also in the state.

Nationally, there was a considerable build-up in livestock numbers in the U. S. in 1959, the letter said. Cattle and calves on farm, for instance, as of January 1, 1960, was estimated at 101,520,000 head compared to some 96,650,000 on Jan. 1, 1959, five percent higher for the nation and the state. Relatively high livestock prices in 1958 and 1959 and favorable returns from feeder and fed cattle encouraged livestock expansion.

The letter said beef cattle numbers on Kentucky farms made some significant changes in 1959. Beef cows 2 years and older increased 11 percent; beef heifers 1 and 2 years old increased 3 percent, and steers 1 year and older increased 1 percent. Milk cow numbers dropped 2 percent in 1959 in the state, though number of heifer calves kept for milk increased 8 percent in 1959, indicating some increases in dairy cattle in Kentucky in the near future.

Hog numbers increased 10 percent in Kentucky in 1959 but a reduced spring pig crop in 1960 is expected to cut the total this year.

Sheep numbers in Kentucky declined 3 percent in 1959 although the national average showed a 3 percent jump for the same period.

Hibachi Cooking Is Highlighted at Cookery Workshop

Learn to cook the hibachi way was the highlight of the outdoor cookery workshop presented by Miss Zelma E. Byerly, Kenton County Home Demonstration Extension Agent, to 60 home demonstration leaders, Wednesday, April 6, in the recreation room of Trinity Methodist Church in Latonia.

The hibachi, a small charcoal stove is Japan's gift to the American barbecue chef. It is made of cast iron, is portable, has a fireproof and draft and may be used indoors or out to broil, boil or saute. It is convenient, efficient and fun to cook the hibachi way.

Miss Byerly presented a roundup of techniques that make for skill in outdoor cookery. She stated that outdoor meals should be as carefully planned as other meals and not hastily tossed together and carelessly served just because everything tastes good out of doors. Demonstrations of broiling, barbecuing, stewer cooking and cooking with foil were given.

The objectives of the outdoor cookery lesson were:

1. An appreciation of a well-managed, attractively served outdoor meal, prepared with the minimum of time and effort.
2. New skills in outdoor cookery.
3. Enjoy recreation with family and friends.
4. Set up standards to evaluate equipment according to needs of the family.

Robert Maddox, assistant county agricultural agent, discussed the Kentucky method of barbecuing chicken. He presented information on the construction of a barbecue pit or grill and showed how an economical pit could be made from a 55-gallon drum.

Those in attendance were: Mrs. John Dwyer, Mrs. Clarence Duncan, Mrs. Ray Payne, Mrs. Bluch Rich, Mrs. Bradley Combs, Mrs. Charles Essing, Mrs. Verner Stephens, Mrs. Paul Nette, Mrs. Fred Ficke, Mrs. Everett Stewart, Mrs. Donald Washburn, Mrs. Oakley Hammond, Mrs. Harry Ives, Mrs. Glenn Cartwright, Mrs. Charles Cummins, Mrs. Francis Love, Mrs. Jack Vornberg, Mrs. Jack Dwyer, Mrs. Carl Reinhart, Mrs. Earl Whitefoot, Mrs. Woodson Marshall, Mrs. Virginia Kline, Mrs. James Durr, Mrs. Joseph Beckman, Mrs. Alan Harold, Mrs. Lee Ramsdell, Mrs. Robert Jurtzen, Mrs. Howard Allen, Mrs. J. Planning Retirement Program Discussion In Kenton County

The first in a series of meetings of rural Kenton county people concerned with planning a retirement program has been scheduled for April 27. The meeting will be held at the Staffordsbury church, beginning at 7:30 p. m. "What Social Security Means to You" and "How Might the Monthly Retirement Paycheck Be Supplemented" are two basic questions that will be discussed at the initial meeting. The meetings are being sponsored jointly by the Agricultural Extension Service and the Social Security Administration. Informal discussion meetings are planned with plenty of time for questions.

Extremely important decisions must be made by all families as they approach or pass age 65. This series of meetings is designed to assist families in making these decisions. It is highly recommended that husbands and wives both attend the meetings since the problems are of vital concern to both.

Families desiring more information on this series of meetings are asked to contact the County Agricultural Agent. A number of rural couples have already placed their names on the mailing list.

In Marine-Navy Exercise

Marine Acting Sgt. Clyde Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Brooks of Route 1, Walton, and Billy J. Harper, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Ritchie of 36 Verona Road, of Walton, took part in a joint Navy-Marine Corps exercise off the coast of Camp Lejeune, N. C., March 22 to April 5, while serving aboard the amphibious force flagship USS Tarconic.

The operation, known as "Lantphibex 1-60" was the largest amphibious exercise of the year and involved Second Division Marines from Camp Lejeune.

Purpose of the operation was to test the combat readiness of the Atlantic Fleet and the combat effectiveness of the Marine Corps' latest developments in equipment and landing techniques.

It's everybody's job!

BRINGING NEW INDUSTRIES to a community and keeping them happy after they get there is everybody's job. No one man or organization can do it alone.

Community leaders help by initiating and carrying out long-range civic policies and programs attractive to industry. Owners and managers of existing plants help by welcoming industrial newcomers and making them feel at home. Men and women workers help by showing their willingness to do a full day's work for a fair day's pay.

Yes, and Southern Railway helps, too! Southern's Industrial Development Department constantly seeks new industries for available plant sites. Throughout the year, our national advertising urges industrialists to "Look South" for new and greater opportunities. And we do our best to provide an ever-better, low-cost mass transportation service, so vital to the modern industrial South.

All of this effort helps all of us. For a community's economic growth does more than provide new and bigger job opportunities. It quickly spreads out in all directions to benefit men and women in almost every type of service, trade and profession.

Boone Health Dept. Makes Yearly Report

An annual report by the Boone County Health Department located at Florence, shows they followed closely an Annual Program Plan, of concentrating their work for the year on the control of communicable disease, chronic diseases, school health activities, and sanitation and plumbing requirements for the county. This work was carried on through pre-school clinics, school health examinations, office clinics and field visits within the county. The total program included the following activities:

On communicable disease control, there were twenty-five cases and contacts of communicable diseases admitted, with a total of 31 field and office visits. Immunizations of indigent for communicable disease control were as follows:

DPT Injections 492.
Polio Injections 1,109.
Small pox vaccinations 164.
Typhoid Injections 31.

A total of 44 office clinics were held during the year, with an attendance of 1,796.

The Venereal Disease Control program was helped greatly this year by the fact that in Investigator, working from the Kenton County Health Department, was available for all cases reported by physicians. The Health Department continues to supply penicillin for treatment of all cases for the indigent. There were 135 diagnostic services performed for the year.

During the year, the Health Department maintained diagnostic services for all active cases of tuberculosis referred and contacts of cases in the county. There were six new admissions, 24 contacts and 11 readmissions for the year. 121 field and office visits were made to cases and contacts of tuberculosis during the year. 84 referrals were made to Kenton County TB division for x-ray, and 944 x-rays were made by the Mobile Unit during the visit to the county this past summer.

Maternity Services
Maternity services were provided for all cases reported and 9 new admissions to services were made; 17 field and office visits, and 59 readmissions were recorded for this program. A total of 133 field and office visits were made to infants and the children under five years of age. Services to children five and over included the school health program and were as follows:

Pre-school examinations 47
Office and field visits 102

Admissions to service 50
School Health examinations 1,013
Emergency Care 7
Referrals for heart defects 14
Referrals for hearing defects 51
Referrals for visual defects 14
Referrals for other defects 336.

During the hearing program carried on in the schools, a total of 2,398 children were inspected in the various schools in the county. Of this number, a follow-up will be made of children with any apparent defect and these will be referred to private physicians, with the indigent being taken care of through various clinics. This program, as with many others, is carried on with the help of the various PTA groups in the schools, and has been quite successful in helping a great number of school children with hearing defects.

In addition to the hearing program, 309 vision tests were made during 1959. Continuing this program, thru the cooperation of the Lion's Club, more vision tests will be made during the 1959-60 school year. This has also proved to be a good school health program and we appreciate the co-operation of the Lion's Club in this work.

The Dental Program

The Dental Program was carried on in the schools as in the previous year, and 1,708 dental inspections of the school children were made. 404 referrals were made; 19 dental clinics were held by the Health Department for indigent cases, with a total of 109 children being taken care of.

Chronic Disease Program

The Chronic Disease program included referrals for heart, diabetes, with a total of 251 persons being screened for diabetes, cancer and rheumatic fever. Twenty-two cases of rheumatic fever were coded, and the Health Department continues to distribute bicillin for this disease. At present a total of six cases are being supplied with in the county.

During the year there were four new admissions to Crippled Children's services, and six admissions to Mental Health services, with a total of 13 field visits for crippled children and 19 field visits on Mental Health services.

A series of weight control classes were held at the Health Department, in cooperation with the Home Demonstration Agent of the county; six classes were held, with a total attendance of 171. Also 9 food service classes were held, with a total attendance of 239.

Physical Examinations
Physical examinations for teachers, school cafeteria employees, and bus drivers were given, as this is a yearly requirement. 109 teachers were examined and 61 bus drivers and cafeteria workers. 140 laboratory specimens were taken, and submitted to the Public Health Laboratories in Lexington.

Sanitation Division

The Sanitation Division made the following inspections:
School water checked 8
Private water supply checked 90
Retail milk trucks inspected 17
Milk samples collected 63
Restaurant inspections made 156
School cafeteria inspections 23
Retail food store inspections 96
Hotel and motel inspections 20
Trailer coach park inspections 9
Nuisance control visits 58

Food poisoning investigations 2
Special surveys 37
Stream pollution, septic tank, 39
Each year Rabies Clinics are held by the Health Department, in cooperation with local veterinarians. During 1959, 6 such clinics were held, in which 300 dogs were immunized and 132 permits issued.

The sanitation division also submitted plans to the State Health Department for 11 public buildings, in accordance with requirements of the Plumbing Code.

All Births and Deaths

All births and deaths within the county are recorded in the files of the local Health Department, and during the year 90 births were recorded and 105 deaths. The good cooperation of the physicians and funeral directors in the county help to keep these records accurate, as the Health Department is responsible for reporting of vital statistics to the State Health Department for record.

The Boone County Health Department works, not only for the improvement of the health of the school child, but for the community as a whole. This is accomplished through services offered at the Health Department, sanitation services, and your plumbing code in the county. Each year a definite program is outlined and carried out, with this purpose in mind:—preventative measures for the control of communicable diseases, within the schools and the community—better environmental sanitation through enforcement of plumbing and sanitation laws—aid to those coming under the chronic disease program—and cooperation with the local physicians in all phases of local health work.

This report is submitted by the Boone County Health officers, Virginia Kratz, M. D.

P. T. A. Members Urged To Enroll In C. D. Classes

"A well informed public is the only way we will be able to survive an atomic attack," Miss Ida Mae Mullins informed members of the Kenton Elementary PTA at their March meeting. Miss Mullins stressed that this area was in a target zone due to the proximity to Cincinnati. Miss Mullins urged all members to enroll in the Civil Defense classes given throughout the state this year.

A teacher appreciation proclamation from Governor Bert Combs was read by Mrs. William Durr, secretary of the unit. Mrs. Charles Adams, president, announced that each of the teachers will be presented a personalized gift as a token of the PTA's appreciation of their service. Miss Alice Hodges, senior from Simon Kenton and former student of many of the faculty, gave the devotional.

A nominating committee to select candidates for next year's officers was elected. They include Mrs. Dan-old Myers, Randall Wagner and F. D. Caton.

Mrs. Earl Wills, chairman of the health committee, announced that 351 children had been given hearing tests by trained members of her committee.

Mrs. Adams also reminded the group that the Pre-School Clinic, sponsored by the PTA, would be held at the school, Thursday, April 7.

Mrs. Hubert Baird's fifth grade won the attendance award.

Mrs. Herbert Works and Mrs. Charles Adams represented this unit at the annual Spring Conference of the Sixth District of the Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers, held at Grace Methodist Church in Newport. Mrs. Adams also attended the Kenton County Council meeting recently at the Covington YMCA. She was elected to serve as recording secretary of that group for the coming year.

WHY PAY $1000 MORE and get less than a Galaxie by Ford?

Last year, hundreds of thousands of people found that the Galaxie was "the buy" of a lifetime. In every detail it was the equal or master of cars costing hundreds of dollars more. The Galaxie by Ford became the best-selling car in the world. And now—for 1960—with all its advances in style, ride, room—the Galaxie is a better buy than ever!

Yes, this year more than ever, Galaxie is the Thunderbird of the low-price field.

Want Thunderbird elegance? Look at Galaxie's rich carpeting and pleated fabric! You want Thunderbird performance? Thunderbird's own V-8 gives it to you, under Galaxie's sloping safety-vision hood.

Want a wonderful new world of ride? Feel how Galaxie's new wide tread and five-foot-long rear springs can uncurl the corners.

This 1960 Galaxie—for all its go and glamour—has all the room you'd ever want or need. More real and true room for six passengers than you can get in some high-priced cars.

Honestly, does it make sense to spend more when you can travel in luxury at a low Ford price? We're waiting to prove our point with a ride and a deal to please you. We'd be delighted to see you now.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sturdivent were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Pat Sturdivent on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stamper are very proud to hear they have a new great-granddaughter, their only one, born to Mr. and Mrs. Leland Berford on April 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Roenstell were visiting her parents of near Piner on Sunday.

Card of Thanks—

To all the wonderful people who helped me during my recent illness: the ones who accompanied me to the hospital, those who brought cheer with visits, cards, gifts, and food, and those who lifted me by their prayers, I wish to express my warmest appreciation and sincere thanks.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By CU Kingsbury

Behind The Scenes:

This is Congressional election year and candidates are out beating the bushes for votes, telling citizens how good they are.

Therefore, we think this is an appropriate time to say something about the unsung warriors, the congressional aides who operate behind the scenes. Kentucky lawmakers have an excellent lot of such workers—Paul Kelly for Congressman Watts, Miss Prudie Kelly for Congressman Chief, and Miss Margaret Beane for Congressman Stone, to name only a few.

An Example:

Miss Catherine Hampson, aide to Congressman Natcher, is one whom we have in mind. This year she is marking her 20th anniversary on Capitol Hill. She first came to Washington in 1940 to join the staff of Alben Barkley. She's been at it ever since.

Miss Catherine, who is a worry wart, got her start as secretary to Tom Underwood, who then was editor of the Lexington Herald. As such, she met Kentucky's leading politicians. It was but a step to Capitol Hill from Fayette County.

Learned Test:

During the war years, the Barkley aide did a great job for Kentucky constituents. Often, when something needed to be done, Miss Hampson would go "downtown" to a government agency and "walk through" with the papers needed to get signatures.

This type of operation saved Kentuckians many weary weeks of waiting for Uncle Sam's okay on a project or job. Later she joined Senator Garrett Withers and continued her work. She was—and is—considered an expert in dealing with the bureaucrats.

A Big Thrill:

As you might imagine with anyone working for the Barkley-Withers office, Miss Hampson is a Democrat. She was with former Senator Earle Clements when he conducted the '58 campaign to elect Democrats to the Upper House. And she was pleased with the results.

Now that Mr. Clements is back in Frankfort, Miss Hampson moved over to the House side of the Capital. She, along with scores of others, do the job for the folks back home. Come election time, when her job is at stake, she is just as busy as her campaigning boss, the elected representative.

Seeding, Fertilization Tips Are Given For Burley Bed Work

Seeding of burley plant beds can best be done in March, preferably from mid-March to late March, says Russell Hunt, UK Cooperative Extension Service specialist, Lexington.

But if delayed by snow or other causes, the beds can be seeded as late as April 10, he noted. Use certified seed or recommended varieties as far as possible, Hunt said, and varieties that meet farm needs.

Farmers who have trouble with root rot, mosaic and wildfire should use Burley 21, Kentucky 9 or Kentucky 61 varieties for wilt problems, Kentucky 35, and black shank, Burley 11A, 11B, or Burley 37.

Hunt recommends application of a 4-12-8 fertilizer at seeding time at the rate of 40 pounds to every 100 feet of a 9-foot-wide bed, or 50 pounds of the 4-12-8 to each 100 feet of the 12-foot-wide beds. Burned beds should get a 4-12-0 fertilizer or applications of 20 percent superphosphate and nitrogen.

Plant beds should be watered whenever necessary in the early stages of growth, particularly when plants are small and weather is dry. Hunt recommends using 12 to 15 barrels of water to every 100 square yards of bed as long as the bed surface is dry. One good watering like this is much better than several light waterings which do not dampen the soil sufficiently, he said.

Limestone water and nutritious grass and forage grown on rich phosphatic soils build endurance into the fast horses for which Kentucky is famous.

Parents, Guests Attend 4-H Club Project Meeting

Mary Anne Molitor

L. J. Molitor, Bristol Road, Independence, announces the engagement and forthcoming marriage of his daughter, Mary Anne, to A/LC Thomas J. Cain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cain, Station Road, Independence.

The evening of April 23 has been set for the wedding.

Cancer Will Strike One Out of Seven In Walton Area

One out of every seven people in the Walton area will contract cancer this year. This isn't a guess, it is a fact based on statistics. It may be someone you know, it may be you. Cancer is no respecter of person. It will attack anyone, adult or child, rich or poor, young or old. It does respect age in one way, it grows much faster in young people. What can you do to change this statistic? You can do two things: you can fight it with a check-up and a check. The check or cash you give to the American Cancer Crusade will also have a hand in saving your life or that of a loved one. In the last 20 years enormous strides have been made in the fight against cancer. But research takes money. Some of this money comes from the government, some from private sources, some from industry. But it isn't enough. We must also help. Polyio was beaten by a vaccine found in research. Tuberculosis was beaten by a drug found in research. Given the money they need, researchers will also find the thing that will beat cancer. So, "fight cancer with a check-up and a check." When your Crusade worker comes to your door next week, give generously. Remember, your money will be helping to save your life.

SAMUEL M. HUDSON

Services for Samuel Marvin Hudson, 81, will be held at 10:00 a. m. this (Thursday) morning at his home, 39 Bending Ave., Walton. Burial will be in Walton Cemetery.

Mr. Hudson died Monday at his home after a long illness. He was a member of the Richmond Presbyterian Church.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Katie Green Hudson, two sisters, Misses Anna and Mattie Hudson, Walton, and nieces and nephews.

Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Walton, has charge of arrangements.

BENJAMIN V. YEAGER

Services for Benjamin V. Yeager, 60, conductor for the C. and O. Railroad for 38 years, were held Wednesday morning at the Stith Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Erlanger.

Mr. Yeager died Monday at Spers Hospital, Dayton, after a year's illness. His home was in Covington.

He leaves his widow, Mrs. Blanche Stanley Yeager, two daughters, Mrs. Jo Ann Smith of Jackson, Ohio, and Mrs. Catherine Hawk of Cincinnati, and a brother, George Yeager, Cincinnati, also three grandchildren.

Topographic Repairman

Army Private James R. Carpenter completed a 12-week topographic instrument repair course at the Granite City (Ill.) Engineer Depot, April 1. He was trained to repair, adjust and maintain engineer surveying and mapping instruments. Carpenter entered the Army last October and received basic training at Ft. Hood.

The 23-year-old soldier is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Carpenter, 6911 Taylor Mill Road, Independence. His wife, Georgia, resides in Cincinnati.

JAMES C. ENGLAND

James C. England, retired independence farmer, died last Thursday at the Hickman Rest Home, Kenton county. He was 75 years old.

Mr. England is survived by a sister, Mrs. Marcella Strassel, Cincinnati, and two brothers, Jake England of Independence, and George England of Covington.

Services were held at 10:00 a. m., Saturday at the Swindler Funeral Home, Independence. Burial was in Independence Cemetery.

The Boone County High and Florence good grooming, and Florence cooking 4-H girls were hosts to parents and guests at their project meeting Monday evening, April 11, at the Florence Grade School.

Invocation was given by Debbie Webster, vice president of the Florence 4-H Club. The 4-H Pledge was led by Mary Rea, Florence 6th Grade. Miss Diane Jurtson, Boone County 7th Grade, led in the pledge to the American flag. Miss Betty Maddox, 4-H junior leader, gave the welcome. Mrs. Irvin Dringeburg, 4-H leader, introduced the guests.

The principal speaker, Mrs. Marie Williams, Chief Probation Officer of Campbell County, was introduced by the Honorable C. L. Cropper, County Judge, Boone County. Mrs. Williams discussed the juvenile problem in Campbell county and what is being done to help these youth. She then discussed her trip to the Youth Conference in Washington, held every ten years. She cited the value of 4-H, Scouts and other youth organizations in the prevention of juvenile delinquency. This is especially important in the Northern Kentucky counties where there are so many urban youth.

4-Hers and guests then enjoyed a movie, "The 4-H Trail." They saw how 4-H members in California carry out their program and found that it was similar to the 4-H work in Kentucky and in Boone county.

The cooking project girls served cookies and punch to their guests thus putting into practice things being learned in 4-H.

Florence Grade School leaders participating were: Mrs. Irvin Dringeburg, Mrs. Nick Mikkelsen, Mrs. Grant Maddox, Mrs. Almada Rea, and Mrs. Robert Jurtson.

DRURY CHAPEL REVIVAL

Rev. Wheelodon of the Walton Methodist Church will be the evangelist for the Revival to be held at the Drury Chapel Methodist Church beginning April 24th through May 1st. Rev. Estlin Motts, pastor, was licensed through the Walton Church. Mr. Guy Carlisle of Walton, will be the song leader.

Services will start each evening at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

International Day Tea

The International Day Tea of the Boone County Homemakers will be held Thursday, April 28 from one to three p.m. at the Florence firehouse. Members may invite guests.

Mrs. Sturgeon Riley, past District secretary of Cincinnati, will be the speaker. She will also show slides on the A.C.W.W. Conference that she attended last summer in Scotland.

Annual Homemakers' Tour

May 19 is the date for the Boone County Homemakers' annual tour. The committee members, Mrs. L. J. Leavins, Mrs. Charles Riehemann and Mrs. John Schiro, have arranged for a tour of the Kohn Packing Company, lunch there, and an afternoon trip through Proctor & Gamble. All reservations must be in by the 12th of May.

WALTON-VERONA BAND—The annual Spring Concert of the Walton-Verona High School Band will be presented Sunday afternoon, April 24 at 3 p.m., at the school auditorium. The band is under the direction of Mr. George Benson. Having organized only last year, they have made wonderful progress and they and Mr. Benson are to be highly commended. For the first time, Walton has, not only a band, but—band to be proud of.

Revival Services At New Bethel Baptist Church

Revival services will begin at New Bethel Baptist Church, Verona, Ky., on Sunday, April 24 and continue through Sunday, May 1, with services at eight o'clock each evening.

Rev. T. H. Shelton will be the evangelist, and he will be assisted by the pastor, Rev. Homer Burchett. Special music will be a feature of the services. A cordial welcome is extended to you.

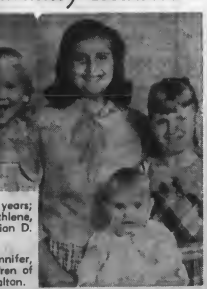

Stephens Farm Purchases Polled Hereford Sires

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Stephens of the Stephens Polled Hereford Farm, Walton, purchased a junior herd sire at the recent Kentucky Polled Hereford Show and Sale. He is BHR Misch Rollo 213. His sire is a half brother of CMR Rollo Trend V, the bull CMR Ranch recently sold one-fourth interest in for $80,000, setting a new world record.

They also purchased at private sale earlier, HHZ Misch Rollo 42, a double bred grandson of CMR Rollo Domino 12 (the sire of sires) and a double bred CMR Larry Domino cross. He is a half brother to the 1959 Kentucky State Fair grand champion female. A full brother was Buckeye Eastern National Champion sale bull in 1956 and a full brother was second highest selling bull at the Buckeye Spring Show and Sale in 1958. Stop by and see these two herd sires which will lead the herd from now on. Visitors always welcome.

Visalia P. T. A. Meets

The Visalia P. T. A. met Monday, April 18 at 8:00 p.m. Mrs. Wendell Jackson, music and drama chairman, presented the program. Officers for the 1960-61 year were also installed.

The proceeds from the affair will be used toward the payment of recently purchased uniforms, which they will be wearing Sunday for the first time. There will be a donation of 50 cents for anyone over 6 years of age.

Let's everyone attend and show these young people we're interested in them and their work.

Members of the band include: Larry Alphin, Janet Arnett, Charles Chip-

Past Presidents Honored at Piner P. T. A. Meeting

The Piner P.T.A. met in regular session Thursday, April 14 at 8 p.m. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Richard McKinley. Devotions were led by Dr. William F. McGibney, pastor of Wilmington Baptist Church.

Mrs. Fisk's third grade and Mrs. Brown's sixth grade tied for the book award by having the most parents present.

The past presidents were recognized and presented citations. They were: Mrs. Frank Elliott, Mrs. Elbert Callen, Mrs. Stella Fisk, Mrs. Ruby Worthington, Mrs. Francis Gross, Mrs. Naomi Segal, Mrs. Ruby Daniels and Mrs. Clarence Duncan.

A nominating committee was appointed, consisting of Mrs. B. N. Segal, Mrs. W. W. Worthington and Mrs. Eldred Steinhauser.

Mr. Harold Burton and Mr. Gil Holman, members of the Better Schools Citizens Committee presented to us some of the plans this committee has for our teachers and school age children.

The next meeting will be May 19 when the 4-H Club will be in charge of the program.

Freshman "Beggar Day"

The Walton-Verona High School freshmen will sponsor "Begger Day," Friday, April 22. They will go from house to house asking for odd jobs, such as cleaning the yard, washing windows or helping with a garden, for a small fee. If there is anything you would like to have done, call HUDSON 5-4559 or HUDSON 5-4276. The freshmen will be at your service from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

INDEPENDENCE REVIVAL

It is very necessary that all unlicensed plumbers and contractors who install septic tanks in Boone county be present at this meeting.

Rev. Garland Singleton

The revival services of the Independence Baptist Church will begin Monday, April 25 and continue through Sunday May 1, according to Rev. Kirtley Jolly, pastor.

Rev. Garland Singleton, pastor of Bethlehem Baptist Church of Cincinnati, Ohio, will be the evangelist. The services will start each evening at 8:00. All are invited.

On Sunday, May 1, the new Children's Home, recently completed on the church grounds, will be dedicated at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Officers, Directors Elected at Annual Wool Pool Meeting

Robert E. Grant, Route 1, Burlington, was re-elected president of the Boone County Wool Pool at its annual meeting Monday, April 4. The following officers and directors were elected: Ben Riley, Union, vice president; Beckham Shields, Walton, as secretary and treasurer.

The directors are Russell Sparks, Verona; Beckham Shields, Walton; Mrs. Alma Riley, Union; Frances Bekkshire, Florence; Sam Blackburn, Burlington; Robert Graves, Bullittsville; Robert E. Grant, Petersburg; Mr. Grant stated that 18,000 pounds of wool was sold in 1959. Sheep growers that have sold their wool through the pool have received higher prices than the wool sold to independent buyers, Mr. Grant said. Mr. Shields said that this included all of the sheepmen in the county except a very few and that total sales received was $8,754.93.

Mr. Grant said that socks and strings may be purchased at the following places in the near future: Roberts Bros., Feed Store, Bullittsville; Gullett's Grocery, Burlington; Union Hardware, Union and Ryan Hardware, Walton.

Please contact the directors above concerning selling your wool with the pool. Date and place of sale will be announced later.

Guests Here from Montana

Mr. and Mrs. F. I. Byerly, Lewistown, Montana, were recent guests of their niece, Miss Zelma E. Byerly, Lakeside Park. They were enroute to their home after a winter's sojourn in Nasho, Mo. The trip was so planned as to include a visit with their son, Kenneth, Professor of Journalism at the University of North Carolina. After leaving Kentucky, they visited their daughter, Miss Florence Byerly, home furnishing editor of Better Homes and Gardens magazine, Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. Byerly is a retired architect now actively engaged in private practice.

Plumbers In Boone County Must Now Obtain License

Eugene Perkins of the State Health Department, will be at the Florence Grade School, Monday, April 25, at 7:30 p.m., for the purpose of discussing the State Plumbing Law which was recently enacted by the Legislature for all counties that have third class cities.

Mr. Perkins will have the necessary applications and give detailed instructions as to the method that plumbers may use to obtain their license.

The new regulations covering installation of septic tanks and drain fields will also be discussed with septic tank contractors.

It is very necessary that all unlicensed plumbers and contractors who install septic tanks in Boone county be present at this meeting.

Mrs. J. A. Keeney - FL 7-5018

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Rapp entertained the Rapp family on Easter. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp, Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder, Mr. and Mrs. Randall Binder.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser attended the Easter service at the Scottish Rite Temple in Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney enjoyed visits from a number of friends and relatives during the past week: among them Mrs. J. H. Klette, Mrs. Clifford Northcutt, Mr. John Shaw, Mrs. J. H. Klette Jr. and daughter, Ruth; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Riley, Mr. and Mrs. John Klein, Mr. L. M. Deuser, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Wharton and children, Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and boys.

Lathan Brinkley was allowed on unexpected leave of five days before reporting to his new assignment at Washington, D. C.

The Easter services at the church here were well attended at both the six-thirty and eleven o'clock services.

Mrs. Caroline Armstrong and Harry had as callers on Easter afternoon, her daughter, Alice and family and grandson, Jimmie Leisure and family.

Everyone in the neighborhood feels a deep concern over the news that our oldest resident, Thomas Borders, is undergoing surgery one day this week.

Clyde Richardson who had an operation at Ft. Knox Hospital is progressing very well. He was cheered on Sunday by a visit from his brother, Lybran Richardson and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Richardson. We hope he is soon well.

Mrs. M. G. Wharton and children Louise and Lynn, called on Mrs. Sophronia Mills, Mrs. Hamilton and Mrs. Fooks on Friday morning.

The Homemakers Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp on Tuesday. There was a good attendance, an interesting lesson and delicious luncheon. Some new members were received. Next meeting will be at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hoffman had on Sunday guests her father, Mr. Ed Hauser and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Conner and son.

It's SPRING!

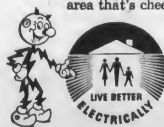

Spring cleaning time is a good time to check your lighting fixtures and portable lamps.

Do you have enough? Do you have the right kind?

For instance, the trolley fixture shown here... over a dining table... can be adjusted in height and position from the ceiling. It's one way to assure that light will always be centered over the table.

Combine this with wall lighting from a valance... and you have a dining area that's cheerful and bright!

CORVAIR BY CHEVROLET DRIVE IT! GET OUR DEAL!!!!

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.03 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U. S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:

Practically flat floor... real foot room for the man in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.6 cu. ft. of extra storage space. Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, flatter ride. Rear-engine traction... that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the rear wheels.

You probably realize already that the mileage figures Corvairs recorded in the Mobilgas Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the cars met every kind of driving condition—rugged mountain grades, long country straightaways, congested city traffic—those mileage figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.

Mrs. Clarence Stephenson, president, had charge of the business session. The guest speaker was David Kennedy and his subject was "Easter." It was enjoyed by all present. The May meeting will be at the church with Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Simpson as hosts. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. J. R. Wheelon, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Carey, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts and son, Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stephenson, Mrs. Wm. Brown, Mrs. Robert Sturdivent, Mrs. Howard Stephenson, Mrs. Edith Hamilton, and Mrs. Ethel Fooks. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. David Kennedy of Covington.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burdine and son entertained at dinner Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parker and family of Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. William Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schodler and son, and Mrs. Martha Jane Carpenter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Younger and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Solvers and family spent the weekend at Somerset, Ky., with relatives.

Andy Jarman, who has been on the sick list, is improving nicely.

Mrs. Howard Stephenson entertained Tuesday for dinner Mrs. Richard Ryan, Mrs. Floyd Humphrey and Mrs. William Parker, the occasion being the birthdays of Mrs. Ryan and Mrs. Humphrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Parker entertained Sunday for dinner Mr. and Mrs. David Houston and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Woods and son, Mr. and Mrs. William Parker, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parker and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Horn and daughter were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Bickers.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephenson entertained Sunday for dinner Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Zapp of Covington, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Snel and family of North College Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zapp and family of Florence, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cook and daughters, Peggy and Polly, and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Saunders of Madison, Ind.

OAK RIDGE

Shirley Tallent, Editor—FL. 7-6881

If you have been wondering what all the heavy earth moving equipment is doing by the Taylor Mill Boosters Ball Park, it belongs to the construction company that has started construction on the water lines for the new Taylor Mill water system.

Roscoe Egger has purchased the old BOHL farm and is having the land cleared in preparation for a new subdivision. He is planning a central sewage system for the entire subdivision, to eliminate the sewage problems found in most subdivisions in this area.

We were very sorry to hear of the sudden death from pneumonia of our neighbor, Charley Padgett.

Mrs. Claude Stafford is in the St. Elizabeth Hospital and expects to undergo surgery soon.

Mr. Ed Wintling is in St. Elizabeth Hospital and is quite ill.

David Egger had a bad strep throat last week, but is feeling much better.

His mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Egger, is recuperating nicely from her recent operation, and hopes to be able to be out soon.

Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell spent Easter with Mrs. O. J. Dorman.

Mr. and Mrs. Beckham Miller and family spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. William Lillard.

Mr. and Mrs. Del Donley visited Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Lipscomb on Easter.

Little Bill Wren was quite sick with the croup last week.

Johnny Godman spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Godman. He is stationed at Ft. Knox and this was his first week-end pass since entering the Army.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Perry had a birthday dinner for their daughter, Donna, in celebration of her 12th birthday, over the Easter holidays. Present were Mrs. Henry Bindel Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bindel and children, Stephen and Doug, of Flint, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Brankamp of Erlanger, Mrs. William Kenner and children.

The Ruth Class of Oak Ridge Baptist Church met at the home of Mrs. Chester Tallent on April 18. Fairie Haddix gave the devotional. The next meeting will be at the home of Linda Yates. Those present were Patty Miller, Martha Edmonds, Linda Yates, Fairie Haddix, Carol Wintling, Carol Tallent and Mrs. Tallent.

Mrs. Thelma Tomlin took several members from her Sunday School class to the Sunrise services and they then went to McKinley's Restaurant for breakfast. They all were disgusted with the photographer who in trying to get pictures of the crowd at the sunrise services, kept flying over in a helicopter, and the noise of the helicopter drowned out the sermon, that they had all come to hear.

Building A New Life

Quite a thrill — building a new home! Day by day you watch it take shape. And somehow, you have the feeling that this new house will bring new life for you and your family.

But building a new life isn't as simple as building a new home. One just can't move out of the drab past into a sparkling future.

The life to which conscientious men and women aspire is built on foundations that cannot be laid in a week or two. Character, courage, consecration — these are concrete evidences of faithful years in the worship and service of God.

Today, where there are new houses there are new churches — and where there are old houses there are old churches. And through the portals of all the churches pass the millions of earnest families who are serious and happy about building a new life.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a cornerstone of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mothers Sing at Recent Meeting Of Visalla PTA

A program of "Scenes and Songs," describing "America, the Beautiful," was given by the Mothers Sing Group of the Visalla P. T. A. at a recent meeting. Color slides were shown of sunsets as they sang, "Red Sails in the Sunset." Farm scenes were shown to the tune of "Old MacDonald's Farm." Scenes in Washington, D. C., of the Washington and Lincoln Memorials, the White House, the Capitol Building, and many others were also shown. The four seasons of the year were shown as they sang a hymn, "For the Beauty of the Earth."

Officers for the 1960-61 season were installed by Mrs. Howard Fredericks, past president. They are: Mrs. Ralph Fennell, president; Mrs. Charles Grizzell, vice president; Mr. Fred Welzel, treasurer, and Mrs. Steven Wrenn, secretary.

It was announced that each teacher had received a brass planter with green foliage for "Teacher Appreciation Week."

Attention was given to the need of parents to check the required of shots and their immunization weekly by their children, especially at this time of year.

Mrs. Donald Piner gave the devotional on "Gladness in Your Religion," taken from the 100th Psalm. The room count was won by the fifth grade.

The meeting adjourned and each parent was invited to visit the display and interesting data compiled by Mrs. Lipscomb's seventh grade during their study of Kentucky.

LYDIA S. STEPHENS

Mrs. Lydia Shinkle Stephens, whose residence was at the Covington Art Club, 604 Greenwood Street, died last Thursday at the Newport Baptist Home.

Mrs. Stephens, a native of Covington, and a former resident of Walton, was a past governor of the Fifth District of Women's Clubs of Kentucky, and a member of the Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church and the Covington Art Club.

Gravestone services were held Saturday morning at Highland Cemetery, South Fort Mitchell.

New Sunday School Schedule at Local Christian Church

The Christian Church Sunday School begins a new schedule this Sunday with opening exercises for children beginning at 9:50 in the church auditorium. Classes from the seventh grade upward will meet in the Fellowship hall at the usual time of 10 a. m. Class sessions will begin at 10:10.

The superintendent, Russell Groger, has asked the cooperation of all that on the first Sunday the new schedule might be put into operation with the least amount of confusion. He also invited all who are not attending elsewhere to come and make the Christian Church their new home.

125th Annual Convention
The 125th Convention of the Christian Churches of Kentucky will have its final session tonight (Thursday) to install new officers, elected at this morning's session. One of the most important matters which will be taken to the convention was represented by some fifteen of its members at the convention, which began Tuesday afternoon.

Hortley Fisk, layman of the Florence Christian Church, gave the address at the All-Convention banquet Tuesday evening, speaking on the subject, "Witnessing As Responsible Disciples."

Mrs. George Fiske, wife of the local minister, has been serving as an alternate member of the recommendations committee of the convention that must pass on all matters brought to the floor. One of the most important matters which came to the convention this year was the proposed new constitution which would bring a unity of all activities carried on at the state level. Rev. Jack Ervin, former minister of the Walton Christian Church, presented it to the convention in his capacity as chairman of the Constitutional Drafting Committee.

Personal Mention
Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Roney left for their new home in Largo, Fla., early Tuesday morning. They were lunch and dinner guests Monday of the Dale Stephens family. The Roneys will be greatly missed.

Cloy Fiske, brother of the Christian minister, visited in Walton last week. He was in Cincinnati at a convention of special and heavy truck haulers. Mr. Fiske is treasurer of the national organization. His home is in El Paso, Texas, where he and his father-in-law operate a heavy hauling and steel erecting business.

Class to Meet
The Crusaders class of the Christian Church meets there tomorrow (Friday) night for its regular monthly meeting.

4-H'ers To Enjoy Camp Ernst This Year!

Boone County 4-H'ers will camp at Camp Ernst, Boone County, near Burlington, June 6-10. They will again be camping with 4-H'ers from Kenton and Campbell counties. Those youngsters desiring to go to camp should get the $10.25 camp fee into the County Agricultural Extension Office as soon as possible since Boone County's quota is only 45, states Marvin Davidson, assistant County Agent.

The 4-H Camping experience is an experience that is long remembered.

It is here that many 4-H'ers find themselves away from the guidance of the family for the first time. Club members are given the opportunity to assume the responsibility for making their own decisions and actions under the direction of experienced camp leaders, extension agents, and local leaders.

The objectives of the camping program is to give the 4-H'ers the opportunity for: (1) Learning to get along with people; (2) personality development; (3) character development; (4) making new friends; (5) leadership training; (6) appreciation of nature; (7) fun; (8) spiritual development; (9) crafts; (10) health; (11) swimming; (12) leisure time; and (13) just a plain vacation.

Norton Kentucky 4-H'ers are fortunate to have their own camp here in Boone County. Camp Ernst boasts one of the most modern swimming pools of any camp in the state.

YACA instructors are at 4-H camp and have charge of all swimming sessions.

Other camp activities include boating, crafts, nature study, volleyball, softball, folk games, folk dancing and talent. A well rounded camp program has been planned. The 4-H'ers are kept busy but yet there is time for relaxation.

Vesper Services In "The Chapel of the Trees" is also an integral part of camp life. It is in the great outdoors that one can feel the closeness of God. Vesper services are non-denominational and are conducted by the club members themselves.

In the big cafeteria on the hill, the 4-H'ers find plenty of good wholesome food that is relished by all after a good night's sleep or a busy day of play.

Camp is what happens to the campers—what they take home with them in their memories, in their new purposes, in their improved or newly acquired skills, in their friendships, in their appreciations, in their awareness of God and His way for the world.

WALTON, KENTUCKY — THURSDAY, APRIL 28, 1960

Volume 45 - Number 17

Simon Kenton High Seniors to Present "John Loves Mary"

The senior class of Simon Kenton High School will present a three-act comedy play, "John Loves Mary," on April 28 and 29.

This play will be presented in a style that is entirely new to high schools in this area, "theater in the round." It will give the audience the feeling that they are participating in the play.

"Theater in the round" originated with the Greeks many thousands of years ago and has been used ever since.

It will be extremely difficult for the actors to concentrate on their parts in the play due to the fact that the audience will practically be on the stage with them. The actors, however, must not let any comment distract them or it will destroy the illusion of reality. There will be no prompts; the actors work out any difficulties in which they find themselves.

The cast includes Pat Frederick as Phyllis McKinley, Dorothy Webb as Lily Herbiush, Kathy Hall as Mary McKinley, Dick Carlisle as Harwood Bickler, and Bill Workman as Lt. Victor O'Leary.

Curtain time is 8:30 p. m. Anyone who arrives after the curtain has gone up will have to wait until the scene or act is over before they will be permitted to enter the gymnasium. The audience is requested to remain seated once the play begins as any noise will make it difficult to hear.

Anyone interested in obtaining tickets to this new type presentation may do so by contacting any senior at Simon Kenton or by calling the school for information.

Reserved seats will be individual chairs surrounding the acting area. The third, fourth and fifth rows will be elevated so that the audience may see better. The bleachers on "Staging Cider." The president then turned the meeting over to Rose Burin, program chairman, of the Girls' room.

The program consisted of a humorous skit, "The Mortgage Cow," with Carolyn James, Jimmy Pionist, Wayne Black, Larry Speal, Marlene Caldwell and Bobby Denton taking part. A play, "Johnny Appleseed," with Carolyn James, Bobby Denton, Joy Ellis, Charles Robinson, Phillip Hubbard, Marlene Caldwell, Paul Abel and Joy Gatewood taking part.

The club was pleased to have Mr. Maddox, assistant county agent, give the 4-H talk at the present at the meeting. Progress reports of 4-H project work and comments were given by Miss Marcum and other leaders.

Club members were treated with apples.

Cecilian Senior 4-H Club
The Cecilian Senior 4-H Club met April 18. The next meeting was set for May 16. The session was called to order by the president, Mary Lee Waincoat. A skating party was set for May 2 at Lloyd's Skating Rink.

Miss Marcum visited the club and talked to members and leaders. Mr. Maddox, assistant county agent, was also present. After the meeting 4-H pins, song books, autograph books, and other items were sold.

EDWARD L. HAUSER

Services for Edward L. Hauser, who died Sunday at St. Elizabeth Hospital, was held Wednesday at the Swindler funeral home followed by burial in Independence cemetery.

Mr. Hauser, who was 76 lived at Visalla. He was a member of the Visalla Baptist Church. He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Frank Conner, Covington; Mrs. Ernest Kidd, LaGrange, and Mrs. Nelson Hoffman, Staffordburg; a sister, Mrs. W. G. Sudeth, Covington; a brother, Frank C. Hauser, former Covington druggist, and eight grandchildren.

MRS. NETTIE DAVIDSON

Services for Mrs. Nettie Davidson, 84, of Florence, was held Wednesday at the fifth funeral home, Florence, with burial in Spring Grove cemetery. Mrs. Davidson died Sunday at her home. She was a 50-year member of First Baptist Church, Covington.

She leaves her husband, Albert E. Davidson, retired office employee at Acme-Newport Steel Corp., and several nieces and nephews.

Wa-Na Club To Meet

Mac's Restaurant, Nicholas, is to be the meeting place of the Wa-Na Club on Monday, May 2 at 8 p. m. The Rev. Rull Cross of Richmond Presbyterian Church will be the speaker.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. John Mayhugh Jr., Mrs. Barney Taylor and Mrs. Lewis Webster.

Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club Enjoys Plays at Meeting

The Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club met March 25 in the school auditorium. William Ray presided. Carolyn James called the roll, which was answered by naming favorite fruit. A devotion, "The Ten Commandments," was given by five girls and five boys.

The program was led in the pledge to the American flag and the 4-H pledge. The 4-H song leaders led the group in singing, "My Country 'Tis of Thee," after which they sang "Staging Cider." The president then turned the meeting over to Rose Burin, program chairman, of the Girls' room.

The program consisted of a humorous skit, "The Mortgage Cow," with Carolyn James, Jimmy Pionist, Wayne Black, Larry Speal, Marlene Caldwell and Bobby Denton taking part. A play, "Johnny Appleseed," with Carolyn James, Bobby Denton, Joy Ellis, Charles Robinson, Phillip Hubbard, Marlene Caldwell, Paul Abel and Joy Gatewood taking part.

The club was pleased to have Mr. Maddox, assistant county agent, give the 4-H talk at the present at the meeting. Progress reports of 4-H project work and comments were given by Miss Marcum and other leaders.

Club members were treated with apples.

Brent Spence Is Again Candidate For Congressman

Brent Spence, Fort Thomas, has announced as a candidate for re-election to the Congress of the United States from the Fifth District of Kentucky. He is well known in this county, and the district, having served as Congressman for the past 28 years.

The Fifth District is composed of the counties of Boone, Kenton, Campbell, Gallatin, Carroll, Trimble, Pendleton, Bracken, Mason, Lewis, Boyd, Fleming, Lawrence, and Greenup.

Mr. Spence said he would be unable to canvass the entire district, but solicits the support of all voters in the area at the Democratic Primary on Tuesday, May 24.

He cited his record to voters in reminding them of his support of farm legislation, and his part in securing the passage of important bills bringing more money and a better way of life to the farmer. Mr. Spence has served as chairman of the Banking Committee for several years.

PINER HOMEMAKERS

The April meeting of the Piner Homemakers Club was held in the home of Mrs. Malcolm Oliver.

Draperies were the subject for study, with Mrs. Clarence Duncan and Mrs. Robert Bell, leaders. Well chosen draperies can hold the decorative scheme of the room together. Your draperies will have that professional look you so much admire if you measure accurately and follow proper construction method, leaders stressed. Small samples of lined and unlined draperies were made by the members, under the direction of the leaders.

Mrs. William Wood, club president, gave a report of the Advisory Council held March 30. The district meeting will be on May 3, at Oventon, and International Day, May 18, at Lakeside Park.

Other members attending were: Mrs. John Dwyer, Mrs. Fred McMillan, Mrs. Charles Flynn, Mrs. Leslie McMillan, Mrs. Marion Martin, Mrs. Owen Flynn, Mrs. Stephen Rich, Mrs. Spaulding, Mrs. William W. Walters, Mrs. Angelo Pelizzari, Mrs. Ray Tomlin, and a guest, Mrs. Mann.

ALLEN-BLYTHE WEDDING

Miss Maile Allen and Mr. Mackie E. Blythe, students at Eastern State College, Richmond, Ky., were united in marriage Saturday, April 23, at the Garden of Hope Chapel, Covington, by Rev. R. F. DeMoisey, Walton. She was given in marriage by Evan M. Hance, and one of her attendants was Miss Sara Hance. Present at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Evan Hance, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Robison, Miss Joella Logan of Paris, Ky., Miss Sue Guitzel, Covington, and several of his friends. The groom is a senior and the bride a junior at Eastern.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Allen, formerly of Walton, who now reside in Arabia.

County-Wide 4-H Spring Rally On Saturday, May 14

Plans are now being made for the County-wide 4-H Spring Rally according to Marvin Davidson, assistant County Agricultural Agent. The event will be held at the Burlington Grade School on Saturday, May 14.

All 4-Hers are encouraged to attend and to participate in the various activities. By participating a club member has the opportunity to gain poise and confidence in performing before a group. There will be demonstrations, dairy judging, seed identification, speech contest, style show and a ball game, time permitting.

Demonstrations will be classified by sex rather than agricultural and home economics. There will be a classification for any demonstration a boy or girl may give. Girls demonstrations are classified as follows: Dairy foods, electric, corn meal and general. Girls do not give team demonstrations. The classifications for boys demonstrations are: Individual electric, team, any subject, and general individual.

The speech contest will be open to both girls and boys. There will be a junior and senior division as in demonstrations. The preferred time for a junior's speech is 3 to 5 minutes. For seniors the preferred time is 5 to 7 minutes. The subject should be on rural living or its various facets and should be suitable for the age of the boy or girl. A junior 4-H'er is one under 14 years of age as of January 1, 1960.

The clothing for girls participating in the style show will be judged on Friday, May 13. These girls are requested to bring or send their clothing to the Burlington Grade School on Friday, May 13, between 8 and 10 a.m.

Participation ribbons will be given to those 4-H'ers participating in demonstrations, speech and style revue. First place winners will compete at the District Rally in Williamstown on Saturday, May 28.

Serving Aboard Carrier

William M. Pickenell, seaman, USN of 50 High St., Walton, is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Independence, operating out of Norfolk, Va.

OLD-TIME REVIVAL

The Walton Church of God is still conducting their Old-Time Revival every night at 7:30. Come and hear the good preaching and singing. Bring the sick and let God heal them. Brother and Sister God invites everyone.

Burlington Is Last Section to be Cut-In Walton customers will be able to dial Burlington customers after 2:01 a.m., May 1, when the new Justice exchange is cut to dial. With this cut-out all Boone county telephones will be dial and can dial between exchanges with no charge, as in the past. All telephones will also be connected to the Direct Distance Dialing (DDD) network.

With the Burlington cut-over, Consolidated Telephone Company will have over 5,500 telephones in service. This is a gain of 2,000 telephones in the last two years.

Although this completes the change over to dial of all company exchanges and almost completes the original plans for construction, the telephone company already has engineers back on the job making new plans for additional construction and improvements.

May Day Dance April 30

The American Legion Post 277 will have a May Day dance on Saturday, April 30, at 9 p.m. at the Walton Legion Home. Music will be provided by Klutz Bros. of Independence. The public is cordially invited.

Auxiliary Social Planned

The regular social of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held Sunday, May 1, at 2 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend.

In Airborne Exercises

Army First Sergeant Garnett Arnold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Arnold, Independence, recently participated with other personnel from the XVIII Airborne Corps' 54th Artillery Group in Exercise Quick Strike at Fort Campbell and Camp Breckinridge, Ky.

Arnold is first sergeant of the group's Headquarters Battery at Fort Bragg, N.C. He entered the Army in 1944, after attending Simon Kenton High School. His wife, Betty, lives in Fayetteville, N. C.

In Rifle-Pistol Matches

Pfc. Clayton K. Mullins, 24, whose wife, Jeyvenna, lives in Walton, recently participated in the Army's European rifle and pistol matches in Grafenwohr, Germany. He represented the 4th Armored Division.

Mullins, a wireman in Headquarters Company of the division's 50th Infantry, in Germany, entered the Army in October 1958, completed basic training at Fort Hood, Texas and arrived overseas in April of last year. The son of Robert W. Mullins, Emosville, he is a 1954 graduate of Simon Kenton High School.

Local Choir Choir Member

Miss Joann Shields, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Shields, Route 1, Walton, is a member of the Orpheus Choir of Olivet Nazarene College, Channahon, Ill., which will make its 28th annual concert tour April 22-May 1.

The ten-day tour will take the choir through Indiana and Ohio. Concerts will be given in Elkhart, Muncie, Indianapolis, and Richmond, Ind., and Dayton, Springfield, Ironton, Columbus, Toledo, Fostoria, and Springfield, Ohio.

Professor Naomi Larsen, chairman of the Division of Fine Arts at Olivet, is choir director, and Robert Brown, professor of piano, is accompanist.

Rupture or Hernia

Mr. E. J. MEINHARDT, widely known Shield Specialist from Chicago and Michigan, will again be in his office rooms at the Sheraton-Gibson Hotel in Cincinnati for two days: Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3 and 4. Office hours 11:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m.

If you can not have or do not want surgery, you may receive immediate and permanent relief wearing the Meinhardt Shield. This shield retains any size rupture in 10 days on the average case avoiding harsh straps and hard pads.

Ask your doctor to explain why it is dangerous to wear a truss if it presses on the delicate rupture swelling causing irregularity, pain in stomach, back, legs, weakness, nausea, partial or complete strangulation. There is no charge for consultation or demonstration during office hours specified above. Only men invited. Investigate before buying. Thousands of satisfied customers as references.

OVER BACK-COUNTRY ROADS AT 45 WITH A SKY-HIGH LOAD OF TIMBER

Chevy middleweight shows the big rigs how it's done!

That's a 6303 medium-duty Chevrolet powered by a 283-cu.-in. V8. But there's sure nothing medium-duty about the load. Mr. J. E. Blankinship, Arkansas logging contractor, says both of his torsion-spring 6303's "move along at 40 to 50 miles per hour with 55,000 pounds gross weight and maintain a 5-trip-a-day schedule with no trouble at all." Figure the money you save when you've got a medium-duty truck that can cover 30,000 back-country miles a year with a high-tonnage load!

We've never seen anything like the amount of praise truck owners are heaping on Chevy's new torsion spring suspension. Owners like the fact the truck handles a whole lot easier, can move faster off the road without beating the driver to death and shaking loose all the sheet metal. They like the idea of extra thousands of miles before trade-in!... Drive a '60 Chevy just once. It's a whole new experience.

Chevy middleweight averages 200 miles of back roads a day dogging timber out of the woods and delivering it to the mill at Crossett, Arkansas.

Pure In Heart

Lesson for May 1, 1960

THERE are different words in different languages for the invisible man—that is, the man nobody sees, but everybody knows he is there. Each of us is an invisible man or woman. It isn't that we walk around with this person under our skins. We are this person. We can call it the "real you" or the "inner self" or the "ego" if we like. We can call it the mind or the spirit. What the Hebrews called it was the "heart." This did not mean emotions, it Dr. Foreman meant thought, attitudes, the whole inner, unseen life of man, that area of his life in which he is definitely human and not just another and slightly smarter animal.

PURE In Heart

Jesus laid great emphasis on the heart, and so does the entire Bible. If the heart is not right the man is not right. Jesus has a special word for the right kind of heart: "Pure." This does not mean what you might think at a hasty glance. It does not mean—exclusively—a mind free from wrong sex desires, a heart without lust. The word Jesus uses, which is translated "pure," is simply "clean." That is, free from everything useless, everything that bedevils and bemirches life. A heart cluttered up with worries is not a pure heart, as Jesus would see it.

Yet an empty heart is not a pure heart. One of Jesus' more gruesome stories is about a devil who had been cast out of a man's heart. Finding no rest elsewhere, the evil spirit came back to his old home, and found it "empty, swept and garnished." There was room there for himself and seven other devils worse than he was... so they all moved in. The empty life is not necessarily a good life.

Pure In HEART

"Purity of heart is to will one thing," it has been said. That may be exaggerated, but it points to a truth. Purity of heart is not the absence of sin, it is the presence of goodness. Purity of heart doesn't consist of not wanting what is bad, it is wanting what is good. Why is it that for every twenty people who will tell you they're all in favor of some good project, you can scarcely find one to take off his coat and help you with it? The difference is in the heart. There is a lot of difference between the good wish (which may not be worth a hill of beans) and real good will. There is a difference between saying politely, "Yes, that is a splendid idea, I approve of it," and getting out to work to make it come true.

Jesus knew the heart's importance. People are not going to do good, or to create it, or to be good, if they don't want to do it in the place. Everything that is good has many enemies in this world. So—if we do not desire good with all our heart, our week-day heart as much as our Sunday-go-to-meeting heart, the enemies are going to discourage us, we shall never get going.

No Hypocrites At Home

This is the beginning of family week. Now the family is the hardest of all places to be a successful hypocrite. Jesus had no use whatever for hypocrites—it always perfect illustrations of hearts not pure. What they say they admire they don't admire; what good they do they wish they didn't have to do. They have to be dragged into the paths of righteousness, they don't choose those paths with joyful heart.

It is at home where hypocrites can be seen into, seen through. They can't hide their inner lives. The rest of the family sees into their hearts. Home is a place where hypocrisy withers. It always withers when it can be seen through. Thus a good home itself is a cure for hypocrisy. Family life at its best is a life in which every heart is open to all other hearts, where there is no place, no dark corner, for grudges to hide or for hates to begin. Blessed are the pure in heart, and blest are the homes where they are found.

PICTURE PRETTY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalm	18	1-9
Monday	Matthew	9	13-15
Tuesday	Mark	7	14-15
Wednesday	John	14	15-16
Thursday	John	8	12-13
Friday	Philippians	4	18-19
Saturday	John	16	28-30

Pretty as a picture, isn't she? She looks "downright" angelic. Yet, five minutes from now, she may be a little bundle of fury!

Children change faster than the wind. They haven't learned to hide their feelings. But while grown-ups may present a better camouflage to the world, there are few of us without inner conflicts. And these conflicts can be serious.

It would be a lonely world if we had to keep all our problems to ourselves. We don't. God never intended that we should have to solve all our difficulties single-handed. Remember, He established His Church on earth for us. In that Church we will find understanding fellowship, and the faith to work out our own destinies.

Take your problems to Church. Pray that you will find a solution to them. Talk them over with your minister. And what seems a maze today may become a straight road tomorrow.

Kentucky Youth Takes Over the State Government

By Patricia Frederick
Simon Kenton High School

About 170 years ago that great pioneer, Daniel Boone, stood on the crest of a hill overlooking the site of our state's capital—Frankfort. That site, from March 31 to April 2, 1960, was also the site of Kentucky Youth Assembly. Youth Assembly was organized several years ago through the efforts of our State Y. M. C. A. Its aim is to promote governmental concern and education as well as intelligent voting. By letting Kentucky youth people see first hand how their democratic government operates and by letting them change seats with Senators, Representatives and other state officials, they learn the principles by which our country is run and the processes by which these principles are established.

Since Youth Assembly is a young organization, very few people are aware of its existence. But Youth Assembly is growing and making itself known, as any worthwhile organization will do. Kentucky's youth is actively concerned about Kentucky's future as shown by the migration of some 700 high school students from all parts of the state to Frankfort for the mock-legislative sessions.

In an interview with this reporter, Wilson Wyatt, Lieutenant Governor, expressed his opinion of Youth Assembly.

"These young Kentuckians have shown themselves to be enthusiastic, spirited, concerned, responsible, and intelligent future citizens. We can look forward to a better Kentucky and, in turn, a better America."

The Assembly passed and defeated many bills in the mock-legislative sessions. They debated the pros and cons of these bills on the floor of the Senate and House Chambers. There were bills for improvement of civic facilities, highway improvement, school improvement, drug control, advertisement control, disease prevention and provision for care of the afflicted, and hundreds more.

The delegates also campaigned for the officers of next year's Assembly. They elected a Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Speaker of the House, and Secretary of State, as well as other officers. This gave them the experience of responsible voting.

Among the social activities enjoyed by the delegates were a banquet and the Governor's Reception at the Capitol Rotunda. The delegates attended an inspirational worship service at 11 p. m. in Frankfort's beautiful Presbyterian Church.

Kentucky is the future of our potential leaders—the future governors and congressmen of our state and, possibly, a future President of the United States.

Extension Council Quarterly Meeting Held at Burlington

The third quarterly meeting of the Boone County Extension Council was held recently at the Extension office in Burlington.

At the December 1959 Extension Council meeting members recommended that there be a study of short term credit in Boone County. Homemaking club members are carrying out this recommendation. They chose as one of their lessons for the coming year, "Short Term Credit."

It was also decided by the council that there be more information made available on marketing.

The Extension budget was explained to the council, as follows: Extension is supported by the federal, state and county governments. The county agricultural agent's and the home demonstration agent's salaries are paid by federal and state funds.

Also, paid by these funds are the specialists serving the county, bulletins and office supplies. The assistant agent's salary is paid by the three cooperating governments: federal, state and county. The county pays the salary of the Extension office secretary, mileage for agents, rent, phone and county office equipment.

Reports were given by the agents on 4-H activities, homemaking, and agriculture programs. Plans were made for a county-wide zoning meeting to be sponsored by the Extension Council.

Members present were: J. Lassing Huey, Bill Moore, Mrs. Joe Domschke, Mrs. Irvin Dringenberg, Mrs. Vernon Pope, Mrs. Grant Maddox, Mrs. Carl Mueller, Mrs. Don Eger, Mrs. Nick Mikkelsen, Mr. Beckham Shields, Joe Closon, county agricultural agent; Marvin Davidson, assistant county agent; and Mrs. Gertrude Papotto, home demonstration agent.

Linsey Circle to Meet

The Maxine Linsey Circle of the Walton Baptist Church will meet on Thursday, May 12, at the home of Mrs. Clifford Chance on Stephenson Mill Road.

Walton-Verona Alumni Banquet at School, Saturday

The annual banquet for the Walton-Verona High School Alumni Association will be held in the school gymnasium at 7:00 p. m., Saturday evening, May 7th.

This year, the association will honor the class of 1935 for its silver anniversary year. Also to be honored will be the championship basketball teams of 1930, 1933 and 1942. All members of these teams, as well as the class of '35, are given a cordial invitation to be present.

This year's banquet is to be served by the local P. T. A. and steak is featured as the main attraction.

The program will feature the new school band and also the girls' chorus will entertain the old grads.

It still isn't too late to call your reservation in for yourself and your guest—just call Mrs. Shirley Lou (Carpenter) Cook at Hudson 5-4864.

Walton-Verona High Band Rates Superior And Chorus Excellent

Newport was the host Friday, Saturday and Sunday to the Northern Division of the Kentucky State High School Music Festival. This is one of nine such festivals held throughout the state. This division includes the counties of Boone, Kenton, Grant, Owen and Gallatin. Some 207 events took place during the three days and approximately 1500 boys and girls from the various schools in the area participated in the competitive events.

Friday, during the choral and vocal events, the Walton-Verona Girls' Chorus of 52 voices was rated excellent on its rendition of two selections. The Small Ensemble of 15 girls was also awarded excellent. Those singing in the small ensemble were Rita Kennedy, Frieda Jones, Patsy Young, Patsy Edkins, Jenny Gullison, Nola Yates, Sue Curry, Joan Dawson, Frances Bradshaw, Lynda Worthington, Tracy Moore, Susan Gerth, Phyllis Gibson, Darlene Poore and Linda Duchemin.

In the instrumental solo, and ensemble section, the Walton-Verona brass quartet rated superior, as did the clarinet quartet. Donna Sue Webb, clarinet solo, superior, and Glen Hicks, clarinet solo, excellent.

In the band competition, held at Newport High School, May 1, the local band was rated superior by a unanimous decision of the judges. Pieces performed were "The Thunderer by Sousa," "Die Meistersinger" by Wagner, and "Stagecoach Trail" by Grundman.

Everyone is quite proud of these students and according to the judges they have great possibilities, and all are looking forward to greater things from them in the future.

The choral groups were under the direction of Mrs. Lucile Hudson with Miss Mary Kelly, accompanist, and the band was under the direction of George Benson.

Local Scouts To Participate In Clothing Drive

Four Scout Units from Boone County will participate in the annual clothing drive for the needy and handicapped persons served through the Goodwill Industries and Saint Vincent de Paul Society in the Greater Cincinnati Area.

Participation in this annual drive is new to most Boone counties. However, this year on Sunday, May 22, with the support of local Boy Scouts and Explorers, the people of Walton, Florence and Hebron will have an opportunity to be of service to the less fortunate.

Clothing can be placed in shopping or paper bags and deposited on the doorstep of your home. Scouts and Explorers will then canvass the three communities and collect the clothing. In Walton, Troop 99, sponsored by the Fire Department, will conduct the pickup. In Florence, Explorer Troop 1, sponsored by the Florence Lions Club, and Scout Troop 1, sponsored by the Florence Christian Church, will provide the good turn, and in Hebron, Troop 228, sponsored by the Hebron Lions Club, will be collecting.

Dr. Cross Speaks At the Wa-Na Club Meeting On Monday

The Walton Wa-Na Club met on Monday, May 2 at McKinley Restaurant on Nicholson Road with Mrs. Virginia Mayhugh, Mrs. Peggy Taylor, Mrs. Betty Webster as co-hostesses.

There were twenty-four members present with one guest.

The Spiritual guidance was delivered by the local P. T. A. and steak is featured as the main attraction.

The program will feature the new school band and also the girls' chorus will entertain the old grads.

It still isn't too late to call your reservation in for yourself and your guest—just call Mrs. Shirley Lou (Carpenter) Cook at Hudson 5-4864.

Boone County to Hold Pre-School Registration Days

This year all children who will enter the first grade in the Boone County Schools in September, 1960, must register at the school which they expect to attend. This fall on the date indicated below.

This pre-school registration is necessary for a number of reasons. First, with the anticipated large enrollment due next year, an accurate figure representing the children expected in each first grade will make it possible for teachers and principals to do a better job of meeting their needs.

Second, it will make it possible for the school nurse to meet and work with the parent and child to prevent problems from arising, to anticipate difficulties and thereby avoid them, to give advice and help in many ways that assist in the child's adjustment to his first year in school. And, perhaps most important of all, it will make it easy for parents and children to actually get acquainted with members of the school staff with which they will be so closely associated for the next few years.

It is the earnest hope of everyone concerned that all parents will take advantage of this planning and opportunity to come at their leisure on the appointed day to get the answers to any and all questions they may have about starting in school.

Please make careful note of the date and time of your school's enrollment day and be sure to register your child—

Florence School, Friday, May 6th, all day (8:30 to 3:00).

New Haven School, Monday, May 9th, all day.

Petersburg School, Monday, May 9th, all day.

Hamilton School, Wednesday, May 11th, all day.

Burlington School, Friday, May 13, 9:00 to 12:00 and 1:00 to 2:30.

Hebron School, Monday, May 16, all day.

Belleview School, Friday, May 20, 8:00 to 10:00 and 2:00 to 4:00.

Pt. Pleasant Homemakers

Plans for a spring tour and an International Day tea highlighted the April meeting of the Point Pleasant Homemakers. A good storage lesson, "A Place for Everything," was given by Mrs. Jack Brewer and Mrs. John Reynolds.

Those attending: Mesdames Gertrude Papotto, extension agent, John Darby, Leslie Stephenson, John Chodan, Jack Brewer, John Reynolds, Ralph Scheitz, Stanley Schulte, Ben Otten, Fred Black, Ambrose Falz, and a guest, Lucile Letimer.

Treat or good egg right by storing it under proper conditions—clean, covered and cold. Keep eggs in a covered bowl or pan, away from strong-smelling foods.

Gabriel To Be Speaker

Lewis M. Gabriel, Secretary of the Covington Scottish Rite Bodies, is to be the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of the Boone County Scottish Rite Club scheduled for 8:00 p. m., Monday, at the Verona Masonic Hall.

Mr. Gabriel is widely known in Kentucky Masonic circles as a forceful, dynamic speaker on philosophical subjects. He is a former educator, having been associated for many years in the Kenton County School system. He resides at Piner.

Clarence Wolfe, Burlington, president of the Scottish Rite Club, has urged all Scottish Rite Masons to be present for this meeting. Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

KENTON PTA COUNCIL

Mrs. George White, president of the Sixth District Council of Kentucky Parents and Teachers, will officiate at the installation of officers when the Kenton County Council of Parents and Teachers meet Monday, 10 a. m., at the Covington YMCA.

Mrs. Shelby Kinney, president, and Mrs. Harold Buxton, second vice president, will be reinstated to these respective offices. Other officers to be installed are: Mrs. Otto Wolff, first vice president; Mrs. Charles Adams, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Wainwright, treasurer, and Mrs. Jake Isaacs, corresponding secretary.

Final plans for Coney Island Day, June 2, will be completed and distribution of tickets made.

Mrs. Shelby Kinney, president, will preside at the business meeting when reports of officers and chairmen will be read.

Following the meeting the annual luncheon will be held, with Mrs. James Goode in charge.

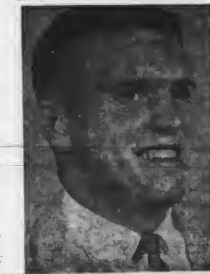

Lambright Circle Meets

Lambright Circle of First Baptist Church, Walton, held its monthly meeting April 14, at the church.

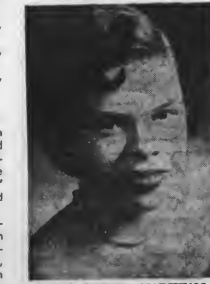

The program was presented by Mrs. Kilgore with several members participating. The business session was in charge of Mrs. Praitheir, circle chairman. Many important meetings are to be held in the Walton Circle, both in church and the association.

Those present at the meeting were Violet Prother, Helen Breeden, Wilma Kilgore, Mary Alice Kiesel, Janice Ryan, Kaye Thompson, Estelle Christy, Lottie Lynch, Gwen Soden, Mary Kay Hendricks, Minnie Seay, Joyce Anderson, a new member, and two visitors, Ruth Glenn and Peggy Mathison.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday, May 19. We welcome anyone who would want to come.

Auxiliary Combine Meeting

The quarterly meeting of the Boone-Kenton County of the Ladies Auxiliaries of local Fire Departments was held Thursday, April 21 at the Walton-Verona High School.

Hostess to the group of 100 ladies was the Walton Auxiliary. In attendance were Sandfordtown, Elmore, Crescent Springs, Taylor Mill, Ryland Heights, Florence, Forest Hills, and Walton.

Everyone enjoyed the pygmy act put on by the Walton Firemen, and the music by the "Teen-Beats," Walton jazz group.

Officers Named at Meeting of Taylor Mill School P.T.A.

The Taylor Mill P. T. A. held its monthly meeting recently with Mrs. James Feagan presiding in place of Mrs. Gil Halberstadt.

The nominating committee, headed by Mrs. Paul Haley, named officers for the coming year: Mrs. Gilbert Halberstadt, president; Mrs. Feagan, vice president; Mrs. Wesley Hall, treasurer; Mrs. Elmer Leo, secretary, and Mrs. Jack Dehart, corresponding secretary.

Devotional was read by Mrs. Jerry Siple. Mrs. Jean Williams sang a beautiful song, "The Holy City."

The room count award was presented to Mrs. Cooper's fourth grade. Plans were completed for the dinner on April 30. Money made at this dinner will be used to increase the school library. This is a big project the P. T. A. has been working on for three years, and also to the school, as a whole, will benefit from.

The P. T. A. by-laws were read by Mrs. Robert White. The Girl Scout Troop of Mrs. John Ferguson and Mrs. Siple presented a talent show.

Hay Ride, May 14

The Walton Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring a hay ride on Saturday, May 14. All going are asked to be at the church at 7:00 p. m. The cost is 75 cents per couple plus 50 cents for singles. Tickets may be secured at school from any of the young people. The affair will be cancelled in case of bad weather.

MISS MARY HARDIN DAVIS

DONNIE LEE MADDOX

and Donnie Lee Maddox, Boone county (bottom right). Miss Markham is on alternate replacing Martha Bell Bertram, Barren county, who was first announced as a delegate but was unable to attend.

Omer K. Powers, 77, a retired farmer, died early Monday of injuries sustained when struck by an auto Sunday night in front of his home on North Main St., Walton.

Trooper Joseph Hicks, Kentucky State Police, said Mr. Powers had gotten out of an auto of some friends and was crossing the street when struck by a car driven by Clayton Wolfenbarger, 19, Verona.

The victim was returning home from services at First Baptist Church, Walton. He had served as a deacon in the Baptist Church for 47 years, and was a member of St. Elizabeth Hospital, where he died several hours after the accident.

Mr. Powers leaves two sons, Rickman Powers of Edgewood, and Geo. R. Powers of Williamstown; three sisters, Mrs. Bess Adams of Walton, and Mrs. Ruby Allister and Mrs. Charles Sales of Cincinnati; a brother, Lloyd Powers, Erlanger, and six grandchildren.

Services were held at 2:00 p. m., Wednesday at First Baptist Church, Walton, with interment following in New Bethel Cemetery, Verona.

Hamilton Funeral Home, Verona, had charge of arrangements.

KENTON PTA MEETING

Dr. Robert West spoke to members of Kenton Elementary PTA recently on the subject of Dental Hygiene and his talk was illustrated with slides.

The group held election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. John Mayhugh will serve as vice president and Mrs. Warren VanHorn as secretary. These new officers will be installed at the May meeting.

Mrs. Earl Willis, Character and Spiritual Education Chairman, presented the devotional and chose as her subject Action for Total Fitness in Your Responsibility.

Mrs. Baird's fifth grade won the attendance award.

The president of Kenton Elementary PTA, Mrs. Charles Adams, will represent the group at the State Convention in Lexington later this month.

Sophomores Express Thanks

The sophomore class of Walton-Verona High School wish to express their thanks to all who helped make the chicken dinner a success.

A spokesman said, "We are sorry for any delays or errors in our deliveries, but it was impossible to get all deliveries made on time. We appreciated your patience and cooperation."

County to Receive License Receipts From Businesses

Occupational licenses, heretofore collected by the State, will be collected by the various counties, and will be used in the county in which collected, it was announced recently by Boone county officials.

The recent General Assembly, which repealed the law, gave the various counties the right to impose the license, it was reported. Boone fiscal court voted, at its April meeting, to maintain the license fees at the same rate as imposed by the state. The motion was made by Dolph Seebree and seconded by Dale Williamson.

These occupational licenses are due and payable before July 1, 1960, officials said. All persons requiring such licenses will obtain them at the County Court Clerk's office, as in the past.

The court imposed license fees on the following occupations:

Billiard or pool table, or bowling alley, $31 for first table or alley; $5.00 for each additional table or alley; sale of ice cream, $6.00; sale of soft drinks, $6.00; ice cream and soft drinks, $11.00; sale of retail tobacco products, $11.00; restaurants, $11.00. Proceeds from the sale of above licenses go into the county treasury.

Soil Testing In Boone County In Full Swing

Soil testing in Boone county is in full swing but the soil testing laboratory can take care of anyone who wants to test their soil, according to Joe Claxton, County Agricultural Extension Agent. If the soil sample is wet, there will be a delay in testing as it is necessary for the soil to be dry before testing. Therefore, it is desirable for the soil to be dried before bringing it to the County Agent's Office.

Claxton stated that the soil sample results will be handled as quickly as possible and that they are being returned to the farmers in short order this spring.

Boone county farmers are now spending thousands of dollars annually for fertilizer and limestone. This money must be spent for plant nutrients which are actually needed of the most profit is to be realized. A proper balance of plant foods must be maintained for most efficient crop production. Too much of a particular kind will not give an immediate return on the investment, and excessive amounts of certain nutrients may harm the crops. Therefore, farmers must choose the kinds and amounts of plant food to be applied for a particular crop. The purpose of the soil-testing program is to help farmers make the best decision.

Although the exact nutrient requirement of a soil cannot be determined by the chemical soil test, it is an excellent guide for more effective utilization of lime and fertilizers. Recommendations based on results of soil test and past fertilizer and cropping history should mean greater returns on the annual lime and fertilizer and make for a more prosperous agriculture in the state. In order to get the most accurate test and the maximum net return, the farmer must:

1. Submit a soil sample representative of the area to be fertilized.
2. Supply accurate information as to past fertilization and cropping history.
3. Apply the lime and fertilizer at rates to supply the approximate amounts of plant food recommended by the county agent.
4. Purchase the recommended plant food on the basis of cost of plant nutrients rather than the cost per bag or ton of fertilizer.

Red Cross Needs Young People As Volunteer Workers

Wanted: Teenagers from Boone, Campbell, and Kenton counties!

That's the word going out the Cincinnati Area Red Cross headquarters these days as the Red Cross begins a recruitment campaign for summer volunteer workers.

"Some teenagers, with time on their hands have found the long-anticipated vacation becomes boring when the time drops by with little to do," says Mrs. John D. Ananias, chairman of School and College Activities for the Cincinnati Area Red Cross.

"Well, we can solve this problem right here. Young people are urgently needed to serve as Red Cross volunteers during the summer vacation."

PROGRAM PLANNERS. Summer volunteers 14 to 18 years old are needed to visit local institutions and help determine what Junior Red Cross materials and services are needed for the coming year. These volunteers will attend a two-hour Junior Red Cross orientation program before visiting the institutions.

STUDENT AIDES: Students at least 15 years old are needed as Student Aides at the Veterans Administration Hospital. These volunteers must have completed the ninth grade by this summer. They also attend an orientation class and will receive on-the-job training at the hospital. Student Aides perform personal services which help raise patients' morale.

CLERICAL: Students over 14 years old with one year of typing experience are especially needed by all Red Cross services, but no experience is necessary for boys and girls who want to do filing, sorting, and other clerical work for the various Red Cross services and the United Appeal, the joint fund campaign of the Community Chest and the Red Cross.

The Red Cross provides an opportunity for students to learn social responsibility and to gain an appreciation of the fellow human beings of every race and creed. Mrs. Ananias said: "We know that students will learn the great personal satisfaction that comes from helping people in need here and abroad."

Students interested in being Red Cross volunteers this summer are asked to call the Red Cross School and College Activities office at PA 1-2665.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Kasey—FL 7-5018

I suppose I just do not have, as the old saying goes, "a nose for news." anyway, I didn't hear of this item for a week but it is a bit unusual, so I'll tell it anyway. It happened when Rev. Parish was pastor of a church near Maysville, that he received into the church a young lady, Louise Phillips. She told Rev. Parish that if she knew his address when she set her wedding date she wished him to "tie the knot." He received word a few days before Easter that she was to be married on Saturday, April 16 to Major Clarence Watson of Flemingsburg, Ky. The bride wore a white suit with pink accessories. Her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Meeks, of Cincinnati, were the witnesses. They are strangers to us, we wish them a long and happy life together. May the benediction of the Lord's House follow them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp visited cousins at their summer cottage at Boone Lake, Saturday evening.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Parish, Mrs. David Kennedy and Mrs. Opal Shaw attended the annual conference of the Women's Society of Christian Service at Cynthiana, last week.

Earl Hanna visited his brother, Walter, Sunday afternoon at the Dry Ridge Nursing Home.

Paul Damon suffered a fall last week at his home. He fell face-down on the steps cutting his forehead. His son, Gilbert, took him to the hospital where the wound was dressed, requiring several stitches. He is making satisfactory recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Gabbard and son and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kasey and children enjoyed an outing Sunday afternoon.

We just heard of the sudden death of Ed Hauser, Monday morning at St. Elizabeth Hospital. He was taken to the hospital several days previously but seemed to be much improved when he suddenly passed away. Our sympathy is extended to his family.

Mrs. E. B. Rich suffered an odd accident Sunday. She picked up her daughter, Betty, and in so doing twisted her back. She remained in bed for the remainder of the day. Haven't heard, but hope she is OK today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett called on Mrs. Crout, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Crout is to go to the hospital Wednesday for what looks to be a rather serious operation. Hope she comes thru successfully and is soon well again. Later the Barnetts called on Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kasey.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp visited Thomas Borkers at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Saturday. They reported him resting comfortably. He is to have surgery sometime this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Eero Elmo visited their son and family, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Losey and J. B. visited J. T. Elmore and family on Sunday.

J. B. Losey attended KEA. Mr. and Mrs. Tyrone Payne spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Cora Brinkley.

In Airborne Exercises

Army Sergeant Jack W. Kerns, son of Mrs. H. M. Kerns, 67 Alta Vista Drive, Walton, participated with other personnel from the 101st Airborne Division in Exercise Quick Strike at Fort Campbell and Camp Breckinridge, Ky. The exercise ended April 16.

Kerns, a platoon sergeant in Headquarters Company of the division's 326th Engineer Battalion at Fort Campbell, entered the Army in 1949. His wife, Mavis, lives in Clarksville, Tenn.

At the end of 1959, 8,914 children were receiving casework services, either in homes of parents or relatives, foster homes or state institutions, the Children's Service Division of the Kentucky Department of Economic Security reports.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By C. H. Kingsbury

Jefferson Davis:

Jeff Davis, the Kentuckian who became President of the Confederacy, is back in Washington news.

It seems that when the famous Confederate fled before Union troops, he grabbed his wife's raincoat and shawl. Later, when he was finally captured, the clothing disappeared.

Now, however, they have turned up at the Smithsonian Institute and President Davis's relatives have been asked to present the garments to the museum—officially.

Pair of Spurs:

In addition to the clothes, Uncle Sam also has a pair of Davis spurs. The closest relative is a grandson, living in Colorado.

Most historians identify President Davis as a Mississippian. However, his birthplace is marked at Fairview, Ky., a state park, and he attended school at Transylvania. Later he became a United States Senator before joining the Confederate states.

Today's Topic:

Let's turn to today's problems—improvement of navigation on the Ohio River. A lot of Kentuckians have been in Washington to urge continued work on that muddy stream.

Ernest Mitchell, Covington, and former head of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, told lawmakers that dam building should be stepped up. Steve Wakefield of the Kentucky Department of Conservation sees continued work on important part of water conservation in the Ohio Valley.

Others Speak Up:

An Ashland banker, John W. Woods, Jr., says the price of steel, aluminum, chemicals, and petroleum might come down if navigation is improved.

The Mayor of Henderson, Hecht Lockey, also points a bright picture. Industrial growth along the Ohio, he declares, is just beginning. Another Kentuckian, James Mathews, Owensboro, told congressmen that more work would stimulate Kentucky's economy.

Abraham Lincoln was tried at Lewisport, Ky., in 1827 on a charge of infringement of ferry rights. Although unprepared in law, the 18-year-old Lincoln served as his own attorney and was acquitted. The trial was conducted in the old Pate house, built about 1822.

Pulaski County was named for Count Joseph Pulaski, great Polish patriot and Revolutionary War hero.

Peacemakers

Lesson for May 5, 1960

WAR OR PEACE? The issue cannot be debated any more as it used to be. Once upon a time statesmen of great nations and boys and girls in school, and country people in town of a Saturday night, could talk it over: Is war, or is peace, the best way out of our troubles? Nowadays those who know the facts of this atomic age know that the next war is the last war, that any war means suicide for both sides. War is the death-way out of our troubles. Dr. Foreman

What About Our Enemies

"Blessed are the peacemakers" sounded wonderful in the ears of those who heard Jesus say it; it sounds wonderful today. We wish we knew where the peacemakers are, so that we could give them welcome. We wish we knew how they do it—it often looks so hopeless to us. For "peacemaker" in the year One was thought to mean one who could think out a better way of living than by war. In this dreadful year Nineteen Sixty a peacemaker, if such can be found, is one who can show us how to keep on living at all.

Let us say only one thing about international peace or war. About the least we could hope for would be that the church would not beat the state's drum; that the church would speak up as clearly as scientists and others outside the church have spoken, about the extraordinary danger and folly of depending on H-bombs for safety; and that the church would not let it continue to appear that peace is talked-up, and wished for, only by those on the far side of the iron curtain.

Let us come down to some problems we can do more about. Jesus spoke of hostilities that men have whether their countries are at war or not. He spoke of personal enemies. What shall we do with them?

Treating Enemies With Love

If you are the sort of person who enjoys a fight for the right's sake, if you like to make a row, if peace seems to you a sissy's paradise, then you are not a Christian to begin with. No use talking to you till you join the Christians. But if you really want to live at peace, Jesus has the way to it in one short shocking sentence: LOVE YOUR ENEMIES.

How can this be done? Jesus makes some suggestions, sets up some guidelines. He does not release us from having to work out a great deal by ourselves. First he tells us to take the initiative. If you wait for your enemy to make the first move you may wait forever. It is not cowardly or weak to make the first gesture towards peace.

Peace with your neighbor is the most important project you can have. Jesus makes a striking illustration of this. Suppose you are in the very act of offering a gift at the altar of God, and at that moment it occurs to you that someone has something against you. Getting straight with that person is then the most important thing in your life, more important than even worship. Leave the gift, says our Lord, let the altar be the temple, the place of prayer; go be reconciled to your brother, and then you are free to worship again.

The Church As Peacemaker

Jesus said more, and the reader is invited to look this up in Matt. 5 and Mark 10 and see what he actually said. It all sums up to this: Treat your enemies as you would wish to be treated; treat your enemies as if they were your friends; do for them acts of humble service with patience.

Can the church help in all this? It is the shame of the church that although she is in a good position to help local quarrels get settled, and to say something about international relations (for the church's Lord is called the Prince of Peace, and the church is the only truly international organization in the world), she is too often silent and powerless in the face of internal quarrels and international crises.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in work for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four main reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Service	Chapter	Verse
Sunday	8:00am	Matthew	5:1-12
Monday	8:00am	Matthew	21-24
Tuesday	8:00am	Mark	10:18-21
Wednesday	8:00am	Mark	43-45
Thursday	8:00am	Micah	4:1-4
Friday	8:00am	Micah	4:1-4
Saturday	8:00am	Micah	4:1-4

A Mother's Prayer

Dear God... help me to live up to the faith I see in my child's eyes. Help me to be the person she thinks I am. I am so very human... yet to her I am wise as a sage. I am so very frail... yet to her I am a tower of strength.

I can bind her cuts and bruises... I can soothe her small hurts, both physical and mental... I can give her love... I can protect and cherish her. Yet I can never be half of all I must be, without You to guide me.

Help me... and watch over her. In Your Church, teach her the things that are beyond my power... so that she will one day be a better woman than I; and in her turn, a better mother.

Consumption of protein in Russia and in the United States is exactly the same—88 grams per day. But 57 percent of the protein in the American diet comes from animal sources (what nutritionists call "high-quality, complete" protein); while only 19 percent of the Russian's daily intake of protein is from animal sources.

Sale Bill of 1849

The following is a copy of a sale bill that was printed recently in the Maron Herald which seems rather novel to the people of this progressive day and age, except for a few of our older citizens. Modern inventions and progress together with the enacting of new laws has made practically all of the articles listed for sale useless in this day and age:

"Having sold my farm and I am leaving for 'Oregon Territory' by ox team, will offer March 1, 1849, all of my personal property, to-wit: All ox teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Perry; 2 milk cows, 1 grey mare and colt, 1 pair of oxen and yoke, 1 baby yoke, 2 ox carts,

1 iron foot of poplar weatherboards, plow with mole boards, 800 to 1,000 three-foot clapboards, 1,500 ten-foot fence rails, 1 sixty-gallon soap kettle, 85 sugar troughs made of white ash timber, 10 gallons of maple syrup, 2 resinspinning wheels, 30 pounds of mutton tallow, 1 large loom made by Jerry Wilson, 300 poles, 100 split hoops, 10 empty barrels, 1 32-gallon barrel of Johnson Milder whiskey 7 years old, 20 gallons of apple brandy, 1 40-gallon copper still, 1 dozen real books, 2 handle hooks, 3 scythes and cradles, 1 dozen wooden pitchforks, one-half interest in ton yard, 1 32-calibre rifle, bullet mold and powder horn, rifle made by Ben Miller, 50 gallons of sorghum molasses, 6 head of fox hounds, all soft mouthed except one.

At the same time I will sell my six Negro slaves, 2 men, 45 and 50 years old; 2 boys, 12 and 18 years old; 2 mulatto wenches, 40 and 30 years old. Will sell all together to some party as will not separate them. Terms of sale, cash in hand, or note to draw 4 percent interest with Bob McConnell as surety.

Beechgrove Homemakers

The Beechgrove Homemakers met at the home of Mrs. F. M. Powers with Mrs. Walter Redlin as co-hostess.

Mrs. Varner Stephens, citizenship chairman, reported a birthday party was given for one of the students at the Garrard Street Retarded School, Covington.

Mrs. Frank Afterkirk gave her report on the Advisory Council and said that National Home Demonstration Week would be observed in May. Mrs. F. M. Powers, reading chairman, gave a report on Hawaii, often referred to as the Sandwich Islands. Hawaiian music was played while three of the members modeled native dresses.

Those in attendance were: Mrs. Frank Afterkirk, Mrs. Russell Quick, Mrs. Raymond McHale, Mrs. Howard Clark, Mrs. V. L. Stephens, Mrs. Vera Orr, Mrs. F. M. Powers, Mrs. Paul Nolte, Mrs. Roger Robinson, Mrs. Ann Wolsing, Mrs. William Endres, Mrs. Gus Schadler, Mrs. Raymond Dickson, Mrs. William Clinkenbeard, Mrs. Louis Lee, Mrs. Walter Redlin, Mrs. Virgil W. Kentucky Farm Income Levels For '59 Higher

Kentucky farmers got more money as cash receipts for farm products in 1959 than in 1958, the UK Agricultural Experiment Station economics department, Lexington, said this week.

The farm marketings cash receipts total was $575.4 millions, the department's bi-weekly outlook letter says. In 1958 it was $547.8 millions. Of the 1959 total, crops provided $293.3 millions, up some $44 millions from 1958, while livestock receipts were $282.1 millions, down about $10 million from 1958's total. The tobacco, corn and dairy products income increased, whereas hogs, eggs, calves and soybeans receipts decreased in 1959.

Kentucky farmer's realized net income was up 2 percent in 1959, to $1,650 per farm.

Nationally, net farm income was substantially down in 1959, but still was at about the same level as for 1955, 1956 and 1957.

Number of persons living on U. S. farms was down 1 percent in 1959, but the U. S. per-capita farm income was the highest since 1952, the letter says.

Kentuckians' payments from government were down about $4.7 million dollars in 1959 from the 1958 level. Conservation payments brought in $8.8 million, wool, $1.3 million, and the soil bank, $7.8 million.

In the U. S., prices paid by farmers for their various purchased items were up about 2 percent from 1958; Kentucky's "prices-paid" level was up also but not quite as high as the U. S. level.

Disabled Farmers May Be Eligible For Soc. Sec. Benefits

Through work under social security, thousands of farm people have already qualified for monthly old-age and survivors benefits. Now, according to Wm. C. Noel, manager of the Covington District Office, many farmers, age 50-65, can qualify for disability payments.

Disability payments for farmers, as for anyone else, require a certain amount of social security work and a severe disability.

The work needed is 5 years of social security work (20 quarters) in the ten years before the disability occurs.

The disability must be severe enough to prevent any substantial, gainful work. It must have lasted at least six months and be expected to last indefinitely.

Even if they have had no other type of work, farmers who have self-employment earnings for the years 1955 through 1958, and who will have reportable earnings for 1959, can meet the work requirements as early as October 1959.

A farmer who meets the work and disability requirements can receive payments at the age 50; if under 50, he can qualify for the disability freeze that will benefit him later on.

Mrs. J. A. Kooney—FL 7-5018

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp spent Sunday evening with their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp.

We are glad to say that Thomas Borkers, who had surgery April 25 at St. Elizabeth Hospital, is convalescing satisfactorily.

The meeting held at the Staffordsbury church on Wednesday evening to discuss the problems of retirement, was quite well attended. A speaker from the Social Security office was present to discuss questions pertaining to the opportunities and limitations of that program. Our new county agent, Tom Riley, was quite practical in his remarks. He sold very few get enough from Social Security to provide a living. So each family approaching retirement age should plan some supplementary income. Another meeting is planned for mid-July.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Edwards and sons (the former Evelyn Payne) from Mobile, Ala., are visiting relatives in this vicinity.

Mrs. William Brooks and granddaughters called on Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Deuser, Sunday morning. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks and the girls made a trip recently to visit their son, Clyde Brooks, and family at Camp LeJeune, North Carolina.

Howard Hoffman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hoffman, is home on leave.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Loomis spent Friday with Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kooney.

Several from this section attended the dinner at the Masonic Home at Shelbyville, Sunday.

We learn that Clyde Richardson, who recently had surgery at Fort Knox, has not only left the hospital but has gone to New York to bring home his car which came by boat. Just wish to let our friends know that we will have sweet potato plants soon. Call FL 7-5018.

Lambright at Infirmary

The Lambright Circle had the assistance of W. E. Duchemin, Franklin Breeden, Henry Fornash and some Junior boys and Intermediate boys and girls when they sponsored the devotional and song service at the County Infirmary, Sunday afternoon, April 24.

Members attending were Helen Breeden, Joyce Ryan, Kaye Thompson and Louise Fornash.

FARM BUREAU

in Action
by CH Fields
Kentucky Farm Bureau Fed.

Farm Bureau To Study Farming Government Lands

In 1902, the government owned 3% of America's wealth, outside of land. By 1954, the government owned 27% of the country's wealth, and the current figure is estimated at 30%. In addition, the federal government now owns one acre out of every four of the total land in the country. This figure runs as high as 87% in the case of Nevada. In fact, the federal government owns nearly four percent of the total land area.

The federal government is the world's largest banker, world's largest warehouseman, world's largest insurance company. It is engaged in almost all kinds of business, including food, housing, distribution, electric power, export, import, trucking, shipping, air transport, real estate, printing—and hundreds of others. In fact, the government owns some 700 tax-free, rent-free corporations, which lose $9-billion a year in taxes that would be collected if they were privately owned.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Kentucky Farm Bureau in Louisville, a discussion was held on how inconsistent it was for the federal government to pay farmers to take land out of agricultural production through the Soil Bank and other programs, while at the same time, thousands upon thousands of acres owned by the government are leased out for agricultural purposes.

A special committee has been authorized by the Farm Bureau Board to study this situation, and to recommend an appropriate action to get the government out of the business of farming. It just simply doesn't make sense, in a time when agricultural surplus is a major problem, for various agencies of the government to continue a policy which allows government-held lands to be used to produce agricultural products.

No one knows how much further we will go in the direction of government ownership of business and resources in this country, but the least we could do would be to see to it that government land isn't used in such a way that it adds to the farm surplus problem and creates more problems for hard-working, long suffering farmers who are trying to make a living on their farms and at the same time helping to pay the growing tax load that supports this government business.

The Kentucky Fair and Exposition Center in Louisville, will be the scene of the U. S. Olympic boxing trials.

Boone County Man Seeks Congress Post

John B. Walton, Sr.

John B. Walton, Sr., Burlington, well known Boone county farmer, makes his official bow to the voters of this county in this issue of the Advertiser when he announced his candidacy for the nomination to Congress from the Fifth District, subject to action of the Democratic primary, Tuesday, May 24.

In announcing his candidacy Mr. Walton made the following statement:

"In announcing my candidacy for Congress, I wish to call the voter's attention to the fact that Boone is my native county where I have spent much time at farming. If agriculture is as important a segment of our economic welfare as many believe, it appears imperative that we be better represented in national affairs. That reason primarily has prompted me to enter this congressional race. I am presenting a ten-point platform, the basis of which involves curbing inflation, extravagance, and the corruption that abounds in our government. They are:

- (1) Turn a deafened ear to inflation and work toward true values.
- (2) Pass the economy stamp on all monetary activities.
- (3) Put agriculture abreast with other businesses.
- (4) Slash taxation where possible.
- (5) Labor must have adequate employment.
- (6) Promotion of river transportation.
- (7) Expand our plane and highway programs.
- (8) Not only sop up the rat holes that a balanced budget might be a realiation, but squeeze out a goodly sum for indebtedness.
- (9) Build up a friendly relationship with our Latin American neighbors.
- (10) Be ever mindful of a defense program but lets not be too aggressive.

I seek the opportunity of representing you in Congress and pledge my efforts in accomplishing the goals that these policies represent. Your support solicited."

Goshen Church Has Many Activities Set For The Near Future

Sunday services at Goshen were well attended. It being Mothers Day, the oldest and youngest mother were presented a flower. Mrs. John, was the oldest and Mrs. Bill Whaley was the youngest. Mrs. Burkhardt received the flower for having the most children present. Following Sunday School each mother present was given a potted plant.

The Youth Rally was held Sunday afternoon at Goshen and was well attended.

This year, we have a ball team. We played Kenton Thursday night and they won. Let's all come out for these games and boost our team. Let us all go to the games!

This Sunday there will be a dinner at the church. Let everyone plan to be there for this. The losers in an attendance contest are treating the winners.

This Thursday night is our skating party at Walton Rink—so don't forget.

The Missionary Society met Thursday, May 6 in the church basement with president Ruth Worthington presiding. We opened with prayer and went immediately into business meeting. Minutes were read by Ruby Worthington followed by secretary's report by Esther Glenn. After a delicious noon meal we had our study of Paul and his teachings. We opened this service by singing, led by Ruby. Jessie Denton brought the lesson with Margaret McMillon tracing the Journey on the wall map. We invite you to visit with us at any time. Next meeting is on June 2 with Joan Ashcraft as the teacher.

If you live in our community and are looking for a church home, we invite you to come to our church and hear Bro. Al Morgan.

The Go-Getters Sunday School Class met in the church basement for their April meeting with Joan and Mollie as hostesses and the president, Woodie Worthington, presiding. We decided to invite the Jr. Class taught by Roy Elliott, to visit us at the next meeting. Delicious refreshments were served by Joan and Mollie. The next meeting will be May 20.

Awarded Scholarship

Miss Mona Gail Stephens, Georgetown College, senior, has been awarded a graduate scholarship to Tulane University by the Institute of Mental Health, Education and Welfare.

The scholarship carries a stipend of $1,800 per year plus all tuition and fees. Miss Stephens, who plans to go into the field of social case work, will major in social work in her graduate studies.

She will graduate this month with a major in sociology and a minor in English. While at Georgetown she was named to the Dean's List every semester.

Miss Stephens is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Stephens of Walton, Route 1, and was graduated from Simon Kenton High School in 1956.

Three Girls, Three Boys from Walton to Attend Girl-Boy State

The Walton-Verona High School Junior class will be well represented this summer at Girls State and Boys State Camps. These encampments will be held during mid-June with the girls being on the campus of the University of Kentucky and the boys at Eastern State College. Selections for State camps are made on the basis of leadership, honesty, loyalty, character, courage, cooperativeness and scholarship with each quality having equal weight in making the choices.

Anda Lou Penn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Penn; Betsy Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Jones; and Lynelle Flynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flynn will attend Girls State.

Donald Kemper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kemper; John Hartman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hartman; and Paul Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith will attend Boys State.

The Walton-Verona School is very grateful to the P.T.A., American Legion, Legion Auxiliary, Dan Roberts, and Dixie State Bank for paying the expenses of these young people.

Fraternity Vice-President

Bob Wainscott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Wainscott, Morning View, has been elected vice-president of Kappa Sigma Fraternity for the fall semester of 1960 at U. K. He will be a senior next fall.

Wainscott, former treasurer of the fraternity, is president of the University of Kentucky student body, and a Pre-Med major.

Mrs. Smith Gibson was installed as president of the Simon Kenton P.T.A. recently at the school with Mrs. Shelby Kinney, president of the Kenton County Council of Parents and Teachers, as installing officer. Others installed were Mrs. Charles Wainscott, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Blake, secretary; and Mrs. Jake Isaacs, treasurer.

Mrs. Clifford B. Hymer, retiring president, presided at the business session at which time amendments to the by-laws were read and approved.

Upon accepting her office as president, Mrs. Gibson named chairman who will serve with the officers for 1960-61. They are: Mrs. Clifford B. Hymer, program; Mrs. Elmer Lee, hospitality; Mrs. Chester Rapp, mem-

Owen County REC Celebrated their 25th Anniversary May 11

May 11 was a day of particular significance to consumer members of the Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative, according to C. A. Richardson, co-op manager. This day marked the 25th anniversary of the rural electric co-operatives in Kentucky, as well as in the nation.

Owen County Co-op embraces the counties of Scott, Carroll, Owen, Grant, Kenton, Pendleton, Campbell, Gallatin, and Boone. It includes a total of 9,059 consumers on 2,768 miles of line.

Twenty-five years ago rural America was a "dark land" lighted at night by kerosene lanterns. Today, 97 percent of the farms in Kentucky enjoy the benefits of electricity.

In observing the anniversary, the 27 co-ops representing 230,000 consumers haven't overlooked the recognition due the men and women who gave their time and energy to setting up the co-operative system in Kentucky. Mr. Richardson said. He noted that the average consumer in Kentucky uses 340 kilowatt hours per month as compared to 40 in 1935.

Co-op officials marked the anniversary with a special program conducted in Louisville, Monday.

MISSION AT ALL SAINTS

Rev. Robert Vatter

Rev. Robert Vatter of All Saints Church, Walton, announces that the Rev. Albert Fuyntick, C. S. R., of the Redemptorist Order, will conduct a mission at All Saints Church, during the week of May 15-22.

Services will begin on Sunday evening, May 15, at 7:30 p. m. Mission services will be conducted each weekday at 6:30 and 8:30 a. m., and also each evening at 7:45. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

On All Important Business Transacted

The business transacted by the Boards of Education in the State of Kentucky is public business. Therefore the minutes of the meetings held by the Boards of Education are available to the public at any time any citizen desires to read them.

The Walton-Verona Board of Education has always held open meetings and would appreciate more people attending the meetings or coming to read the minutes of the sessions. However, because of the fact that some people do not know that they would be welcome or are reluctant to visit or ask about the business transacted at these meetings, an attempt is being made to publish the minutes of each meeting.

It is the desire of the board and superintendent to better inform the public as to what is happening in their schools. Therefore, it is the plan to not only publish all minutes of board meetings but to publish all worthy school news of interest.

The following business was transacted at recent board meetings:

March 14—Entered into a health contract with the Boone County Health Department at a $500 fee.

April 5—All presently employed, qualified teachers were hired for the 1960-61 school year; emergency teachers cannot be employed until fall. Hired Kenneth Vest, Marcus Carey and Francis Walden as bus drivers for the 1960-61 school year. Employed the following lunchroom personnel for the 1960-61 school year at Walton: Beulah Smith, manager; Myrtle Young, Myrtle Hammond and Margaret Jamerson; Kathryn Hopperton was employed at the Verona school. Employed Arnold Alford as janitor of the Walton school for the 1960-61 school year. Approved the 1960 textbook adoption of the 1960-61 adoption period for grades 1-12. Approved the amended 1959-60 school calendar to make up the days lost because of snow.

Requests that contracts of agreement for the non-resident pupils be sent to Boone, Grant, Kenton and Gallatin counties. Authorized the payment of current bills and the 7th month teachers salary.

May 2—Hired Herman Caldwell as janitor of the Verona school for the 1960-61 school year. Employed George Benson as a full time teacher for the 1960-61 school year; his employment includes a 1960 summer music program. Authorized payment of current bills and the 8th month teachers salaries.

Help For the Blind:

Young Congressman Frank Burke of Louisville is trying to get Uncle Sam to help in the education of blind children.

To accomplish this worthwhile task, the Kentucky lawmaker wants to amend a law passed 81 years ago. He is asking the Federal Government to make teaching material available to all schools where the young sightless are students.

In the past, Congressman Burke pointed out, such help went only to those institutions where blind children were the only students.

Boating On the River:

The outlook for more recreation areas along the Ohio River is on a touch-and-go basis.

Army engineers, building those big locks and dams, have asked for $600,000 to construct 16 parking places and ramps. Under present plans, two will be built in the Markland-Warshaw area and two more near the site of the New Richmond Dam. Several others will be located close to the site of the old dams which will, of course, be eliminated. Still others, so the word goes, will be constructed along the tributaries. It's up to Congress now.

Business Loans:

A West Virginia lawmaker is urging the Small Business Administration to make loans to citizens in depressed areas. Naturally, he points to the need for industry in his own state.

However, he also includes a story for Kentucky. The Blue Grass State has obtained 232 such loans for a total of a little more than ten million dollars.

West Virginia, he points out, has not fared as well. He is irate.

100 Years:

How long will it take Kentucky to re-plant all the trees needed to meet the need for new timber?

Well, unless the rate is stepped up, it will take more than 100 years. We have that on the authority of Senator Mansfield of Montana, an expert on forestry.

He said that in 1959, Kentucky planted 13,300 acres in trees, not including such federal land as national forests.

For Successful Decorating Choose Patterns Wisely

Pleasing results with spring redecorating can depend on your choice of pattern in home furnishings items, according to Kathryn Sebree, UK Extension specialist in home furnishings, Lexington.

Many colorful and interesting patterns are available on the furnishings market this spring. A wisely-chosen pattern can add charm and beauty to your home, Miss Sebree says.

Remember to keep a balance of plain and patterned areas in each room; plain areas complement the patterned ones. Keep in mind that your furniture, pictures and accessories make patterns against the walls even before wallpaper, rugs and fabrics are added.

One large-scale, distinct pattern is enough for one room. Two distinct patterns in strong colors compete with each other when placed in the same room, she warns. Small-scale patterns, stripes or tweed often may be used in the same room with one large-scale pattern.

Bright colors in a pattern shout for your attention; a gay, lively pattern gives a room a cheerful appearance. Soft, pastel colors in a pattern only "whisper," thus demanding less attention; they create a restful room.

Not all rooms need a large, distinct pattern to be attractive, she points out. Many rooms achieve their beauty through well-chosen colors and textures rather than through pattern.

The period of your furniture can be a guide in choosing patterns, Miss Sebree concludes. Small, provincial prints, with such figures as medallions, go well with Early American furnishings. Plaids, stripes, rectangles and squares combine satisfactorily with modern furnishings; larger florals and scenic prints often complement period furnishings.

Bible School Lessons

Bible Material: Matthew 5:10-16; 12:31-35
Devotional Reading: Philippians 1:21-30.

Welcome, All

Lesson for May 16, 1960

"IT TAKES all kinds of people to make a world," but sometimes we wish it didn't. Even good people get us down, sometimes, and as for the people who are not good—the robots and the rats, the hypocrites and the hoodlums—it would be wonderful if we knew we didn't have to worry with a one of them any more.

But here they are and here we are, all in one world. If you want to keep clear away from no-account people, you will just have to get out of this world. At least Paul found it so in his time (1 Corinthians 5:9, 10), and it is still true. Christians do live in "society," that is, in the great gathering of mankind. The whole human race are our cousins, and they seem to be on our doorstep—or we on theirs—most of the time.

Christians Are Different

Christians have always been outnumbered in this world. Even including all the nominal Christians we make up scarcely more than half the population of the U.S.A. (A nominal Christian has been defined as one who goes to church, or more precisely is dragged there, three times in his life; once he is sprinkled with water, a second time to be sprinkled with rice, and the last time to be sprinkled with ashes.) Real Christians are so scarce as to be noticeable. And when you do see a real Christian, there is one thing sure: he is different. He just doesn't see things the way most people do. He doesn't treat people as most others do. He has a rather special approach to the problems of living. He is so rare, the real Christian, that the advertising men, aiming at "mass man," never appeal to Christians. The motives appealed to by most advertising—judging by what this writer has seen—are not Christian motives. A real Christian, in short (meaning one who has a close resemblance to Jesus Christ, because he has the mind of Christ and Christ lives in him), will be marked off as peculiar.

Once there was a little boy in a Kentucky village who was different from all other little boys there, on two counts. He wore glasses, and he played the fiddle. (You were not supposed to indulge in either of these till you were old and grey.) So all the other boys would make this boy live hard. "Hit him!" they would yell as a dozen or more piled on him at once. "Hit him! He plays the fiddle!"

This is not only a true story but a parable of life in this world. People fear and hate what is different. Not all people show this hate and fear, not all feel it. But enough of the people in Jerusalem hated and feared Jesus who came understandingly different from them, so bitterly that they could scream "Crucify him!" Ever since then, Christians have been unwelcome in a non-Christian society. "We unto you when ALL men speak well of you," Jesus said (Luke 6:26). If everybody speaks well of you, it shows you have no real character, you appeal to too many opposite kinds of people! Suppose our Lord had tried to please every one?

Christians Are Welcome

All the same, and you can call it a paradox if you like—all the same, Christians are welcome, even among those who can't see their point of view. Jesus called his followers "salt" and "light." Salt and light operated by contact, and so do Christians. Jesus assumed that his people would make direct contact with the human world around them, even as he did. Now people are seldom actively grateful either for salt or light. But they gripe when they are left in the dark, they complain when they have to eat food without salt. Perhaps "Christians are welcome" is saying it too strongly. "Christians are needed" would come closer to the bull's-eye. Towns without Christians may interest TV fans; but who wants to live in one? No business firm is going to send its best men to live in the worst towns. Indeed no parents want to send their children to school in the least Christian parts of town. Even people who never darken the doors of a church would not like to live where no churches are.

Serve raisins as snacks for the youngsters or as a convenient, nutritious item for the lunch box.

The Master's Touch

God must love beauty, to use it so lavishly. The Master Artist dapples the soft green leaves with golden sunshine, turns the brook to flowing crystal, and puts a song into Spring itself.

There is beauty in us, too . . . because He put it there. In His sight, none of us are ugly, none of us are forsaken, none of us are "lost."

But sometimes, in the busy process of day-to-day living, we turn blind eyes upon the world's loveliness, and take for granted the gifts which should brighten the hours and years. We need a faith that gives us vision to find again the inner beauty He gave us in the beginning . . . a gift which He never takes away. Let us go, then, to His Church. Let us "enter into His gates with thanksgiving . . . for the Lord is good; His mercy is everlasting; and His Truth endureth forever."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL
ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a nucleus of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

This advertisement, first published in June of last year, was received with immediate and widespread acclaim throughout the South. In response to many suggestions that its inspiring message bears repeating, we are happy to do so at this time.

STAY SOUTH, YOUNG MAN!

WHERE WERE YOUR DREAMS for the future, on your glorious day of Graduation? Were they up in the clouds where they belong, because horizons are as limitless as the skies today for young men of character and competence, vision and faith?

Hold those dreams high, young man, and stay South to see them come true. For right here at home, in the South you know and live in and love, a great new opportunity-land is coming of age, where dreams that are born on the wings of a star can come down to earth and grow into reality.

A recent U. S. Department of Commerce report shows that since World War II the economic development of the South has outpaced the national rate of growth in almost every category you can name. Along Southern Railway lines alone, in the 8-year period 1952 to 1960, there have been 2,690 major industrial developments representing an investment of more than $4 billion.

Look ahead—stay South, young man. Stay South and grow with America's "youngster" opportunity-land.

Cook the carefree ELECTRIC way

Cook electrically... and save yourself hours of kitchen time.

Maybe you want to relax a little with the children before dinner... catch up on some mending... read or shop.

You can do it... without a worry. Nothing's going to burn or boil-over on an automatic electric range. Controlled heat watches dinner for you.

Everything will be cooked to perfection! Even the vegetables will contribute more to your family's health... because they're cooked virtually waterless.

And cooking electrically costs less, too... compared to other modern methods in use... out beyond the city gas mains.

See the newest in electric ranges now in C & E's Lobby, Fourth and Main, downtown Cincinnati.

Mr. S. B. Bates learned last week of the death of his sister, Mrs. Gertrude Travis, in Greenfield, Tenn. He was unable to attend the funeral but his son, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bates, went to Tennessee for the funeral.

Mrs. Claude Stafford, Sr., is quite ill in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mrs. Sylvia Perry has been quite sick with a strep throat for the past week.

Chester Talient attended the Air Force Survival School in Ohio last week-end.

Mrs. Gilbert Halberstadt's father is much improved and hopes to be able to come home from the hospital this week.

The G.A.s of Oak Ridge Baptist Church will have a Mother-Daughter Banquet on Saturday night, May 14 at 7 p.m.

The Oak Ridge Baptist Church is sponsoring a skating party at Lloyd's Skating Rink on Thursday night, May 12. The church bus will leave the church at 6:45 p.m.

Mr. Ed Wintering is quite ill in St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Wintering and daughter, Carol, spent the week-end at Williamstown Lake.

The Simon Kenton High School Band and Glee Club had a lovely Spring Concert on Sunday afternoon, with several special numbers in honor of Mother's Day.

Card of Thanks—

I wish I could personally thank all the fine people who remembered me while I was in the hospital. Since that is impossible, I will take this means of expressing my gratitude. Especially do I want to thank the Oak Island Homemakers for the flowers. I shall ever be grateful for these expressions of kindness.

NOTICE

To All Users of Owen County R.E.C.C. Electric Power:

We, the service and construction employees of Owen County RECC, wish to make known to you, our employers, the kind of treatment that your Board of Directors is imposing upon us.

First, the Board of Directors has refused to negotiate with us concerning wages and conditions of employment.

They have given the following raises to office personnel:

Richardson.....increase of $50 per month-$600 per year
Keith.....increase of $50 per month-$600 per year
Curtis.....increase of $47 per month-$564 per year
Marksberry.....increase of $50 per month-$600 per year
Wiser.....increase of $75 per month-$900 per year
Forkner.....increase of $25 per month-$300 per year
Brown.....increase of $22 per month-$264 per year
Oakes.....increase of $36 per month-$432 per year

They have offered us 7c per hour which is an increase of $145.60 per year, based on 40 hours per week. We ask you to be the Judge. Is this fair? We are the ones who are called out to service your lines at all times and in all kinds of weather. We are being treated as second-class citizens. We have asked for 10c per hour increase—which is only $208 per year. Much less than what the favored few received.

You can help us by calling your Board of Directors and the RECC office protesting the way we are being treated. We are receiving approximately 75c per hour less than Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company employees who are doing the same class of work.

Construction Employees

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—FL 7-5018

We are glad to hear that Mrs. A. Crout, who had surgery at Jewish Hospital last week, is making good progress and hopes to be home quite soon. We hope she is well before long.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Losey enjoyed the company of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sayle of Owenton, Ky., on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett spent the weekend with their daughter and family, Rev. and Mrs. Roy Martin, of Lagrange, Ky.

J. A. Keeney was much surprised when a long-time friend, Lamar Center, stopped by to visit a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Rapp and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Rapp and children were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Denver Binder, Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Sturgeon is in St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment. We hope she is soon home and well.

On their way home from Lagrange, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Barnett visited a short time with Rev. and Mrs. Miller at Bedford, Ky. They found all fine except the baby.

Little Janet Barnett lost several days from school when had had the mumps recently.

T. B. Stephens of Latonia, called on Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Keeney, Saturday. He reports that his wife, who has been ill for many months, is quite a lot improved.

The Homemakers Club will meet at the church, Tuesday.

Again something to add to the beauty of the sanctuary here—Miss Emma Yates had the pulpit furniture refinished. It is just as pretty, maybe prettier, than new and has the added value of long association. Everyone seemed to appreciate the gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Carsee Brinkley were delighted to get a letter from their son who recently was ordered from Fort Knox to Washington, D. C. He reports that Army life there is quite busy and also interesting.

Glad to report that Thomas Barkers is doing fine. He will spend a few days at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Karl Rice.

The W. S. C. S. will meet Thursday evening at the church.

The Keeney's enjoyed visits from all of their children in reach over the weekend: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Keeney and sons, Friday evening; Mrs. John Klette and Ruth, Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Morris Whorton and children over the weekend.

VERONA

Florence Edgington, Editor

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Searles, and son of North Carolina, were calling on his aunt, Mrs. Belva Williams, Saturday afternoon. He is with the Marine Corps and is on leave. He will return to North Carolina the last of the month.

Mrs. Iris Hughes spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edgington.

We are sorry to know Mrs. Jesse McMillan, who left the hospital last Sunday, had to be rushed back to the hospital Monday. They think it might be a blood clot. We hope for her speedy recovery.

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Mrs. Bessie Webster of Ryle, Gallatin county. We extend our sympathy to her husband, Lindsey, and son, Ray, as well as other relatives in the passing of their loved one.

Mrs. Mag Chapman and Mrs. Vevie Webster entertained Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert King, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Webster and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Webster.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Harris of Missouri, spent Saturday night and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Lena Harris, and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kemper and sons. They went back to their home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Scott had as guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George Scott and two children of Dayton, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Davenport of Falmouth, and Jackie Scott of Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. Ellena Hamilton and daughter, Karen, were calling on her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Habart Greenwell, Sunday afternoon.

We are sorry to hear of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Arch Waller's baby having spinal meningitis. We are glad it is some better, and hope it fully recovers soon.

We are sorry to hear of Mrs. W. B. Stamper having a stroke last week. She cannot use her left arm.

We hope for her speedy recovery. Hayes Stephenson's father still remains very ill, we are sorry to report.

Young People And The Social Security Program

This article is written primarily for the younger people who will soon be out of school, and seeking employment. For some, summertime means the chance to take a job and earn a little spending money. For others, school days will be over for good, and looking for a job means the start of a working career.

The Social Security Administration is very much interested in our young citizens, because we know if our younger people understand the underlying principles of the Social Security Program now, that they will retain it throughout their lives.

The first step in making certain that one receives full credit for all of his earnings is to make certain that the employer has an accurate record of his name and social security number. The account number card is something more than a printed card bearing a name and number. It is the key to participation in the largest insurance program in the world.

At the present time, Social Security Offices throughout the country are issuing new cards in record-breaking numbers. Each of the new holders of one of these cards will start to receive credit for his or her earnings, the first day on the job.

So, guard your rights under the law. If you are working now, and do not yet have a Social Security Card—don't delay any longer. Application forms to secure a card may be obtained at any Post Office, or by applying directly to any Social Security Office. The office servicing the area known as Northern Kentucky is located at 309 Howard St., Covington, Ky. Make use of our services; we are here to help you.

Skit Third In District

The Sixth Grade 4-H Club of Piner School was the Kenton county club winner which represented the county in the District Talent program at Williamson.

The club skit was called, "The Troublesome Ford." The club leader is Mrs. William R. Brown, and the overall school leader is Mr. Brown. The piano accompanist was Mrs. E. L. Steinhilber. The club won third place in the district.

Thursday night, May 19, will be the final 4-H meeting of the year. It will be held at 7:45 in the gym, and the public is invited. All members will have part in the program. There will be a style show of the sewing units and many of the projects will be on display.

Bethany Class Meeting

The Bethany Class of Walton Baptist Church, Walton, will meet Friday evening, May 21 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Johnson at 7:30 p.m.

U. S. D. A. Posts Walton Livestock Auction Market

Charlie Steers, manager of the Walton Sales Barn, reports that the market is now posted under the Packers and Stockyards Act, which is administered by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The Walton market is one of the 63 livestock auction markets in Kentucky which have been posted by the U. S. Department of Agriculture, according to M. L. Marshall, district supervisor of USDA's Packers and Stockyards Branch office in Cincinnati.

USDA notices which state the livestock auction markets are subject to the P&S Act have been posted in conspicuous places at all markets now operating in Kentucky. A 1958 amendment to the P&S Act extended USDA jurisdiction to all local livestock markets which handle livestock that moves in interstate commerce. Previously only open markets with 20,000 or more square feet were covered.

The P&S Act, Marshall explained, is a fair business practice law which applies to persons or firms engaged in marketing or handling of livestock in interstate commerce. Under the act, a livestock auction market can assess only reasonable and non-discriminatory charges for handling, selling, yardage, and fees which must be approved by USDA.

Market scales also must meet an official rigid "tolerance" test every six months, and all market firms are required to keep complete records of all livestock transactions in their business.

In addition to the posting of auction markets, approximately 100 Kentucky livestock dealers and buyers have been registered, Marshall said. The amended P&S Act requires livestock dealers, pack buyers, and market agencies operating in interstate commerce to register with USDA. These dealers and market agencies also are required to furnish bond based on their volume of business.

Officers Elected By W-V Alumni At Annual Dinner

The Walton-Verona Alumni Association held its annual dinner-meeting at the local high school gym on Saturday, May 7.

The dinner was prepared by the PTA ladies and served by men members of the organization, and it was all very nice.

Truett DeMosey, president of the organization from the past year, conducted the business session, at which time new officers were elected. They included O. G. Loomis, South Fort Mitchell, president; Russell Groger, Walton, vice president; Mildred Young Cleek, Walton, secretary, and Evelyn Phillips Sizemore, Walton, treasurer.

During the program, the class of 1935 was honored, its twenty-fifth anniversary, and Robert Stephenson was the speaker. The basketball teams of 1930, 1933 and 1942 also were honored. Speakers for these teams were John R. DeMosey, N. T. Welsh, and Russell Groger.

Annual Mail Box Improvement Program

The Post Office Department has designated the week of May 16-21 as Mail Box Improvement Week.

The postmaster and carrier wish to encourage patrons to provide suitable mail receptacles, erected and maintained for easy and safe accessibility, presenting a neat appearance, and affording protection to the mail. Ask your carrier for recommendation for your box.

Hold Final Meeting

The Walton-Verona P.T.A. will hold its final meeting Monday, May 23rd at 7:30 p.m. in the school gym. There will be a brief business meeting followed by a social hour. Refreshments will be served.

Walton Boy Scouts will do a good turn for the handicapped and needy on Sunday, May 22 as they collect bags of clothing, shoes and other articles for the United Clothing Drive.

Scouts of Troop 99, which is sponsored by the Walton Volunteer Fire Department, will cover the immediate Walton area. Trucks to haul the material will be furnished by Groger Express Company.

Anyone having old clothing, shoes or other articles to give is asked to place the material in a box or bag on their front porch Sunday, May 22 by 1:00 p.m. The Walton Fire Department has agreed to serve as a collection station so that Walton residents who do not get their material picked up for any reason can drop it

All Electric Home On Exhibit May 29 Near Falmouth

The new all-electric home of Mr. and Mrs. John Griffin of near Falmouth will observe "Open House" on Sunday, May 29, to permit the public to see this "modern wonder of living."

The 15-room brick veneer home is heated electrically, air conditioned, has an inter-com system and everything about the house is electric. It is the largest electrically-heated residence in the state of Kentucky and has been awarded the coveted "Gold Medallion."

Other features of the new home are one-floor construction, full basement, modern recreational facilities, four baths, a 4-car garage, and a private chapel. It is a veritable castle for the Griffins and their eleven children.

The Owen County Rural Electric Cooperative corporation, Owenton, serves the home with electric power. The public is cordially invited to visit the home on Sunday, May 29, from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. (EST). It is located on U. S. 27, 3 1/2 miles north of Falmouth, and is 1 1/4 miles north of Junction Ky. 22 and U. S. 27.

Independence Social

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Independence Volunteer Fire Department will hold a cash social Saturday, May 21st, at 8:30 p. m., in the fire house. Refreshments will be available.

REVIVAL SERVICES

A Holy Ghost Revival will be held at the Community Pentecostal Church of God, State Route 16, Whites Tower, beginning May 23 at 7:30 p.m. The evangelist will be Rev. J. E. Walters, pastor and radio minister of Dayton, Ohio.

Special singing, preaching and prayer for the sick nightly. Everyone is welcome. Rev. E. Rowland is the pastor.

Brooks House Damaged

The home of Mrs. Doretta Brooks, in Walton, was extensively damaged by fire and water Wednesday, May 11. The fire had quite a start when it was discovered by Mrs. Charles Sizemore, who with her husband and daughter, live on the second floor. The entire furniture and clothing of the Sizemores were destroyed. The lower floor where Mrs. Brooks lived, was badly damaged by water.

Material collected in the United Clothing Drive will be sent to St. Vincent de Paul Society and to the Northern Kentucky Goodwill Industries to be used in their programs to aid to the needy and handicapped of the Northern Kentucky area.

Mayor and Mrs. Hall are pictured giving their bag of clothing to Scouts Bob Jones and Marvin Hudson. Mr. Hall urges all citizens to cooperate by having clothing ready for pickup.

Eight hundred Scouts from Northern Kentucky will be participating in the United Clothing Drive on Sunday afternoon, May 22.

Theme for the drive is: "Don't pitch out, Pitch In."

Phoenix Hotel Sold

The hotel-restaurant, known as the Phoenix, in Walton, was sold at public auction last Saturday and was bought by Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo O'Rourke, Walton, Ky., Route 1 for the price of $14,250.00.

The contents of the building was sold separately, and a complete price was not available.

The Standardized Testing Program In Use at W-V

The standardized testing program for the Walton-Verona students was started last week and will continue through this week. An attempt is being made to switch from spring testing to fall testing. The thinking behind this is that after giving the standardized test in the fall a teacher would have the students for about a year in which to help them with their weakness.

Achievement tests have been given to the sixth and seventh grades, on Algebra prognosis test to the eighth grade, Kentucky classification battery test to the ninth, tenth and eleventh grades, and IQ tests to the ninth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

Also in connection with the testing and guidance program, a cumulative record folder has been put into use for all students through the seventh grade. All of the faculty in the Walton-Verona schools are deeply interested in making the best use of test results and at the same time everyone realizes that standardized tests can not be a substitute in regard to measuring abilities of children. With these two things in mind we hope to make changes in our testing program that will help parents, teachers and students know their abilities and be able to do something about these abilities, Mr. Robinson said.

The Walton-Verona Teachers Association will hold its annual spring dinner meeting at Robertson's Restaurant, Thursday, May 19th, at 6:30 p. m.

Grocery Changes Hands

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Cornelius of Atwood, recently purchased the Dixie Grocery, Main St., Walton, from Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Presser. Mrs. Cornelius is operating the store, while her husband continues his barber business.

Methodist Men Organize, Elect Officers May 12

On May 12, the first meeting of the Methodist Men's Organization was held in the Walton Methodist Church, following a dinner, which will be given at each of the future monthly meetings.

The purpose of Methodist Men is the development of the spiritual life of the men of the church, to seek daily Christ's way of life, to develop Christian fellowship in the church, and many other fine objectives that will be outlined in the charter.

Sixteen men were present at the first meeting, and officers elected are: President, Dan Roberts; vice-president, John Gray; secretary and treasurer, Randall Martin. All men in the church are urged to join this very fine organization. You do not have to be a member of the Methodist Church to belong and everyone is cordially invited. Meetings will be held on the second Thursday of each month at 7:00 p. m.

Twenty-three To Graduate May 26

Commencement exercises will be held at Walton-Verona High School on May 22 and 24, according to Supt. Eugene Robinson.

Baccalaureate services are set for Sunday, May 22 at 8:00 p. m., in the school gymnasium. The speaker will be Rev. George Fiske, pastor of the Walton Christian Church. The High School Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Lucile B. Hudson, will appear on the program, singing two numbers.

The Class Night program will be presented Tuesday, May 24, in the school gym.

Commencement will be held at 8:00 p. m., Thursday, May 26, in the gym. The speaker on this occasion will be J. M. Dodson, Executive Secretary of the K. E. A. Mrs. Hudson's chorus will again appear, and also on the program will be the High School band, under the direction of George Benson.

Mr. Dodson has devoted years of his life to the betterment of schools in Kentucky. He is a dedicated man, always striving to give the children of this state better educational opportunities. Take advantage of this chance to hear a man so devoted to education.

Twenty-three seniors will receive their diplomas this year, according to Mr. Robinson. They are: Huberta Arnold, Patsy Edin, Susan Gerth, Jennie Gaston, Katherine Ingram, Alma Kannady, Norma Locke, Linda Rosenfield, Betty Simpson, Nola Yates, Carol Wilson.

David Afterick, Ray Chesman, William Code, Chris Crutcher, Edward Dancake, Gary Hicks, John Locke, Ernest McCune, Deane Poore, Walter Puckett, Robert Ryan, and James Stephenson.

MRS. EVA CARVER

Mrs. Eva C. Carver, 88, died on Tuesday at her home in Petersburg. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Alice Holloway and Mrs. Lillian Stephens of Petersburg, and Mrs. Agnes Myers of Cincinnati, and a son, Perry Carver, Petersburg.

Services will be held at 2:00 p. m. this afternoon in the Petersburg Christian Church. Burial will be in Petersburg Cemetery.

Chambers and Grubbs Funeral Home, Florence, had charge.

COOPERATION is a Kentucky tradition!

THRESHING GRAIN OR LIGHTING FARMS!

A Kentucky farmer knows that he may count on his neighbors. Whenever there's a big job to be done the whole countryside is liable to pitch in to make the job faster and easier. Lending a hand at threshing time is a Kentucky tradition of neighborliness that can be traced back to the earliest days of our state.

Rural electrification is neighborly cooperation, too. Kentucky's Rural Electric Co-ops... created by folks who got together to make a better life for themselves... are a good example of how neighborly cooperation serves our Commonwealth. As the countryside has brightened and prospered, so the townspeople have benefited too. The new rural prosperity made possible by electrification is spent in cities and towns.

Strawberry Mites Should Be Controlled

Kelthane insecticide is a good material to use on strawberry plots for control of mites, the tiny bugs that can cause considerable browning of foliage and resultant small berries.

J. G. Rodriguez, UK Experiment Station entomologist, Lexington, said this week that dry years are particularly favorable to mite development. And mites are so tiny—smaller than a pinhead—the pests can build up to heavy "populations" before they are discovered.

Strawberry plot foliage often turns brown under the attacks of mites but farmers frequently attribute the browning to fertilizer burning. Each female mite will lay about 100 eggs, and a new generation will hatch in about a week.

Kelthane is relatively safe to use, about as safe as Malathion, Rodriguez says. Kelthane may be used up to two days before harvest. Two pounds of the 18.5 percent Kelthane wettable powder in from 100 to 250 gallons of water is recommended, depending on equipment used. Malathion has been used a number of years with success but in many areas mites are now resistant to Malathion and other organic phosphates such as Parathion. Kelthane is effective against these resistant mites.

In 1959, a very dry year for strawberry production, field losses ran as high as 30 to 40 percent in some areas from mite infestations. Many persons have to use magnifying glasses to examine plants for mite presence; for that reason mite populations build up sometimes to heavy degree before growers realize the plants are being sapped of their needed nutrients.

FARM BUREAU

Kentucky Farm Bureau Fed.

Farm Bureau Seeking Equality For Farmers In Sales Tax Rulings

Farm Bureau officials in Louisville are working closely with State Revenue Commissioner William Scent and other state officials in an attempt to work out additional sales tax regulations that pertain to production expenses of farmers. In these negotiations with officials in Frankfort, Farm Bureau is taking the position that agriculture is the number one industry in Kentucky, and that it should receive equal treatment with all other industry when it comes to collection of the new tax on production items.

Before final passage of the sales and use tax by the 1960 General Assembly, Farm Bureau was instrumental in placing exemptions for feed, seed, fertilizer and livestock purchases in the law itself. These items make up a significant portion of the production expenses of agriculture; but other items such as machinery and equipment, insecticides, chemicals, implements, veterinary medicines and many others have not been exempted from the tax.

In a recent regulation issued by the Department of Revenue, it was announced that the tax would be collected only on the difference in the trade-in value and purchase price on machinery of all kinds. This ruling will also apply to farm tractors and other equipment. John W. Koon, executive secretary of the Kentucky Farm Bureau, is a member of the Governor's advisory committee on the new sales tax, and has met many times with this committee to assist in the writing of regulations that will be used by the Department in the administration of the new law.

Farm Bureau is not asking for anything less or more than equality in the administration of the sales tax law. As an original supporter of this tax as a means of reducing the income tax and broadening the tax base, Farm Bureau is vitally interested in seeing to it that the tax is administered fairly to all concerned.

As consumers of consumer goods like everyone else, farm people will be paying their fair share of the new tax, but they believe that it should not be collected twice by taxing items that go into the production of consumer goods.

Flock Replacement Supply May Be Short

Kentucky poultry farmers with egg-production flocks were cautioned today that replacement pullets may be in short supply this year.

C. E. Harris, UK Cooperative Extension Service poultryman, Lexington, outlines these points for farmer consideration:

1) In the first quarter of 1960 (January-March) number of pullets in egg strains were down 37 percent from 1959 in the nation. In Kentucky, the number available for replacement was actually down 52 percent. These are the birds which would normally go into egg production this fall.

2) Number of eggs in incubators in the U. S. April 1, 1960 was down 27 percent in the United States. Pullets developing from this hatch would go into production later in 1960.

3) Number of "started" pullets (ready-to-lay birds) is down considerably in the nation and Kentucky. Harris pointed out that these present or anticipated shortages should be considered by Kentucky poultrymen in their planning.

Persons having pullets should give the birds exceptional care to mature them for fall production, he added.

Sincere Religion

Lesson for May 22, 1960

THE Greeks had a word for it. One of their words which we translate by the word "sincere" meant looking the same in all lights. The old-fashioned crooked merchant did not keep his store well lighted. If you were buying cloth, or anything made of cloth you had to take it to the front of the store where you could get a good look at your purchase by daylight. And you wouldn't buy, unless what had looked good to you inside the store looked just as good on the outside.

A sincere man is likewise a man who looks the same in all lights. He is the same around the clock. You know what he is like and you know he will stay that way. He says what he thinks and hopes people will agree with him; but if they don't, he still says what he thinks.

The Romans had a name for it too, a word which is the direct ancestor of our word "sincere." It is said that the original word meant "without wax," and referred to fine porcelain or alabaster that did not have cracks and holes filled up by wax. A sincere person thus would be one who is what he seems to be. He is not synthetic, he is real. He is not fragile, he is solid.

Sincere Prayer

Of all human activities, you would think that religion would be the most free from insincerity. But everybody knows how hypocrites collect around churches, and every Christian knows how hard it is to be sincere all the time. Jesus never used the word "sincere" but he often referred to hypocrites, who are the opposite of sincere. As usual, Jesus expressed what he meant by illustrations, not by long words.

Let us define sincere religion in terms of a sincerely religious person.

(There is not any such thing, of course, as "religion" by itself. It is always in people. Anything on paper, like this column for instance, or even the Bible, can only point you to religious persons.) According to Jesus, the person whose prayers are heard by God and whom God rewards in the end, is a person who really prays to God and not for a show-off. Hypocrites, he said, pray while thinking about how their prayers will impress other people. They want people to know they are praying. Now maybe many a Christian who doesn't pray to impress other people does pray to impress himself. He is extremely careful about his language, as if he were writing the prayer for a class in English. He is careful about how long it is, and so on. Many people are afraid to pray in public, not because God might not like it, but because some human being would smile at it. Isn't that ridiculous?

Sincere Generosity

A religious person prays, a religious person is generous. We all agree on that. But not every one who prays, and gives to the church, is religious in the way Jesus expects his followers to be. Insincerity spoils it all. If prayer is a form of self-advertising, then it is a worthless prayer. And if generosity is a form of self-advertising, then it is worthless too. The sure way to be certain you are really generous is to ask yourself: "Would I be just as generous if no one knew about it? To want to get 'credit' for the good actions you do shows that you are not sincere. What you really are after, in that case, is not to help others but to boost your own stock."

There are two kinds of people in particular who are perhaps more tempted to sincerity in religion than most people are: Preachers and parents. This is because they are supposed to set good examples, and because they live in plain view of the people (church members, or children) whom they are supposed to influence for good. The Pharisees of Jesus' time were also looked up to as religious leaders. But they fell for the temptation of "putting on a show." To be religious because people expect you to be; to be religious because you have to be; to be religious because you want your example to be seen far and wide; to be religious for any reason at all except first of all and above all to please God, is to be a religious fake.

FOUR STRINGS

Only four strings! But these four strings offer endless possibilities of tone and harmony. They open to man new horizons of beauty and happiness.

And yet, improperly played, these four strings can bring forth unbelievable discord!

There are four strings in life — with similar possibilities. Mind... Character... Courage... Faith!

The truths that fill our minds, the ideals that mold our character, the purposes to which our courage is given, the realities in which we believe; these can fill our lives with rich beauty and happiness or drab ugliness and sorrow.

For centuries the Church has been the maestro of these strings of life — helping men to bring from their own souls the harmony and beauty God has put there.

You can find music in everyday living through participation in the work of the Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor in work for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a schoolhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Mrs. Ozello Perry took her sister, Mrs. Inez Lancaster, to Harrison County last Sunday.

The Mother-Daughter Banquet for the G.A.'s of Oak Ridge Baptist Church was quite successful, with almost 100 per cent attendance. The tables were decorated with purple lilies and white spirea, and the place cards were made in the form of G.A. Queen dolls. A film "Honor Thy Family" was shown following the dinner, which was served by members of the W.M.S. Those present were Mrs. Clayton Works and daughters, Sharon and Martha Ann, Mrs. Clara Byrd and daughters, Mary and Myrtle, Mrs. G. C. Richardson and daughters, Debbie and Terri, Mrs. Reelford Justice, Theresa and Kay, Mrs. Clifford Webster and Emma, Mrs. Bill Harris and Tish, Mrs. R. S. Richardson and Sandy, Mrs. Bill Corbin and Nancy, Mrs. Arthur Brosemore and Holly, Mrs. James Burris, Robert and Charlotte, Mrs. Helen Hollingsworth, Linda Judy and Delores, Mrs. William Waters and Joy, Mrs. Robert Butte and Nancy, and Mrs. W. C. Tallent.

Mrs. Gertrude Mitchell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hutchins.

Tiff Richardson was sick in bed last week-end.

Marvin Perry was home from Morehead College last week-end.

Mrs. Claude Stafford and Mr. Ed Wintner were patients at St. Elizabeth Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rust and children attended the Tulip Festival in Holland, Mich., last week.

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club held a workshop on making Mosaic Tile candy dishes, at the home of Mrs. Ollie Miller recently. They will hold a lamp workshop at the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company May 26th at 10 a.m.

A section of the Warsaw-Markland Dam on the Ohio River was explained recently to members of the Warsaw Lions Club by two members of the Corps of Engineers, Peter J.

Clement and Ben Kaelin. In the above photo they are pointing to concrete piers on the miniature dam upon which will rest the anticipated roadway connecting Kentucky and Indiana. Possibilities are that the completion of the dam is some three years away. The two giant locks are now in operation—Ky. Dept. of Public Relations Photo

Ryland Homemakers

"Outdoor Cookery" is fun for everyone was pointed out in a lesson presented to Ryland Homemakers by Mrs. J. E. Mueller at a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. Everett Wilson. She stated, "Fresh air, the aroma of meat cooking, and the feeling of relaxation are all responsible for the enjoyment received from cooking outdoors."

Mrs. Leslie Smith presided, and the devotional on prayer, was given by Mrs. Harold Ward.

Prune flowering shrubs as soon as they have finished blooming was the advice from Mrs. J. H. Lawson during her garden report.

A tour of Kroger's is scheduled for May 26, at 10:30 a. m. Anyone wishing to attend, call Mrs. Leslie Smith, Fleetwood, 7-2697.

Members present were: Mesdames Harold Halfhill, C. J. Castleberry, F. B. Hermes, A. R. Hicks, George Campbell, J. H. Lawson, William Daman, William P. Schwall, Harold ard, Leslie Smith, J. E. Mueller, and Miss Ruth Schmidt.

The "June meeting will be in the home of Mrs. William P. Schwall at which time the noon meal will be prepared outdoors on the grill by the cookery leaders.

The William Whitley House, off U. S. 150, between Crab Orchard and Stanford, is one of Kentucky's most historic shrines. Built by Col. William Whitley, whose initials are over the front door, it was the first brick house in Kentucky, and a center of religious, political and social life on the Wilderness Road. Now restored and filled with 18th Century furnishings, the house is open to the public.

Lombricht Circle

Lombricht Circle of First Baptist Church, Walton, met in the home of Mary Kay Hendricks. Instead of the usual program, Mrs. Prairier is teaching the book, "Educating Our Youth In Missions." This will also be the program for June and July. It is a very good book and the circle invites anyone who would like to become a member to start during this study course.

Those present were Mrs. Charles Prairier, chairman; Mabel Johnson, Lottie Lunch, Helen Breeden, Wil-anna Kilgore, Mary Alice Kidwell, Minnie Seay, Betty Johnson, Kaye Thompson, Mary Kay Hendricks, and a visitor, Bertha Moses. Following the business session, refreshments were served.

Miss Sherry Marlene Stephenson had as Sunday afternoon guest, Miss Kathryn Flynn.

Sampson-McNeely Circles

The Mary Sampson and McNeely Circles met Thursday, May 12, at First Baptist Church, Walton, with ten Sampson and eleven McNeely members present.

A delightful lunch was served, with Rev. and Mrs. Joe Tackett and Mrs. Lloyd Shields as dinner guests.

Following lunch, Mrs. H. P. Gouge led the program, the topic being, "Educating Youth In Missions," after which business sessions were held by each circle. The next meeting will be at the church, at 1:00 p. m.

Rose Marlowe Circle

Mrs. Ben Jump was hostess to the Rose Marlowe Circle of First Baptist Church, Walton, recently.

Mrs. William Locke conducted the business session and Mrs. D. K. Johnson taught from the book "Educating Youth In Missions."

Members in attendance were Mrs. D. K. Johnson, Mrs. Melvin Jones,

Mrs. Homer Winburn, Mrs. Leo Flynn, Mrs. Robert Stephenson, Mrs. Della Glacken, Mrs. W. D. Locke, Mrs. Kenneth Johnson and the hostess, Mrs. Jump.

Final Meeting of Boone County 4-H Tractor School Held

The final meeting of the Boone County 4-H Tractor School was held at the Courthouse in Burlington recently.

Twenty-four 4-H'ers had completed their project books. Marvin Davidson, Assistant County Agricultural Agent, said the school was very successful this year even though the heavy snows in February did cut attendance at some meetings.

4-H members receiving prizes on their project books were: First year, first prize, Johnny Burke, and second prize, Terry Roberts; second year, first prize, Duane Dringenburg, and second prize, Lawrence Barnes; third year, first prize, Wayne Toole. Prizes donated were: Calvin Cress and Son, cutting torch and tire pump; Erlanger Tractor, set of socket wrenches, Robert erts Implement, oil can, and Ferguson Implement, pliers.

At the meeting leaders, dealers, and top 4-H members were recognized for their contribution toward the 4-H program. This is the third year for the school in this county. Woodford Crigler and Beckham Shields provide the leadership in this project. Mr. Crigler has been in the program since its beginning in Boone county three years ago and had the honor of being selected to represent Kentucky leaders in the regional contest at Springfield, Mo., in 1958. Mr. Shields is in his second year of tractor school work and is doing an outstanding job.

The four tractor dealers in the county cooperate in the school to the fullest extent. They provide a place for the school to meet, refreshments and awards. The group was happy to have the Ferguson Implement Company, Union, join their ranks in sponsoring the school this year. Ferguson Implement will be the sponsor of the 4-H calendar during 1961.

Fertilization of Hay Checked In UK Tests

Yields of hay per acre did not vary significantly even when fertilizer was applied at different times during the growing season, UK Experiment Station researchers at Lexington, reported this week.

E. C. Doll, fertility specialist, said the hay crop tested was a combination of orchardgrass and red clover. He applied needed fertilizers in early spring; or after the first cutting; or after the second cutting, and finally, one in late August or early September.

This was tried at two Kentucky locations—Greenville in Muhlenberg county and Campbellsville in Taylor county—for two years. But the yields did not vary greatly at either location from the varied applications.

Doll said the applications were for maintenance purposes; fertility specialists recommended that pastures and hay fields get such a maintenance application annually to keep up production, hold stands and keep down weeds.

Doll said the plots which got the maintenance dressing after the first cutting were "just slightly higher" than the others, and that the plots getting the early spring dressing were "just slightly lower" than the others. But none of these were significantly higher or lower, he added.

He applied 300 pounds per acre of an 0-10-20 fertilizer, which was then the recommended maintenance amount; after the test started, the recommendation was changed to 300 pounds of 0-20-20 mixture, but Doll said he would stay with the 0-10-20 throughout the remainder of the test for uniformity's sake.

The varied application system will be continued experimentally for several years, he noted, to thoroughly check the practice. He personally likes the late summer application as the farm work load is less heavy then.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON
By Cll Klegbury

The Boy Scouts:

This year, as you may know, is the 50th anniversary of the Boy Scout movement.

What many, perhaps, do not know is that a Kentuckian, Dan Beard, is generally given credit with establishing the Scout movement in this land of ours. Dan lived in Covington, roamed the hills of the Licking River Valley, and taught thousands of youngsters to love the great outdoors.

Illustrates Son:

Today, living in Washington and an executive in National Park Service, is a son of that famous man, Daniel Bart Beard.

Bart never lived in Kentucky but he has visited his father's home state many times. The most recent was about a month ago when the Boy Scouts in Northern Kentucky dedicated a forest trail in honor of the founder.

At that time, Bart Beard was in charge of a Kentucky colonial.

A Life of Service:

Bart, like his father, has devoted his life to the outdoors and the education of Americans to love nature.

In his present position he is in charge of the museums and displays in the national parks. Those guides who take visitors on tour and give talks, all come under the Beard direction.

Last year, for example, more than two and a half million visitors took part in 117,000 tours.

Looks to Retirement:

Bart has served in many national parks and he was the first superintendent of the Everglades National Park.

Today the son of the famous Kentuckian lives in a suburb of Washington, tending to his flowers and looking forward to his next assignment in the field. He hopes it takes him to the Great Smokies for there he hopes to retire and again live the life of an outdoorsman.

State's Surplus Food Plan Best In the United States

The State is distributing more than 11 million dollars worth of federal surplus foods a year at a cost of about one-half of one percent per dollar of the wholesale value of the commodities, according to Agriculture Commissioner Emerson Beauchamp. Eighty-three Kentucky counties are now receiving federally donated foods for their needy people. Beauchamp reported this at a recent meeting of the Kentucky Division of Commodity Distribution for County Judges and Welfare Directors.

Kentucky's distribution program, administered by the State Department of Agriculture, is the best in the nation, Martin Garber, director of the Feed Distribution Division of the U. S. Agriculture Department, told the meeting.

Gov. Bert Combs commended the county officials for their conscientious service in providing sustenance for unfortunate people and adhering to the federal government's strict regulations concerning surplus foods.

Staffordsburg

Mrs. J. A. Keeney—FL 7-5018

Some kinds of medicine are a bit expensive but if they are effective we do not count the cost.

Dawson Ballinger had been under the weather all week. On Sunday morning he called his son in Arizona and after talking to him he was soon feeling much better.

Mr. Thomas Borkers who has been convalescing at the home of his daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Rice, was able on Sunday morning to visit his home for a short time.

A Retreat for ministers and lay-leaders of the Covington District, will be held at the church here on May 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Collins and Mr. and Mrs. William Collins and all their children called on Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Sturgeon on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyrone Payne had dinner on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Carsee Brinkley.

Mrs. Elmer Sturgeon was in the hospital a short time last week and will probably have to return for further treatment.

We have been requested to announce that Sunny Acres Methodist Church is running a bus service on Sunday morning starting at Whites Tower. It will arrive for Sunday School and remain for the Worship service. We hope enough folks will use it to make it worthwhile.

The W.C.S.C. are sponsoring the morning worship at the Staffordsburg Church on May 29. We think that we have an interesting speaker in view and hope to have a good attendance.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish are spending part of this week at their farm in Eminence, Ky. Their enthusiasm is understandable when we know they have not owned a home for over 40 years.

We just learned that Mr. Delmar Stephenson, Klein Road, has returned home from the hospital.

Mrs. Carsee Brinkley was really pepped up when she received a call from Lathen one day recently.

Rev. H. C. Ogles preached for us Sunday evening and then followed with the Quarterly Conference. It seems we will have a new deal all-around since Rev. Parish is retiring and Dr. Ogles will return to the pastorate.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brannock and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brannock came to visit Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Ballinger and not finding them at home went on the visit the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maddox. Miss Nannette Ballinger is spending the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Maddox.

Mrs. David Kennedy who attended the W.C.S.C. Conference at Cynthiana was the principal speaker at the May meeting in the church. She repeated the theme of the conference "Grow Him." At the close of the meeting a surprise stork shower was given for Mrs. Ronald Losey. She received some nice gifts and all enjoyed appropriate refreshments. Those attending were Mrs. David Kennedy, Mrs. Ronald Losey, Mrs. J. W. Parish, Mrs. George Finnell, Mrs. George Finnell Jr., Mrs. J. J. Barnett, Mrs. J. W. Shaw, Mrs. Melvin Bruggen, Miss Helen Richardson, Mrs. Dawson Ballinger, Mrs. E. B. Rich, Mrs. Donald Keeney, Mrs. Dorothy Ricketts and Mrs. J. A. Keeney.

Rev. and Mrs. Parish called on J. A. Keeney on Sunday afternoon as did also Mr. Earl Hanna, also Mr. and Mrs. Don Keeney and boys were the dinner guests.

We were honored to receive an invitation to the Ordination on June 11 and first Mass on June 12 of Rev. Irwin Wolke. After his long years of preparation this is both a joyous and solemn occasion. The way they are able to attend either ceremony, we do congratulate him and wish for him a long and useful life in his chosen work.

Until 1623, celery was used for medicinal purposes, according to the USDA. The Chinese used celery as a blood purifier; the Greeks believed it had a sedative effect, and the Abyssinians stuffed their pillows with celery leaves to cure headaches. The volatile oil from ripe celery seed is used today as a sedative in medicine.

Oats Price Support

The price of 1960-crop oats in Kentucky will be supported at .60 cents a bushel for Grade No. 3, Chairman William O. Gilbreath of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee announced today. Price support on oats will be continued, as in previous years, through loans on farm-stored and warehouse-stored oats and through purchase agreements. Support will be available from the harvest time this summer through January 31, 1961.

To be eligible for support, oats must grade No. 3 or better or No. 4 on the factor of test weight only. There will be a premium of one cent a bushel for Grade No. 2 or better, or for heavy test weight and two cents for extra heavy test weight. Discounts are one cent a bushel for Grade No. 4 on test weight only and three cents a bushel for garlicky oats.

Card of Thanks—

We wish, from the very bottom of our hearts, to thank the people of Walton and area, for the wonderful help they gave us since our loss by fire. A person never knows really how many people care for them, until disaster strikes. We will forever remember the hundreds that helped in so many ways. May God bless each of you!

VOTERS ATTENTION

I want to express my gratitude to the voters of this county for the courtesies extended me in my campaigning.

If you believe in blowing the bubble of inflation a little bigger, paying more taxes, and squandering the money we send to Washington, I am not the man you need in Congress.

On the other hand, if it is your conviction to stabilize conditions and get our government in an economic balance, GIVE ME YOUR SUPPORT.

May I plead with the farmer, leave your plow and line up at the polls on May 24th, to help adjust these conditions.

Boone County 4-H Club Rally Day, May 14th

Approximately two hundred and fifty 4-H'ers, 4-H leaders, and parents attended the annual Boone County 4-H Spring Rally, held at the Burlington Grade School, May 14, according to Marvin Davidson, 4-H assistant county agent, and Mrs. Gertrude Paparito, home demonstration agent.

The program opened with the pledge to the American flag, led by Donald Maddox, Florence, and the pledge to the 4-H flag, led by Miss Sue Groves, Lebanon.

Thirty-five club members took part in the dairy judging held at Boone County Farms. Here the 4-H'ers had an opportunity to view Bountock Ormby Pat, the American Holstein, 2-year-old bull of 1958, and the All American Holstein, aged bull of 1959. The youngsters did quite well in placing the dairy cows judged.

In the junior demonstration divisions, the following girls were champions: General, Kathy Kraus, Florence; Electric, Geraldine Thomas, Florence; Corn Meal, Jane Kohman, Florence.

In the senior girls demonstrations, Lynne Flynn, Walton, was champion; Betty Jones, Walton, was first alternate.

The following junior boys were champions in demonstrations: Individual Electric, Robert Thomas, of Florence; team, Rick Criss and John Malapelle, Burlington; General, Duane Dringburg, Florence; Billy Fox, Burlington, was champion in the senior boys demonstration.

In speech, the following girls were champion: Senior Division, Betty Jones, Walton; Junior Division, Geraldine Thomas, Florence. In the boys speech division, Sidney Tongret, Union, was champion.

The Dress Revue is always the highlight of Spring Rally. In the Revue, girls model clothing made in their sewing project. Champions of the various units were: Unit I, apron, Joan Foltz; Unit II, skirt with blouse made by girl, Gail Holienkamp; Unit III, skirt with purchased blouse, Marilyn Scroggins; Unit IV, simple cotton dress, Linda Lou Woods; Unit V, dress-up clothes, Bonnie Carroll; Unit VI, dress-up dress, Lynne Flynn.

Lynne Flynn, Walton, was selected grand champion of the Dress Revue, and will represent this county in the state show in Lexington, during 4-H Week, June 7-11.

Champions of the junior and senior demonstrations and of the speech contest will compete at the district 4-H rally at Westminster, May 28. The senior champions in the district event will compete on the state level at the State Fair in September.

Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club Enjoys Program-Meeting

A meeting of the Piner Busy Bee 4-H Club was called to order April 29 by the president, Bruce Lunsford. The Beauties were ready Donny Bagby, and prayer was given by Jennings Roy. Joanne Jackson led the group in the pledge to the American flag, after which, Libby Abel led the group in the 4-H pledge. James Cook, secretary, called the roll, which was answered by naming a vegetable members would like to plant in their garden. The secretary then read the minutes of the last meeting, followed by the treasurer's report by Jennings Roy. This was followed by the reporter's report by Amer Penick.

The meeting was then turned over to the vice-president, Linda Campbell. The seventh grade song, leaders led the group in "Dixie" and "Marines Hymn." The program was as follows: "Widow Simpkins," Mike Davis and Libby Abel; "Gee Whiz," Dennis Forehand; "Spring," Linda and Linda Campbell; "Little Red Riding Hood," Jerry Spegel; clarinet solo, Jennings Roy; 4-H play, Linda Campbell, Kay Cummins, Linda Howard and Joanne Jackson; accordion solo, Bruce Lunsford; song, "Somebody Bigger Than You and I," Linda Campbell, Kay Cummins, Linda Howard and Libby Abel; accordion solo, Jerry Spegel; Bill of Rights, grade seven; "Spring," song, seventh grade; Miss Marmum and Mr. Maddox gave talks.

The musical accompaniment was furnished by Mrs. Roberto Steinhauser, and the program was under the direction of Mrs. McGibney, the seventh grade teacher.

Mayor Hall Proclaims May 28 As Poppy Day

A proclamation has been issued by Mayor Leon B. Hall designating Saturday, May 28 as Poppy Day in Walton.

The poppies, made by veterans in VA hospitals, will be on sale that day by members of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Proceeds from this annual sale are used for rehabilitation of hospitalized veterans. Some of them have been in the hospital for years and many will spend the rest of their lives there. This money goes to buy stamps and furnish gifts for them that they may be able to remember their families. Let's "Honor the dead and remember the living," by buying a poppy on May 28.

INDEPENDENCE FIRE PLEDGE DATE NEAR

Fire protection pledges of residents of Independence and surrounding area are due June 1. The American Foundation for the Study of Biological Research and the ABS City Office, Rockefeller Prentice addressed the group at a luncheon at the Merchandise Mart during their visit to Chicago.

The pledge schedule is $5.00 per house and two buildings; $2.00 for each additional building; a maximum of $10, and $10.00 for businesses, and $15.00 for service stations.

Mr. Armstrong said fire runs to places not covered by pledges will be $25.00 for other types and $100 for any other type blaze.

To Help Alleviate Tobacco Plant Shortage In State

The Kentucky Agricultural Extension Service has organized to alleviate the tobacco plant shortage of the state, according to Joe Clancy, Boone County Agricultural Extension Agent. Russell Hunt, tobacco specialist, said his office has established a clearinghouse to speed exchange of plants where needed in the state. Drought conditions have cut tobacco production seriously this season, though Hunt says that with "careful husbandry" Kentucky should have enough plants to meet 1960 crop needs.

Here's how the system works, he said: Hunt has contacted all county agents (120 of them) in the state. Each county has returned to him a form telling whether the county is short of plants, whether it has enough for its own county only, or whether it has a surplus of plants that could be sent to other counties.

Agents in "short" counties can call or write Hunt at his Lexington office in the UK Agricultural Experiment Station building. Hunt will tell them where plants may be procured. The farmers needing plants should get in touch with the county agent's office, Phone JU 6-6412.

Hunt said farmers should decide first whether they have enough plants for their own crop; then whether they have enough left over to help their neighbors; and third, whether they then have a surplus that can be sent to other areas.

Hunt says the critical situation will prevail until general rains occur in the state.

REUBEN SMEAL

Reuben W. Smeal, Cincinnati Transit Company mechanic, died Tuesday, May 17, at his home on Wilson Road, Boone County. He was 64 years old.

Mr. Smeal is survived by his widow, Mrs. Viola Glaser Smeal; four daughters, Mrs. Virginia Kruse of Walton, and Gloria, Joyce and Theresa Smeal, all at home; five sons, William Smeal of Higginson, Conn., James Smeal, Korea, and Alfred, Charles and Richie Smeal, all at home; a brother, Sylvester Smeal, Pennsylvania, and a sister, Mrs. Goldie McCormick, Youngstown, O.

CONTEST WINNER

Ankerbeck Anne Morgan

Mrs. Anna B. Morgan, special education teacher, sent in five entries for the Cincinnati Gas and Electric Company's "Our House" contest. Students entering sketches and stories of why they liked to heat their homes with gas were: Alvin Perry, Giles Moore, Kenneth McCulley, Carl Lundy and Billy Ankerbeck.

The contest for first, second and third grades in the Greater Cincinnati service area closed March 31. Mrs. Morgan and her class were very proud to have one of their classmates, Billy Ankerbeck, win the March contest. He received a $25 U. S. Bond, and the class $10.00.

The class voted to spend the money for ten life-size bird models as well as some reading and number games. Each child sent a thank-you note to the Gas and Electric Co. Billy, along with all other monthly winners and the three grand award winners appeared on last week's "Treasure" program on WLWT.

Mrs. Morgan resides just north of Walton; and teaches in the Cincinnati School System.

W. ALBERT PETTIT

W. Albert Pettit, 70, retired partner in the Gullett and Pettit General Store, Burlington, died Wednesday, May 18, at his home in Burlington.

He was a member of the Burlington Baptist Church, and of Lodge 12004, Modern Woodmen of America.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Fannie Pettit; four daughters, Mrs. Albert Robinson and Mrs. Mary J. Clure, both of Burlington; Mrs. Laura Ogden of Crescent Springs, and Mrs. Katherine Presnell of Florence; one brother, James Pettit, Florence, and five sisters, Mrs. Pearl Gullett, Mrs. Nellie Gullett, Mrs. Rosa Gullett, Mrs. Anna Gullett, and Miss Lena Pettit, all at Burlington.

Services were held Saturday afternoon in the Fifth Funeral Home, Florence. Burial was in Burlington Cemetery.

VISALIA P. T. A.

Mr. William George, director of the Visalia Elementary School Band, presented the program at the final meeting of the Visalia P.T.A.

The band is made up of thirteen players, three flutes, three clarinets, three trombones, three trumpets, and one drummer. They played "Peggy O'Malley," "Marine's Hymn," "This Old Man" and "America."

Mrs. Ralph Fennell, president, conducted the business meeting and Mrs. Howard Fredericks gave the devotion. The fifth grade won the room count.

On Executive Council

Miss Karen Gahn, a sophomore at Cumberland College, has been chosen for the coming year on the Executive Council of the B.S.U. Recently she spent a week-end at Camp Cedars for the Spring Retreat.

Wheat Disposal Deadline June 1 Says Chairman

Chairman Russell Rector of the Kenton County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, today reminded wheat growers that the deadline for disposing of excess wheat is June 1. That is the date by which the grower who wishes to comply with his 1960 wheat allotment must dispose of any excess wheat.

The grower who brings his acreage for harvest down to this allotment, Mr. Rector said, may market all his wheat without penalty, is eligible for wheat price support, and Conservation Reserve payments and gets credit for acreage diverted from wheat in computing future allotments.

Farmers who have any questions about excess wheat disposal are urged to get in touch with the county ASC office for further information.

School Levy Loses In Boone County

Keen Johnson won the Democratic nomination for U. S. Senator from Kentucky, Tuesday. He will oppose Republican Senator John Sherman Cooper in the November 9 general election.

Johnson, backed by the state administration led by John Y. Brown by almost 28,000 votes with tabulations of the primary election vote 70 percent completed. The vote stood at 69,105 for Johnson, and 50,212 for Brown.

Early returns already had assured Cooper an easy victory over Thurman J. Hamlin of London.

The veteran representative, Brent Spence, had not trouble winning the Democratic nomination in the 11th Congressional District. He polled 14,647 votes—by far the most cast for any candidate in either party in the district. His Republican opponent, apparent winner by a 19-vote margin will be Julie Appel, a political newcomer. Appel won 1443 to 1424 over Clyde W. Middleton, unofficial returns indicated.

SCHOOL LEVY LOSSES

Boone county voters Tuesday defeated a special $50-50-cent special school levy by a vote of 1472 to 980. Proceeds from the levy would have been used for new school construction. H. N. Ockerman, school superintendent, said, "the vote was not unexpected, but it will mean overcrowding of schools, especially in Florence." However, he added, "it means only that we will try again."

Plan Fall Convention

State officers of the Y-Teens of the YWCA in Kentucky, including Miss Mary Boyd, of Simon Kenton High School, Independence, met on May 14 in Lexington to make plans for the fall convention October 15 at Mt. Sterling High School. The convention will be guests of the Mt. Sterling Y-Teen Club sponsored by Miss Clara B. Lane.

Mary Sampson Circle

The Mary Sampson Circle had its monthly meeting at the church with eight members, and three children present.

The first part of the book "Educating Youth in Missions" was taught by Mrs. Goulet.

Our next meeting will be held at the church on June 7th at 1 o'clock.

Memorial Day Parade, Services Set For Monday

Johnson-McElroy Post, No. 277, American Legion, is sponsoring the annual Memorial Day parade and services, honoring our departed loved ones, on Monday, May 30.

The parade will group behind the Walton Baptist Church at 9:00 a.m., and all organizations are cordially invited to participate in this event. The parade will depart at 9:30 a.m. and march down Main Street and Church Street to the Walton Cemetery. Music for this year's parade will be furnished by the Walton-Vernon School Band.

Memorial services in the cemetery are expected to commence at 9:50 a.m., with local ministers participating with the American Legion in this impressive service.

Resolution of Respect

WALTON CHAPTER, No. 161, Order of The Eastern Star
Walton, Ky.
RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT in memory of our dear Sister Ella Collins, who passed away April 10th, 1960—

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, to call unto Himself our beloved sister, Ella Collins, our chapter has lost a valuable member, her community a good citizen. Many of us have suffered the loss of a good friend, and her husband a kind and faithful companion. She was a member of Walton Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, No. 161. She leaves her husband and a host of sorrowing friends. Even though we will miss her, her influence will live in the hearts of those who loved her. For her the fury of life's tempest has abated, the dark clouds have been lifted, the sunlight of His Righteousness floods her soul. The Rainbow of Eternal Hope spans the Heavens as she reaches the open gate where the warm handclasp of a welcome home awaits her coming. May her mantle fall on those whom she loved, and so faithfully served, and we may we too live so that death will hold no terrors for us who remain. Death is but the crossing over the threshold from the Earthly to the Eternal.

Be it therefore resolved that we extend her husband our heartfelt and sincere sympathy. Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of our chapter, a copy sent to her husband, and a copy be given to the Walton Advertiser for publication.

Respectfully submitted this 5th day of May, 1960

Sod Webworm Pest Control Due Now

The sod webworm, a lawn insect that damages lawn grass, should be controlled now says Ken Starks, UK Experiment Station entomologist, in Lexington.

The sod webworms actually are the feeding stage of a moth; they are light brown colored and covered with fine hairs. They do their feeding at night, and remain dormant during the day. Lawn damage can be very severe, especially in dry weather. During the spring the worms emerge as miller moths and there can be three or four broods each year.

Starks recommends the material Dieldrin as a spray. Dosage is one-half pint of the emulsion concentrate mixed with two to three gallons of clean water, per 1,000 square feet of lawn. He advises against use of granules (a form about the consistency of fine sand) as they have not proved very effective in tests.

It is better to cut the lawn before spraying, Starks says. Children and pets should not be allowed to play on the sprayed lawns until the liquid insecticide has dried on the foliage after application.

Plan on the following yields when processing strawberries: one quart of fresh berries will give five half-cup servings or a 9-inch pie; one 16-quart crate of berries will yield about 20 to 24 pints frozen or about 24 pints of preserves.

Clair Timothy Demonstrations Arranged by UK

Demonstration plots of Clair timothy, a new variety developed by the UK Agricultural Experiment Station, Lexington, two years ago, will be grown this year in eight counties, the Kentucky Seed Improvement Association said this week.

Clair timothy was developed and exhaustively tested by the station agronomy department from seed furnished by an Indiana farmer a number of years ago. The variety was found growing many years ago, near a steamboat landing on the Ohio River; seed from this source was grown by the farmer a number of years before it was offered UK for testing purposes.

B. W. Fartenbery, KSIA manager, and Warren Thompson, Extension Service agronomist, said the demonstration plots are as follows: Daviess county, A. R. Taylor and Son, west of Owensboro on Ky.

Route 81; Warren county, Western State College Farm, horticulture department; Grant county, Abram H. Hedges, Dry Ridge; Jefferson county, Oxmoor Farms, W. E. Shaw, Shelbyville Road; Robertson county, specific location to be announced later by county agent; Metcalfe county, Fred Num farm, 3 miles southwest of Edmanton; Hickman county, Thurman Pharis, Ky. Route 288, 6 miles northeast of Clinton, and Fayette county, UK farm.

County agents can be contacted for visits to the various plots. Agronomists say Clair timothy is outstanding in vigor, persistence and yields under Kentucky conditions.

Movie On State Attractions Now Being Filmed

Commissioner of Public Relations Paul Brannon, Frankfort, has announced that filming has started on a color movie about Kentucky. The 16 mm sound film will include scenes from state parks and shrines, national parks and general tourist attractions.

Brannon said initial shooting has been completed at Bluegrass horse farms, Keeneland and Churchill Downs. The film is expected to be ready for distribution by the first of the year.

The film will be divided into two parts and can be used as two 13½ minute films or a complete 27 minute movie. The first part will feature state and national parks and shrines, and the second part will include general tourist attractions. Scenes will be included from the Mountain Laurel Festival and the two summer theaters at Pineville and Bardonia.

Copies of the film will be made available without charge for showing by schools, churches, clubs and civic organizations.

The movie is being filmed with a new process film making it possible to make 35 mm prints for use in commercial theaters.

The Department's last tourist film was made in 1952. The new movie is being made by Film Producers, Inc., Chicago.

In the Old State Capitol, Frankfort, are 71 letters written by James Lane Allen, Kentucky author.

ERLANGER, KENTUCKY

This advertisement, first published in June of last year, was received with immediate and widespread acclaim throughout the South. In response to many suggestions that its inspiring message bears repeating, we are happy to do so at this time.

STAY SOUTH, YOUNG MAN!

WHERE WERE YOUR DREAMS for the future, on your glorious day of Graduation? Were they up in the clouds where they belong, because horizons are as limitless as the skies today for young men of character and competence, vision and faith?

Hold those dreams high, young man, and stay South to see them come true. For right here at home, in the South you know and live in and love, a great new opportunity-land is coming of age, where dreams that are born on the wings of a star can come down to earth and grow into reality.

A recent U. S. Department of Commerce report shows that since World War II the economic development of the South has outpaced the national rate of growth in almost every category you can name. Along Southern Railway lines alone, in the 8-year period 1952 to 1960, there have been 2,690 major industrial developments representing an investment of more than $4 billion.

Look ahead—stay South, young man. Stay South and grow with America's "youngster" opportunity-land.

Oak Ridge Homemakers

The Oak Ridge Homemakers Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Blake in Plantation Heights. A lesson on outdoor cookery was presented by Mrs. Charles Cummins and many recipes for outdoor cookery were distributed. The club plans an outdoor barbecue for their picnic in July at the home of Mrs. Rose Kennedy. A lamp workshop at the Cincinnati Lamp and Electric is planned for May 26th at 10 a.m. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Joseph Flack in Edgewood, at which time a Citizenship program will be presented by Citizenship chairman, Mrs. Chester Barton, with a talk on Hawaii by Mrs. J. C. Beall. Those present at the meeting were: Mrs. Chester Tallent, Mrs. T. B. Renaker, Mrs. Edith Piper, Mrs. Ollie Miller, Mrs. Arnold Napier, Mrs. Reece Kennedy, Mrs. Joseph Flack, Mrs. Harry Collier, Mrs. Chester Barton, Mrs. Charles Asch, Mrs. Edward Rust, Mrs. Kenneth Blake, Mrs. Kenneth Galloway, Mrs. Leo Krout, Mrs. Charles Cummins, and a guest, Mrs. William Bogby, and two children.

Savory Topped Fish
(Serves 4)

4 fillets of sole
¼ teaspoon salt
Dash of pepper
1 cup ripe olives
2 cups day-old bread crumbs
¼ cup chili sauce
2 tablespoons pickle relish
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1½ teaspoons instant minced onion
3 tablespoons butter
Pit and cut olives, then blend with all ingredients except fish. Place fish in greased shallow pan and spread crumb mixture over fish. Pour ¼ cup water around fish. Bake, uncovered, in a moderately hot (375°F.) oven for about 45 minutes.

cup honey and drizzle over sweet potatoes to finish them off properly. Sprinkle pecan halves over the syrup if you want to make it a party dish. Add chunks of lobster or crabmeat to frozen cream of shrimp soup and heat in double boiler or chafing dish. Spoon this over toast to serve in petty shells. It's quick and easy for guests. Dress up a green molded salad with slices of apples which have been spiced with cinnamon stick and the tart cinnamon candies cooked in a syrup. Roll herb bread into fine crumbs and use this for breading chicken before frying if you want a real taste treat.

Pt. Pleasant Homemakers
 The Point Pleasant Homemakers held their May meeting in the home of Mrs. Leonard Smeltzer, Airport Road.

Nominees for the following year are: President, Mrs. John Darby; vice president, Mrs. Stanley Schulte; secretary, Mrs. Jack Brewer; and treasurer, Mrs. Stanley Wuestfeld. A lesson, "Everything In Its Place," was given by Mrs. Leslie Stephenson. The June meeting will be held in connection with a picnic at the Mid-Valley Pipe Line.

Others attending were Mrs. Geo. Copeland, Mrs. Fred Black, Mrs. Daniel Conrad, Mrs. Ben Otten, Mrs. James Dolwick, Mrs. Leslie Stephenson, Mrs. Robert Dolwick, Mrs. John Chaddon, and a guest, Mrs. George Pierce.

Honored On Birthday

Newal B. Segal was honored with a surprise birthday dinner at his home near Fiskburg, Sunday, May 15. Those attending brought covered dishes, which provided a very enjoyable meal.

Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Marian Martin, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Harker, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bridges, Rev. and Mrs. Wm. T. McGibney, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mullins and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Steinhauer and Sammy, Mr. and Mrs. James Cummings, Doris and Fran, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Segal, Becky, Phillip, Paula and Crista, Mr. and Mrs. B. N. Segal, Linda, Jerry, Glenn and Ada Gail, the guest of honor and his wife.

Beacon Class to Meet

The Beacon Class of the Walton Methodist Church will meet May 27 at 8:00 p. m., in the home of Mrs. Lois Cain, near Fiskburg.

Oak Island Homemakers

The tantalizing aroma of barbecue smoke and sizzling meat on an outdoor grill greeted the Oak Island Homemakers as they met for their May meeting at the Oak Island Baptist Church.

Mrs. Donald Dressman and Mrs. Gaylon Sipple gave the lesson on "Outdoor Cookery." Barbecued hamburgers, vegetable kabobs and fruit kabobs were cooked and served with that mouth-watering flavor and juicy goodness to members and guests. Several suggestions for hearty, satisfying out-of-door foods were given to put a zip in summer meals.

Mrs. Dressman made a clever arrangement of flowers for the church at Easter. Her artistic touch was enjoyed by the community as well as members of the club. Mrs. Don Riddell gave the devotional and read the Homemakers Collect.

Guests were Miss Alma Stephens and Miss Ruth Schmidt, while members present included Mrs. Frank Jackson, Mrs. Arthur Steely, Mrs. Robert Wainwright, Mrs. Russell Rector, Mrs. Donald Riddell, and Mrs. Donald Dressman.

Cemetery Ass'n To Meet

The annual meeting of the Richwood Cemetery Association will be held on Monday, May 30, at 10:30 a. m. (EST) at the Richwood Presbyterian Church.

All who have lots in the cemetery and all other interested friends are invited and urged to attend this important meeting.

Operation Alert 1960 will be conducted May 3-5 in Kentucky by the State Division of Civil Defense in cooperation with the U. S. Office of Civil Defense Mobilization.

KENTUCKIANS

IN WASHINGTON

By Gil Kingsbury

Special Attention:

Kentucky came in for special attention this week as two Blue Grass lawmakers took to the floor to tell of both our problems and accomplishments.

Congressman Natcher of the Second District explained to his congressional colleagues the need for an appropriation for tobacco research. He pointed out that income from that crop provides eight states with a major source of revenue.

Asks $250,000:

At that point, Bill Natcher pointed out that there has been little change in mechanization for many, many years. He said that work methods are almost entirely manual and that between 400 and 500 hours of labor are necessary to harvest one acre of tobacco.

And then Congressman Natcher put in a plug for an appropriation of $250,000 to be used at the University of Kentucky for research. He told his associates that the state of Kentucky itself will spend a million dollars to put up a research laboratory.

Uncle Sam Gets A Cut:

To bolster his argument, Mr. Natcher said that the Federal Government alone gets 2½ billion dollars each year in tobacco taxes.

Mr. Natcher also put in a plug for the county extension workers, pointing out their need for adequate salaries. He also spoke of the soil conservation service and said that 86,000 Kentucky farmers are participating in the program.

Stubblefield Speaks:

The new congressman from western Kentucky, Frank Stubblefield, also was heard from with a report on electrification.

Twenty-five years ago, he told Congress, only three percent of the farms in the state had electricity. Today, he continued, 98 percent are wired for power and light. All this means that appliance dealers are getting an added income as farmers purchase new equipment to make life a bit easier.

The same Corvair that tallied a thumping 27.03 miles per gallon* in the Mobilgas Economy Run . . . went right on to climb Pikes Peak earlier in the spring than any car has ever tried!

We wanted to show you what the fabulous traction of Corvair's rear-engine design and the sure-footedness of four-wheel independent suspension really mean. So the identical Economy Run car went right on to 14,110-foot Pikes Peak—and right up to the top of that savage mountain, on April 15, still deep in winter's snow and ice. No other car—even specially equipped—had ever been able to conquer that nightmare alpine road so early in the spring. But Corvair (with United States Auto Club officials aboard to certify that not one nut or bolt was changed) purred right to the summit without chains or even snow tires! That just underscores the fact that Corvair is totally unique. But you'll find that out the first five minutes you're at the wheel!

History of Walton and Verona Schools

A history of the Walton and Verona schools was read recently at a PTA meeting. It was an interesting story, and was as follows:

VERONA

As early as 1880 there were two schools in Verona, one the public, or grade school, operated by the county, and the other a private school, grade and high school, known as "The League Institute," started by Miss Nannie Hamilton. As one would say, "you went to school until you were tired," but most of the education was through the eighth grade.

More is known of the League Institute than the public school in Verona. There was a tuition fee of $50.00 per year for each student

In connection with the school, a boarding house was maintained and cottages furnished to take care of many boys and girls from communities several miles away, who wanted a higher education, since the League Institute was one of the few schools in Northern Kentucky to offer a four year high school course.

Two courses of study were offered: the Scientific, which covered subjects such as Algebra, Science, History, English, and the like; and the Classical course, which stressed foreign languages, Latin, German, and the cultural subjects of Music, Art, and Public Speaking.

The private school was started by Miss Nannie Hamilton and it continued as a private school until around 1910. By this time it had consolidated with the public school. Then in 1914 the present building at Verona was erected. This high school lasted until the fall of 1935, when it became consolidated with Walton.

Miss Nannie Hamilton taught until well up in her eighties. Other teachers about the turn of the century in the League Institute were: Miss Madelyn Pfeiffer, Miss Lula Forward, a Miss Culbertson, and a Miss Moore. Some of these came from the Conservatory of Music and the Schuster Martin School in Cincinnati, to hold their classes in some of the classical subjects. Jim Croven, Lizzie Roberts and Lillie Rouse were some of the teachers in the public school.

WALTON

As early as 1880 there was a public school on the site of the old school and it was operated by the county. This was a grade school only. The first school in Walton to offer high school subjects was a private school. This school was started by Mrs. Clara Myers, who came to Kentucky from Vermont, and had attended Georgetown College.

Henry Newton was recognized in an Atlas published in 1883 as a "Teacher of the Select School, offering all branches of Mathematics and a regular course of thorough instruction." This private school lasted until 1902 when it became a public school. It was located at the site better known as the Ryle property, two doors north of the Walton Christian Church. Three living graduates of the last class to graduate from the Myers Private School were: Mrs. Julia Rouse, Walton; Walter Herndon, Lexington; and Mrs. Edna R. Metcalfe, Greenville, Ohio.

It seems that a Mr. Dickey was the first principal of the public school; we refer to the one built in 1901, on the same location as the public school referred to in the Atlas of 1883. This building consisted of six class rooms and an auditorium. There were four graduates in the first class, of which two are living: Miss Mattie Hudson, Walton, and Gertrude Curley Jackson, Tampa, Fla. There were no graduates in 1903, but there has been a graduating class every year since.

Here are some of the subjects taught: 4 years English, 4 years Latin, German, Geometry, Trigonometry, Ancient History, Astronomy, Botany, Composition, and Penmanship.

During the 58 years of the Walton and Verona schools, there is but one family to have three generations graduate from the school. Mrs. Viola Roberts graduated in the class of 1908; her son, Dan J. Roberts, in the class of 1930, and both of Dan's sons, Charles and Gayle, are more recent graduates.

Besides Mr. Dickey, the first principal, who left after three years to teach at Harvard College, there have been a number of principals of this grand old school. Some will be familiar, others were here before many of us were of school age.

Mr. Waldrup followed Mr. Dickey, and he is still living in Pennsylvania, retired. H. C. Wayman served as principal before 1910. C. O. Morgan was principal in 1910, and Kenneth Collins, a graduate of State University at Lexington, was his assistant. A. A. Kennett was an assistant under Mr. Wayman. The following may not be in exact order but it is an almost complete list of principals and/or superintendents of the Walton school: Jaylea Chambers, J. C. Gordon, Loenna Rhoades, W. R. Champion, L. E. McCarty, H. V. Price, Mr. Collins, C. S. Acro, Raymond Beverly (probably the most beloved and best remembered of those deceased), Walter Coop, H. P. Baker, J. O. Ward, Robert B. Isen, and Eugene Robinson.

Since the consolidation of the Walton and Verona schools, school heads have been referred to as superintendents. Mr. Beverly being the first. Mr. Coop was the principal and became superintendent following the death of Mr. Beverly in 1937.

William Ransler seems to have helped to get the Walton Public School started. This was the first public high school in the county. It was well known as a high school. People moved in from all over so their children could go to school here, or boarded them with friends or relatives.

In the fall of 1935 the Walton and Verona schools were consolidated into one school district. A grade school was maintained at Verona and the grade and high school at Walton, which became known as Walton-Verona School. In 1954 the present school building was completed.

In basketball there have been three teams to participate in the State Tournament, the teams of 1928, 1933, and 1942.

The Walton-Verona School has always maintained a high standard scholastically and, with the exception of during the war years and right after, has had an "A" rating.

Money, You and God

Lesson for May 29, 1960

MOST people find money a fascinating subject; and Christians are no exception. Yet it is strange that so many Christians never think about money from a Christian point of view. You may set this down for a fact: If a Christian takes precisely the same attitude to money as is taken by most persons who make no claim to religion, then his Christianity is sorely missing at that point.

Dr. Foreman

Slaves of Money

In a few sentences from the Sermon on the Mount we can get not all of what Jesus taught about money in relation to the Christian's life, but some of the main points. "You cannot be slaves of God and money," he said. (That is a literal translation of the Greek sentence at the end of Matt. 6:24.) Very few people worship or serve carved idols. God's chief rival for man's allegiance is not some gold-plated idol from the primitive world, it is money. What you think most of, what you think most about, what you work for, what you depend on, what you treasure about anything else—that is your God, that is your master, that is your reason for living. In that you put your hope, Jesus says it can't be God AND money, it is God OR money. Jesus does not say you cannot serve God with money, or that if you serve God you must not have any money. He says you cannot belong to God and belong to money at the same time. (Let the reader think: What are the signs of becoming a slave of money?)

You Can't Take It With You

Everybody knows you can't take money with you out of this world. Japanese coins are no good in America except as souvenirs. But the coin of no realm is any good in heaven, not even for souvenirs. Jesus told a parable of a rich farmer whose crops were so fine that his barns would not hold them. So he planned to build bigger barns. He gave no thought to what he might do with his wealth to help other people, only to himself. And one night God sent for his soul . . . so then he discovered that his soul was poor. It did not even have credit. He was not "rich toward God"—that is, from God's viewpoint he had nothing to his name. That's a thing Christians ought always to remember about money. Its value to a man is only temporary. It isn't true that "you'll be a long time dead." It's more true that you'll live enormously longer, in a world where money is no good, than you can ever live in this moneyed planet.

Your Father Knows

Another thing Jesus said: (Speaking of property of different kinds) "Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all." If he was not speaking of luxuries, but of necessities. There are religions in which "holy" men go about with begging-bowls, depending all their lives long on hand-outs from the (presumably) unholly wage-earners. Christianity is not that kind of religion. Refusal to earn a living in ordinary ways is not a mark of holiness in the Bible, and it is not with us. But there is a difference between earning the things that are needed to sustain our lives, and living for these things alone.

Seek the Kingdom

When a man is writing, his mind is not on his pen, it's on what he is saying. When a man is walking, he is not conscious of his shoes, or ought not to be. Pen and shoes are necessary, but they are means, tools, servants not masters. So it should be with money and the Christian. It is a means to an end . . . But to what end? Some readers wish Jesus had gone into more detail. What should be his central aim in life? "Serving God" to be sure, but how? Can he be served by everybody or only by preachers, while the rest of us have to struggle for "Mammon" the best we can?

Jesus hinted at the answer to this question. Seek first the Kingdom of God, he said. "Set your hearts" on it, as J. B. Phillips translated it. That is, whatever we do, whatever our occupation, trade or profession, our first aim should be to do it in line with the will of God.

Wickland, a house of historical and architectural distinction at Bardonia has been the home of three governors.

STANDARD
PROCEDURE

Mr. Welling mows his lawn every Saturday — he and his two assistants.

Technically, it's a one-man operation. But not to Billy and Jean. They insist on helping.

And, what is more, they NEED to help! Imitating what Daddy does is standard operating procedure for children. It's an essential part of growing up.

Remember this need as another Sunday approaches. You are alarmed over the spread of delinquency. You are determined that your children have adequate religious education.

The Church can provide all but one of the essentials in religious education. THE EXAM-PLE which affords real incentive for your children's every effort MUST COME FROM YOU.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .

ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a churchhouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

WHO USED-UP ALL THE HOT WATER

How many times have you repeated those very same words?

Yet, if you had an automatic ELECTRIC Water Heater of adequate size . . . there would always be enough piping-hot water for dishes, laundry, everything!

An appliance-styled tabletop or round ELECTRIC Water Heater can be conveniently installed . . . without vent or flue . . . in your kitchen, laundry . . . even in a closet.
